

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 165– 166

Chapter 165

In Yingxin Technology, Miriam and Mu Ming returned to the department, and a group of people came from the side, probably just after a meeting, headed by Mr. Henry.

Miriam waved her hand to let Mu Ming go in first, and when everyone walked in front of her, she smiled and greeted Henry Zong, “Henry Zong.”

President Henry looked at her and smiled, “Are you getting better?”

“Thank you Henry always cared, much better.”

Zheng Yun, who followed with him, raised his thin and black eyebrows upwards, gave her a big smile and said, “Mr. Lu is not feeling well again? You look good, not like it. Looks uncomfortable.”

Miriam smiled slightly, “It’s just a fever. Once the fever subsides, it will be fine.”

Zheng Yun said lightly: “I remember you have been several times this month, Manager Lu, you should pay more attention to rest.”

As she said, she looked at Mr. Henry and smiled, “Mr. Henry, I suggest that our company organize another physical examination. Many colleagues work hard like that. It hurts the body. What if one day...should be unpleasant, if it is a sudden death. Now, who is the responsibility?”

The other people at the meeting also looked at each other. Although they didn’t speak, their eyes mostly agreed with Zheng Yun’s words. Even President Henry thought about it, and said to Miriam earnestly: “Xiao Lu, I remember you have invited many times recently. You’re on sick leave. You really need to take a break. If you’re too busy, give it to the people below.”

“It is estimated that Manager Lu will not be able to rest in a short time.” Zheng Yun smiled, in a chatty tone, “Longteng and Fengrui, the two big partners, are all being contacted by Manager Lu, which is also our company’s next year. The main source of profit, she is indispensable, she has no time to rest,”

President Henry frowned slightly.

Miriam’s mood sank slowly, glanced at Zheng Yun, smiled slowly, and said to Mr. Henry, “Don’t worry about Mr. Henry. I will arrange the rest time. In fact, I won’t have it even if I fall ill. What's the impact? The children in my department are young and vigorous, and they work very hard. I can do their work well without them.”

She remembered what the department subordinates said to her that day. Zheng Yun targeted her because she had recently robbed too much of the performance belonging to her department, but now that the opportunity has fallen to her, she has to fight whether she can swallow it or not. One fight, and, as a boss, she must be worthy of the efforts of her department partners.

“Manager Lu can't fall ill.” Zheng Yun immediately answered the conversation, his expression became serious, but his tone was still a bit of yin and yang, “Otherwise, Mr. Shao will probably be worried, and Mr. Henry will not be able to survive. Ah.”

Miriam's face changed slightly, “What does Manager Zheng mean?”

The woman looked at her with delicate makeup. Hearing the words, she looked at her innocently and incomprehensibly, and turned her head to ask, “Aren't Manager Lu and Mr. Shao good friends? I just saw Mr. Lu from Mr. Shao's car upstairs. Go up and down, is it because I read it wrong?”

With a simple sentence, the atmosphere suddenly became a little subtle, and everyone looked at Miriam.

No one is stupid, anyone can hear the deep meaning of this.

President Henry didn't answer immediately, but his expression was a little puzzled.

Miriam's eyes sank, her thin back straight, her loose black suit set off her calmness and calmness. She looked at Zheng Yun without evasiveness, curled her lips and smiled, “Manager Zheng has really good eyesight. I can see it, yes, it's me. I didn't drive. I met Mr. Shao on the road. He gave me a ride. As for my friends, I really looked up to me. It's just that I met Mr. Shao a few times with Henry. Relationship, naturally more polite than never before.”

This sentence I have never seen before, naturally deliberately poke Zheng Yun's sore spot.

In the past, this kind of cooperation and negotiation matters have been referred to her marketing department. Ever since Zheng Yun was not there when he went to Longteng for the first time, Mr. Henry asked her to replace him. After that somehow, it naturally fell on her head, Zheng Yun. Naturally, she was angry. After all, such a big order would have covered her salary for several months.

Zheng Yun's face quietly became cold, and he smiled faintly, “No wonder, at the Long Teng party yesterday, Director Han only invited Manager Lu's department, which really made everyone envious, but later I heard that Henry Zong was not invited. , I don't know if it's true.”

She looked at President Henry and seemed to be asking.

This is obviously to blame Long Teng for only fancying one of her department managers, not even the boss, and accusing Miriam of flattering attitude and leading a bunch of people to flatter other companies.

Miriam was startled, looked at President Henry, and smiled, “This is a small party at the bottom level that Han President explained to me last night. President Han is afraid to neglect President Henry and intends to invite them to President Shao in the future, but , I forgot one thing. At that time, all the people in the Zheng management department should be allowed to go together. They booked half of the hotel, and only those of us were a bit wasteful.”

Zheng Yun’s expression finally changed, somewhat ugly.

Let their department pick up the leftovers, right? Does she really think she is fond of that thing? This woman who has never seen the world.

President Henry couldn’t see anything unusual on his face, but he was a little surprised and said with emotion: “They are so polite. Big companies are like big companies. Then we can’t be too stingy. We must invite them during the annual meeting.”

Miriam smiled, “I can always consider this season.”

President Henry nodded, “Then go ahead and take more rest.”

“Um, good.”

Watching the crowd leave, the smile on Miriam’s face slowly dissipated, and she turned to look at the other woman who had stayed in place.

“Mr. Zheng has a bad career recently, bad love or bad health?”

Zheng Yun’s cold expression didn’t have any smile or politeness, and his voice was a bit bitter.”What are you proud of? Without any market experience and personal connections, do you think these two big orders are so easy to swallow? You screwed it up. Think you can stay here?”

The empty hallway was clean and bright. Miriam slowly leaned against the wall with her arms around her chest, lazily curling up her red lips, her tone seemed to be a smile, “To be honest, it was indeed a challenge. I want to concentrate on doing my report, but President Henry’s expectations, and the enthusiasm of the little friends in my department, leave me no choice. If you think about you and your department, I also want to think about them?”

In Yingxin Technology, Miriam and Mu Ming returned to the department, and a group of people came from the side, probably just after a meeting, headed by Mr. Henry.

Chapter 166

Zheng Yun coldly snorted, "You get a good deal, Miriam, I have really underestimated you in the past few years, but you are probably the only one who knows most about these things. , Otherwise it's not easy to raise your head on the day of exposure."

How did you get it?

There is obviously something in this statement.

Miriam happened to catch the disdain in her eyes, narrowed her beautiful eyes, her expression condensed a little, "I can't see that Manager Zheng still maliciously speculates on other people's villain intentions, don't you just want to say that I betray my body and color Are you getting these? I'm younger and more beautiful than you, and I'm in a shorter time than you sitting in this position. I don't have enough abilities, so I don't have to doubt others?"

"you!"

Zheng Yun almost vomited blood and looked at her strangely, "I have never seen a cheeky woman like you. You and Mr. Shao get together. There are men picking up and dropping flowers from time to time outside, even Before, Mr. Shang from Fengrui Group also knew you...Even the blind can see the ambiguity in this, right? I now finally understand...Why are you divorced."

Why hadn't she noticed this woman so shameless before? Now even Henry always turned towards her intentionally or unintentionally.

Miriam's eyes gradually turned cold, but her tone was still smiling, "Manager Zheng, please be careful when you speak, why I am divorced is my personal matter, and I don't need to explain it to you. As for the relationship with customers, what should I see? People, let alone explain to you."

"you!"

Miriam smiled, turned and pushed open the glass door to enter the department to isolate her, only the fire-breathing eyes could be seen.

But when she turned around, her expression became ugly. Since Zheng Yun looked at it this way, it showed that the company was not the only one who said this behind her back. If it continues to pass, one day even Henry will look at it with strange eyes. she was.

"Sister Miriam." Before she could think about it anymore, she was suddenly grabbed by a subordinate and asked excitedly: "Sister Miriam, I heard that you were sent by Mr. Shao in the morning? Really?"

Miriam's mouth stiffened, and she smiled dryly, "Where did you hear about it."

The girl was taken aback, blinked and smiled ambiguously, "Many people have seen it."

Okay, a lot?

Miriam was slightly startled, and turned her head to look towards the window subconsciously. She seemed to react and slapped herself severely in her heart.

There are windows on all sides. She patronized her in the morning thinking about the medication last night, but she completely forgot to tell Bryan to park the car a little bit farther. These people didn't see all of them when they lowered their heads.

Moreover, she didn't care if she had forgotten, the man didn't even notice.

No wonder Zheng Yun said that just now.

She squeezed out a concealed smile, and she pretended to be calm and said: "It was not he who sent me, but he also returned to the company. It happened to be on the way. I just took a ride with the cheeky.

"Take a ride? Hehe... Mr. Shao is really handsome and decent." The little girl's eyes gleaming with excitement completely showed that she didn't believe her words, and it looked like we understand.

"Sister Miriam, President Shao is so handsome, you must cheer!" Someone even started to cheer her up.

Miriam's mouth twitched fiercely. It seemed that she was over-worried. The more the spread, the happier the children in her department might be.

At the same time, she felt a little relieved. She rolled her eyelids, and then joked: "Can you be a meal if you are handsome? Only money can be a meal. You have to work hard. Don't be so superficial. It's better to rely on yourself."
