

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 269– 270

Chapter 269

The facial features are very similar to Qi Feng, but they have more mature and elegant charm. The whole personality is outstanding, and once they appear, they can firmly catch people's attention.

Qi Yunfeng smiled, nodded slightly, and politely extended his hand: "Hello."

"Miss Qi is the same as on TV." With hands clasped, Qi Yun's eyebrows widened, with some doubts.

"In the press conference, you answer reporters' questions during the live broadcast." Miriam explained.

The waist suddenly tightened, and the man lowered his head and leaned close, and said with a smile, "Have you seen it?"

Miriam squinted at him, without moving her brows, even with a smile: "You think too much, the airport accidentally saw it, so I glanced twice."

The man blinked, then bowed his head and kissed the corner of her mouth.

"It's okay, don't care about those eyes or two."

Qi Yun's hand holding the bag tightened unconsciously. This man who has known each other for so many years and is so familiar with it that he can no longer be familiar with it, unexpectedly still has such a side.

In front of so many people, Miriam blushed with his love words, pushed his chest, straightened his expression, and stood still.

The man also stood up straight, his face faintly said: "Since I met, let's have a meal together, Mr. Jin?"

The ordinary-looking man who had been standing next to Qi Yun looked at her and nodded with a smile when he saw that she had no objection.

After the four of them sat down, the atmosphere gradually became lively. Qi Yun has his own aura and is also very good at leading the topic. His speech is slow and slow, and his clear voice makes people listen unconsciously.

"The effect of today's press conference is good, but it still requires a lot of energy to deal with the problems, especially the emotions of those investors. Do you have any good countermeasures?" Qi Yun looked at Bryan.

The man listened to her as he ate, and stopped when she asked her. He said, "Most of these people are following the trend to make trouble. If they don't get real benefits, they won't leave." Wiping his hands with the napkin, he looked at Qi Yun with a deep gaze, "Moreover, with such a large-scale influx, would you feel that there is no one behind you?"

Qi Yun was stunned.

Yes, those people seem to be desperate in front of the company. Besides, most of the people who buy the Longteng shares are people with low social status and financial background, and they will not go bankrupt for a stock...

Looking back, I am not too surprised. This is normal in the dark operations of the financial securities industry.

Hold the water glass gracefully and take a sip.

Smiled softly: "Do you have an investigation direction?"

The corner of the man's mouth curled, he looked at Miriam who was immersed in the meal, but did not speak.

Before Qi Yun could answer, he followed his gaze and looked at Miriam, his red lips moved slightly.

It's better to bury your head and eat since you can't get in the conversation than to look up and pretend to listen carefully.

A glass of juice was suddenly placed in front of Miriam.

"Don't just eat or drink." The man seemed to say something by the way, and then he chatted with the two opposite people.

Miriam stopped her chopsticks and picked up the juice. When she raised her head, she was facing Qi Yun. There was a hint of puzzlement in her beautiful eyes, but when she looked closely, she had returned to her usual gentleness and elegance.

"We said these are very boring, don't take offense, Miss Lu." Qi Yun smiled apologetically.

After hearing this, the man turned his head and looked over. He saw a small pile of bones he had eaten in front of Miriam, and said with a smile: "After eating so much, I have to shout to support myself at night, and I will go for a walk later."

First, he smiled at Qi Yun: "It's okay, you guys talk."

He glanced lightly at Bryan again, without speaking.

“I heard Bryan mentioned that you used to work as a department manager, and the work experience and ability must be very good.”

Miriam didn't know the identity of the woman opposite. He didn't seem to know Long Teng's internal affairs after listening to the conversation.

Eyes flowed.

It was Bryan's childhood and family cultivation, so he should be invited to show up in public to help.

“It's just an ordinary employee who can support myself,” he asked with a smile, “Ms. Qi is in the financial industry?”

Mr. Jin next to him seemed to be a talkative master. He didn't interrupt the first few sentences. At this moment, he immediately said with a smile: “Mr Qi is very busy abroad, he has a place on Wall Street. He is also a Ph.D. graduated from Stanford University and just wanted to return to China for development. This is a blessing for our financial industry!”

Not surprisingly, there has never been a bad person standing next to this man.

Qi Yun came from a family education and asked the people around him to finish, but he obviously didn't appreciate it.

“It's just work, it doesn't explain much,” then turned to Miriam, and looked at her lower abdomen.”Life is the most important thing, Miss Lu is very lucky.”

She was serious and sincere, and Miriam was embarrassed. Didn't she know that she and Bryan were already divorced?

He glanced at the man beside him, smiled, bowed his head and said nothing.

“You should say I'm more fortunate,” the man smiled Shen Shen, reaching out to cover her hand on her thigh, his eyes gentle.

The corners of Qi Yun's mouth seemed to froze, staring at Bryan with a reluctant smile, his eyelashes were lowered, and his head returned to normal.

Miriam knew that she was not mistaken, and she couldn't question her keenness when facing rivals.

“Showing affection in front of me as a single person, is there no sense of guilt?” Qi Yun frowned slightly and made a look of dissatisfaction. The expression was very Qi Feng, with a little strange spirit, and steady and mature. The collision of her temperament can make people fall in love with her for a moment.

The man's expression moved slightly, Bao Miriam's hands tightened, and he said lightly: "You should find someone, Qi Feng is more active than you, chasing Miller all day long."

Miriam smiled bitterly when she saw the woman opposite, staring at the man's handsome face with a hint of greed.

With a twitch in his heart, he couldn't help pulling out his hand.

"What's the matter?" The man turned his head and asked.

"It's too hot, sweaty palms."

The man raised his eyebrows, turned his head and said to the two opposite people: "Since you have eaten everything, let's go back to rest. I will prepare for the meeting tomorrow and send the content to you in advance."

Speaking of pulling her up, the next second her arms were already wrapped around her waist naturally.

After turning around, Qi Yun sat there motionless, with a complex expression.

After earning for so many years, I have worked hard to become excellent, hoping to be worthy of standing next to him, but before he comes back, he has given his position to others, and is still an ordinary woman who can no longer be ordinary...

Entering the elevator, the man directly pressed the first floor.

"Don't you still have a job? Go back first."

At this moment, under the light of the light, her eyes were clear, and her face was as white as jade. Although she was pregnant, she became more and more beautiful and delicious.

Without speaking, she kissed the corner of her lips, feeling dissatisfied, and stuck her tongue in. After eating the dessert just now, there is still a sweet aftertaste, tasting it back and forth, and it was upset in an inch of heaven and earth.

Chapter 270

Miriam was very helpless for his close contact anytime and anywhere. He didn't know where to meet him, and was kissed at every disagreement. After the end, he was always awake, but his blush, heartbeat, and red lips. .

The time in the elevator was extremely short. When it opened without warning, he pushed the man away in panic. The few people in the elevator were taken aback when they saw this scene, and soon some held back a smile, some pretended not to see it. , And shouted 'Mr Shao' respectfully to the man beside him.

It's someone in his company.

Miriam couldn't wait to crush her teeth and flee.

But the man's hands were still confined around her waist, her face was heavy, his handsome face was as usual, as if he was still dissatisfied with being interrupted, he nodded slightly, and hugged her out.

Miriam didn't dare to look back, glanced at the man's calm face, and couldn't help but said, "A thicker skin is really invulnerable."

The man gave a deep smile.

Miriam walked outside, the wind at night was very cool, and she wanted to stay a little longer, but was dragged back.

"If you don't wear a jacket, the wind will catch a cold after a long time." He was taken back so aggressively.

When I got upstairs, I just got out of the elevator, feeling depressed. When I met Qi Yun head-on, she lived in the suite next door.

She put on a casual outfit, with some damp hair scattered around her ears, her makeup was also removed, her expression was light, revealing an extreme laziness.

I was stunned when I saw the two of them, but soon he smiled and said, "I want to talk to you about the meeting tomorrow."

Quickly took a look at Miriam, and reacted, and smiled apologetically, "Blame me for my inconsistency and almost disturbed you, so I'll talk about it tomorrow."

Miriam never said a word to her, and smiled with a smile.

It's really ill-considered to bother to come so late, no matter the reason.

The man looked faint, thought for a moment, and said, "Come with me to the study."

After entering, the man said softly: "You go take a bath first, and be careful of the slippery floor."

Seeing the two enter the study, he blinked, stood there for a moment, and entered the bedroom blankly.

After the shower, there is no movement in the study, so I just lie down and sleep.

But with my eyes closed, I didn't feel sleepy at all. The soundproofing effect of the room is too good, and the silence is terrible.

Turning over and over again, it was almost early morning, and my heart was slightly cold.

If Qi Yun really took her into consideration, not to mention that he wouldn't come over to find him at this time, let alone stay so late at night.

He got up, his eyes fixed.

I poured two glasses of milk, knocked on the door of the study, then opened the door and went in.

The man stared at the computer, frowning, he didn't let go when he saw her come in, his tone was not very good: "Why haven't you fallen asleep?"

Miriam glanced at Qi Yun, who was sitting next to him, put the small red notebook on her lap, and slid her slender and white fingers outside. At this moment, she stopped and looked up.

After a pause, his face kindly asked: "Aren't you awake?" He put down the milk, "If you are not in a hurry, it will not be too late to discuss tomorrow. Miss Qi can't compare with your big men. It's not good to stay up too late."

Qi Yun's face changed slightly, closed the computer, smiled and stood up: "I forgot to discuss the time for a while. I disturbed Miss Lu and didn't sleep. I'm sorry."

Miriam nodded faintly, without speaking.

The man looked at his watch: "Go back first, and talk about the rest tomorrow."

"Okay." The tone is soft, and the hair is completely dry, naturally hanging to the ear, a little more delicate.

After leaving, the man also got up, took her hand to the door, "Can you compare with normal people? Staying up late is prone to unstable hormone levels, which is not good for you and your children. You forgot what the doctor said? "

Miriam let him take him away, smiling at his caring.

"You have a deep friendship with Miss Qi?"

The man asked her to sit down, helped her take off her shoes, and took a deep look at her: "It was very good when she was a child. She was very similar to me. She never bowed her head to give up, so she took care of her as a younger sister since she was young, but then she went to study in the United States. I won't keep in touch anymore."

Somewhere in my heart is empty.

Now it can be completely understood that the two of them were childhood sweethearts, two little friends, and similar personalities, because their studies had only been separated for a few years. It is estimated that they were just before their marriage.

But I never heard him mention her.

The man looked at her with a joking smile, hands in his pockets.

Miriam's face changed slightly, her expression became cold, and she glanced at him sideways: "Why look at me like this?"

With a smile, the man raised his ridge-like eyebrows: "The vinegar has been eaten like this, so he asked me why?"

The pink lips moved slightly, the beautiful straightened up, and the tip of the small nose was slightly wrinkled: "Just ask anything."

He lay down, holding his breath.

The man came up from behind, put his chin on her neck, smiled Shen Shen, after a while, he suddenly said: "It's not what you think, she basically didn't contact me after going abroad. I just met in Jincheng, if she Showing up, with her family background and ability, is very beneficial to Longteng's public opinion."

"I see," pushed the man behind him, "Go take a shower, I'm sleepy."

The man left, suddenly cold behind him.

When he woke up the next day, the man had already made breakfast.

Seeing that she was lying on the bed, she didn't want to get up, leaning against the door and laughing, her house clothes had a different charm.

"Go to the company with me today?"

Miriam opened her eyes and said lightly: "Don't go."

The group of people in his company saw her with a big belly and still followed, not necessarily what to say.

"I will let people accompany you to stroll around and pick you up for dinner at noon."

"it is good."

The man closed the door gently and left.

I woke up lazily, and ate breakfast procrastinated. It was already half past nine. I took a book and sat by the window. Mother Shao called in.

Can't help but frown, it seems that she already knows that she has come to Jincheng, and the call will only be for trouble.

Let it ring, and took the book to the study.

After a while, the ringtone didn't stop.

"Hey?"

The opposite Shao mother held back her anger, and her voice was full of irony: "Now you don't even answer my phone, you are becoming more and more presumptuous."

"What's the matter with you?" Too lazy to argue any more.

Shao's mother tongue calmed down, with a taste of command: "There is a banquet in your hotel tonight, remember to attend."

"I am inconvenient."

Mother Shao almost exploded her hair, tolerated, and said coldly: "You don't have to pretend to be in front of me. I haven't had a baby before. If I don't see you at night, I will go up and invite you, and you can figure it out."

Finished talking on the phone.
