

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 285– 286

Chapter 285

There was a cold sweat on his forehead, he calmed down for a few seconds, and shook his head.

The man took out a hand and called Yan Ke. His voice was low and cold, and there was no temperature: “On the tree-lined road in the hotel accommodation area, someone started to attack Miriam just now. You will immediately bring someone to search, he is 1.8 meters tall. Around, dressed in black, they may have changed their clothes and mixed into the crowd. Everyone in the hotel can’t leave tonight until they find it!”

After Yan Ke listened, his original serious face became even more cold.

“I’ll do it right away.”

“Notify Lin Shui to take people to where we live and guard.”

“it is good.”

Hung up the phone and looked down to check whether Miriam was injured.

Bryan leaned over and kissed her on the forehead, as if he was softly coaxing, “It’s okay, I’ll take you back first.”

Without letting her go to the ground, she hugged her back to the room.

Lin Shui arrived first, panting and waiting at the door of the room.

The light was bright, and he was no longer afraid, pushed the man, and said in a deep voice: “Let me come down, I will go by myself.”

Bryan remained indifferent, until she put her on the bed, Miriam couldn’t help but twitched the corners of her mouth, she was not injured at all.

“I’ll pour you a glass of water.” The man brushed her sideburns and said softly.

Miriam quickly sat up and took his hand: “There are so many people in this resort. You can’t let them leave. Moreover, this is not City Two. It is not so easy to find someone. The person is dressed up and can’t tell. , It’s better to call the police first, then call the monitoring and let them handle it.”

Those who come to the resort are either rich or expensive, and the investigation of them for no reason will definitely be opposed. Besides, his patience and power are mainly in the Jincheng and City Two areas, and he can't get the benefit of offending so many people at once.

The man was silent, his thin lips moved slightly, and his backhand wrapped her hand in the palm of his hand, applying a slight force, comfortingly said: "If you don't look for it now, you can't find it anymore. I know how to do it, and you have a good rest."

Turned out of the bedroom.

Miriam frowned, not knowing what he was thinking.

If that person is still here, he might still be in danger. What happened just now was just a severe fall for ordinary people, but it was fatal to a pregnant woman with her big belly.

Lin Shui quietly waited for Bryan to go out in the living room.

"Is anyone here?" the man asked.

Lin Shui lowered his head slightly: "Most of the people here in Kyoto have come over. In addition, I greeted Director Lin of the Xicheng Police Station. The people at the resort will solve the problem and will conduct investigations. Our people have been arranged around. , But the area here is too big, plus it's still night, if the person really wants to run, it's quite easy."

Bryan curled his lips slightly, without a smile in his eyes.

"That person was wearing a baseball cap provided by the resort for guests. Check how many people have registered in the resort as of this evening, including those who only ate and did not check in. If someone suddenly disappears, it is him."

Lin Shui knew that, in this way, that person would definitely not leave in order not to be exposed.

The light show and the people who ate were suddenly taken to the hotel lobby inexplicably, and the police surrounded them, all wondering what had happened.

But the police didn't elaborate. Everyone asked about where they were tonight. In the end, almost all the women were let go. Some of the heights were almost the same as those of the perpetrators.

Mu Ming followed Mr. Henry with a puzzled expression.

"What's the matter? Let us come here without saying why, it will delay our business."

President Henry glanced at him, but he was indifferent, as if watching a play.

"What's the hurry? Everyone is like this."

Mu Ming's eyes flashed, he glanced at the remaining ten people around him, his eyes down thoughtfully.

Bryan poured a cup of hot milk for Miriam and sat with him by the bed.

Miriam knew he was keeping Lin Shui and Yan Ke busy outside, and couldn't help asking about the specific situation.

"Just check it, there is no big problem."

Lin Shui knocked on the door suddenly and opened the door after permission: "Miss Qi is here."

Miriam was not surprised, Bryan nodded and let her in.

When I first saw Miriam, he was a little concerned, and he was relieved to see that there was nothing unusual about her.

"I only heard Yan Ke say a few words, what is going on? The people downstairs are all gathered together, and they will soon be anxious." Qi Yun looked at Shan Bryan and asked in a deep voice.

Miriam didn't expect such a big battle, and stared at the man with her eyebrows.

Bryan didn't wrinkle his brows, his expression faint, and his long eyes scanned Qi Yun.

"The following is the police investigating. They can't do anything if they are dissatisfied. Don't even want to leave if you can't catch anyone."

A few words, but beyond doubt, Qi Yun opened his mouth and said nothing more.

"I'll go down with you and have a look. I saw that Henry always is here tonight. He must be down there now. It's impossible to say hello without saying hello."

Said he got up and got out of bed.

The man condensed his eyebrows, apparently feeling unnecessary, but he didn't immediately object, but said: "You don't need to go there specifically, I just let Lin Shui go."

"No, because I made it myself, at least I have to apologize to everyone."

Knowing that she has made a decision, she will not change, and the man will not say anything.

"Did the monitor watch?" Qi Yun asked suddenly.

Miriam also turned to look at the man.

“I saw, the surrounding environment was too dark, and he was wearing a hat and mask, so he can only approximate his body shape.”

After speaking, he took his coat and put it on Miriam, and zipped it up.

Qi Yun watched him patiently finish all the movements and followed out.

When waiting for the elevator, Miriam suddenly raised her head and asked faintly, “Could it be done by Shang Rui?”

Bryan put one hand in his pocket and held her waist with the other. His expression changed slightly, and his handsome face could not see emotions.

“It shouldn’t be. He is probably entangled with Rania now, and he didn’t expect to find us yet.”

Miriam stared ahead, shut her mouth, still wondering who would chase and harm her in Kyoto.

When we got downstairs, there were still many people around. The women were all sitting on the sofa, waiting for their male companions, looking more emotional.

Miriam saw Henry Zong and the pastoral name behind him at a glance.

Bryan was no exception, his eyes darkened, and he turned to Lin Shuidao in a low voice: “Compare Mu Ming’s body shape and footprints.”

Lin Shui turned and left in response.

People around looked over and thought they had just been invited to investigate.

President Henry nodded slightly to the two of them, and smiled helplessly: “I also said that I would say hello. Now I was forced to get together.”

Bryan stretched out his hand slightly and asked him to speak next to him.

“Tonight’s matter has something to do with Miriam. I was almost injured just now and was forced to do so.” Bryan explained.

Miriam apologized: “I’m so sorry that I didn’t tell you in advance,” she turned her head to say hello to Mu Ming, “You have also followed Henry Zong.”

Chapter 286

Mu Ming frowned and asked eagerly: “Sister Miriam, are you hurt?”

Miriam smiled and shook her head: “No, I was just a little frightened, but... when I looked at that person, I was still a little scared.”

Turning his head, Mr. Henry didn't know when he was led by Bryan to talk.

“This is Kyoto. It stands to reason that you don't know anyone here, how could they want to harm you for no reason?”

Miriam shook her head helplessly, she wanted to know more.

He turned his head and glanced at Bryan, then blinked, “Could it be the Liangzi that Shao summarized? It is inevitable to offend people when doing business.

Before there were any clues, Miriam didn't want to guess casually, her expression was light and she didn't speak.

“Shao always has something to tell me?”

Bryan looked down, thought about it, and asked, “Did Mu Ming be with you half an hour ago?”

Mr. Henry was taken aback for a moment, and was quickly startled, his eyebrows stared: “Shao always doubts him?”

The corner of Bryan's mouth twitched, and if there was no smile on his face, his long eyes narrowed slightly, and his voice was faint: “Except you here, he is the closest to Miriam.”

The implication is that he is most suspicious.

President Henry glanced at the two people who were talking not far away, and thought about it carefully while holding his chin.

“I ran into Miriam outside the bathroom just now during the meal, but he didn't seem to know that Miriam was here tonight. We all went to the light show in the garden half an hour ago. There were too many people there and I didn't pay attention.”

Bryan nodded thoughtfully: “Well, thanks to Mr. Henry, let me tell them that you should go back and rest first.”

The two men walked back quickly, and Mu Ming met the man's gaze, slightly his jaw, and said hello.

Miriam's shoulders were surrounded by men, which meant a lot of protection and possession.

After they left, their elbows touched his waist: "How are you? Let them go back if you don't have eyebrows. That person is obviously well prepared and won't easily show his feet."

The man raised his eyebrows without comment, and quickly spoke to Director Lin, causing everyone to disperse.

Lin Shui came back and said in the man's ear: "Compared, the body shape is very similar, but the footprints in the mud do not match, it should not be him."

Miriam only heard the last few words, raised her head and widened her eyes and asked, "Who isn't it?"

Bryan tightened his hands and smiled: "No one. I didn't find it. Let's go back to sleep first, and think of a solution tomorrow."

After speaking, he winked at Lin Shui from an angle that Miriam couldn't see, and Lin Shui was clear.

Send someone to stare at Mu Ming.

Qi Yun walked over at this time, her face was not so good, she glanced at Miriam, and handed her mobile phone to Bryan. It was a picture with a young face in it.

"Caught it on my uncle's tarmac. He wore such a suit and rushed in at night, and was seen by the patrol and taken home."

Bryan furrowed his brows, looked at it for a long time, then returned the phone to her, loosened his brows, and his expression was faint: "Did you ask?"

"I asked, but the strange thing is that there is no resistance or reservation at all. He said...Shang Rui asked him to come over." He put the phone in his bag and looked up at the man, "Would you like Bring him here for you to meet?"

Miriam smiled. The man looked down at her with raised eyebrows, and saw her Qi Yun said: "No need, obviously a scapegoat, how could Shang Rui risk such a stupid person?"

The man laughed, the tacit understanding between the two was self-evident, and then Qi Yun said indifferently: "Since he admitted, let's hand it to the police."

Qi Yun frowned: "You don't need to look for clues from him? Even if it's fake, it must be sent by that person."

The man thought for a moment: "Then I will go over and take a look tomorrow," he glanced at the time and said calmly, "It's getting late, and you are working hard. Rest early."

Seeing them leave with a calm expression, staring at Miriam's back thoughtfully, as if to dig out some secret from her.

What's special about her being able to suffer such blatant harm?

Early the next morning, when Miriam woke up, Bryan was no longer there. When she opened the door, she saw Lin Shui guarding the door with her eyes and nose. Seeing her come out and quickly said: "Mr. Shao went to the apron next to him, soon come back."

Miriam nodded slightly, and remembered something after walking two steps, then turned around and asked, "What did you find yesterday? Is there a clue?"

Lin Shui was taken aback for a moment, but he didn't think about how to answer, and hesitated.

Miriam was even more reluctant to let him go like this, and frowned, "Say, who does Bryan suspect?"

It took a long time for Lin Shui to squeeze out two words: "Mu Ming."

Miriam was not too surprised, and asked the result calmly, secretly relieved when she heard that it was not.

"A good boy, who is so hostile to me, why do you Mr. Shao always aim at him?"

Lin Shui Qiang smiled, how did he answer this? Is it possible to say jealous?

Bryan didn't ask Qi Yun what the result was. Qi Yun followed him out wearing high heels.

"It's not impossible to ask Shang Rui directly. If it is not convenient for you, I can go."

The man saw her striding behind, his face was serious, his steps slowed down a bit, and his expression relaxed a lot. He said gently, "No, I will find it myself if necessary," he said silently and continued. Next, he will definitely make another move, and look for opportunities when that time comes."

Qi Yun's jaw slightly, her beautiful eyes blinked: "Shall we go back today?"

"I will go back with Miriam, you can stay a few more days to accompany your uncle."

"Without my company, as long as there are a bunch of treasures, he won't care about me. It's still the same as before." With a thick smile.

Bryan will also think of the scene of the year, and his lips twitched.

Qi Yun looked at his smile slightly in a daze, this expression was the most often done to her.

Suddenly his eyes were astringent: "Bryan, are we still the same as before? We are the people who know each other best. You can tell at a glance what I want, now... is it okay?"

If he could tell, would he still ignore his feelings?

Bryan closed his smile, turned his head to look far away, squinted, his voice was very soft and full of magnetism: "Qi Yun, the meaning of life is to look forward. You are not suitable for always nostalgic."

Qi Yun smiled: "It depends on what is right, you know, what I want to insist on is difficult to change, just like when I went abroad, although I will regret it now, but if I think about it now, I have another chance. Will change."

The man did not speak.

He knew Qi Yun's mind since junior high school, but the two were very similar at the time, so Ruoruo stayed apart for a few years until she decided to go abroad. He never said anything to keep her.

"It's just that I haven't met the person who made you change."

Qi Yun's face became stiff, and his face became heavy.

He didn't expect that he could change much for her, as long as he stayed with her, just like when he was a child.

"I will go back with you."

After finishing talking, step on high heels and walk quickly ahead.
