

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 297– 298

Chapter 297

Mother Shao touched the ring on her hand and glanced at her blankly, with a sneer at the corner of her mouth: “What’s the future of the branch, I will resign after half a year of pregnancy.”

Miriam didn’t think he had heard it, so she lifted the water glass from the table without any disturbance.

There was a trace of irritation in Bryan’s eyes, and forbearance, his arms crossed the sofa behind Miriam, looking more intimate.

Qi Yun glanced at her, staring slightly startled, and quickly turned to other places.

Mother Shao looked even more angry, and her disgust towards Miriam was beyond description.

Mother Qi smiled and drank drooling.

“Why don’t you eat yet? Want to starve this old woman to death?”

Miriam was startled by the loud sound, and suddenly turned around. It was the old lady Qi, closing the book, staring at Qi mother with a grievance.

Qi Mu’s face became stiff, she smiled ugly, and immediately got up: “I’ll be reminding you, Mom, wait a moment.”

She seems to be very scared of this mother-in-law.

However, people in City Two have heard that this old lady Qi is the second term of the old lady Qi. After the death of the first term, she married in less than three months. She is very good at school and skill. Qi Jianeng She is indispensable for her current status.

“Grandma, when you speak quietly, it scares the guests.”

Qi Feng couldn’t understand her grandma’s attitude towards her mother, and was rather dissatisfied.

Qi Yun looked faint, without saying a word.

The old lady Qi put the book heavily on the table and said sharply: “You scared your mother, didn’t you? What are the guests talking about here? Do you have the basic etiquette for talking to grandma?”

Qi Feng's scalp was numb, although he was not convinced, he didn't say anything in front of so many people.

When Qi's mother came out again, the family aunt followed behind, carrying dishes on the dining plate.

"Come here all, it's time for dinner."

Qi Yun got up and helped the old lady over, and Bryan followed Miriam.

Mother Shao passed her obviously unhappy.

Not knowing the meaning of this meal, Miriam smiled bitterly.

"Miriam sit with me, here are the things specially prepared for you, Bryan sits over there." Qi Mu suddenly pulled Miriam's hand and smiled kindly.

Mother Shao sat on her other side without saying anything.

Bryan frowned, but he couldn't let the two elders get up and sit down with eyebrows.

Qi Yun was next to him.

Qi Feng chuckled twice, and glanced at Bryan sympathetically, how the guardian mad devil fought against the black-hearted mother.

Miriam leaned on her waist, glanced at the two people sitting next to each other, and cast her eyes down.

Shao's mother gave Qi Yun food through Miriam, and smiled: "I heard that Yun'er has helped Bryan a lot in the past few days. You kid, strong, and strong in friendship, auntie is coming. I like you more!"

Qi Yunruo swept the man next to him seemingly, and said with a smile: "I didn't do anything, the main thing is Bryan's command, and I would like to thank Longteng for this very good platform."

Mother Shao smiled even more: "Don't be humble, you are rushing to ask for such excellent things. Besides, you and Bryan, and your mother know that they admire each other the most. It's good to be happy before. It's natural to go to Longteng of."

Qi's mother was silent, but she absolutely agreed with Shao's words.

Bryan's thin lips opened slightly: "Mom, eat more."

A sentence without any emotion blocked Shao's mother's words, and the atmosphere was suddenly embarrassed.

Mother Qi turned her eyes to Miriam, and put a chopstick fish on her plate: "Pregnant women eat more fish."

Miriam did not say anything.

If you still don't see that these two women are trying to disarm themselves, then they have been living for so many years. In that case, she did not have to hold back her breath.

With a grin, he glanced at the fish meat: "It is good for pregnant women to eat fish, but it is deep-sea fish. Almost all freshwater fish are artificially farmed, and the nutritional value is not easy to say. Auntie can eat more if she likes."

Except for Mrs. Qi, all the women stopped their chopsticks and looked at Miriam incredulously.

Qi Feng was the first to react. He dropped his chopsticks and crossed his eyebrows coldly and said, "Miriam, what do you mean? My mother is kind, and you don't appreciate it?"

Miriam smiled, moving away from the table, seemingly smiling, "Why do I want to appreciate it? I let her be like this?"

"Miriam." This time it was Qi Yun, with a faint expression, but the raised eyebrows revealed a warning.

"Miriam, let's go." The man said, standing up while speaking.

Miriam couldn't help but sneer: "I haven't finished talking yet, what should I go for?"

Mother Shao sat next to her and reprimanded in a deep voice: "Don't make trouble here! My family can't afford to lose this person!"

"Mom." The man's tone was cold to zero.

The anger that Miriam had endured from the moment he walked in broke out completely, put his arms on his chest, and laughed lightly.

"I can't afford to lose this person. You united them and wanted to give me power from the moment they entered the door. Just to make me faceless, I have to say that you are really willing to go out again and again."

Turning his head to look at Qi Yun again: "Ms. Qi looks really knowledgeable from the outside, but I don't know what the real intention of today's meal is? I admire it if I dare to say that there is no sordid thoughts," he sneered even more." Since you have to always emphasize the high relationship with the person next to you, if you have the ability to make him accept you today, I am convinced."

Bryan looked gloomy and looked at the woman opposite.

Qi Yun was even more ugly. He glanced at the man next to him, gritted his teeth and said: "You have to speculate like this, I can't help it."

"Enough! Isn't it shameful?!" The old lady Qi roared, her expression majestic.

"Bullying a pregnant woman really made me see the abilities of your mother and daughter!" Turning the finger at Qi mother, "Being able to teach such a child, it really gives us Qi parents face, you shameless I want it! I let you in at the beginning. It was a mistake!"

Qi Mu's face was pale and she tried her best to endure it.

Miriam got up and smiled: "You guys are delicious, I won't be with you."

Bryan picked up his jacket and got up and followed her out.

After walking a few steps, he suddenly turned his head, his eyes were red, and his voice was a little cold: "Don't follow me!"

The man held her coat in his hand, his thin lips closed tightly.

"I'm not a soft persimmon. Let your mother rub it and even humiliate me with others. I can't stand it much. Don't challenge my bottom line."

His eyes were cold.

"I know." The man stood quietly, in contrast to her excitement.

Miriam couldn't help laughing: "Do you know? You don't know."

At the dinner table just now, there was a momentary feeling that this is the gap that two people can't jump across. It's ridiculous to think about it. The problems that she didn't encounter during marriage are now torturing her.

If he really knew, nothing would happen tonight.

Chapter 298

Mother Shao has been used to being strong all her life, but she is also a member of the big family anyway, because she repelled her to do such things repeatedly, didn't she lose the face of the Shao family?

At the same time, I don't understand. I haven't been so embarrassed by her for so long after we have been married. Why is she now treated as a big enemy, just because she is not worthy of his son? But I am pregnant. Is it necessary to press harder?

The man's thin lips closed tightly, staring at her inky.

"Don't follow me, I want to stay by myself for a while." He said blankly, turning to leave.

Go out of the gate and walk along the highway. The environment here is very good, but it also means that there are very few people to live in, let alone waiting for a taxi.

At a distance of fifty meters behind him, he followed Bryan's car.

Shao's mother was not like this in the past. Although Miriam was not her most satisfied daughter-in-law when she got married, because Shao's father insisted and he was in need of Lu's help, she never objected to it, and a few years can be considered a harmonious life. , The two went back to visit them together from time to time, but Shao's father died and the two divorced, she inexplicably rejected it.

If only because of father Shao's accident, I would still understand if he was afraid of being implicated, but vaguely felt that it was not that simple.

After walking for about ten minutes, Miriam's legs began to ache, and her body was too heavy for her to breathe.

But the more tired I got, the more angry I was, thinking about it, the resentment towards Shao's mother finally turned to the man.

Seeing that her pace was getting slower and slower, the man knew that she was tired. He should have given up some breath when he thought about it, and he drew the car to her side and stopped, got out of the car and pulled her.

"Is it better? Get in the car."

Miriam flung away, lifting her chin, and said coldly, "No."

The man's expression did not change, his eyebrows softened, and he said gently: "Get in the car first, don't toss yourself, what can you vent to me."

Give vent to him, and it will grow in the days to come, shouldn't he vent to him every time his mother finds fault?

He can endure it once or twice, and can endure it for a lifetime. Why should he suffer such a grievance? It is still said that this relationship will not continue after the child is born...

"This is your solution?" I couldn't help but sneer at the corner of my mouth."I really look up to you. Since your mother is so worried about you, I want to find a good lady, or you can accept it, save All our troubles."

The man's warm face showed a hint of unpleasantness: "I never meant that."

The sarcasm between the lips was even worse: "I didn't say you did, but I just made a suggestion. After all, I'm lighthearted and can't interfere with your decision."

"I don't accept it." The answer was very simple, and she immediately pulled her into the car.

"Don't move me." There was even a little disgust between his brows.

Means to let her continue to be aggrieved in the middle? It was not over until some day when he lost interest in her.

The man was pierced by her eyes.

"Give me some time and I will talk to my mother." He said quietly.

"Whatever you want." He looked cold and turned around.

The man moved his lips slightly, stepped, hugged her directly, held her in his arms, indifferent no matter how she struggled, opened the car door and stuffed it in.

Miriam is like a very aggressive cat, unable to struggle, and bit his arm in a hurry, with a lot of strength, even a tinge of blood oozes out, but the man didn't move his brows and waited. He let her go, then locked the door and went to the driver's seat.

He put down the rolled white shirt, and within a few seconds, the bright red oozes out, which is very eye-catching while holding it on the steering wheel.

Staring at the blood stains, most of the anger in his heart suddenly disappeared, a trace of unbearable between his eyebrows, his lips moved, and he turned his head and looked out the window like a breath.

The man saw her calm down and started the car.

After a few minutes, Miriam secretly turned around and glanced at the wound again, not knowing when he put on his coat to cover it.

"If you bite me, you can calm down. Don't toss yourself in the future. I'll just give you my hand." The man glanced over, with a slight smile.

When he saw the little movement, he couldn't help but feel ashamed, and raised his brows: "Don't expect me to feel distressed. A bite can't solve anything."

The man held the steering wheel and said nothing.

It took a while before he spoke again, but said something else: "I'll let someone go and check it. The neighbor in the pastoral name you mentioned does have such a person, but," his expression darkened, "they The family has moved out for many years, and the old man is no longer there. He and Mu Ming can only say that they know each other, and they are not familiar with his family. They are only the place where Mu Ming's grandmother lived."

"Her grandmother?" I never heard him say that.

"Well, his mother grew up there when she was young, and has never been back since."

In this case, the clue is broken again.

"His life experience is not that simple. Rania should be one of the insiders."

But she wouldn't say that she went to the hospital specifically for her name that day, and that she would hide it for him.

A wave of irritation rose.

The man glanced sideways at her condensed brows, silently, and said, "Dad is only on parole for medical treatment. He doesn't have that freedom. The danger is also much less. Mom, I will send someone to protect him. I will not let him go until evidence is found. They are in danger again."

On the contrary, she is more worried.

"Thank you."

The man's thin lips closed, and his eyebrows were slightly lowered.

They didn't need to say thank you, she was deliberately pulling away from him.

Before Miriam moved, he wanted to talk to Xiang Dongnan. He has helped a lot for so long, and he feels very sad.

Mother Lu invited him to eat at home.

Bryan nodded in agreement, and when he was far away from now on, he had no chance even if he had any ideas.

When he came southeast, he brought some gifts and handed them to Miriam.

Tian Tian immediately hugged her leg when she saw her, her big eyes were spiritual and grievances.

Xiang Dongnan smiled helplessly: "She heard that she won't be able to see you often in the future, and she immediately shed tears in aggrieved feelings. She wanted to come to have a deep affection with you and couldn't accept it for a while."

Miriam was holding her pants with her little hands. Although she didn't speak, her little face was reluctant, and her heart was almost melted.

"Tian Tian don't listen to her father's nonsense. In the future, as long as Tian Tian wants to see her aunt, the aunt will definitely come over immediately, and the aunt will not bear it." She squeezed her little face and said softly.

Bryan's face was not disturbed, he glanced at the child and said nothing.

Xiang Dongnan talked about Father Lu's condition for a while and was about to leave.

"My mother is almost ready to cook, how can I leave now." Miriam puzzled.

Lifting Tian Tian to the southeast, he explained: "Today I will take her to get a vaccine. There are too many people, so I have to go to the queue earlier."

Mother Lu came out of the kitchen with some blame: "You can't skip eating when you get a vaccine. You can go after the meal, and you'll be ready after a short walk."
