

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 61– 62

Chapter 61

I thought she had said clearly enough, but Shang Rui smiled and said, “If you make a mistake, you will count me, and you will take the credit. Just take it for experience, after all, I still believe in Miss Lu.”

President Henry also smiled and encouraged: “Mr Shang has said so, Xiao Lu, you can agree, this is a good exercise opportunity.”

Miriam laughed stiffly and spit in her heart cruelly. She didn't want this opportunity. In a few months, she would be able to hide her pregnancy and dare not continue working. How dare she accept this kind of big project? But now that both of them have said so, she has no room for rejection at all.

Shang Rui and President Henry didn't know that she was pregnant, but Bryan knew that he frowned slightly and looked at Shang Rui with a smile but said, “Shang Rui, I really admire your courage. Take a few hundred million to accompany one. If the little manager plays, he won't be afraid of losing his money? No matter how strong he is, he can only be a newcomer with only three years of work experience. Even if it is President Henry, he must be cautious when he is in charge. Your trust is somewhat partial.”

Several people present did not expect that he would suddenly interject, and all looked at him.

Shang Rui raised his eyebrows, curled his lips, and smiled faintly, “I heard that Long Teng also cooperated with Yingxin. It was also Miss Lu who responded indirectly, Mr. Shao is not partial?”

Bryan ate the dishes on his own, and said casually, “Perhaps Henry always encourages newcomers. If it were me, I would not use it.”

Miriam, “...”

Is this man helping her or hurting her on purpose?

Shang Rui laughed, “It may be that Mr. Shao doesn't know much about Miss Lu. Since he is just a newcomer who has been working for three years and can understand the industry so thoroughly, Miss Lu should have worked very hard, so I should give this opportunity a lot. time.”

He said, looking at Miriam, “Miss Lu doesn't have to be too pressured. There are also people on my side who will coordinate with you. If you have any questions, you can always find them.”

Bryan's dark eyes flashed with coldness, and he did not speak again, nor looked at Miriam.

But at this moment in his heart he was almost certain that Shang Rui was definitely not that simple to Miriam.

Miriam pursed her lips and lowered her eyes, knowing in her heart that for this, she had no right to refuse.

Two seconds later, she raised her small face, raised a smile, and nodded, "Well, since Mr. Shang trusts me so much, I will try my best to do my best so that you and Henry Zong won't lose."

"Okay, come, I respect you." Shang Rui smiled at President Henry, then raised his glass to look at her.

Miriam looked at the wine glass in front of him, hesitated for a second, and planned to put it down after a sip.

I touched a glass with Shang Rui, and when I was about to drink, I heard a voice from the opposite side, "Isn't Manager Lu going to the hospital to visit his mother for a while? Is it possible that I still want to drink and drive?"

Miriam was startled, looked at Bryan, and gave him a secret glance.

Even if he wants to help her, he doesn't need to tear down the stage like this, right?

In an instant, she could only bite the bullet and smile at Shang Rui: "Sorry, Mr. Shang, I will have to drive to the hospital soon. I won't be able to drink with you this time. Otherwise, you and Mr. Henry still have Mr. Shao, I will pour the wine for you."

Shang Rui shook his head and smiled helplessly, "Look at my memory, I almost forgot, President Henry, President Shao, should we drink it?"

President Henry held up the cup very politely, "This is natural. I am here to accompany the two of you today. The amount of alcohol is not good, so don't laugh."

Bryan glanced at Miriam, picked up the cup in front of him, curved the corners of his lips, and turned to the two of them, "Zong Shang."

The three were drinking.

Miriam ate something symbolically, then stood up and took the wine bottle from the waiter on the side, refilled the three people one by one, walked to Bryan, took a look at him, and then filled the glass, obviously Much more than the other two.

The man glanced sideways at her and said nothing.

Upon seeing this, Shang Rui smiled and joked: "It seems that Mr. Shao didn't listen to Mrs. Lu just now. But, to be honest, I feel upset for Ms. Lu, Mr. Shao must finish drinking."

Bryan's expression is calm and his eyes are indifferent, which makes people look at the inexplicable laziness of watching the fire from the shore.

He looked at Shang Rui, pulled the corners of his lips, held up the cup, and said meaningfully, "It seems that Mr. Shang is a drunkard today, not drinking."

This remark is also a bit destabilizing.

President Henry was stunned. He glanced at Miriam and hurriedly finished the game."Hehe... President Shang is definitely not here for a drink today. My small company will have to work a lot in the future. You can always come to City Two for development. It has helped us a lot, this cup is my respect."

President Henry is not stupid. He was a dozen years older than the two. Although he was scary, he lived in the mall for so many years. He has seen any big winds and waves. The President Shang in front of him can be regarded as a figure covering the sky in Kyoto. I've seen it, but today, people with a discerning eye can see the excessive diligence of Miriam.

He could see it, let alone Bryan.

But as a boss, it's hard to get involved in other people's private affairs. It seems that he needs to go back and explore Miriam privately.

Shang Rui heard the words and looked at Bryan, put the cup down, his thin lips bend upwards, "Shao can always sit here, shouldn't it be for drinking bars?"

The man's eyes flickered and he didn't speak.

Indeed, if Miriam were not here, he would have found an excuse to leave.

But from Shang Rui's words, it seemed that he already knew his thoughts, which made Bryan suddenly more vigilant.

Miriam lowered her head, pretending that she didn't understand what they meant.

But she really didn't understand. Although she could feel that there was something in the words of the two of them tempting each other, she really couldn't guess what they wanted to do.

However, she didn't want to control so much, she just wanted to get out quickly.

I don't know how long it took, after Miriam handed the third empty wine bottle to the waiter, the few finally stopped drinking, but it seemed that they didn't intend to end it immediately.

The three of them can see some drunkenness on their faces, but after all, they are all veterans in the shopping mall, and they can't see the gaffe.

This meal made Miriam very uncomfortable to eat. She pretended to raise her hand to check the time, and then touched President Henry and whispered: "Mr Henry, I am a little worried about my mother, can I go to the hospital first? Take a look?"

President Henry hasn't responded yet, Shang Rui smiled, handsome and calm, a little charming, "Miss Lu, go back soon and say hello to my aunt for me. If I have a chance, I will visit the hospital."

When his words fell, President Henry nodded, "Go, wait for the secretary to come and take me back."

Chapter 62

Miriam stood up and nodded gratefully at the two of them, "Thank you Henry Zong, Shang Zong, then I will go back first."

Ignoring Bryan directly, after she finished speaking, she hurried out.

She breathed in the cool air outside, and she was completely relieved. She lowered her head and pressed her eyebrows, very tired.

In the past three years in the workplace, it was the first time that she encountered such a difficult situation. She had her own thoughts, and she was completely confused.

After staying for a few seconds, she shook her head and put aside her troubles. She found the car and went directly to the hospital.

After resting at home for one night, the next day, President Henry did not look for her again, and Miriam could finally stay in the hospital with peace of mind.

Early in the morning, Xiang Dongnan also rushed, Miriam was startled when he saw someone, "Why are you here today, aren't you busy?"

"Not busy." The man smiled softly, put the breakfast on the bedside, and then nodded to Mother Lu, "Auntie, I'll take her there first."

Mother Lu waved her hand, "Go, I'll watch Tian Tian here for you."

Miriam looked at the two men blankly, before asking for a word, she was pulled southeastward and walked out.

“Brother, you?”

In the corridor, walking to the southeast, smiled and said: “Auntie told me that you were planning to come for a pregnancy test today. I didn’t expect an accident yesterday and her legs were inconvenient. I happened to be fine. Let’s go with you.”

Pregnancy, pregnancy test?

Miriam blinked in confusion, suddenly gritted her teeth in her heart.

When is she going to have a pregnancy test today?

Mom, I didn’t take you to sell girls like this.

She smiled stiffly, “I almost forgot, but it’s okay if I don’t check this time, I can come back next week.”

Let him accompany him, he must be misunderstood by the doctor.

“Since you are all here, why have to wait for next week? Let’s go, I have registered for you on the Internet in advance, go now, and I won’t waste too much time.”

Miriam couldn’t refute the arrangement so thoughtful.

I looked at him awkwardly for a few seconds and nodded, “Well, it may take a while, brother, if you have anything, you can tell me.”

“Ok.”

The two went to the obstetrics and gynecology department side by side.

During the whole inspection, Xiang Dongnan did not evade, listened to the doctor’s explanation more carefully than she, and naturally was mistaken for the child’s father. She tried to explain several times but was interrupted, and finally looked at it embarrassingly. the man.

“The mother of the child should pay attention. Don’t be too tired every day, just exercise properly. Also, you must not touch alcohol and tobacco...”

The doctor patiently ordered, but his gaze was always towards the southeast, and it was obvious that he was speaking to him.

Miriam could only stand awkwardly and looked down at the pregnancy checklist.

After a while, there was a sudden movement behind him. The doctor was facing the door, seeing the person coming, and kindly asked, "Mr., this is the obstetrics and gynecology department, who do you call?"

Miriam and Xiang Southeast turned around together.

"I'm looking for her."

The man walked in slowly under Miriam's wide-eyed eyes, then raised his arm, naturally wrapped her shoulders, looked at the doctor, and asked in an indifferent tone, "How about the child?"

Miriam, "..."

Doctors, "....."

Ten minutes later, on the roof of the building, Miriam looked at the man angrily, "Bryan, who made you come to the hospital? Do you know what you were doing?"

Nima, she has never been so embarrassed when she grows up so much. She probably will never forget the look in the doctor's eyes when she left.

And Xiang Dongnan was also present, letting her face others in the future.

The man downplayed, "You didn't tell me yesterday to check today, so I was late."

"..."

The blue veins on Miriam's forehead jumped.

If she tells him, he plans to accompany her to check today?

This man was shameless, and he did not violate peace at all.

She sneered, "No need, brother is more considerate and gentler than you, do you think I need you?"

The man suddenly approached, looked at her seriously, put his hands in his pockets, his expression was almost indifferent, "Going southeast is for you, and I am for the children. Since it is my child, I will not allow them to be hurt at all. What do you want? Toss with him as you please, but I will always pay attention to these two children."

"..."

Miriam's eyes widened for a moment and looked at him incredulously.

Bryan seemed to see her thoughts and said lightly: "I won't snatch them from you, besides, legally I have no right to snatch them from you, but since it is my child, I will not let it go."

Miriam didn't know if it was angry or couldn't refute it. She moved her lips for a long while before gritting her teeth and squeezing out a word, "It's good if you know. In a practical sense, you are just providing a seed. We are now divorced. Even if you admit that you are your biological father, you are not qualified to snatch custody from me."

He recognized her and was reluctant to kill them, so he planned to pester her in another way?

She suddenly didn't understand, since he didn't love him, why was he always so entangled?

Just not reconciled to two children calling someone else's father?
