

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 63– 64

Chapter 63

“I won’t make these meaningless disputes. No matter who the child is with, as long as they can grow up healthy, I won’t care so much.” Bryan looked at her expressionlessly, and there was nothing in his deep eyes.

Miriam was startled suddenly.

She didn’t expect him to look so openly, or he just said it nicely and secretly calculating something.

“I am the mother of my children, so naturally I won’t let them suffer any harm. Since you don’t care, you don’t need to run to have a look. After they are born, I will not be so narrow that you are not allowed to see them.”

Bryan tilted her head, her thin lips pursed and smiled, with a sneer in her tone, “Even your mother can’t take care of you, do you still think you can take care of yourself? Bring your own daughters to the southeast, you count on Can he be by your side at all times? Miriam, I doubt now if you can give birth to them.”

Miriam was blocked and speechless, her pretty face turned red, and she stared at him fiercely.

What is the ability to be born?

“I will be better if you don’t hang around in front of me.”

The man smiled slightly, “Really? Climbing up and down every day, traveling with drinks, do you think they are stuck to you? How many pregnant women are like you?”

Miriam’s eyes darkened suddenly, and she bit her lip, “You don’t need to worry about it.”

If it’s not a divorce, if it’s not her dad’s imprisonment, if it’s not that she is in urgent need of money, if it doesn’t have everything happening right now...she also hopes that she can lie at home like an ordinary pregnant woman and have a good baby.

But she couldn’t say these things. After all, the marriage was asked to divorce, and pregnancy was also an accident. Dad was also responsible for his imprisonment. It didn’t seem to have much to do with him. Now that the marriage is divorced, it makes no sense to say this.

After all, Miriam didn’t want to continue arguing with him, so Miriam turned and left.

Bryan quickly grabbed her arm and found that what he said was a bit awkward. He calmed down a bit and said warmly: "Since I am my child, I will not let it go. I will not look at you until the child is born healthy. Toss yourself."

"..."

Miriam was startled, her heart seemed to be stabbed.

Knowing that he was right for the child, but the loss still came out inexplicably.

After all, he would not like her after all.

Throwing away his hand fiercely, she left without answering a word.

"up to you."

Bryan looked at her back as she walked away quickly, his tight expression gradually relaxed, as if he was relieved, his eyes were complicated and helpless.

It seems that it can only take time.

Miriam returned from the rooftop, Xiang Dongnan was still waiting below. Seeing her back, she asked worriedly, "Is it all right?"

"Where did Mr. Xiang start? The child belongs to me, so how could something happen to her?" Bryan came out from behind her, standing at the door with a tall and slender figure with a cold smile on his face.

Miriam looked back at him angrily, "Why are you still not leaving?"

"It's not me who should go? It seems inconvenient for Mr. Xiang to hold a child and take care of the elderly here." The man's tone was very flat, but anyone could hear the meaning.

Xiang Southeast held Tian Tian's eyes and the light dimmed, with a small smile on his face, "Mr. Shao, it is my responsibility to take care of my aunt and Miriam. A lot of trouble."

Mother Lu was lying on the bed, and from the conversation between the two, it was immediately understood that Bryan should have known the identity of the child. They were very guilty of hiding from him. Now Mother Lu didn't know who to help.

After thinking about it, she smirked, "Um...Xiao Xiang, Xiao Shao, if you are busy, go back, just have Miriam here, I'm fine, and there are so many nurses here. Not too many people will guard it."

Miriam immediately gave her mother a thumbs up when he heard the words. Sure enough, Jiang was still old and spicy. There was no way to deal with anyone in such an embarrassing situation. It would be better to drive them all away.

Bryan used her child to pinch her, and she was the one who got involved in the southeast. Both sides are not easy to solve. She is already big head.

She also learned from Lu mother, smiling and politely said: "Mr. Shao, I have also checked. There is nothing serious about the body, and the child is fine. You can go back without worry."

Turning his eyes, he looked to the southeast again, his tone of voice was obviously milder, "Brother, thank you for your busy schedule for a long time, my mother's side, I can just keep it, you can go back and work."

Chapter 64

Probably not wanting her to be too embarrassed, he nodded his head thoughtfully to Southeast, "Well, if you have anything to do, call me again."

Afterwards, he greeted Mother Lu on the bed, "Auntie, I will come to see you another day."

"Okay, well, go ahead." Mother Lu waved her hand with a smile.

To go southeast, I naturally did not forget to pull Bryan, and said in a polite tone: "Mr. Shao, I don't think we two can help much here, so let Miriam and Auntie take a good rest. I invite you to go out for a drink. How about a cup of tea?"

Bryan glanced at Miriam, then looked at him and nodded blankly, "Please."

Miriam, "..."

What are these two doing? Wouldn't you go downstairs to make an appointment?

It should not be so naive.

Miriam opened her mouth, he wanted to say nothing, but in the end she didn't say anything, touched Tiantian's head, and closed the door.

After lying on the door and listening for a few seconds, she noticed that the person was leaving, and immediately turned her head to look at Mother Lu on the bed with a questioning face.

The other party suddenly coughed with a guilty conscience, raised the cup on the table and lowered his head to drink water to avoid her eyes.

Miriam narrowed her eyes and called out coldly, “Mom, don’t you have anything to tell me?”

Mother Lu took a sip of tea, put down the cup, pulled up the quilt, and smiled dryly: “Miriam, mother is sleepy and wants to sleep, or go home first.”

“Mom!” Miriam’s voice was visibly deepened, her brows frowned, her expression a little dissatisfied, “What did you say to Brother Xiang when I was away yesterday? Also, how can there be any pregnancy tests?”

If she hadn’t said more about this, how could Xiang Dongnan come again today, and the two of them wouldn’t bump into each other. It would be embarrassing to let her not say it, making her more embarrassed?

“This, I...” Mother Lu was very guilty, blinked a few eyes, looked at her, pretended to be innocent, and muttered quietly, “I, I didn’t say anything, then, didn’t the kid want to chase you? Can’t you help him?”

Who knows that Bryan is also here today.

Thinking of this, she suddenly remembered something, and then turned serious, looked at her sharply, and asked, “I haven’t asked you yet, when did you get involved with Xiao Shao again? Didn’t you all break up long ago? Why does he come to find you? Does he want a child?”

At this point, Mother Lu’s attitude became extremely determined, “Miriam, let me tell you, he doesn’t even think about the child. You gave it to him. You are not allowed to give it to him. If you can’t take care of it, mom will give it. You raise it.”

Miriam was speechless for a second, complaining in her heart, do you care? You still rely on me to raise your legs. How can you raise a child?

She sighed, her breath weakened, and calmly said: “Mom, you think too much, he didn’t ask me to have a baby, we two are not what you think... Forget it, anyway, these things about me, you Don’t interfere if you don’t understand, okay?”

She was really dying of worry, and she couldn’t figure it out.

Mother Lu also knew that things were not going well this time, so she curled her lips sullenly, her face was a little lost on her smooth and white face, and sighed for a long while, “Okay, okay, I don’t care, just casually you.”

Miriam tilted her head and looked at her suspiciously.

She didn’t believe what she said, but since she had made a promise, she couldn’t say anything.

Mother Lu slowly lowered the backrest, lay flat, pressed the quilt under her armpit, Yu Guang glanced at her, pretending to be careless: "Miriam, but Mom also wants to remind you, although Xiao Shao didn't say anything. , But since he already knows that the child belongs to him, his mother will surely know soon, because of his mother's careful virtue, she will definitely not throw this child to you cheaply."

Which mother-in-law doesn't want to hold her grandson? Don't say they were born with the original match, they are illegitimate children, and their rich people are happy and willing. These are two fat grandchildren in vain.

Miriam was startled, she couldn't help but walked to the bedside, coldly, "This child was born after my divorce, what does it have to do with their family? What qualifications does she have to fight with me? His mother doesn't even understand this. Right?"

That's how it was said, but after Mother Lu reminded her, she suddenly became a little bit unsure.

Mother Lu curled her lips, "Do you expect an old woman to reason with you? She is just such a son. I don't know how long I've been thinking about her grandson, otherwise she would give her son a woman when you get divorced. She doesn't intend for this. Is it obvious?"

She sees a lot of this kind of things. The wife who used to be the first judge of City Two often organizes afternoon tea with some ladies in the circle. There are too many talks about this kind of things.

Miriam squinted her eyes and thought, her expression slightly complicated.

Shao's mother told her what was on the surface and behind the back. She understood this matter early in the morning, but she didn't say anything, because she didn't live in the same place, so she didn't have to think about the law every day to make her mother happy. Now that she is divorced, it's nothing more. got engaged.

She knew that Shao's mother despised herself now, and she probably already regarded Sophia as her prospective daughter-in-law. If she knew the existence of these two children in her stomach, would she just let it go?

She suddenly shook her head with a firm face, "No, I won't give it to her? Anyway, these two children are mine, and I won't regress."

Lu Mu pursed her lips and looked sad when she watched her silently.

If she does not get married, with her current conditions, her father is in jail, and the family still has an old man who cannot work, who has no ability to raise her. What if the Shao family refuses to forgive her?

Mother Lu didn't dare to say these words for the time being, she was already very hard now, and she didn't want to watch her take it all alone.

Xiang Dongnan and Bryan stood in front of the hospital after leaving the ward.

“President Shao, coffee or wine?”

Bryan turned his eyes and looked at the calm man in front of him, with a deep flash on his face, “Coffee.”

“Yes, drinking in the morning is bad for your health.”

Xiang Southeast smiled, looked around, and saw a cafe not far away, “Mr. Shao, please.”

Tian Tian in her arms lay on her chest biting her fingers and looked at Bryan timidly. His big dark eyes were crystal clear.

Bryan also glanced at her, then stepped forward and asked casually, “What happened to Ling Qianjin?”

Xiang Dongnan was taken aback for a moment. He didn't expect that he would notice Tian Tian's body, gently touched the child's forehead, smiled faintly, “Autism.”

Bryan walked slowly, his eyes swept around at random, dressed in a suit, calm and steady, just when Xiang Southeast thought he was just asking casually, he suddenly heard him say: “I have a friend who knows an expert in this field. I can recommend Mr. Xiang if he needs it.”

Xiang Dongnan's expression changed, turning his eyes to look at him seriously, and smiled slightly, “I have taken Mr. Shao's heart, but I have read a lot of experts at home and abroad in the past few years, and the effect is not very good, so I just planned to take her back to China for a period of time, now I can only take it slowly.”
