

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 83– 84

Chapter 83

She took out the room card and was about to open the door, but the door of the opposite room clicked and was suddenly opened.

Mu Ming stood at the door and was taken aback when he saw them.

The atmosphere was strangely quiet for a while, and Miriam was caught off guard and slow to react.

“Miriam, Sister Miriam, who is this?” Mu Ming had never met Bryan formally. He only felt familiar, but not sure.

Bryan always looked indifferent, glanced at him, guessing that the voice on the phone should be him before, pursing his lips and explaining for Miriam, “Friend.”

Miriam reacted in a second and squatted, “Uh, friend, friend.”

Mu Ming smiled and praised without hesitation, “Sister Miriam’s friends are so handsome, hello, my name is Mu Ming, and I am an employee of Sister Miriam’s department.”

Miriam was used to his familiar temperament and didn’t care too much, but was afraid that Bryan would say more and interrupt him in a hurry, “Xiao Zhang hasn’t gotten up yet?”

“Oh, he got up early and has already gone out to eat.” He looked at the two of them, and then asked, “Sister Miriam, have you eaten? Do you want me to buy breakfast for you?”

Miriam quickly waved her hand with a smile, “No, we just came back from eating, you go, wait a while I have work arrangements.”

“Then this gentleman is here...”

“He has nothing to do, he will leave soon.” For fear of Bryan’s interruption, Miriam picked it up quickly and urged: “You go and get back.”

It was embarrassing to be bumped into, this kid was so clever, he would surely guess something when he knew Bryan’s name.

“Oh, ok, I’m going.” Mu Ming’s gaze shifted, and he nodded at Bryan.

The two are about the same height, but Bryan is even more eye-catching regardless of appearance or temperament. The aura of elites all over his body is not a little bit different from Mu Ming.

But one was young and vigorous, and the other was deep and steady. Mu Ming was standing in front of him without being crushed by the aura. This feeling was completely different from Henry Zong standing in front of him.

Miriam couldn't help but take a look at the person who left. A natural leader?

She really has eyes like a torch.

Bryan naturally did not miss the appreciation and pride in her eyes, her eyes dimmed and she asked casually, "You like him very much?"

Miriam didn't look at him, she nodded her head unconsciously, "Yes, it's a good talent."

But the next second I suddenly remembered something, and immediately changed his face and glared at him, "It has something to do with you? Are you going to rest? Go away, don't let me see you again."

Opened the door, entered the room, without looking at him, closed the door with a slam, completely isolating him.

After that, Bryan didn't harass her again. I didn't know if it was a rest or what to do. Miriam didn't bother to take care of it, so he focused on work again.

After planning all the companies that will be returning in the morning, she took Xiao Zhang and Mu Ming to go out.

As a network technology company, Yingxin is still well-known in the industry, ranging from client web development to system research and development. Her main task on this business trip is to collect and sort out user feedback data and some product bugs.

The first company developed medical equipment.

Miriam got out of the car, compared the navigation with her mobile phone, looked at the building in front, and said, "It should be right here."

Mu Ming chuckled and pointed to the big characters at the door, "If the word is correct, that's it."

Miriam was embarrassed and coughed lightly, "That's it, go in and ask."

She found a driver and didn't know the road. She could only watch the navigation on her own, commanding it for a long time, and went around a big circle, making the two boys behind her laugh all the way.

Follow the staff, collect all the data for half a day, and finally the other party warmly invites them to see the latest research and development products.

Social progress and the gradual development of smart medical care have also opened up a lot of business for Miriam and her company. Although she can't understand at all, she still hasn't rejected other people's kindness.

When entering the workshop, someone specially explained it to them.

Suddenly, Mu Ming asked curiously: "Are these all finished products? Can you experience it?"

The other staff smiled and nodded, "Of course, these are all tested and can be put into use in various hospitals immediately. Do you want to try? And our R&D teachers here have all studied medicine."

Mu Ming looked around, touched his chin curiously, and suddenly pushed Xiao Zhang behind him and blinked, "Assistant Zhang, that MRI, you go try it."

Xiao Zhang was taken aback, "Why don't you go?"

Mu Ming chuckled and stretched out his hand in a please gesture, "Senior first."

Xiao Zhang glanced at him, helplessly, and entered the compartment following the instructions of the staff.

Miriam looked at the people operating the instruments through the glass wall, approached Mu Ming, lowered her head and asked inwardly, "What are you doing? Xiao Zhang didn't mess with you?"

Mu Ming raised his eyebrows and curled his lips. "He snored all night last night and I didn't sleep much."

"..."

Miriam twitched the corner of her mouth, then whispered faintly, "It seems that I am also wrong. I shouldn't just book a room for you two."

The man changed his face in seconds and said with a smile: "I'm joking, they all said that the instrument is okay, it's equivalent to a free medical examination. I'm not worried about Assistant Zhang's health."

Miriam glanced at him sideways, tugging at the corners of her lips and said nothing.

He didn't believe he would be so kind.

No one in the whole department is a thief.

Suddenly, her eyes changed slightly, she looked at him weirdly up and down, and then took a step back, "It won't be...what's wrong with your body, right?"

Mu Ming's face turned black, "..."

What does she mean by walking so open?

Miriam put her arms around her chest, turned her gaze to the instrument in front, and laughed lowly, "Just like you are alive and kicking, you won't die if you don't eat for a few days."

Pastoral name beat his chest and feet, pretending to be sad, "Sister Miriam...Don't destroy the flowers of the motherland."

"..."

After a while, Xiao Zhang came out from the inside, but he had to wait a while before he could come out. Miriam patted Mu Ming on the shoulder again, "As a leader, you can't be partial, it's you."

Mu Ming smiled stiffly, "I... don't need it, right?"

Miriam tilted her head suspiciously, "You don't... really have any problems, do you?"

"I'm going!" Mu Ming frowned and smiled.

Miriam watched him walk in like he was going to die, and shook his head funny.

When the man came out, she would be the next one. Besides, because she was the manager, the other party also enthusiastically invited her to try new products.

These gadgets all have radiation, and pregnant women are not allowed to approach it. Naturally, Miriam will not try to come forward fresh.

She was ready to say something in her heart, she smiled and tactfully refused, saying: "They both tried, I don't need it, and, my period is coming, it may be inconvenient, thank you."

The other party had to give up.

Chapter 84

She declined the other party's noon treat again, and Miriam packed up her things and left with them.

After checking the time, she arranged: "Go to eat first, and go to the next house in the afternoon."

Xiao Zhang nodded.

Mu Ming frowned, "Shall we not go back to the hotel and rest?"

Miriam looked at him, "Are you tired?"

"I'm not a big man, but haven't you been away for a long time?" He said, and glanced at her with winking eyebrows, and caring: "Don't hold on if you are uncomfortable, the company in the afternoon Assistant Zhang and I can also go."

Assistant Zhang was a little confused, but nodded, "Uh, uh."

Miriam glanced at him, followed Mu Ming's gaze, and looked at her body. There was a flash in her mind, and she suddenly understood something, and sneered, "You believe the excuse I just made? Are you afraid of tossing too late? It's not easy to refuse their meal at noon."

She just talked about the period, and he even noticed it. The child seemed casual, but sometimes she was a little shocked by his keenness.

Mu Ming's expression was just startled, and he laughed in a flash, without embarrassment, and said briskly: "I learned another trick from Manager Lu. It seems that I am still too young to watch my words."

Xiao Zhang finally understood, and answered, "It's not just you, I didn't hear it. If we just had the meal just now, we won't have to work in the afternoon."

Miriam rolled her eyelids and waved her hand, "Don't flatter, let's go, find a place to eat."

"..."

While sitting in the restaurant for dinner, Miriam received a call from Bryan.

Without speaking first, she spoke to the other two and got up and went outside the restaurant.

"Are you busy?" The man's low voice was hoarse, as if he had just woke up.

Miriam didn't say coldly anymore, and said calmly, "I'm taking the two of them for dinner."

"Not going back to the hotel at noon?"

“Well, there is not much time. I will go directly to the partner company in the afternoon.”

The man was silent for a second, and said, “Miriam, you don’t have to fight like this.”

The lazy whispering voice was in the ear, and there was a bit of sexy bewitching in the deep, Miriam seemed to be able to feel the temperature of his breathing, and her heart throbbed.

She would like to reply, I don’t fight the lines of classic idol dramas, but the reality is reality. Even if he gets on, she doesn’t feel touched, only a kind of embarrassing humiliation.

Looking at the dazzling sun ahead, she said without emotion: “The body is my own. I feel more distressed than anyone else. I know if I am tired.”

Bryan seemed a little helpless, and said in a deep voice, “I feel sorry for the child. You have to fight hard with two big men, and want to provoke me to get you back?”

Miriam was very fearless, pursing her lips and chuckles, “Then you can feel distressed as much as you like. Anyway, they are still in my stomach. Where should I go, come and grab if you can.”

After speaking slowly, she hung up the phone with her lips curled. She seemed to be able to imagine his gloomy handsome face in her mind, and her mood suddenly improved a lot.

She can find out the hotel she is staying in, and which company she is going to go to in the afternoon on a business trip?

Miriam returned to the dinner table, Mu Ming caught a glimpse of the corners of her lips, squinted her eyes, and said with a low smile: “Sister Miriam, what is so happy?”

The smile narrowed, she sat down, picked up the chopsticks again, and made a serious nonsense, “I can’t just be praised by a friend for being beautiful.”

Xiao Zhang, “...”

Mu Ming’s lips twitched, “Your friend...may need an ophthalmology appointment.”

Miriam, “...”

Miriam was in a good mood all afternoon, but she was very happy and sad.

The last company I went to was so enthusiastic that it was a bit difficult to ask them to eat at night. Miriam and the others refused to refuse for a long time, and they could only agree.

When it got dark, a group of people went to the large private room of the hotel.

Miriam didn't want to and could only laugh with her.

Mu Ming tugged at the corner of her clothes secretly, and asked with a low smile, "What should I do? This group of middle-aged uncles, it is estimated that we can drink to death."

Miriam frowned, a dignified light flashing under her eyes, "Actually, don't you know how to say it? Push as long as you can. Don't be unscrupulous because of your young health."

She has encountered many difficult customers, but it is the first time she has encountered this kind of occasion while pregnant. These people are all big men, and I will not stop until I drink.

"What about you?" Mu Ming couldn't help but worry.

Miriam smiled pretentiously, and said in a low voice: "I am the only woman in the audience. They can still bully me? How to say we are also guests. They have no brain to think about the interests of their company."

"Manager Lu, hurry up, please sit down."

Someone greeted her loudly to take her seat.

Miriam immediately put on a smile, looked at Mu Ming, and walked over to take his seat.

A manager of the other company eagerly opened the chair and said with a smile: "Manager Lu, sit here."

Miriam, who was smiling, was a little disgusted, but taking the overall situation as the most important, she still sat down politely.

The man smiled so that his eyes were almost gone, and he opened the chair next to her smoothly, and was about to sit down. Mu Ming's long legs moved away, his slender body just squeezed between the two of them, and he sat down naturally. Position, I still don't forget to smile politely at the man, "Manager Fang, you are so polite. Sit down."

After being cut off by others, the smile on Manager Fang's face suddenly changed a bit, he retracted his hand in a slanderous manner, and nodded with a dry smile, "It should be..."

The left hand is occupied by Xiao Zhang, and the right hand is Mu Ming.

Miriam felt warm in her heart and gave him a grateful look.
