

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 85– 86

Chapter 85

Mu Ming blinked at her, his expression was quite casual, and even made Miriam feel that he had long been used to such occasions.

After a few bites of a table of dishes, everyone on the other side began to raise their glasses.

Someone stood up, looked at her and greeted her with a smile, “Manager Lu, you are the only lady in this game today. We should respect you first for this glass of wine.”

“No, no... Director Chen is too polite, how can I let you make a toast?” Miriam also stood up politely and smiled, but her heart fell cold.

At the beginning of the game, she made a big move, and when she came up, it blocked all her back roads. The director pulled everyone to toast her. No matter how great she was, she couldn't get rid of it anymore, and once she had her first cup, tonight The three of them must be drunk.

Compared with these old fritters in the workplace, she is obviously not good enough. These people made it clear that they wanted to bully them.

But... there is no way out, after all, Xiao Zhang and Mu Ming didn't know that she could not drink now.

Director Chen laughed loudly, “Everyone is a friend, and whoever respects whom is not the same?”

With only a second or two in his mind, Miriam slightly curled her lips, raised the cup and touched him, “Mr. Chen is right. Since Yingxin has cooperated with your company, they are naturally friends.”

After speaking, she lifted her chin slightly, took a deep breath, and poured a full glass of wine with her eyes closed.

Most of these people are regular visitors to the wine and meat restaurant, and they don't bother drinking red wine at all. Simple and crude white wine is more convenient.

It's cold into the throat, a hot burning sensation.

Miriam restrained, but the intense discomfort still made her frown.

“Manager Lu has a good drink.” The smile on Director Chen's face deepened, and his eyes looked a little naked.

Miriam suppressed the discomfort in her throat, pulled the corners of her lips apart, half-seriously and half-jokingly said: "This first glass of wine is respected by everyone. If I don't finish it, I will definitely not give you the face of President Chen, but I'm a woman, and I can't drink more than President Chen. Please raise your hand and let our President Henry come to drink with you next time."

She deliberately brought up President Henry. The people here are all human beings, and everything is up to this point. If they want to continue to be aggressive, they can only go to the company.

But the other party didn't seem to hear what she meant. Manager Fang sat down, touched the grease on his mouth, put down his chopsticks and smiled: "Manager Lu, you are going to be disappointed. This is just the beginning. You came to Jincheng. , How can we do our best? If your Henry is here, we must be drunk tonight."

Miriam clenched her teeth subconsciously!

These old fritters!

The three of them couldn't drink a few of them in the past. They obviously didn't want them to go back so easily tonight.

Thinking of a way in his mind, the figure on the right hand side suddenly stood up. It was a few meters tall and much taller than Miriam. The Mu Ming seemed to casually raise his hand to pat her shoulder and press her back calmly. He got his seat, and curled his thin lips with perfect curvature. The other manager said: "Our manager is a lady. Drinking is definitely not as good as work. Since Manager Fang is so polite, I will toast you first."

Manager Fang froze for a moment, then laughed, "Young man, not bad, not bad..."

He has seen a lot of young employees, but a hairy boy fell down after drinking two glasses.

A trace of contempt flashed under his eyes, and Manager Fang made a whole cup by himself, drinking without panting.

Miriam's eyes were cold, looking at Mu Ming, she felt a little worried.

If you drink it like this, they will go to the hospital in a few cups.

Looking up again, Mu Ming has put down the empty glass, wiped his mouth and took a breath, smiled a little more silly, "Wine is a good wine, but forgive me, if you drink too much, I am afraid we will not be able to go to Longteng tomorrow. Up."

Miriam frowned, Long Teng?

In this return visit to customers, there is no dragon.

“Long Teng?” The people on the opposite side were also taken aback.

President Chen sat down and smiled slightly, “Which dragon are you talking about?”

Xiao Zhang asked puzzledly, “How many dragons are there in Jincheng?”

Manager Fang’s eyes flickered, and his smile slowly faded. He asked, “Do you also cooperate with Longteng?”

The kind of top venture capital company in the industry is how many companies are vying for it and can’t ask for it, and companies like Yingxin that are not up to the table can be favored by them?

Mu Ming picked up some dishes for Miriam and casually stated: “Of course there is cooperation. After all, there is a new company opposite Yingxin, but the most important thing is that our manager and Longteng’s Shao are always friends. We will visit tomorrow. My friend, let’s not talk about work. Now that the appointment has already been made, it’s always not good to miss the appointment? Isn’t it, manager?”

He turned to see Miriam raised his eyebrows.

Chapter 86

Miriam looked at him and was stunned for a second. How did he know that she and Bryan... Or did he see it in the morning?

Being puzzled, Mu Ming blinked at her secretly.

Miriam instantly understood what he meant, but she didn’t want to take advantage of Bryan’s name. He knew when she turned around. Even if it wasn’t embarrassing, she would lose a bit of confidence in front of him in the future.

But, now she can’t break a major event because of this little selfishness, and the reactions of these people are obviously more interested in Bryan’s affairs.

Thinking of this, Miriam curled up her crimson lips, her face was not red and her heart was nodding, and she said in embarrassment: “Yes, I said before I came to Jincheng, I must visit him after the work is completed. , I have an appointment tomorrow morning. It’s not nice to have an appointment? After all, he is so busy.”

The people on the opposite side glanced at each other, slowly put down their glasses, and their smiles became weird.

Or Mr. Chen coughed lightly and pretended to ask casually: “Did Manager Lu have a personal relationship with Mr. Shao, or did he go instead of Mr. Henry?”

Miriam lightly explained, "It shouldn't make any difference, right? Everyone is friends, just have a meal."

If they knew it was her ex-husband, their expressions would be wonderful.

Director Chen's eyes changed when they looked at her, and they smiled stiffly, "Yes, yeah, it doesn't make a difference, but the friend who can make Mr. Shao look at him, it seems we didn't look at the wrong person."

Bryan, even if he has never met a real person, few people in the circle don't know his name. Everyone wants to be the object of cursing, but I heard that people are a little cold and their whereabouts are relatively low-key. I rarely see him having personal relationships with anyone. .

This one is the boss of Longteng, and the other is the manager of a small company. No matter how she can communicate with each other at work, but if what she said is true, there is probably only one relationship between the two.

The messy things of the president and young assistants are not unusual in the circle, but if you provoke her, it is not difficult to go back and blow a pillow wind and trample a small company to death.

"Where is President Chen, people like me are all over the streets, and it is also in the light of President Henry, so that President Shao takes a look, which is not a lot of personal relationships." Miriam sneered in her heart while vacillating.

She also borrowed her name. Even if she tried her best to deny it, these people would have nasty thoughts about the relationship between her and Bryan, and fortunately, it worked. They were afraid of Bryan, which meant that they could go back sooner. As for the others, go back and think about it, she doesn't want to be drunk here.

Manager Fang glanced at her charming face, and a shrewd look flashed through her eyes.

Does this woman treat them as a three-year-old child?

No one can prove it is true.

He got up and put a piece of meat in front of Miriam. The middle-aged man smiled attentively on his face, "Manager Lu, don't talk, eat meat..."

Afterwards, he changed his conversation and said embarrassedly: "In fact, our company has been docking with Longteng, hoping to cooperate, but has never found any special opportunities. I did not expect to meet Manager Lu today. , I really met a noble person, if you can...help us introduce Mr. Shao, we are really grateful."

As he said, he turned his head and glanced at Director Chen.

The other party was startled, and then immediately nodded, “Uh, yes, yes, I am grateful, our two companies will definitely be able to cooperate for a long time in the future.”

“ ... ”

Looking at the faces of the people on the opposite side, Miriam almost vomited in her heart, but she still endured it and laughed, “Manager Fang is polite. If I have the opportunity, I will naturally be happy to recommend you to Mr. Shao. We Cooperation, of course, requires resource sharing.”

Share a fart!

If it hadn't been for her year-end award and scrupulous about the entire company, she would have patted her ass and left.

The thick-skinned ones are comparable to the city walls.

But she ignored that these people are scheming, and a verbal promise can't be moved.

Manager Fang smiled with joy, but did not sit in a hurry. His smile was a bit more profound, “Then...I would not like Manager Lu to call and ask Mr. Shao now. It happens that you will meet tomorrow, if you can. , Take us together, ten minutes will be fine, and will definitely not delay your private chat.”

“ ... ”

The smile on Miriam's face slowly faded.

Is this trying to test the truth of what she just said?

Manager Fang did not deny, and shook his head as if he was teaching the newcomers seriously, “You are still young and don't understand. To do our business, you have to learn to play tricks. However, the one I met today is Manager Lu, as long as you can reach an agreement with Longteng. , Even if we owe Yingxin a favor?”

As the two talked, Miriam pretended to lower her head to eat the food, but she was thinking quickly in her mind.

If they don't tear their faces, they might be able to tear them down forever.

Don't fight, it took a long time to talk jokes.

Hit, can she raise her head in front of Bryan?

After gritting her teeth, Miriam slowly chewed the food in her mouth. After swallowing, she raised her face in embarrassment and said: "Manager Fang, Mr. Shao is so busy, I would not dare to make this call suddenly, or I would dial it first. Then let Director Chen come to pick him up? His identity must be easier to talk than me."

She said, picking up the phone, and about to dial.

Mr. Chen's face changed and he was busy stopping her, chuckling, "Well, he was joking, don't disturb Mr. Shao at this time. Let's eat and eat, and we will talk about it tomorrow."

In case the two of them really have anything to do with each other, calling him with his woman's cell phone is simply looking for death.

"Chen..." Just as Manager Fang was about to say something, the leg under the table was kicked violently and immediately silenced.

Miriam pretended to think for two seconds, put down the phone, nodded, curled her lips, put on a pretty sincere smile, "That's fine, if I have time tomorrow morning, I will definitely recommend Director Chen and Fang to him. manager."

The warning in the words was obvious. It made Mr. Chen smile stiffly, and then he laughed twice, "Uh...well, thank you Manager Lu first. I did this glass of wine, you are free."

When the words fell, he picked up the wine glass and poured it down, shocking himself.

Seeing the effect of her own words, Miriam didn't even touch her glass this time, her smile faded, and her expression looked rather cold.

But I was relieved in my heart.

Mu Ming Yu Guang glanced at her, his eyes thickened and complicated.

Miriam's little bit of wanting to get caught up in the game caused the situation to turn around instantly, no longer laughed, and made the other party think she was angry, and they all began to flatter her.
