

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 1925

“I’ll have Elle block all exits from the condominium. We’ll sneak in.”

Catherine thought of an idea. “Let’s find a place to change our clothes.”

Half an hour later, Freya and Catherine had changed into a set of black sportswear and sports shoes. They even wore baseball caps with wigs underneath them. They looked like two 18-year-old students. However, they were not girls but two handsome boys.

They followed a husband and wife who were staying in the condominium and went inside. After going in, Catherine immediately shoved a stack of cash into the woman’s hands. “Aunty, thank you so much. This is a small token of appreciation.”

“No need to thank me. I despise sc*mmmy men who keep mistresses behind their wives’ back the most,” the middle-aged woman said angrily, “You guys must catch that homewrecker. I’m not taking the money.”

“Mm, I’ll divorce that man after I catch that mistress. I don’t want to put up with this anymore,” Freya said as her eyes reddened.

Those words were her true feelings. The middle-aged woman sympathized with her a lot. “Ah, that man is having an affair despite having such a beautiful wife. Is he blind?”

The middle-aged man said, “You really don’t have to give us money. If it were before, it would’ve been quite easy for you guys to enter. I don’t really know what’s been going on recently. The management said there was a case of burglary in the condominium, so they became particularly strict on checking outsiders.”

“Recently?” Catherine was stunned. “About half a month ago.”

After bidding goodbye to the middle-aged couple, Freya gritted her teeth and said, "Rodney really went to such great lengths just to protect Sarah. Luckily, we disguised ourselves before coming in. If not, there really might be Rodney's people on watch nearby."

"No matter whether Rodney has people watching or not, Sarah shouldn't even think about escaping tonight."

Catherine was careful. She and Freya did not take the elevator straight to the 19th floor. Instead, they got off the 15th floor and crept up by foot.

In a condominium with more than 30 floors, the higher the floor, the fewer the people there would be in the fire escape stairway.

However, when Catherine and Freya reached the 18th floor, they heard the sounds of a phone coming from the floor above. It seemed that someone was playing games.

Then, there were voices of people talking.

"Ah, how long more do you think we have to stay in this sh*tty place? We have to be on shifts to guard this place every day. I'm so annoyed."

"There's no helping it. It was arranged by the higher-ups."

"But I saw Young Master Snow coming here last night. He only left after midnight. Who's the woman he's hiding inside?"

"Do you have a death wish? Keep your voice down. This isn't a matter that you can simply talk about. Someone might hear you."

The people on the floor above lowered their voices even more, but Catherine and Freya could still hear parts of the conversation.

"No, I'm just curious. I heard that Young Master Snow and Young Madam Snow are preparing to hold a wedding. I saw it on the trending searches yesterday. What Young Master Snow is doing now isn't very appropriate."

"Please, just shut your mouth. This is the rich people's world. How many men will be content with just marrying one wife? It's just that some people are good at hiding it and don't get exposed. You have to understand that with the Snow family's strong background, it's our honor to be able to work for them."

"But Young Madam Snow is the prime minister's goddaughter, after all." "Is a goddaughter a biological daughter? Besides, everyone knows the true reason why Young Madam Snow was taken in as a goddaughter. When Young Master Snow was chased out of the Snow family, the Snow family seemed indifferent, but in the end, they just wanted to teach him a lesson. Wasn't the big project on alternative energy handed to Young Master Snow and Second Young Master Snow as soon as he apologized and returned?"

"Who doesn't know that industry is a crucial part of Australia's future development? Although it was said that Eldest Young Lady Snow was busy and didn't have time to manage it, in the end, it's still because Eldest Young Lady Snow is a woman and not a son."

"You're right. Young Master Snow used to be in charge of Snowden. After he was chased out, Second Young Master Snow took charge of Snowden. Ever since Young Master Snow admitted his mistakes and returned, half of Snowden was handed to him while the other half remained with Second Young Master Snow. Frankly speaking, Eldest Young Lady Snow was never the future of Snow Corporation.

But actually, Eldest Young Lady Snow is the person who contributed the most to the family. If it weren't for her..."

"I guess having Eldest Young Lady Snow be the president was to acknowledge her contributions to the Snow family. However, it'll be hard if she wants to take another step forward. In the future, she can only join the board of directors while those profitable projects will probably fall into the hands of Young Master Snow and Second Young Master Snow. We should just do our job properly under Young Master Snow and turn a blind eye to some things.”

Freya's head was about to explode.

She only intended to listen for a bit, but she did not expect that she would be able to hear so much inside information about the Snow family.

It looked like she had no status at all among the subordinates of the Snow family. The fact that she became the prime minister's goddaughter was all thanks to Rodney.

It turned out that although the Snow family had said that they were ashamed of Rodney, they were still trying hard to nurture that son of theirs through their actions.

Jessica was not even involved in Snowden despite contributing so much to the Snow family.

Snowden was one of the Snow family's real, strong forces.

It was just like how important Liona was to Shaun.

In the past, Freya hated Jessica quite a lot.

However, ever since hearing Jessica's story from Ryan, she felt that Jessica had sacrificed a lot for the Snow family.

Even Prime Minister Snow was able to assume the position smoothly because Jessica had been removing all obstacles at the frontlines.

Freya used to think that the Snow family was wonderful and everyone treated her well.

However, she strangely felt chills all over at that moment.

As a family that was at the top of Australia, no one in that family could be pure and gentle, right?

“Above.”

Catherine pointed upward and gestured with her hands. She mouthed with her lips, "Can we take those two people out?"

Freya gazed at Catherine cluelessly.

"We can now confirm that Sarah is definitely upstairs. Even if we bring people up with us, it'll surely alarm Rodney. Why don't we just take them out right now? Later, Elle's people will barge in. We'll force the door open together and seize Sarah immediately," Catherine said to Freya in a low voice.

Freya had lost her focus in confusion. After a moment, she nodded.

"Let's head down a few floors first. We can't let them know that we've been eavesdropping. We'll come up again later, take them by surprise, and knock them out."

Catherine threw a bottle of pepper spray to Freya after she finished speaking.

Why did Catherine bring so many random things with her?

Both of them went a few floors down, then walked up again with their hands on each other's shoulders.

The two men on the 19th floor looked down when they heard the sound of footsteps coming from below. It turned out to be two young boys.

"Ah, it's so tiring. Why don't we take the elevator?"

"No way. Don't you want to strengthen your stamina? Let's just walk. We'll succeed as long as we persevere."

Catherine and Freya acted until they reached the 19th floor.

Both of them had makeup on. Even so, when the men glanced at them, they thought that they looked familiar.

However, before the men could react, their eyes were attacked with pepper spray. The stinging was so bad that they could not open their eyes. It just so happened that they were standing on the stairs as well.
