

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South

Chapter 2015

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 2015

Shaun shook his head. "I can tell you that I intended to attack the day Sarah went to the airport. Her disappearance today has nothing to do with me."

Chester believed him. "It's obvious. If you had done something, you would've expected Rodney to bring his men over for a search. Based on your character, you would've carefully assigned people early on. He wouldn't have had a chance to barge into the Hill family's manor."

Shaun sighed. He smiled bitterly. "You understand me best."

It was unfortunate that Rodney understood Shaun less despite knowing him for so long.

"Rodney understands you too, but... He always becomes irrational when it comes to matters that involve Sarah." Chester's voice sounded helpless too.

"Say no more. Actually, there's already no more trust between Rodney and me," Shaun said mockingly, "But I'm curious about who kidnapped Sarah."

"Maybe she has other enemies she has offended." Chester took a drag of the cigarette. "I did some investigation in the hospital. Here's what I think happened. At 9:00 p.m. last night, someone disguised as a doctor examined Sarah. After that person went in, they knocked out Sarah and the caregiver. Then, they tied Sarah outside the window and someone took Sarah away using a rope from the rooftop."

Shaun was astonished. "Was there no commotion at all when Sarah and the caregiver were knocked out in the ward?"

"That's the weird thing." Chester was thinking about it too. "However, the caregiver said Sarah went to sleep very early last night. I suspect that Sarah must've been knocked out beforehand, but I'm not sure how that happened."

"Maybe someone tampered with her medications or everyday items." Shaun guessed. "The person who did it was quite meticulous too. I don't know whether the motive is to kidnap or get revenge on Sarah. If it was for revenge, Sarah might not even be alive now."

"Don't worry. Since she went missing in my hospital, I'll investigate this thoroughly for you.

Rodney won't be able to blame you even if he files a police report."

At the hospital, Chester put down his phone. He stood in front of the window, looking at the sky that was starting to turn bright.

Not long after, his subordinate came in. "Young Master Jewell, I've asked that caregiver. Sarah said she was tired very early last night. But for the past few days, Sarah's wounds would hurt and she would only sleep at 1:00 or 2:00 a.m. She was most probably drugged. However, there's no problem with Sarah's IV drip yesterday. Her meals were arranged by Young Master Snow. The caregiver also said that Sarah had an upset stomach last night and did not eat much. The only possibility would be..."

Chester raised his eyebrows. "Go on."

His subordinate walked to Chester's front and spoke in a low voice, "The toothpaste. I squeezed some of Sarah's toothpaste and did a test. There are traces of drugs in it. It's a drug that'll make people drowsy even if only a little of it comes into contact with the mouth cavity."

Chester's pupils constricted. He recalled something all of a sudden. He had brought Eliza to Sarah's ward yesterday. Eliza had gone to the bathroom too. Therefore, it was very possible that she tampered with the toothpaste.

He pulled his subordinate over. "Where's that toothpaste?"

"It's still in the bathroom. But it's likely that only the front bit of the toothpaste has been tampered with. If we don't say anything, Young Master Snow won't find out about it," the subordinate said carefully. "I remember your words. If it was Young Master Hill who did this, we should erase as much evidence as possible stealthily. Therefore, I didn't inform Young Master Snow anything."

"Don't say a word about this anymore." Chester asked in a low voice, "Who has gone into Sarah's ward yesterday?"

"Not many. Just Rodney, the caregiver, Cindy, Miss Eliza, and you..." After the subordinate spoke, his gaze became different.

"Is there any progress on Rodney's side?" Chester asked all of a sudden.

"Yes. Snowden's people acquired the hospital's security footage at dawn. Sarah was taken away through the rooftop. As long as a suspicious person is found entering the rooftop at that hour, it won't take long for them to find the culprit," the subordinate said. "The other party definitely took Sarah away in a car. If the car can be found, it'll be easy to investigate this matter."

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 2016

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 2016

After pausing for a moment, the subordinate muttered, "Actually, the other party shouldn't have made a move at this time. There are security cameras everywhere in the hospital. It's easy to leave traces behind."

Chester took a long drag of his cigarette.

That was right. They should not have taken action at this time. It was too hasty.

Even Shaun did not make a move.

"Okay, I got it. You can go out. Keep an eye on the progress on Rodney's side. Inform me immediately if any situation arises."

After the subordinate left, Chester dialed a number. "Find out Eliza's movements last night. I need the information in detail as soon as possible. No matter what method you use, give it to me within 20 minutes."

During that period, Chester kept standing in front of the window. Many incidents flashed across his mind.

For example, when he went to the club two days ago, he saw Freya and Eliza drinking there. The bartender said Eliza had crushed a wine glass with her hands.

He recalled Eliza taking the lead and kissing him yesterday in order to meet Sarah.

After meeting Sarah, Eliza was eager to avoid Chester again.

Chester laughed coldly.

About ten minutes later, his men gave him a call. "Young Master Jewell, Eliza had a meal with Director Lear until after 8:00 p.m. last night. After that, her car went into a nearby neighborhood. Her car is still in the neighborhood, but she's not there. Her phone can't be contacted as well. I checked the security footage of the neighborhood. Within five minutes after Eliza's car entered, another car without a car plate exited. Afterward, that car went onto the federal highway and turned into a newly constructed road. There are no security cameras there, so the current situation is unknown."

"Assign people to go there and search along the newly constructed road for suspicious cars at the houses or factories nearby."

After giving his orders, Chester quickly took his white coat off.

Doctor Jenkins, who was in the same department as Chester, had just arrived for work. Chester threw his car keys to him. "Where did you park your car? Let's swap cars for a day."

After being stunned for a few seconds and looking at the keys to a Maybach in his hands, Dr. Jenkins immediately passed his Volvo car keys to Chester.

"Don't tell anybody else about us swapping cars."

Chester left quickly. When he was about to arrive at the official residence, he called Freya's number. "Miss Lynch, I'm Chester. I have an important matter to tell you. Please come out. I'll wait for you at the door."

Freya was brushing her teeth. She was confused when she received Chester's call. Was she close to Chester? "Can't you just talk about it over the phone? Rodney can't possibly be in your car, right?"

"If you want to save Eliza, quickly change your clothes and come out. Don't tell anyone about this. Doing so will only harm Eliza." Chester urged Freya coldly.

Freya was shocked. Although she was not clear about what was happening, she wiped her face in a hurry and ran out after simply putting on clothes.

At the garden, she bumped into Ryan, who had just returned from jogging. He was wearing a set of white sportswear. Looking at Freya's frantic expression, he frowned. "It's so early in the morning. Where are you going? Has Dani woken up yet?"

"Dani is still sleeping. Something urgent came up. If Aunty Loretta can't handle her, please take care of Dani for me."

Freya hurriedly ran toward the gates after speaking.

A Volvo was parked under a nearby oak tree. Chester opened the car door. Freya ran over and got in the car. "What happened to Eliza?"

"How well do you know your friend?" Chester turned his head and looked at Freya. His gaze was deep and sharp.

Freya was stunned. Actually, she did not know Eliza really well because Eliza was different from her. She liked to share all of her thoughts while Eliza would hide hers in her heart.

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 2017

Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 2017

"It seems like you don't really understand your friend," Chester said sarcastically.

"I admit that I don't know Eliza well, but at least I understand that she's not a two-faced person.

Although she's a person of few words, she definitely prioritizes friendship. I'm willing to sacrifice anything for her too." Freya was anxious.

She did not want to beat about the bush anymore. " Just be honest with me. If not, I can call Eliza and ask her myself."

"You won't be able to contact her now." One of Chester's hands rested on the steering wheel. He said calmly, "Did Catherine tell you about Sarah's disappearance?"

Freya widened her eyes. "Sarah has gone missing?"

Chester understood when he saw her expression. " Sarah went missing last night. It looks like Catherine didn't tell you because she didn't want to disturb your sleep. Last night, it was as if Rodney had gone insane. He brought Snowden's men to the Hill family's manor and created a stir. He thought it was Shaun who kidnapped Sarah. It has nothing to do with Shaun, but Rodney doesn't believe it. He has already made a police report. He's currently at the hospital to investigate the matter. When I came out, it seemed like he had already found traces of the kidnapper."

It might be because Freya did not expect so many things would happen in one night that she could not say anything for a long time.

She did not know whether she felt disheartened, disappointed, or angry.

Although she knew that Sarah was important to Rodney from the start, everything Rodney had done for Sarah still surprised her.

The more it happened, the more she felt that her marriage with Rodney was ridiculous.

They were not divorced yet but Rodney was already going to such lengths for Sarah. Had he even considered Freya and the child's feelings?

Forget it. There was already an answer to that question long ago. Rodney could risk everything, become insane, and even break off friendships for Sarah.

Freya and the child were just extras.

"Rodney can investigate it all he wants." Freya sneered. "Does this have anything to do with Eliza?"

"Yes." Chester looked toward her. "I did my investigation. Eliza was the one who kidnapped Sarah."

It was like Freya's head had exploded. She was in shock and could not come back to her senses for a long time. "It's impossible. Could it be... Is Eliza avenging me? Why is she so foolish? Although I hate Sarah, it's not worth it."

After she spoke, she sobbed. She did not expect Eliza to do something so crazy for her.

If she were a guy, she would just get married to Eliza.

Chester was speechless for a moment. Did all women have such rich, self-flattering imaginations?

"You're overthinking. Eliza and Charity were childhood friends. She must've been close to Jennifer as well." Chester revealed the truth. "It might be because you told her something when you were drinking with her that day."

Freya, who was initially feeling touched, was speechless now. " "

Fine, it turned out that she was overthinking.

However, she was surprised that Eliza and Charity were childhood friends. Why did she not hear Eliza mention that before?

No wonder Eliza lost control and crushed the wine glass that day.

She must have been furious at that time.

However, Freya thought she and Catherine were also Charity's good friends. Although they wanted to avenge Charity, they could not go to such great lengths as Eliza. Freya suddenly felt ashamed. " Young Master Jewell, what can I do to help Eliza? Just tell me."