Let me go, Mr. Hill By Shallow South Chapter 2072

The nurse was startled.

She quickly pressed the bell to call for an emergency.

When Rodney outside heard a few doctors running toward Sarah's ward, a bad feeling arose in his heart. He went back to the ward in a hurry.

Sarah was lying on the bed, and the doctors were checking her heartbeat. Her face was as pale as a sheet, and there was a puddle of blood on the floor.

"What happened?"

Rodney felt like his head was about to explode. He was already in a bad mood, and the deterioration of Sarah's condition made him even more flustered.

Sarah was so furious that she could not say a word. She simply glared at Rodney.

The nurse at the side said as she trembled. "She was so angry from finding out about the changes in Snow Corporation's share allocation that she coughed up blood..."

When the nurse saw that Sarah could not speak because she was too furious, she only told half the truth.

Rodney was extremely infuriated. He glared at the nurse and shouted angrily, "Were you the one who told her? You're only inserting a needle, but why do you have so much nonsense to say? Why are you even a nurse? Why don't you become a gossip?"

The nurse flushed, and her eyes reddened. If it were before, she would not have dared to talk back at Rodney. However, she could not resist retorting, "She humiliated me first. Her blood vessels were too fine, so I didn't manage to insert the needle the first time. That was when she used her identity to demand our head nurse to come over. Our head nurse is very busy. Not everyone has to revolve around her alone."

Rodney kicked a chair in front of him, and the pent-up anger in his chest exploded at that moment. "Your head nurse had time yesterday and the day before yesterday, but she just had to be busy today. Is it because she saw the news that I'm no longer the successor to Snow Corporation? All of you are snobbish people. Even if I'm not the successor, I can crush you down with money. One word and I can make all of you lose your jobs."

With that, the nurse's body trembled, not due to fear but anger.

She was only a little over 20 years old and had just graduated. Compared to a job, young people would prioritize their pride more.

Seeing that the situation was going out of hand, the emergency doctor scolded her, "Young Master Snow is correct. Quickly apologize to Miss Neeson and get out."

The doctor hinted at the nurse with his eyes after speaking. However, Rodney was relentless. "Make her leave. I don't want to see her in this hospital anymore."

"Rodney, this is the hospital, not your home."

Chester walked into the ward elegantly in a white robe and his hands in his pockets. There was also a pair of gold-rimmed glasses on his handsome face.

"Every employee of the hospital is under a contract. If you're accusing them of medical malpractice, firing them would be a matter of course. However, from the perspective of employment and labor laws, it's unreasonable to have our hospital fire a nurse just because of some verbal arguments."

Rodney sneered. "Chester, you're just like the outsiders. You think I'm not qualified to be your friend anymore because I've lost the right to inherit Snow Corporation, right?"

Chester frowned and observed Rodney for a while. After not meeting him for some time, the corners of his childhood friend's eyes were filled with hostility and stubbornness.

It made him disappointed. How did Rodney change from the old him to the current him with this behavior?

The old Rodney would not have simply requested to fire someone because of some trivial matters.

"Rodney, I think you're mistaken. I just heard the news, so I took some time to come up and visit you." Chester shrugged his shoulders. "How's Miss Neeson?" The doctor explained, "She just did a medical examination yesterday, so it's most likely that her anger got to her.

The patient must regulate her emotions, relax, and get enough rest."

Chester knew everything. Yet, he still walked toward the bed and gazed at Sarah. He said, "Sarah, be more open-minded. Although Rodney has lost Snow Corporation, it also means that the Snow family won't bother you and Rodney anymore. Both of you have gone through many hardships to finally be together. Rodney and your wishes have already been fulfilled in one way or another. From now on, stay by each other's side. Even if your legs are crippled, Rodney is a person who takes relationships seriously. He'll surely take good care of you."

Sarah did not feel consoled hearing Chester's words. Instead, she almost coughed out mouthfuls of blood again.

To hell with finally being together. She did not like Rodney at all!

All she wanted was to be the matriarch of the Snow family. That way, all noble and influential people would fight to curry her favor.

However, everything was gone.

Rodney held Sarah's hand and consoled her, " Sarah, you don't have to think that you've dragged me down. I've never blamed you. In fact, I've come round. I don't think Snow Corporation is that important. What's important, at least, is that we'll have freedom. In the future, I'll be able to marry you and take care of you, without my family stopping me anymore. Don't worry. I'll never leave you again."

Sarah was in utter despair.

Looking at Rodney's face, she would have jumped and slapped him across his face if she were healthy, not disfigured, and able to move her hand.

„Why do I want to marry you? Why will I?“ However, Sarah's brain was still working fine.

She knew that if she were to leave Rodney in her current state, even a garbage collector would not fall for her.

As such, she had no choice. She could only be tied to that fool, Rodney, for the rest of her life.

Tears flowed from her eyes.

She was crying out of exasperation.

Nevertheless, Rodney quickly wiped her tears away. "Don't cry. Don't push all the blame onto yourself. This has nothing to do with you. When you're discharged, we'll register our marriage."

Chester was happy to hear that.

After walking out of the ward, he told Shaun about it like it was a joke.

Shaun passed the message to his wife immediately. Catherine laughed for a while before she called Freya to tell her about it as well. "Do you reckon Rodney is stupid to think Sarah cried because of guilt? She was obviously crying out of anger." Freya ate a piece of orange lazily. "That's quite unfortunate." "What's unfortunate?"

Freya sneered. "If only Eliza didn't disfigure Sarah's face or sever her tendons. If Sarah were fine and found out that Rodney had lost his rights to being a successor, she would definitely slap him in the face. Guess what she would have said?"

Catherine laughed. " „You idiot. Are you thinking of marrying me with those qualities of yours? Do you think I’ve really fallen in love with you? I was aiming to be the matriarch of the Snow family and be in a higher position by getting married to you.”“

“That’s why it’s unfortunate. With Sarah’s horrible looks, she’ll still hold onto Rodney even if she looks down on him. She’ll only meet a dead -end if she leaves Rodney, ” Freya mocked.

“To be honest, I wish to see Rodney regretting losing me. I just think that an evil woman like Sarah doesn’t deserve to be taken good care of by Rodney for the rest of her life.”

At that moment, Catherine thought of something, and she suddenly smiled. “Well, it’s not impossible to get Rodney to see through her true colors.”

“What ideas do you have in mind?” Freya became excited. Catherine said playfully, “Actually, Sarah doesn’t like Rodney. She’s simply using him. I think she likes Shaun more, but she just can’t get hold of Shaun at all.”

“You’re right. I believe that if only Chester had shown a bit of interest in Sarah back then, she wouldn’t have chosen Rodney. Although Chester is sc*mmy, he is capable.”

“Mm,” Catherine replied and smiled vaguely. “Say, once Rodney and Sarah get married — when they spend more time with each other, and Rodney’s career continues going downhill, do you think Sarah will want to have an affair when another man richer than Rodney appears?”

“Ahem.”

Freya, who was eating oranges, was so shocked that she choked.

“Do you want Rodney to be cheated on?”

"He has done the same to you. Don't you want him to experience the feeling of being cheated on as well?" Catherine asked playfully, "Or will you feel sorry for him..."

"To hell with feeling sorry."

Freya blurted out some foul words in a rush. "I desperately want him to be cheated on for his entire life. I will never forget the things he has done to me even if I become a ghost."

"Okay, as long as you won't feel bad for him." Catherine was relieved. "There are many with Rodney's current net worth in Canberra. Besides, I've collaborated with local and international cosmetics companies to grab the chance to suppress Osher Corporation while it's being surrounded by scandals. After a year, we'll acquire Osher Corporation when it can't hold on anymore."

Freya was dumbfounded. "What are you talking about? I don't understand a word you're saying."

"Oh, the incident of Rodney betraying you and cheating on you has become quite a big issue. I added fuel to the fire behind the scenes with other cosmetic companies. Now, many women are boycotting Osher Corporation. You, too, know that skincare product consumers are made up primarily of women, and Rodney's terrible actions have provoked the strong dissatisfaction of women across the country. Since Osher Corporation's market in Australia is pretty huge, many companies have been wanting to eliminate it. In this age of the internet, reputation is crucial if a company wants to survive.

What I'm doing now is to ruin Osher Corporation's reputation."

"Wow... You're incredible, boss." Freya was overwhelmed with admiration for Catherine.

"What comes after that?"

"Rodney is still quite capable, so he'll definitely think of a way to restore the reputation.

However, he has lost the Snow family's inheritance rights.

Who would want to help him then? Of course, Chester can do that, but I'll ask Shaun to stop Chester from helping Rodney."

Catherine laughed and said, "Even if Osher Corporation manages to overcome this hardship, it will suffer huge damage, and its reputation will be ruined. No one will buy its products, so it can't hold out for long. During this period, I'll continue launching our newly developed products. We'll move on to facials, hair salons, family products, and many more. We'll expand Freycatheli. As for Osher Corporation, I'll acquire it in two years, and by then, we can make Rodney work for us."

Freya did not know what to say. She was curious whether the company she had established could develop that far. Was that Freycatheli?

"Um... President Jones, why would you have such a scary and ambitious idea?"

"Oh, I got the idea over the past few days of taking care of you. Seeing you hurt from Rodney's kick as if you're paralyzed has made me very unhappy." Catherine said aggressively, "Haha. If I don't crush his company, my last name won't be Jones. Even though I had nothing back then, I still managed to make Hudson Corporation a success. So now that I have the money, power, and connections, I can definitely make Freycatheli a worldwide brand."

Freya said, "Say no more. If you were standing in front of me, I would definitely bow before you."

"Don't bow. Just get well soon and get yourself to the laboratory to develop new products."

Catherine said, "Besides cosmetics, you can research skin care, hair shampoo, and body wash as well."

Freya glanced at her injured chest. She desperately wanted to remove her bandage and enter the laboratory now.

„Haha.“

„Acquire Osher Corporation. „
