

Let Me Go, Mr. Hill! by Shallow South Chapter 2230-2239

Ryan won't hurt himself.

This is what Freya deeply realized.

Catherine: [you get ready and set off in three days.]

Not long after, Ryan sent a dialogue script for breakfast in front of Heidi and his wife tomorrow.

After watching it, Freya replied: [I'm not a professional actress, so I'm a little unsure. What if the godfather and godmother find out.]

Ryan: [I'm concise enough, your lines are few, most of them are played by me, I believed you can do it.]

Freya:[...]

Ryan: [Didn't you say that women are all showgirls?]

Freya: [Who did you listen to? I've never heard of it.]

Ryan: [Wait and practice hard, if you don't practice tomorrow, I will tell my parents that I like you, you want to go abroad for training, I want to focus on raising your baby for you.]

Freya: [You won.]

She resignedly picked up the script and practiced it several times.

the next day, when eating breakfast in the lobby, Freya said to Heidi and Nathan: "Godfather and Godmother, it's like this, I will help our company to grow in the future. The training places in the Medical Aesthetic Research Center are going to go for two months. I thought about it all night yesterday, and really want to go to Quel for training..."

Before she could finish, Heidi was already surprised: "Is that the world's top luxury brand

Quel?"

"Yes."

Freya nodded honestly, "I'm still too young, if you want to go a long way in the path of a formulator. A company wants to develop better cutting-edge products, it must go out and learn.

The research institute on Quel brings together hundreds of top scientists from all over the world.

Just learning a little from them can bring me great experience.
It will Great help for me to regrow for our company.”

“This opportunity is really rare for me.”

Heidi nodded.

As Heidi is a career-oriented woman. She has a vision and has seen the world. So she doesn't stop Freya, “Freya, you have made up your mind, go ahead. Dani is placed in the ministerial Palace and Aunty Loretta will take good care of it.”

Freya frowned and said worriedly, “Aunty Loretta promised me that would take good care of her, but... I'm still a little worried.

“After a pause, a sly smile suddenly appeared on Freya's face and said to Ryan who was beside her, “Ryan, you are quite free at night now. If you have time, can you come back earlier and help me take a look?”

Ryan said quickly, “Occasionally you can take a look but you want me to take care of it for two months, forget it, I'm quite busy at night...”

“What are you busy with?” Nathan put down his chopsticks and said with a sullen face, “Don't think I don't know, you are here the grassroots do trivial things.
After work, you are more free than anyone else. I think you are thinking about fooling around outside at night.”

Ryan's face flashed a touch of irritability, “Dad...”

“Okay, your dad is right.” Heidi said hurriedly, “Instead of fooling around outside, it's better to come back early to help Freya take care of the child, don't you like Dani very much?”

“That's right. Freya quickly echoed, “Look at you, practice more and when you know how cute
the child is, maybe you want to be a father too.”

Heidi's heart moved, as she was reminded, “That's it. it's decided that come back early to take care of Dani.”

“Ryan, I will thank you in advance.” Freya said with a smile.
Ryan looked aggrieved but he could only bow his head and eat breakfast in a depressing way.

Chapter 2231

Both Ryan and Freya were just acting in front of them and with a few words, Heidi and Nathan would automatically jump into the pit. That's not ordinary people, it's the prime minister and the prime minister's wife who in the entire country dares to play with them like this, and they can be fooled.

Nathan wiped the corners of his mouth with a tissue, and said to his wife in a bad mood: "How can I let Ryan take care of her? He is a man who has never been married and has no children.

How can he know how to take care of children? I think it is better to let me take care of her.

Sister-in-law and the others have temporarily brought Dani back to the old house for two months.

After all, Dani is their grandson, and my sister-in-law talks about it all day long."

Heidi smiled and disagreed, "Take care of Dani, maybe she won't be able to come back."

Nathan frowned after hearing this, "Wife, what you said...?"

"Husband, you said that our sister-in-law really misses Dani. If I get used to it in the past two months, I can't bear to take Dani. Give it back to Freya."

Heidi took a sip of warm water slowly, "Freya is our goddaughter, since she lives in the ministerial Palace and willing to keep Dani here which is your trust in us, the child belongs to the mother. if one day Dani's custody is taken away, it will kill a woman."

"It's not that exaggerated, my eldest brother and sister-in-law are not that kind of people."

Nathan was not very happy to hear it. But after all, it was his wife who had received hair extensions for decades. Apart from their feelings, there are many interests for the two to reach where they are today.

"They chose not to interfere with Dani's custody before because of their guilt towards Freya. It's been a long time, and human nature can't stand the test the most. Don't talk about eldest brother and sister-in-law, let's talk about Rodney."

Heidi is dignified. Her face turned cold slightly, "If Rodney knows that his daughter has returned to the Snow family, he will not have to run to the Snow family's old house often. By then, will Sarah have no idea? She can't give birth, so she had given Dani's idea before. At any time, Rodney might really take Dani back, Freya was away on business for a few months and didn't have time to take her children, if Rodney really started a lawsuit, the judge might sentence the child to the past."

Nathan was speechless.

Heidi patted the back of his hand lightly, "To be honest, if Rodney's new wife was a gentle, generous and kind woman, I wouldn't be so hard on Freya. I think Freya would agree with Dani.

Dani often gets together with her father, grandparents but we all know that Sarah is a fuel-efficient lamp, if the child lives in the Snow family's old house, it is very likely that they will be beaten by meat buns and dogs, and there will be no return."

Nathan sighed, "Heidi, Perhaps you're right, Rodney is our son and the others after all, although they are disappointed, but no matter how many people in the world can do it. Heidi, you see we are right. Isn't that what Ryan is like?"

"Don't compare Ryan with Rodney." Heidi said coldly, "Ryan has a problem with her sexual orientation at most. There are problems with views and morality. He can't teach a good child at all. If it were me, I would not let Rodney come into contact with Dani, and Freya has a good character."

Nathan knew his wife.

Nathan coughed dryly with an angry temper, "It seems that Heidi, you really like Dani but unfortunately it wasn't born by Ryan, and he didn't know how to take care of children."

"So I asked him to bring him to take Dani. Dani is so cute, maybe he spends more time with the child and wants to be a father."

Heidi sighed, "I don't expect him to correct his sexual orientation and give me a baby. The grandson is enough."

"You...you are too undemanding." Nathan said angrily, "How can the prime minister's son...?"

"Take it down." Heidi rolled her eyes and said, "Husband, You are not an ancient emperor which can sit until you die and you may not be able to be re-elected in three years. Everyone is staring at you, who doesn't stare at your position and when you step off the stage, few people will pay attention to your son."

Chapter 2232

"I'm just looking forward to giving Ryan more power when I'm still in power. Can he run for prime minister?" Nathan said helplessly.

"I think you are really brainwashed by the old man." Heidi shook her head, "There has never been a precedent for both father and son to become prime ministers. It's hard to be strong wishful thinking, everything goes with the flow, we are all in our 50s, why should we be so tired of ourselves? If Ryan really likes your position, he will fight for it."

"Wife, You can think about it." Nathan smiled wryly.

"I think your Snow family is too greedy." Heidi glanced at him, "Don't look at how white your hair is after sitting in this position, you are thinking about things even when you sleep, and your feet don't touch the ground every day.

Nathan stroked his hair and sighed, "Wife, maybe you're right. Now I find that many things are not going well. None of the assistants and advisors can compare to him."

Heidi snorted, "I guess Ryan expected it and he will not be afraid."

"What should I do, don't you want to hug your grandson?"

Nathan said with a frown.

"Let's take one step at a time, our son is not easy." Heidi was filled with emotion.

For the next two days, Freya handed over the work at hand. After completing the procedures for going abroad, the rest of the time was either to pack at home or to accompany Dani.

Dani didn't know that his mother was going to go out for a while, and she smiled happily every day.

On the contrary, Freya was more and more reluctant day by day, and on the day she was about to leave, she felt asleep all night.

In the morning, Ryan put her suitcase into the trunk, Freya took a deep look at the smiling Dani and cried sadly when got into the car.

"Don't worry, I will definitely take care of Dani and it will make her feel that there is no difference between her mother's presence or absence." Ryan took a tissue and handed it to her.

"What do you mean?"

Freya glared at him with red eyes, "I'm going noew, Dani will definitely miss me, she usually sticks to me the most."

"Oh, I miss you every day at home and wash my face with tears?" Ryan asked leisurely.

"Of course not..."

Freya flatly denied it.

Ryan freed up a hand and touched her face, "You study hard over there. I promise to go home after work, not to go anywhere on weekends and when you come back, I will return you a chubby little baby."

"Ryan, What if I lose weight?" Freya deliberately found fault.

Chapter 2233

"I've lost weight..."

Hahaha..

Ryan smiled, "Then I really have to make up for it, I promise you."

"You think it's beautiful."

Freya rudely put a pinch on his thigh.

Ryan took the opportunity to hold her hand, "Look at you, you are about to go abroad, but you are only worried that Dani will miss you but not at all on me"

"We can chat every day, but Can't Dani?" Freya felt a little guilty and as a girlfriend, she really neglected him these two days.

"You won't even eat a child's vinegar."

"That won't happen, It's just..."

Ryan took advantage of the red light and whispered in her ear, "I'll miss you very much."

Ryan's breath blew on the tip of her ear and Freya's unsatisfactory scalp was numb.

"Drive well."

Freya didn't know how to answer him, so she could only endure the shy warning.

"Okay."

After the car arrived at the airport parking lot. The two of them unfastened their seat belts and did not rush out of the car.

Freya's beautiful teeth bit her lip, and just as she was plucking up the courage to say something,

Ryan in the driver's seat suddenly came over and kissed her lips without saying a word.

Different from the past, this kiss was warm and eager with deep regret.

Freya froze for a moment, realizing that when she was going abroad, she really ignored Ryan.

Not long after the two met, she was about to leave for such a long time and she suddenly became a little worried about gains and losses. And the only thing she can do is to respond to him to make him feel at ease.

Freya wrapped around his neck and slowly responded to the airtight kiss.

The heavy breathing of the two gradually fermented.

She could also feel his hand restless for the first time.

Everyone was an adult man and woman, her body stiffened for a moment, and soon her face blushed as dripping water.

The temperature inside the car was also getting higher.

The last thing that broke the atmosphere was her mobile phone ringing.

Freya hurriedly took the opportunity to push him away, trying to find the phone but her mind was like a mess. she searched for a long time and couldn't find it.

"Here."

Ryan picked up the phone from the footpad and handed it to her.

Freya looked at the phone and at the same time she saw his dark and burning gaze. He had changed from his graceful and elegant appearance in the past.

At this moment, his handsome face was dyed with crimson.

She was startled, quickly didn't dare to look at him and answered the phone.

"Miss Freya, have you arrived? I've already arrived at the entrance." The caller was another company colleague, Sylvie Zeller, who went to country F for training with her. Sylvie is four years older than her and used to be a biological Scientist, and later switched to the field of medical beauty. After Freycatheli was established, she was dug over with a lot of money.

Now in Freycatheli, she and Freya are the two most potential and talented people.

"I'm at the parking lot, I'll be right here."

After Freya hung up the phone, she realized that Ryan was sorting her messy clothes just now.

Thinking of his restless hand just now, her little face turned red again.

"They are all mothers. It stands to reason that you should have more experience than me, and you are so easy to blush." Ryan said jokingly.

"Who's blushing, is it because your car is hot?"

Freya retorted subconsciously, "Besides, I don't think you have poor experience. Look at how skilled you are..."

Chapter 2234

After finished speaking, Freya suddenly felt sore.

He has had girlfriends abroad and women abroad are very open, so he must have experienced it too.

Forget it, why bother with so much as a married person.

Freya got rid of the thoughts in her head, "I won't tell you, I have to go."

"Okay."

Ryan got out of the car first and took out her suitcase.

When the two walked side by side, Ryan quickly said, "It's not skillful just now, it's a man's instinct."

Freya blinked and after a long time of reaction, her eyes widened. "Don't be joking, I don't believe it."

"Believe it or not, you'll know when the time comes, and I have to ask you for more advice."

Ryan gave her a meaningful look with smiling eyes.

Freya's mind went blank. What does he mean? Insinuate that the two of you will have a relationship in the future? Or will she have to teach him that day? When I came back to my senses, I could not wait to get straight into the cracks in the floor.

The rest of the way was silent, but the blush on her face never disappeared.

Ryan sent her to the entrance and met Sylvie, she was still in a trance.

After entering, Sylvie turned around and waving at Freya.

Ryan's slender figure was still standing there.

The dazed feeling about to leave. At this moment, heart was suddenly filled to the brim. It's like to have a boyfriend who loves Freya.

When you leave, there will be someone behind you.

In fact, the capital is not her hometown. She encountered too many unhappy things here, but because of someone, she found that she gradually fell in love with it.

"Wow... Miss Freya, your boyfriend's eyes were full of reluctance." Sylvie said jokingly.

Ryan often sent things to the laboratory, and even came to pick her up several times, colleagues in the laboratory gradually regarded Ryan as her boyfriend.

It is not convenient for her to tell everyone Ryan's identity, so everyone's misunderstanding is getting deeper and deeper.

To this day, Freya suddenly doesn't want to explain anymore.

After getting on the plane, she received Ryan's Whatsapp message: [Have the check-in procedures been completed, have you boarded the plane?]

Freya: [I just got on the plane and am going to take off later. I have to shut down the cell phone]

Ryan: [Remember, report me when you get to country F. I have downloaded several TV shows, variety shows and novels for you on the tablet in your handbag. if you are bored, you can take it out and take a look.]

Freya was stunned, but he didn't expect him to be so careful.

Ryan: [And in your suitcase, I added a few stacks of euros for you. It is convenient to use banknotes in country F, and you can pay for your usual living expenses.]

Freya: [Why didn't you tell me before....]

Ryan: [I'm afraid you won't want it. It's only right for my girlfriend to spend her boyfriend's money, and I'll take more cash when I go abroad.]

Freya sent an emoji to the past and finally replied: [Love you, going to shut down the cell phone.]

After the shutdown, Freya fastened her seat belt and looked out the window with a very sweet heart. It turns out that enjoying the taste of love is so good. she usually lives together and don't think that when she has to travel far, realize that the person around her is doing so well.

After the plane took off, Freya slept for a while and after waking up, she talked with Sylvie for a while, and didn't feel bore.

Chapter 2235

Freya took out the tablet and found that the TV movie downloaded in it was really played by the actors she usually likes to watch.

Sometimes When Freya chats with Ryan, she tell him about the stars which she liked most.

When watching serial, she usually prefers actors who she thinks look good, followed by plots and goes for variety shows that she usually watches.

Even the downloaded novels are romance novels and suspense novels that she likes to read.

Next to her, Sylvie said, "You've prepared too much. Can I join with you for watch TV Serial?"

"Okay, let's watch it together."

After arriving in country F, Freya reported Ryan: [Arrived at the destination smoothly, didn't

Dani make any noise?]

After posting, she didn't expect Ryan to reply, because it was early morning.

But when she got into the commercial car sent by the training center, she took out her mobile phone and found that Ryan replied 30 seconds after she sent it: [It's good to arrive, Dani didn't make a noise.]

He also posted a peaceful photo of Dani sleeping beside her.

Freya: [You take Dani to sleep?]

Ryan: [Yeah, when Dani went to bed at night, Aunty Loretta took her to cry a little bit, and then I hugged her and fell asleep after a while, so I just took Dani to sleep in the guest room, she was very good, she just woke up and drank the milk Once fell asleep again, and did not cry.]

Freya is a little distressed and relieved: [Humh, it's hard work, you go to bed quickly, you have to go to work tomorrow.]

Ryan: [Well, I'm waiting for you to report about our safety, so you can sleep at ease when you arrive.]

Freya's heart is sweet again, it turns out that he has not slept, and is waiting for himself to report safety.

Too much, how can it be so sweet.

As soon as she left the country, in addition to thinking about the Dani and missed Ryan a little.

"Why are you in a daze with your phone, you won't be thinking about your boyfriend." Sylvie joked.

"No, I miss my daughter." Freya lowered her head and said.

"I miss my son a little too." Sylvie also became sad, "When I came out, my son was crying and making trouble."

Freya smiled and said, "Your son is four years old, it's better, and the father of the child can take care of it."

"Forget it, my husband also has to go to work, and he doesn't want to take care of the child after work, but fortunately my parents-in-law can take care of my son." Sylvie said, "Sometimes there is no way to do it. It's impossible to work behind closed doors if you don't go out to learn and communicate."

"Yes, I hope I can learn more when I come here this time, but those experts will only teach us some skins, and we still have to go back and develop the core technology by ourselves."

"Since you're here, you have to teach us something."

After a two-hour drive, the driver arranged them to a dormitory near the research institute. Freya and Sylvie shared a room with a bright room and a picturesque view from the window.

It's just that the research institute is far away from the city, surrounded by countryside and the only nearby town is still 2 kilometers away.

Usually, Freya stayed in the lab during the day to study with a group of researchers, and occasionally served as an assistant to a few old professors. At night, she went back to the dormitory to sort out the materials, and then video chatted with Ryan.

Freya found out that she had the most videos with Ryan after she went abroad.

Every night, Ryan hugged Dani and made videos with her.

"Dani, I'm Mommy, Do you miss me?" Freya greeted, but Dani didn't know how to video at all.

After seeing the phone, Dani stretched out the phone to grab it.

Chapter 2236

"Dani, don't make trouble." Ryan quickly put Dani into the cradle.

Freya was disappointed to see Dani ignoring her. "Dani doesn't think about me at all."

"Don't worry, Dani misses you too. When I carry her around the room at night, she looked around. I'm probably looking for you." Ryan said with a smile,

"How are you adapting in the romantic country? Have you met a lot of handsome foreign guys, and are there people chasing you?"

"Yes, there are more than 70 years old in the laboratory. Does the old professor count?" Freya raised an eyebrow and joked.

"Impossible, you look so good-looking, and no man would strike up a conversation with you?"

Ryan said jokingly.

"Yeah, it's a rare trip to a foreign country, but no one chatted up. I'm a little disappointed. I didn't expect me to be so unattractive." Freya also said with a look of disappointment.

"Okay, I'll help you take care of the baby at home, but you're thinking of messing around with me outside." Ryan's face sank and he snorted coldly.

"Isn't that what you asked first?" Freya smiled "puchi" "Just kidding, the laboratory here is far from the city, so it's not convenient for me to buy some cosmetics."

"I have it over there. My friend, you can ask him to arrange a driver for you, and you can go and play around on weekends." Ryan said softly, "It's rare to go abroad, so don't study hard every day, just go to the surrounding area to relax yourself."

"You If you're not jealous, you're not afraid of me coming out for a period of beautiful jade?"

"No, you're not that kind of person." Ryan's dark eyes were full of certainty.

Freya looked at the handsome young man in the video, and almost had a strong feeling of wanting to give him a good hug.

It happened that Dani was crying in his cradle.

Ryan hurriedly put the video aside and went to coax Dani, Freya watched him coax Dani over there.

At that moment, a strange thought popped into her mind. As if Ryan was her husband, he took his daughter at home while she was studying outside.

The video didn't hang. She occasionally looked down at the research materials on the desk.

Missing her daughter, she looked up at her phone, but the video never hung up.

Freya and Ryan are doing each other's things separately. Although they are far apart, their hearts have never been so close.

Gradually, every day when Freya come back from work, she turn on her mobile phone and make a video call with Ryan.

Of course, over time, she has become more and more familiar with the people in the institute, especially many researchers are very young, and sometimes they invited Freya to eat in town after get off work.

In order to learn more knowledge, Freya and Sylvie generally would not refuse.

It's been a long time. Occasionally, when Ryan's videos passed, it happened to be when she was having dinner outside.

After being connected, Freya hurriedly said, "I'm still eating out, I'll go back and make a video with you."

"I accompany Dani to get vaccinated today, and she cried a little when she came back." Ryan said.

Freya's heart twitched and she quickly got up and went out to coax her daughter.

After coaxing for a while, Ryan said leisurely, "Baby, you've become more dashing when you're outside. There are men when you're eating.

"I believe it, but it will definitely taste good." Ryan's eyes showed undisguised resentment, "Suddenly I lost confidence in myself."

Chapter 2237

The pitiful appearance made Freya's heart soften, and he quickly coaxed: "Don't worry, I don't like foreign men."

"Then who do you like?" Ryan stared at her without blinking.

Freya's face flushed, "Enough is enough, don't you know who I like."

Ryan hummed, "I don't know."

"I'll ignore you."

Freya hung up the video call. After hesitating for a few seconds she sent a text in a twisted manner: [I like you the most.]

After the post, her heart was beating like a mess.

After dating for a period of time, it was the first time that she sent such a message bluntly.

She took a deep breath with covered her hot face and returned to her seat.

"Freya, I heard from Sylvie that you have a child?" Jamison from the institute came over with a bottle of beer and asked. The man's black shirt was undone and his gestures were filled with the uninhibitedness of foreign men and looked dashing.

"Yeah."

Freya was startled and nodded generously and didn't say that she was divorced.

"Oh, is that so, what a pity."

Jamison said with a disappointed face, "You look very young, I originally wanted to pursue you, what a pity, you are the most beautiful I have ever seen. The oriental beauty."

"Jamison, want to open up." His friend laughed, "You all say that Freya is a very beautiful oriental beauty and naturally many men pursue it."

"Thank you for your liking but I can only I'm sorry."

Faced with such a frank and sincere confession, Freya could only clink glasses with Jamison generously.

After taking a sip of beer regretfully, Jamison suddenly smiled and said, "Freya, don't rush to refuse, you can also consider having a short-term relationship with me on the European side."

"Wow." Colleagues from the surrounding research institutes all whistled excitedly, with expressions on their faces watching the excitement.

Sylvie also smiled and gave her a thumbs up.

Freya felt that her views were all impacted, and her little face was extremely speechless.

Jamison blinked ambiguously, "It's a long night and inevitable that a person with a surname in a foreign country will be lonely."

"Er... thank you, I don't," Freya said with a smile, "I have a lover, no I'll do something that's sorry for him."

"You Australian people are just too conservative." Jamison shrugged helplessly.

Freya was ashamed, not because she was too conservative but was too unrestrained. Sure enough, she still prefers men from Australia.

Coincidentally, Ryan replied to her message: [My dear, I really want to put you on the bed and kiss you hard.]

Drinking the little face after drinking, it suddenly became very hot.

Freya scolded: [Rogue.]

Ryan: [Hmm, let me be a hooligan when I come back.]

This hint can be too obvious.

Freya was a little afraid to face the text message, and she continued to read it. she was afraid that it would explode in place.

Chapter 2238

"Freya, it's rare to come out, don't stare at your phone. come here and cheer up."

A female colleague of the institute boldly told everyone some interesting things about the institute.

In order to learn more, Freya put down her phone and integrated into the atmosphere.

Everyone chatted until 10 o'clock before returning to the dormitory.

Freya drank 5 or 6 bottles of beer and got a little drunk.

When she received Ryan's videocall, she was still a little overwhelmed, "I'm sorry, I spent too much time talking with everyone tonight and drank a bit too much, is Dani asleep?"

"Sleep."

Ryan looked at her in the phone had long enchanting hair scattered on the bed, her small face turned red after drinking and beautiful eyes were drunk and hazy.

Ryan's face was dark for a while and tone was cold, "So you still remember Dani."

Freya was startled, although she drank a lot but she was not completely drunk. When Ryan thought of something, he immediately rushed out, "What do you mean, how couldn't I remember Dani?"

"Since I remembered, why do I have to drink so much wine and then go back to this point?"

Ryan's starry eyes revealed accuse.

Ryan hardly ever blamed himself and Freya instantly froze, "It's 10 p.m. now, people were still drinking when I left, for many people the nightlife has just begun. Besides, do you think I want to drink So much? It's not for the sake of getting closer to them, chatting with them and can learn more."

"Freya, Learning is the second priority but Safety of your life is the first priority, you have to know that."

"Me too. My lord, I don't need your teaching." The more Freya listened, the more aggrieved she felt, "Ryan, you don't believe me at all, you are still murdering me and we have only been dating for a long time then you are murdering me, I hate you."

After finished speaking Freya got emotional and threw her phone away and cried on the pillow.

She didn't want to deal with Ryan anymore also didn't let him help her with the child.

When Ryan was coaxing her to date, he said how nice it was. He would be nice to her, not like Rodney did.

No matter what, we must break up.

She fell asleep crying and crying, and the phone rang many times and didn't answer.

When she woke up the next morning, her head was still swollen and eyes were sore.

Thinking of the dispute last night, although she calmed down and didn't want to break up, she was still very aggrieved.

She picked up the phone and found that Ryan made a lot of calls and videocalls after hanging up last night and after she fell asleep, he sent a lot of messages.

[Baby, I didn't mean to kill you, the reason why I'm unhappy tonight is because I'm worried that it's not safe for you to be a girl drinking outside. It's not too long and you don't know their real people. Sometimes they may be good people in their daily work, but who knows what it's like in private. You said you drink so much with them, can I rest assured? If something really happened, I can't come to protect you in time. If I don't care at all, then I don't love you.]

[I also understand that you want to get closer to your colleagues in the research institute and learn more knowledge, but I think the premise of learning something is to protect yourself. Don't forget that you are not alone. I put safety first for our sake.]

[Also, let me give you an opinion, you are already a leader among young people in this area of research. If you are the same age as yourself or a little older than yourself, you may not be able to learn useful knowledge. If you want to learn better knowledge, you should try to make friends with those old professors who are very knowledgeable, who have amazing achievements in the field of beauty.]

[Aim at the target and find the one that can really help you, you don't need too many friends, one or two is enough.]

[Go to bed earlier, I won't disturb you. When you wake up in the morning and see it, please remember to Reply me a message, I will be worried.]

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2239 | Novel By

Shallow South

Chapter 2239

Freya stared blankly at the text inside between the lines, it was full of Ryan's concern.

The whole body seems to be dizzy.

Yes, the colleagues at the Institute who often go out to eat, drink and have fun at night are all under the age of 40 and they may not know more than they do.

Even if they are willing to share knowledge with themselves, how much can they learn.

If you spend so much time drinking and chatting with them, you might as well spend more time on research and dealing with those old professors. The old professor's casual sentence is better than a hundred sentences from Jamison's gang.

Freya suddenly regretted thinking about the words that hated him last night.

Why did she say those hurtful things.

He even wanted to break up with Ryan.

She went too far.

Ryan was right. She didn't know those colleagues for a long time. Just like Jamison, she heard that he was married and even proposed to date her. Who knows if he would do anything out of the ordinary while drunk.

Some men, even if they look like dogs may not see the essence clearly.

She is a woman in country F and not familiar with her life. If something goes wrong, no one can help her.

If something happened to her, what would Dani do? Maybe Rodney would take her away and let that vicious woman in Sarah be Dani's stepmother.

Freya quickly got up and called Ryan.

After the phone was connected, she didn't hear his voice and Dani's cry came first.

"Freya, I'll call you later, I have to remove dani's diaper and then wash her a-s-s first." Ryan said hurriedly.

"Oh, okay."

After hanging up, Freya was stunned for a while.

It wasn't until 9 o'clock.

Ryan called back, "I've been waiting for a long time. I've been busy just now."

Freya understood that his busyness must be for Dani.

She bit her lip angrily and whispered, "Ryan, I'm sorry, you've been helping me take care of Dani, but I'm still mad at you in a foreign country..."

"My attitude last night was really not good . Great..." Ryan said hurriedly.

"Okay, stop talking. It's normal for you to have a bad attitude."

Freya interrupted him, "I saw the message you sent me, you're right. I shouldn't drink so much alcohol. I promise you, I will try not to go out to eat and drink in the future. I will study academically here and have a good relationship with those old professors. I will never worry you again."

"You just don't get angry. It's gone." Ryan smiled bitterly, "I'm really afraid that you will get angry and break up with me." Freya smacked her head with a guilty conscience, "How could

I be so bad-tempered after drinking too much last night, and ...because you've always been kind to me but suddenly you murdered me, I can't accept it."

"Baby, I also want to spoil you unconditionally but if you do something wrong, I will still point it out sternly." Ryan said softly, "I am afraid that I will hurt you if I don't say it. I have studied abroad and have seen the dark side of too many people, so I have to remind you."

"Well, I understand."

Freya was very well-behaved, "Don't worry, I don't like men from abroad either. They all know that I have children and think I'm married, but a colleague clearly knowing that I am married, also offered to let me have a secret talk with him abroad, I am very disgusted."

The two were chatting on the phone. Fortunately, she had no idea that Ryan over there had turned black.

"These kinds of men are very diligent and have relatively low moral values, so stay away from them."
