

Chapter 2244

“Catherine, You should know better than anyone else.”

Rodney’s eyes without any warmth fell on assistant Hans’s face, “Oh, it was an excuse to say that your girlfriend and family didn’t support you. And you are working under me, right? Come on, I’m curious, how much money Catherine spent to find my former right-hand man.”

Assistant Hans lowered his head and said, “Miss Catherine didn’t hire me, she hired me a while after I left.

“Assistant Hans, Do you think I would believe it?”

Rodney sneered, “No wonder most of the channels that used to work with Osher Corporation turned to Freycatheli and about Sarah, no one knew about Sarah’s search for an agent manufacturer. But Freycatheli quietly grabbed ahead of me and it was you who leaked it. assistant Hans, you have been with me for so many years and signed a non-disclosure agreement. You should know that even if you leave your job, leaking I can also hold you accountable for company-related secrets.”

“I didn’t leak it.” assistant Hans said lightly, “Don’t slander me with empty words.”

“Oh, of course you won’t admit it, but I won’t count it that way. It’s over.” Rodney stared at assistant Hans sullenly, “Freycatheli has signed a contract with Sarah. I can’t do anything about it but I can cut you off even if Catherine protects you, it’s useless.”

Assistant Hans’s expression changed slightly.

“Hum!”

A chuckle overflowed from Catherine’s red lips, “Young Master Snow, before you say something nonsense, do you have to investigate first? We didn’t contact Sarah. It was Sarah who sent someone to contact her. We came here to sign the contract in person, if you don’t believe me you can find out.”

Rodney immediately pursed his lips and after two seconds, he said coldly, “Catherine, you are also thinking about it, I really I don’t understand, you are a real estate company manager, why do you want to go to the turbulent waters in the cosmetics field, and you can go to the Huo Group even if it doesn’t work out, Freycatheli is just a small company at best, so why waste your time?”

“What a waste of time, I think it is very meaningful to start a business with my good sister and lead the company to an international platform.”

Catherine said with a smile, “A person like Young Master Snow who has no good friends by his side would not I understand.”

“Shaun doesn’t seem to think of me as a good friend.” Rodney clenched his fists.

“You’re wrong, he’s just not like you, he likes to point fingers at good friends looking for girlfriends.” Catherine said sarcastically, “I still remember when Shaun was dating with me, you kept encouraging me behind my back to sow discord.”

“It turns out that you held grudges against me back then.” Rodney showed a clear look, “I’ve come to this day with Shaun, I’m afraid you’ve been provoking less.

” Alienation?”

Catherine looked at him in disbelief as hearing a joke.

“Well, your thinking is really narrow enough, I never care Shaun who wants to be friends with, because I respect him, If I don’t want to be friends with you, I probably think that the differences are not mutually beneficial.”

“Yeah, before we met you, we never quarreled. After we met you, the differences were not mutually beneficial.”

Rodney didn’t believe it at all. So he sneered, “Catherine, you are pressing Osher Corporation every step of the way, do you want to avenge your good sister or does Freya mean. Freya hates me so much?”

“Hate?”

Catherine smiled, “Freya doesn’t hate you anymore, it’s just that she don’t like you. What do you think of my friend? When Sarah is away, you wanted to chase her, you used her as a remedy. When Sarah came back, you followed-up Sarah again, what kind of thing are you?”

Catherine’s tone gradually turned cold, “Also, she hated Sarah very much. If you want to play with me, then let’s play slowly. Don’t think that you are the nephew of the prime minister. I am afraid of you to buy Osher Corporation.”

Rodney’s body was trembling with her arrogance, “Just because of the beauty of the moon? You want to buy Osher Corporation! ha, are you dreaming?”

Catherine smiled, “It’s just that your plan to come to R country was completely destroyed by me. I would like to see what else you can do next.”

She walked slowly to Rodney’s side, “You love Sarah, and the one who loves her is willing to give up everything, it doesn’t matter, I will fulfill you and let you be a mandarin duck with nothing.”

If Catherine had said this before, he would have regarded it as a joke at most.

But not now, Catherine is backed by Shaun, Titus, Matthew, and another biological mother who wants to make up for her at any time, not to mention herself, even the top chaebols in the world are trying their best to please her.

If she is determined to deal with herself, she may not be an opponent without the backing of the Snow family and the ministerial Palace.

Rodney also never thought that marrying Sarah would set up an opponent like Catherine.

Now Osher Corporation is the best company in his hands.

Once Rodney loses, the funds of other companies that he has invested will have in big problems and then all his years of struggle will be in vain. Of course, at most he closed the company and returned to the Snow family.

His parents would certainly not miss him in food and clothing but what is the meaning of such a life.

Even, Rodney will become the most useless waste of the entire Snow family and will be looked down upon by everyone.

He was wrong, he shouldn't have promised Sarah that wedding ceremony.

The more high-profile the wedding, the more people would know that the Snow family did not attend his wedding at all. From the outsiders' point of view, this was the meaning of the Snow family's complete exile.

At that time, he just wanted to satisfy Sarah and didn't think about the aftermath at all.

Rodney failed. At this moment, he was at a loss.

For the sake of a Sarah, is it really worth it to make helpless?

If it wasn't for Sarah, he would not have lost a happy family and Nathan and his wife would not miss seeing him. He might already be the ruler of the Snow family, and even Catherine would not be his enemy. He and Shaun and Chester are also good brothers.

what can he give Sarah, nothing?

Can't give anything.

Just when Catherine was thinking, Rodney's phone rang and he picked up the call.

"Rodney, when will you come back?" Sarah said softly, "I miss you."

Rodney listened almost numbly, he didn't want to go back at all and said: "I haven't finished my business here."

"Well, I finally saw Dr. Risen today. He checked my physical condition and said that I only need two or three years of conditioning and there is a hope of pregnancy." Sarah happily shared with him, "When the time comes, We can have a beautiful baby."

"Well, I have something to do here, I'll hang up first." Rodney frowned after pressing the hang up button.

He didn't want to have children with Sarah at all nor did have any interest in Sarah.

child?

All he needs is Dani.

Chapter 2246

By the way, Freya must have come to F country for training, who will bring Dani?

Rodney hurriedly called Wendy's phone, "Mom, have you visited Dani recently?"

"Yes, I only went yesterday." Wendy said.

"Freya went to country F for training for two months, why didn't you bring Dani back."

"What, Freya went to training?" Wendy was stunned and said, "I don't know."

Rodney's face darkened.

"Your uncle and aunty are very busy after the New Year, and I never see them every time I go." Wendy said in surprise, "I always thought that Freya would go to work during the day and come home from work at night and I didn't listen to Loretta who took care of Dani. Aunty said, "Oh, if I had known earlier, I would definitely have brought Dani back and I can't rest assured if I leave Dani to be taken care of by an outsider."

Rodney understood in an instant, "Mom, it must be Loretta. Freya asked them not to tell you on purpose, probably because you were afraid that you would bring Dani back to the old house, so you wouldn't return it."

Wendy frowned, she would definitely blame her son before, but if you look carefully Thinking, what Rodney said this time might be true.

She suddenly felt uncomfortable, "What do you mean, is your mother that kind of person? After all, the ministerial Palace is not Dani's home. If mother is not here, she must be with her grandparents. Your uncle is also real even help Freya hide it from me."

"Mom, go and bring Dani back." Rodney said, "Don't say that aunty and uncle are usually too busy, they are not Dani's grandparents. It's not that no one takes care of the house, so I leave it to a nanny to take care of it, in case Dani grows up in the future and thinks that you won't know her and won't kiss you."

"Oh, how could it be, I like it very much." Wendy sighed Angrily, "I'll go pick up Dani right away."

After hanging up the phone, Rodney had a lot of thoughts flashing through his mind.

He contacted the secretary, "Send a car here immediately, I'm going to country F."

"Country F." The secretary was stunned and nodded quickly in agreement.

Simply, country F is next to country R and it takes only two hours to drive there.

..... In the research laboratory of country F.

Freya was helping an old professor. Although she was doing some trivial things, it benefited her a lot.

"Miss Freya, someone is looking for you outside."

Suddenly, the front desk came in to inform her.

Freya immediately thought of Catherine. She knew that Catherine happened to be on a business trip in the nearby R country, and she probably came to surprise her.

She hurriedly asked the professor to take a leave of absence. When went out, she saw Rodney's tall and slender figure and she was instantly indifferent. She should have asked more clearly.

At this time, it was too late to leave. After Rodney saw her, he strode over. On the way, he was full of anger but when he saw her standing in front of him with wearing a white coat, laboratory's exclusive glasses, her hair was caught in a ponytail, like a different person. In the past, the slightly mixed-race face was a little less charming, and more of the researcher's intellectual and rigorous temperament.

It is said that men are the most handsome when they work, and women are no exception.

The way she looks now is more attractive than before.

He thought of Sarah at home again.

Sarah used to be a psychiatrist, but since when did she take off her white coat, the most common thing was tears on her face.

"What are you doing here?" Freya felt uneasy when she suddenly looked at him and stopped talking.

Rodney asked coldly, "I also want to ask you, Freya, you obviously came to train in country F, but you didn't tell me and my family about it, what do you mean? Just tell us and throw Dani to a nanny."

"What's wrong with the nanny, Dani likes Aunty Loretta, and the ministerial palace is also very safe. You and your uncle and aunt can visit at any time, and I didn't stop it." Freya retorted, "Do you want me to hand over Dani to your father and let you and Sarah take care of my daughter together? Oh, it's impossible."
