Chapter 2305

In the car, it was quiet again for a long time.

Wendy said very tiredly: "Forget it, let Rodney go abroad after this incident is over. I really don't want to worry about his troubles."

When Jason was angry with Rodney, he deceived 50 million himself. So chilling.

Rodney helped a bad woman to deceive himself and Jason shouldn't have been so soft on him at that time and Sarah, who cheated his son recklessly and slapped him in the face again and again.

At this moment.

Sarah was rummaging through boxes in the villa.

In the cloakroom of the master bedroom, a large box was placed on the wooden floor and Sarah was constantly stuffing things into it including jewelry and watches.

These were bought with Rodney's money before and after marriage.

In addition, there are household registration books, ID cards...

It was a pity that she was in a wheelchair and her legs were not very convenient. Suddenly

Freya got out of control and roared at Garrett who was beside her :

"Don't come and help me and pack up of your luggages, we have to leave immediately otherwise Rodney will come here and make troublesome."

Garrett's face flashed impatiently, "I said before that I came back with you to get your ID card and household registration book but you have packed so many things. Isn't it just some gold and platinum jewelry? I'll buy it for you when I go abroad."

Sarah was so pissed off, is this just some gold and platinum jewelry? The value of its 10 millions approximately.

She really envied Garret who was born with a good life.

“I know you have so much money but I haven’t married you yet. I don’t want to use yours for the time being. You also know that I have to get medical treatment in the future and money is needed in many places.”

Sarah said with a face full of tears, “I’m really notorious for you now and I was photographed by reporters today... I just don’t want to live anymore.”

“Okay, I made you wrong today. Don’t worry, those photos will definitely be suppressed by the Snow family.”

Garrett quickly helped unpack her suitcase, “Let’s go.”

“Sarah said to her driver to drive the car directly to the airport.”

She didn’t want to stay in the capital for a moment.

“Sarah, you don’t have to be so afraid. Even if Rodney knew, I’m still afraid of him?” How can you compare to me? Besides, my brother is quite popular in business in Australia and he knows a lot of people and he will protect me from Rodney. Rodney doesn’t dare to do anything to me.”

Sarah thought aloud, She still knew a thing or two about Garret’s background.

Chapter 2306

Looking Garrett’s confident, Sarah wasn’t panicked, “I don’t want you to make too much noise for me and your family will resent me. let’s go to the airport first.”

The two hurried downstairs.

When got out of the elevator Nanny immediately stepped forward to block Sarah and Garrett, “I just received a call from Young master Snow. Young master Snow said that you can’t leave the villa with anything.”

“Funny... we are divorced and the whole villa is Mine. What right does he have to stop me?”

Sarah winked at Aunty Hans who was on the side.

Aunty Hans shivered and looked down at the floor as she hadn’t seen it.

Sarah was so angry, "Garrett, ignore it, let's go."

Garrett pushed her wheelchair and Nanny immediately stood in front of them.

"Go away." Garrett and Nanny pushed each other.

Sarah looked more and more anxious and said impatiently, "Nanny, you are just a temporarily hired housekeeper. As long as you step aside immediately, I will give you one million and it is enough for your salary for a few years."

Rodney rushed over in a hurry. When he heard these words, Rodney's calm anger surged into the sky.

Especially when his eyes fell on Garrett, Rodney rushed up and slapped Sarah on the spot,

"You b-i-t-c-h, you even brought the adulterer."

"How dare you hit me?"

Sarah didn't even know that Rodney had slapped her face a few times, her cheeks were aching, her brain was buzzing, she cried out of control, "Rodney, What qualifications do you have to scold me, we have long since divorced."

"That's right."

Garrett immediately rushed over to stand in front of Sarah and gave Sarah enough strength to rely on, "What kind of husband and wife and the marriage is divorced also I am not an adulterer. I and Sarah love each other. Young Master Snow, I've never seen a man like you who still takes care of his ex-wife after a divorce. The measure is too small."

"Enough.."

Rodney interrupted irritably, "My divorce certificate with her only came out in the morning and you both rolled into bed that time. Don't play with me as a fool. I have already investigated and you two have been in the hotel frequently for the past two months and the disgusting attitude of yours is probably very familiar."

Rodney became more angry, "Sarah, You were the one who wanted to marry me and wanted to cheat. I couldn't bear it but you couldn't pretend to love me while cheating and even when you divorced, you said disgusting words that you would never forget me for the rest of your life. you Calculate how much money you have cheated from me since we got married and you have used my guilt towards you to the fullest." "You will never forget me for the rest of your life?" Garrett immediately frowned and looked at Sarah, "Sarah, didn't you say you only love me?" Sarah hugged Garrett's thick leg and hurriedly explained, "Garrett, I didn't say it, Rodney was lying and he wanted to get his property back, don't you understand what I mean to you?" "I knew that you loved only me, so how could you possibly love Rodney." Garrett was relieved and clenched tightly her hand. Rodney was shocked and obviously did not expect that Sarah would be so shameless in order to please Garrett. "Sarah, I finally see your true face clearly." Rodney nodded. the flames of anger burning all over his body, "Sarah, whatever loves me but I can't forget it that you cheated from the beginning to the end. you were lying. Right, you came back for my money and status before but now that I have nothing left and you don't look down on me, right?" "Rodney, don't spit. It's clear that you want to divorce yourself and you don't love me at all. After marriage, you don't even want to touch me also dislike me for my lame leg. I also have normal needs, okay?" Sarah said with crying, "Rodney, you always have Freya in your heart and you wanted to divorce me a long time ago. I filed for divorce and you agreed immediately. You don't love me. you are too selfish. Do you want me to love you forever? "
