

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter Chapter 2371

Rodney stood behind of Old Master Snow. When he saw Ryan coming, he immediately said excitedly:

“Grandpa, uncle, Ryan is here. I told you a long time ago that he and Freya were eyeing each other that you don’t believe it, these two people have been deceiving us. he’s playing with me like a fool and today he has to give me an explanation.”

Hearing these words, Ryan’s face crossed a trace of sarcasm. However, he was not in a hurry to speak.

Old Master Snow grabbed his crutches and knocked on the ground, “Ryan, you really disappointed me, I’m very much disappointed on you. Is there no woman in the world and you’re with your cousin’s ex-wife? You want to be shameless about this kind of thing. If this matter gets out, how will our Snow family meet people?”

“Isn’t our Snow family not enough to lose face these days, is it worse than me?”

Ryan mocked without mistake.

Open your mouth.

Nathan slapped the table angrily and said: “What is your attitude? how did I give birth to such a thing as you? Did your grandfather say it wrong? No wonder we gave you a blind date and you ignored it and gave me one. You did it on purpose to be gay.”

“Yes, I did it on purpose, I like Freya very much...”

“Crack.”

Before he finished speaking, Nathan wanted to smash but said angrily, “Kneel down for me and immediately cut off contact with Freya and don’t let Freya come back from now on. she has nothing to do with our Ministerial palace from now.”

Ryan’s shoulder was stung on the spot and squeezed hard. He pursed his lips not only did not kneel but his body straightened.

“What age is this? you are still kneeling like this. you are only the Prime minister’s son not an emperor.”

“You...” Nathan trembled with anger while Pointing at him.

Rodney took the opportunity and said: “Uncle, he and Freya must have been together long ago. You have seen the video I made, and the intimacy was so close, no wonder Ryan kept persuading me to divorce Freya and even let Freya lives in the Ministerial palace. the two of them must be sneaking in the Ministerial palace but you just didn’t find it.”

“Shut up.”

Heidi sternly said, “Rodney, You said that they were already together, that’s just your one-sided statement.

I understand that you feel uncomfortable but you can’t put all the dirty things on my son. I believe that

Ryan is not a person of courtesy, righteousness and shame. It is a fact that you cheated and it has nothing to do with anyone.”

Rodney said angrily, “Of course you have to protect your son. I also know that you have seen me earlier. It’s pleasing to the eye. If I go to the Ministerial Palace to see my daughter, you want let the guards kick me out. As early as before we divorced, Freya often contacted Ryan at night and they often touched their heads every time they met. The expression is ambiguous, and I have warned you before.”

“Haha...”

Ryan laughed in a low voice. His deep eyes were extremely cold, “Brother Rodney, how did you become like this?”

Rodney pointed at him angrily: “What’s the matter? I made mistakes before but I’m better than you and I won’t pry the corner from behind like you and play as hell.”

Ryan stared at him coldly and said: “Do you need prying to play in the corner? You said that before you divorced, Freya and I contacted frequently. Do you want to check with the Tele-communication company? I only contact her once a week at most and we touch our head every time we meet.” It’s even more ridiculous, every time I meet Freya at a family gathering. when you tricked Freya to meet Sarah, Freya Let me check it out for him. After she found out that you lied to her. I saw her pitiful and touched her head to comfort her. We were innocent at that time and was not so unbearable and dirty.”

Chapter 2372

Rodney was furious: “Oh, no wonder Freya finds out that I lied to her, it turns out that you are behind the scenes. Ryan, you are my brother, you should hide this kind of thing or tell me in advance. But you clearly want us to get divorced.”

Ryan was full of sarcasm, “It’s all my fault, you cheated. I didn’t want to hide it and decided to keep you out. You cheated your wife, aren’t you disgusting?”

“Who are you saying is disgusting, have I been disgusting to you in terms of disgust?”

Rodney couldn’t bear to rush up and fight Ryan.

“Pull them away.” Mr. Snow quickly spoke.

Carson, Nathan, and Jason quickly pulled them apart.

Rodney roared, “Ryan, You cuckold me and pry at my corner, I will never forget this hatred.”

Heidi said angrily, “Rodney, if you keep being so noisy, we will kick you out.”

Rodney retorted “Why... Why did you kick me out? You want to bully me with your son, parents, grandpa.

you have to help me and I’m not a victim. You can’t be the prime minister and don’t take our family seriously.”

“Why didn’t I take your family seriously.”

Heidi felt chilled, “Rodney, you are trying to provoke the relationship between our two families based on a video recorded today. You believe that Ryan was prying the corner of your marriage, Do you have any other evidence that Freya gave you a cuckold? If you present a conclusive evidence, I can kneel down and apologize to you today.”

“Don’t...”

Jason said: “Brother and sister, I know who you are and I don’t need it.”

“Yeah.”

Wendy nodded, although she was angry and shocked at first but the two of them still stupid enough to take what Rodney just said as evidence.

Moreover, since her son was with Sarah, his mind was quite imaginative and they knew it in their hearts.

Rodney was extremely disappointed and heartbroken, “We are your sons and you are still facing Ryan.”

“Can you be quiet for me?”

Jason glared at him fiercely, “Listen clearly. What can Ryan say?”

“He must be quibbling.”

Rodney sneered, “Of course he can’t admit it.”

Wendy pressed her eyebrows with a headache, “My fault, I shouldn’t have agreed to let Freya go and enter the door of our house otherwise the two brothers will not be tossed like this.”

“You are indeed wrong, if you didn’t want to rely on Freya to pull Brother Rodney back from Sarah. How could she marry into the Snow family?”

Ryan said bluntly: “In the end, what kind of person is brother Rodney? and he also harmed other girls.”

Wendy’s face changed slightly, Rodney was furious.

Rodney said: “I didn’t even think about getting a divorce from her at first and it was all your instigation behind my back. Also, even if I divorced, would the Snow family give her less? I don’t have any shares in the Snow Corporation but all of them are given to Dani and the company’s dividends are also in her hands.”

Chapter 2373

“Rodney, Do you think Freya really cares about that little dividend? She has never been a person who cares about money, because she lives in a family that does not lack money and her parents and brothers love her so much...”

Ryan couldn't bear the accusation, “Brother Rodney, You know what Freya lost. Just like now, I like her and I'm with her also you are all blocking because of what, isn't it because she is divorced and has children. For a woman, People outside the divorce will say that she is second-hand and will laugh at her. There will always be people who will look down on her and you still think she is taking advantage of the Snow family, which is ridiculous.”

Heidi and Wendy were silent at the same time.

Rodney disagreed, “If it weren't for the escort of our Snow family, Freycatheli would have gone so smoothly.”

Ryan sharply Asked, “Yeah, as far as our Snow family is concerned. Is our friend Catherine a decoration?”

“After your divorce, Freycatheli's prosperity is due to our Snow family.”

Rodney's face was burning but he was still unwilling.

Old master Snow couldn't listen anymore, so he immediately said: “Rodney, shut up and stop talking. Ryan, this is the end of the matter. We don't want to pursue any further. You just need to break up with Freya quickly and don't want to communicate her in the future. Now it's all over."

"Why?"

Ryan looked straight at the Old master Snow and said: "Because Freya married a second time? she has children? Because she is my cousin's ex-wife? Or because she is in my name? What are you doing, elder sister?"

Nathan said angrily, "Since you already know, why are you asking this? Today you were slapsticking on the street and someone took a video. Fortunately, I found someone to stop it. If you go out, your life will be stigmatized by a stigma. In the future, others will grasp this point and it will be difficult for you to go further in the future."

Ryan said lightly: "Dad, I even dare to bear the reputation of being gay, so how can I care about it? I like

Freya and I love her even before she got married, I already liked her but it was too late to meet her at that time and she already had a child. I am not qualified and I just hope Brother Rodney can cherish her a little bit. I never helped her get a divorce because she was the woman I liked. I would do the same for any woman because she was unhappy so she wants got out of the cage, so I helped her."

"Even after the divorce, I saw that it was very difficult for her to be a woman. I saw her being unfairly kicked by Brother Rodney and broke her ribs, while her ex-husband was aggressive. From that moment, I want to protect her, since others can't give her happiness, I will give it."

Ryan looked at everyone and also said, “Freya didn’t know I liked her before. She regarded me as a relative and a friend and with my efforts, she accepted it later. I don’t think there’s anything wrong with us, she’s single and I’m also single and we’re the same age. Just of her and Rodney’s part, we can’t be together, has the law stipulated it?”

“Also I’m the Prime minister’s son and I am a descendant of the Snow family. Can’t I marry a second married lady? but who made her into a second marriage, it is our Snow family?”

“Oh, I am afraid that my life will be stained and have to break up with her. I don’t think it’s a stain and don’t live for others. You stipulated that I should follow my father’s path. This is my own life, not your life.”

“And I think our Snow family is too greedy . It’s like a bottomless pit. In the past, the goal was to have one prime minister, but now, I still want two prime ministers whether there will be three more prime ministers in the future, and whether the whole country will have the final say of our Snow family.”

The crowd was startled.

“Shut up.”

Nathan was extremely angry while pointing at him. his body trembling, “Son, You are crazy and dare to say such a thing.”

“I’m just speaking your heart.”

Chapter 2374

Ryan quickly regained his composure with a light tone: “Dad, do we really have that much ability? Look at Rodney, who you once gave to the public and was ruined beyond recognition by Sarah. Does he want his descendants to bear that pressure? I'm saying it a bit harsher. If it wasn't for Sister Jessica, the Snow Corporation would have no successor."

"If it was someone else, it might not be possible."

Old master Snow looked at him, "But it's still possible to rely on Jessica's and your abilities."

Ryan said, "Grandpa, have you asked Sister Jessica? Sister Jessica is on my side and we agree."

Everyone was stunned and Old master Snow's face was extremely ugly.

Rodney sneered, "Ryan, you are so cunning. No wonder you persuaded your parents to allow Sister Jessica to be the prime minister of the Snow Corporation. From then on, you must have been planning."

Looking at Nathan, "Uncle, don't you understand? He has long been unwilling to be subordinate to you and even, he has long coveted your position as grandpa and he wants to be the head of the Snow family."

This time, No one refuted what Rodney said.

Everyone looked heavy.

Looking at Ryan, Rodney's eyes were full of anger.

For their elders, none of them would see themselves being pinched by a junior in the end.

Especially the Old master Snow, who stood up angrily, "Ryan, tell me clearly, is what he said true? You want my position and want to be the head of the Snow family?"

Ryan was quite disappointed.

Rodney couldn't stand up to the able-bodied and he had a trick to sow discord.

Ryan sighed softly, "Grandpa, don't you think you are contradictory? On the one hand, you want me to be like my father and on the other hand, you want me to listen to you like a puppet. do you think a Can the puppet stand out from the pack of wolves? The one who can run out is the wolf. Maybe this wolf doesn't want to be the wolf king, but he will not be willing to listen to others. Of course, if all you want is a puppet,

In this life, the glory of the Snow family will stop here."

Old master Snow said with a sullen face and annoyed, "Ryan, You said it all the way. I think you haven't learned to fly and your wings will be hard."

Ryan knelt on the ground: "Grandpa, if you are not satisfied with me and you are afraid that I will threaten your position, I can invite myself to leave the clan. I am kneeling here today not only for my fanciful affairs but also for myself and my life. I don't want to be your puppet."

Nathan said angrily: "Ryan, you figure out what to do? It's not me and your uncle and grandpa, can you have today's smooth sailing?, since you have accepted the resources of the Snow family, you have to take over your own responsibilities."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1677

Malcolm's entire body stiffened when he heard this.

He stared at Joshua with a frown on his face. "Did you spy on me?"

How else could Joshua have known that he had injured his head?

Joshua narrowed his eyes, sneering.

It turned out stupidity was contagious; Malcolm had lost his intelligence after being with Heather for so long.

Malcolm was wearing a hat on such an important occasion...so did he honestly think no one could tell that he had injured his head?

However, since Malcolm's first instinct was that Joshua had spied on him...Joshua had no intention of correcting him.

As soon as he thought of this, Joshua curled his lips into a small smile. "What I'm asking you now is do you think you're a match for me?"

With that, he glanced at Malcolm's hat and added, "Do you suppose you'll be able to go on with your wedding as planned if I punch a hole right into your head?"

Malcolm gritted his teeth upon hearing this. "What else do you know about me?"

He had not thought that Joshua would be able to plant his men at Quinn Mansion!

How many spies were there, and who were they?

Could it be that...he had already found out about Riley's true identity?

Malcolm suddenly began to grow terrified when he recalled that Joshua had only sent a few of his men to trail Hunter instead of most of his man-force as he had anticipated.

Malcolm's men had only managed to infiltrate Nellie's kindergarten that day and started to collect samples of her hair and nails.

If Joshua had already found out the truth...

Malcolm was so nervous that he forgot to retaliate to Joshua's provocation.

Just as everyone was staring at him, anticipating his response, a deep, male voice resonated from behind them, "It's Malcolm and Heather's big day today, so why are you trying to force him to get into a fight with you at the entrance, Mr. Lynch?"

Everyone turned in the direction of the voice.

It was Charles, who slowly walked in their direction, propped up by his butler.

At this moment, Charles had lost all trace of the sickly look he had previously and instead looked radiant and in good health, grinning from ear to ear.

He strode over to Malcolm's side and gently patted his shoulder. "Mr. Lynch must've come to witness your and Heather's grand wedding.

"After all, I hear that he and his ex-wife had never hosted a wedding before, from their marriage to their divorce...so let him go inside to witness what it's like."

With that, Charles let out a small cough and whispered in Malcolm's ear, "After all, we're going to announce the news about Luna tonight, so let him stay."

Since Charles had already made his statement, Malcolm did not feel it was appropriate to go against his soon-to-be father-in-law's wishes.

On top of that, he also knew that Charles had been planning to announce kicking Luna out of the family that same night.

As soon as he thought of this, Malcolm nodded and signaled to the hostess. "Let him come in."

He, too, was curious to see what Joshua's reaction would be when he found out Luna had been kicked out of the family because of him.

After receiving the orders from Malcolm, the hostess quickly got back to her seat and resumed registering Joshua's name.

Charles entered the hall with the butler's help. "Father."

Malcolm took the opportunity to follow after Charles and quickly left.

Seeing that no drama had happened, the crowd around them dissipated.

Satisfied at having been registered as Malcolm's enemy on the guest list, Joshua entered the hall with Cheryl by his side.

This was the first time Cheryl had attended such a grand and lavish event.

She glanced all around her with a look of curiosity and delight.

Seeing how excited she was, Joshua curled his lips into a weak smile and let go of her hand. "If you're curious, you can walk around on your own and have as much food as you want, provided you don't cause trouble for anyone."

After noting down Joshua's seat, Cheryl turned and began sauntering around the hall.

Joshua sat down in his seat and could not help curling his lips into a smirk when he saw Cheryl looking and walking around the place in awe.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1678

Cheryl was still a young girl, after all.

Joshua let out a sigh and instinctively began searching the crowd for Luna.

Soon, he caught sight of her, sitting in a corner and chatting with Jim.

She was as elegant as always, emanating an aura of grace and tranquility that no one could ignore.

Joshua glanced first at Luna, then at Cheryl, and could not help lamenting how time had passed.

He still remembered that when he and Luna had first gotten married; she had been around Cheryl's age too.

All girls this age must have longed for a grand, lavish wedding like this, did they not?

Suddenly, Joshua recalled what Charles had said just minutes earlier...

"I hear that he and his ex-wife had never hosted a wedding before, from their marriage to their divorce..."

Joshua let out a sigh, and a twinge of guilt crept into his eyes.

He had never given Luna the wedding of her dreams before.

At that time, he had always thought that he would never fall in love with Luna and that the only reason he had married her was to get out of marrying Hailey Walter.

If he had known that he and Luna would end up like this in the future...

He would never have let the most memorable day of her life slip by just like that.

Alas, their relationship was already past its breaking point, so what use was there to ponder over things like this? It served no purpose apart from upsetting himself.

Soon, the wedding ceremony began.

This was indeed the wedding of the century from all aspects of the ceremony, including lighting, music, and venue.

All of them were of great taste and earned the envy of every woman in Merchant City.

The bride and groom appeared at the entrance amongst the melodic music.

Malcolm was wearing a hat, whereas Heather had a ribbon tied around her neck.

The two looked a little strange, but thankfully, these were just minor flaws in an almost flawless wedding ceremony.

After reading their vows and exchanging their rings, the wedding was officially over.

The final part of the event was the cake-cutting.

Malcolm's arms were around Heather, and the two of them looked like a match made in heaven.

Just as the blade of the pastry knife was about to slice into the cake—

The door to the hall burst wide open, and a group of men wearing dark colors strode into the room.

The clothes they wore were inappropriate for the event today.

All of a sudden, the entire hall fell silent.

Onstage, Heather and Malcolm, who were about to cut the cake smilingly, lifted their heads in unison.

Heather's smile froze on her face at this sight. All of these men were familiar to her.

These were all of the men she had ever been with, including boyfriends and past flings!

The color drained from her face.

Why were they here? How did they even make it past the guards outside?

What were they doing here, wearing clothes so dark that it seemed like they were attending a funeral?

As though he had registered the surprise on Heather's face, the man at the first of the line lifted his head to stare at her, smiling. “We are all here to pay respects to our dead love.

“Ms. Heather Landry had, at different points of time, promised every one of us that she’d one day let us become the heir to the Landry family.

“We’re here to ask you this, Ms. Heather: How come Malcolm Quinn is the one who got to marry you, considering all of us here had slept with you and dated you in the past?”

The entire hall fell silent.

All of a sudden, the crowd erupted into a flurry of chatter.

“Didn’t they say that...Ms. Heather had always stayed true to her values and remained a virgin until getting engaged with Master Quinn?”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1679

“Do you honestly believe that bullsh*t?

“Don’t you know that rich people like them are always out having fun even though they appear like sensible people?”

You’re right; there’s probably almost thirty men in this line...

The audience’s whispers and murmurs echoed through the room.

Onstage, Heather’s entire body was as stiff as a rock as she held onto the cake knife.

Malcolm narrowed his eyes and asked in a low voice as he let go of her hand, “What on earth is going on?”

Heather was so nervous that she could not even say a word.

What else was she supposed to say? These men were...right.

Every time she slept with them, she would always tell them that she would let them become the future heir of the Landry family so that they would perform better in bed.

After all, everyone knew of the status of the Landry family in Merchant City.

Therefore, no matter who they were and where they came from, every single one of these men would work harder to please Heather after hearing this.

On the other hand, Heather would always ghost them after having fun and go in search of her next target.

Some of them did not bother her, whereas some of them would continue to pester her for this, and every time this happened, she would hire some gangsters to beat those men up.

She had been doing this for many years, yet she never thought that...

These men would come to stir up trouble on her wedding day!

As soon as she thought of this, Heather bit her lip and said in a low voice, "Malcolm, you have to listen to me, I—"

Suddenly, Malcolm's assistant stormed onstage and whispered a few words next to his ear.

Malcolm widened his eyes in shock.

At this same time, the phones of everyone in the room began to chime, and all of the guests lowered their heads to check their phones.

"Quinn Group has lost the final vendor in its supply chain!"

"Their shares have shrunk by two thousand percent!" "Quinn Group has gone bankrupt!"

All of this astonishing news echoed around the room. Luna immediately turned to glance at Jim.

Jim, too, checked his phone. When he felt Luna's gaze on him, he lifted his head to stare at her solemnly.

"The Quinn family is going broke after all."

With that, he turned to glance at the corner where Joshua was sitting.

At this moment, Joshua was sipping his wine elegantly, watching the audience's reactions around him.

When he felt Jim's gaze on him, Joshua even raised his glass gracefully in Jim's direction.

Jim narrowed his eyes.

This man was far more merciless and detail-oriented than he thought.

He had deliberately chosen to attack Quinn Group one final time at this crucial moment.

If Jim had not arranged for Heather's ex-boyfriends to show up at the wedding himself, he would have thought that Joshua was the one who did this.

The timing was impeccable.

However...

Jim recalled another thing.

If the Quinn family had gone broke, then how would it affect the Landry family, who had been working in close relation with them?

Luna glanced first at Jim, then at Joshua, and finally lowered her head to check the time.

7 p.m.

She still remembered from the phone conversation the night before that the news of Quinn Group's bankruptcy would be announced at 7 p.m. sharp.

The timing was perfect, not a second too early or too late.

Meanwhile, onstage, both Heather and Malcolm's faces had turned as white as the wall behind them!

Heather bit her lip, glancing at Malcolm. "What's going on?"

"We didn't make it in time." Malcolm gritted his teeth and shot Heather a murderous glare.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1680

"If you hadn't messed up my plan, I would've been able to get Luna to hand over the money to sustain the operations!"

At this point, the gap in the funding was so large that they could not possibly fill it at all!

If they did not manage to fill the gap within an hour, Quinn Group would go bankrupt!

Malcolm bit his lip and shifted his gaze onto Luna, sitting among the crowd.

She was still sitting on the sofa, watching the commotion as though none of this had anything to do with her.

Malcolm knew that it was no use to ask Luna for help anymore...

The only thing he could do was to let Charles step up.

On one hand, kicking Luna out of the family would strengthen the shareholders' trust in Landry Group. On the other hand, it would allow the Landry family to use their remaining assets to help the Quinn family!

Otherwise, after his efforts of binding the two corporations together over the last six months, Landry Group would also go broke after Quinn Group did!

As soon as he thought of this, Malcolm turned to stare at Charles who sat quietly in a corner.

Since Granny Quinn did not attend the wedding that night, the most respected person in this room was Charles.

Charles was the only one who could settle this commotion.

When he felt Malcolm's gaze on him, Charles curled his lips into a smile and stood up slowly.

He glanced impassively at the men who had come to stir up trouble and said, "Please calm down, everyone. I have an important announcement to make after this."

With that, he glanced at the uninvited guests. "Guards, please escort these men out."

However, the man leading the troupe was not buying this at all. "Why should we go out? We've all come here to claim the justice we deserve from Heather Landry, and if she doesn't give us an answer that is satisfying enough, we won't leave!"

Heather furrowed her brows and snapped frustratedly, "What kind of answer do you want?"

"Even though I slept with all of you in the past, I'm now married, and all of that happened in the past, so how dare you even come to stir up trouble at my wedding?"

As soon as she said this, the entire room fell silent.

Malcolm's expression darkened.

That idiot!

Initially, they could have claimed that these men were just here to stir up trouble after being bribed, but

Heather had just admitted to the public that she was a disloyal and promiscuous woman!

Heather's expression darkened when she heard the murmurs and whispers of the crowd beneath her.

She bit her lip and quickly tried to find an excuse for her outburst. "I had never slept with any of you at all!

You're all lying and trying to tarnish my reputation!"

This was exactly what the men had been waiting to hear.

The leader smirked and replied, "Heather, are you saying that you've never slept with any of us before?"

With that, he pressed a button on the remote controller he was holding.

The screen, which had previously been displaying Heather and Malcolm's wedding photos, suddenly switched to pictures of Heather.

All of them were pictures of her, naked and in the throes of passion with different men.

All of the men in the photos were different, but the only thing that remained unchanged throughout all the images was Heather.

Some of the wedding guests started to compare the pictures to the men standing before them and realized that they were indeed the same people!

Meanwhile, onstage, Heather stared at these pictures with wide eyes, her entire body frozen as though she had been struck by lightning.

All of these photos were taken without her knowledge.

There were pictures of her with every single man she had ever been with, and the earliest one was five years ago.

She bit her lip.

It was clear that whoever took these photos had been planning this for a long time.

Someone had taken photos of her for the past five years!

This could not possibly be Luna or Joshua's doing, nor could it be Malcolm's.

Heather immediately turned to glance at Jim, who was sitting beneath the stage.

She met his smiling gaze.

When their eyes met, Jim curled his lips into a smirk and mouthed something to her, and Heather could tell what he was trying to say to her even from afar.

"It was me."

Chapter 2381

Nathan was almost mad at him, "You... You really don't even care about your career for the sake of women, right?"

"Dad, It's not that you said that I am for a woman. Anyway, I have a stain on my career. Since I lie down, it's not a bad thing." Ryan lazily put his hand on the back of his head and leaned against it.

"You think beautiful."

Nathan's heart moved. He had some ideas and his tone was not so cold, "Ryan, You are still young and should focus on career. Just a few days ago I was thinking about transferring you to X country as an ambassador. You also know that the position in country X is a sweet spot and many people are staring at it.

This is a good opportunity for you. It happens that you have exercised in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs before.”

Ryan glanced at his dad and saw his angered face.

Ryan was smiling amiably at the moment but he was a little amused and he really thought that he was a 3 years old child which so fooled. “Dad, I just complained about the lack of dating time. you wanted to transfer me abroad and it will take more than 10 hours to take a plane. I am afraid that I will not be able to date for a few years.”

Nathan said calmly, “Ryan, say it yourself. You and Freya both still young and I believe Freya is a smart Woman so, it won’t delay your future. Besides, if time and distance can destroy a relationship, it only be said that your relationship is not worth much.”

Ryan sighed softly, “Dad, you are amazing, even agitation. The law has been used. I don’t know who urged me to get married some time ago, so I must get married this year and now I won’t be in a hurry.”

Nathan said earnestly, “I thought about the relationship. Don’t worry about things.”

Ryan twitched the corners of his mouth, “I’m sorry, Dad, I won’t go abroad.”

Nathan straightened his body all of a sudden, “You’re crazy, do you know what a great opportunity this is. Is this for a woman?”

“Dad, Yes, just for a woman and I wanted to get her. You want to assign me abroad again, and the reputation is that a long-distance relationship with a deep relationship can stand the test. I don't know what you are thinking about yourself? don't you just want time and distance to let us break up?"

Ryan stopped pretending.

"Dad, We just fell in love, how can I bet Freya's willing to wait for me. I'm not that attractive yet. Besides, when two people are together, don't they just want to be each other's support. and if I put her out of the country and asked her to wait for me for a few years, will she agree and trust me?"

Nathan snorted coldly, "That can only say that your relationship is nothing more than that. It's not worth it.

Yes, Dad and Mom, You have a good relationship. If you have the ability, you can work abroad for a few years or more than ten years. Dad, It depends on whether you can trust my Mom or whether my Mom can trust you."

Ryan said sarcastically.

Heidi raised her brows subtly and Nathan said with a little confidence, "I've been married to your Mom for decades. Besides, I'm the Prime minister, we are one. Neither your mom nor I will ever be separated."

Ryan smiled, "IDad, don't want to take you as an example. Aside from the emotional aspect, do you think it's really good for a young man like me to serve as an ambassador in country X? Others won't jealous? Can

I convince the public? You are not afraid that people will say that you are relying on your status as the Prime minister to give your son a back door. Don't you make it difficult for me to do it well?"

Chapter 2382

Nathan immediately turned black.

"You..."

"Okay."

Heidi interrupted him and glanced at Nathan, "The person who went to Country X before was chosen by you several times, and it wasn't a decision. Now, it's just a matter of final decision at the meeting. If you suddenly change your mind and decide on your son, it will cause everyone's dissatisfaction. I understand what you think, but some things in the country should not be changed casually. If there is a problem with a chess piece, very It may cause turmoil."

"Don't you know Ryan's ability." Nathan was also refuted by his wife.

"He's still young. It's not a good thing to fly too fast. Don't you see that many people are already jealous of him."

Nathan was silent for a while.

His own temperament is still very clear. Over the years, if Heidi had not made up for his shortcomings, he would not have been able to sit in this position today.

"You helped Ryan a lot today. don't you want them to be together?" Nathan suddenly glanced at his wife.

"I won't speak for him. Do you want Rodney to shout that he and Freya haven't divorced yet, so your son has an affair with others?”

Heidi gave her husband a white look, “There are some things, you are not tyrannical. Refuting, if you say too much, you will be taken seriously.”

“Mom, you are so wise.”

Ryan gave a thumbs up, “I was taught by you, how can I be so immoral?”

“What you do now is more ethical but your dad and I know about Freya completely.”

Heidi glared at Ryan angrily, “Ryan, I know Freya is a good woman and I also like her very much and sympathize with her but when you are together, I really don’t support it. Let’s take an analogy. Ryan, You have a son in the future and You have high hopes for him and you grow it carefully. In the end, he finds a woman who is married for a second time. Will you feel comfortable? Ryan, Yes, I am selfish because you are my biological son, I can’t be so generous that I don’t mind anything.”

Ryan nodded, “Mom, I understand what you’re saying.”

“but emotional matters are not so calm and restrained. I have restrained myself but I have not restrained. I love Freya and want to be with her. It’s as simple as that, if I can’t be with her, I’d rather be single. I don’t know how long this singleness lasts and it maybe a few years, maybe ten years, maybe a lifetime.”

“Ryan, You’re threatening us, aren’t you?” Nathan became angry....

Ryan said frankly: “Dad, I don’t need to threaten you because no matter how you stop her. I won’t give up on her and want to transfer me to work far away? No problem, I will resign from my job. But I really hope that my parents are reasonable. What about the second marriage? Who wants to get married? You don't think about who made her into a second marriage. It's the Snow family. In order to bring Rodney back to shore, you guys Push Freya into this fire pit. Be kind, don't end up hurting others and dislike the second marriage."

"It's not us."

Nathan said with a bad face: "It's your Snow family."

"When I was willing to recognize Freya as their goddaughter, didn't it mean I wanted to help them?"

Ryan said, "To be honest, I didn't think that when Freya loved Rodney so much, pregnancy was designed and marriage was forced. After giving birth, I thought about giving my child a home and wanting to start a good life. What I saw in her was strength, optimism, and positivity. I can't miss such a good woman."

Chapter 2383

"Why don't you understand."

Nathan only felt that the dealing with Ryan is more difficult than dealing with national affairs and finally understood that why Old master Snow got angry with such disobedient son and wanted to lock him up.

"Okay, let's talk about it tomorrow."

Heidi gave a wink to Nathan.

"Mom, you won't go to Freya and her family to make trouble and I believe my parents are not so rude people in the TV series." Ryan reminded with a smile.

A few black lines appeared on Heidi's forehead.

Heidi closed her eyes and simply ignored Ryan.

After returning to the Ministerial palace, Ryan returned to the building where he lived alone.

Nathan stared at Ryan's backside with a hateful look.

"I knew earlier that I shouldn't have promised Jason and Wendy that they would recognize Freya as their goddaughter and let take Freya to live in the Ministerial palace alone. We are negligent, how can we let Freya and Ryan live together, who are not related by blood."

Heidi rubbed her temples with a headache, "There is no need to talk about living in the Ministerial palace. Didn't you hear what Ryan said, he liked Freya before her divorced with Rodney. I understand Ryan's personality and what he likes. He is willing to approach with all his plans."

"This is really tricky."

Nathan lost his temper and said, "Heidi, You meet to Freya and her Parents and say, "Sorry! Ryan, can't marry a second married lady."

Heidi frowned, "Don't say that. As Ryan said, a second marriage is also a step. He liked a second marriage who has been forced to this day."

Nathan said, "I understand, it's because of Rodney, but the second marriage is a fact. If people from the outside world know that the prime minister's son has found his cousin's ex-wife as his wife, my face will be embarrassed."

Heidi glanced at Nathan as she said, "Don't do it too much. If you really have a rift with Ryan and have a conflict, it will be troublesome. It's fine that people from outside don't know and you don't know Ryan's ability."

Well, you put Ryan next to you as a secretary, isn't it because he is capable, steady, and reliable. Once there is a problem with your relationship, you will really alone. If you think your son won't help you, it doesn't matter, you can handle it."

Nathan's brows were so wrinkled that he could kill a fly.

Who has always been sitting in this position, where can I really fight alone. Although Ryan also has a strong team behind him and the people in those teams are not his relatives. A few days ago, there was a traitor in the team. Fortunately, Ryan got the information in time, otherwise he would suffer a big downfall.

Thinking of this, Nathan suddenly sweated on his back. He found out that Ryan had become his right-hand man.

Heidi reminded, "Husband, didn't you hear what Ryan said, he is now on the same place with Jessica. Jason is no longer the core member of the Snow Corporation, and if you want to be re-elected in the future and even recruiting talented persons, there is always support from the Snow family behind it."

Nathan sighed, "I knew that I shouldn't have listened to Ryan's words and agreed to Jessica's appointment."

Chapter 2384

"Forget it. In fact, it was useless for you to agree at that time. It was just to stretch the front line a little bit.

Jessica has quietly mastered of Snowden members and directors. Your brother has not the way. In fact, you should be lucky whether it is Jessica or Ryan, they are all better. In many wealthy families, brother and sister fight and the family is forcibly supported to them."

Nathan fell silent but he still didn't believe that he couldn't handle these young guys.

After returning to the bedroom, Nathan called Jessica, "Jessica, are you busy?"

"Just finished a meeting and taking rest." Jessica stood in front of the window with coffee in her hand. She was Looking at the exotic scenery abroad.

"You, don't just focus on work, the boss is not too young and you should have an occasional meeting with him. No matter how capable you are, you still have to someone to rely on." Nathan said with concern.

Jessica was speechless.

Nathan stopped beating around the bush and said "Jessica, have you heard about Ryan and Freya? Ryan and you have always had a good relationship and you persuade them, these two are really inappropriate... .."

"But Ryan liked her very much."

Nathan said helplessly, "Ryan hasn't been in love very much. He just has a fever for a while, and things like love come and go quickly. Maybe the next time he encounters a better-looking one, he will like it again. Now Ryan didn't even listen to me and your aunty(heidi) and He said that you were on the side with him. Jessica, I don't believe you would be so confused."

Over there, Jessica was quiet for a while. After that, she spoke slowly, "Uncle Nathan, I owe Ryan a favor, so I won't stop what he does. Are women really so despised after divorce? No wonder I have been unable to get married again for so many years, and the people around me are either crooked melons and cracked dates, or people with ulterior motives and real good men simply don't look down on me."

When Nathan heard it, his head was heavy, "Of course not. Jessica, you are very good and who dares to dislike you, I will kill him. If you want to get married, I will introduce you to a good person. I know a lot of young guys that around us."

"Okay, Uncle Nathan, I want someone who has never been married. He will tall, handsome, good-looking, with good family conditions, and he will aslo 3 years older than me."

Nathan was silent for a while.

No, although Nathan admits that his niece is very good and excellent, and even inherited the Snow Corporation.

But those men with good family conditions, good looks and good character have long been engaged by those rich and powerful families. It is not good for young people. The older men are not engaged but also married, and they want to get married for the first time. It's really embarrassing to kill him.

Jessica said in a low tone, "Uncle Nathan, why don't you talk. I knew that I couldn't find anything like this. My husband died at a young age. So I only deserve to find that kind of second-hand goods even if I am at home. People's eyes are very good, even if a married man can see me, his family will object."

Nathan felt uncomfortable for a while and said, "Jessica, you want to speak for Freya about your own affairs. Is it?"

"Uncle Nathan, I am a lady and I have a tortuous marriage like Freya, so I will not embarrass her. I even think that why a woman can't marry a good-quality man who is married for the first time after the second marriage, just because In a marriage, we are worse than others. So I don't think about this."

Nathan said: "I didn't say you were worse than others."

"Uncle Nathan, I won't help you and I will even try my best to facilitate this, because I owe Freya."

"Dear reader, In the Last Three chapters, I have made a mistake, which is all about Lynch family and snow family. I have fixed it. Hope You can understand and forgive all my mistake. If you guys found any errors or mistakes, You can comment me, I will fix it ASAP. Hope you guys support me. "
