

Chapter 2411

"Fortunately..."

Ryan's dark eyes shone with an unmistakable chill.

Fortunately, Ryan didn't let his guard because Rodney was his older brother.

It turns out that people change. In other words, there is a dark side hidden in everyone's hearts; the difference is whether or not they want to be released.

Jessica understood what Ryan meant, and she took advantage of the situation, saying, "Ryan, I really didn't expect Rodney to betray the entire Snow family, and the Snow family never owed him."

"Everyone has different ideas, Sister Jessica. It's the same, no matter how much you dislike the Snow family at times, but the Snow family gave you birth and raised you, as well as a good life and a noble identity, so you have a responsibility to repay the Snow family, though Brother Rodney may not think so. Yes, Rodney will feel that some things should have been his because he is the eldest son, and he has now lost them. We stole what belonged to him, and it is only natural that he would seek restitution."

Jessica was taken aback and sad
"Perhaps you're correct. Grandpa and my Dad have told Rodney since he was a child that if Rodney works hard, the Snow family will be given to him. So many people held and complimented him, including the heirs of the family group. In fact, their educational approach was flawed. They should inform Rodney that this is a wolf's den because they were born into the Snow family."

In a soft voice, Ryan said, "How could Grandpa and the others say that? They always think that women are only going to marry. Sister Jessica, you have today because you're capable."

Jessica was rendered speechless. She finally asked after a long time, "Ryan, what are you going to do?"

"This time, Rodney really irritated me." Ryan suddenly calmed down, "Rodney not only wants to destroy Freya, but destroying my reputation will also destroy my parents' reputation and disqualify my father for re-election. What would you do if you were to replace a vicious hungry wolf, Sister Jessica?"

"Ryan, can you leave this matter to me?" Jessica understood.

"Yes."

Ryan grinned "Of course, I'll feel much more relaxed with Sister Jessica, but I'll only give you one day tomorrow."

"Okay."

Jessica sighed inwardly; some things were understood tacitly by all, but they were crystal clear to each other.

As Jessica only had known that Rodney is staying with Minister Judson, she immediately called Hall Master Snowden after hanging up the phone "Go to Senator Judson and bring back Rodney. If Rodney dares to resist, you can do it yourself. I only need to see him. It's enough to simply be alive."

Jessica closed her eyes and smiled bitterly when the call was over.

Rodney, Your sister really tried her best. You're the one who doesn't know how to appreciate it.

At the same time.

Rodney became enraged in Minister Judson's villa after seeing the hot searches on the Internet one after the other.

"How is it possible!, how dare Ryan..!"

Rodney was instantly enveloped in angry jealousy when Freya responded to Ryan's public declaration of love.

What is causing this?

Obviously, these two people should not be accepted by the rest of the world, but they have a large following.

Aren't people disgusted?

Chapter 2412

Ryan is a hypocrite because he even wants his own sister-in-law, even though he says he doesn't want her.

Ryan is far too cunning.

Those positive comments on the Internet must be the sailors invited by Ryan.

"It appears that... Ryan had anticipated that you would betray them, so he took action ahead of time, Young Master Snow."

Minister Judson put down his phone. After all, he is a high-ranking city official and his plans have been out of control, if he was very angry in his heart, but on the surface he was calm. "It's not easy, cousin."

Minister Judson sneered inwardly as he said this, looking at Rodney's blushing face.

Rodney, another member of the Snow family, was clearly lagging behind.

It's no surprise that the eldest son of the good Snow family should have everything, but he was duped by a woman, and his own sister stole the Snow family.

Who among the dignitaries did not flatter Rodney?

I don't like him anymore, and not because he's sad.

It doesn't matter if you're down, because, like Shaun, you've been down before, but if you have a brain, you're not afraid that such a person won't be able to recover.

But Rodney, really wasted. He wouldn't be allowed to enter this door if it wasn't for this specific purpose.

Rodney clenched his teeth in humiliation. Of course, he knew Ryan was not simple, but the more he learned about him, the more he despised him.

If Song Qingrui had not been a ghost, would he have become what he is today? Would he have broken up with his wife and kids?

"Since Nathan has such a powerful son, perhaps he can be re-elected."

Rodney reminded himself coldly, "Minister Judson, you're in your fifties and about to retire. How many more four years can I put up with?"

Minister Judson raised his lips, and his wrinkled face became gloomy
"Then you ask, "Is there anything else I can do?" Nathan and Ryan are usually reserved, and neither of them has a lover. It's unusual for Ryan to make such a big deal this time; this is an excellent opportunity to bring them down, but..."

On the side, the secretary stated:
"Minister, in fact, this matter is difficult to say, as long as we find the flaws in Ryan's article, overturn it, and convince netizens that his words are not credible at all, Ryan will be destroyed. The father and son's reputation has vanished."

"Young Master Snow, you didn't keep saying that Ryan was prying at your corner, these two people secretly had a leg during your marriage, you should have some evidence, right?" Minister Judson said to Rodney.

Rodney's thin lips pressed together fiercely, and he paused for a long time: "I... never thought these two would have a leg..."

Minister Judson saw and realised. His expression became cold. "So Rodney, you are actually not sure that Freya cheated during your marriage, and now the article that Ryan sent is true."

"No, they must be having an affair." "Otherwise, why would they be together so soon, and Freya is a b*tch, not willing to be lonely," Rodney clenched his fists and gritted his teeth.

Minister Judson and the secretary looked at each other. Contempt flashed back and forth in each other's eyes.

Everyone was wise, and when they heard Rodney's tone, they just said it, even though they probably didn't have any evidence.

What a derailment, he said that most of the time because he was unwilling.

Freya married a cousin who is much better than Rodney, which is even more heartbreaking, and she married a man with small heart who wants face but doesn't want it, even if she doesn't like it.

"All right, Rodney, you tell me that some of these are useless, but I want proof."

Chapter 2413

Minister Judson became agitated
"You showed me a video of Ryan and Freya kissing before, which would have been useful if Ryan hadn't announced their relationship, but now everyone knows they're in love, and the hug between lovers confirms it. It's normal to be intimate; think back to when these two people met in public before; did they have any intimate actions? It's really not good, but it's okay to photograph them."

Rodney was perplexed and racking his brains.

Rodney said suddenly, "I remembered, once I attended a dinner party with Freya, I saw Ryan and Freya chatting for a while. Ryan even touched Freya's head and the action is very intimate, that is the time I couldn't stand it and warned them."

"I was only touching my head."

Minister Judson was disappointed but he still turned to the secretary and said: "Young Master Snow will tell you the time and location, and you will go there. Check the banquet hall, there should be video surveillance."

"Okay."

After the secretary had left, Rodney said, "Minister, you can send the video I showed you and the head slaying to confuse some people, and finally invite another wave of sailors, not to say that they can completely overthrow what Ryan said, but at the very least they can be stained, and let the public know that the group of men and women does not have the purity in Ryan's article."

Minister Judson twisted his wrist around.

Rodney also stated: "Minister, I believe you can begin looking for the navy right now. After all, Ryan posted the article late at night, and many people had already gone to bed. When it comes to dawn tomorrow, the entire network will be watching., you can even contact Ryan's other opponents, and I believe... the forces outside must also be watching, you..."

Some words were hesitant to be spoken.

But Minister Judson is such a wise man that he raised his brows and looked at Rodney for a moment, then smiled and said, "Young Master Snow, if you used to be as cruel as you are now, I don't think there are many people who are your opponent."

"I just realised it was too late."
Rodney said with a gloomy expression. He is completely aware of it. When you don't have any rights or status, even your former friends will avoid you, and your wife and children will fall into the hands of the powerful.

"I'm ashamed of your viciousness."

Minister Judson shook his head and tutted "Yes, I sincerely desire to run for prime minister, but outside forces... I don't dare to incite my own people. Fighting in it is harmless, and being able to sit on it demonstrates that you have the ability and that your opponents are not as skilled as others. We can have goals, but there must not be a bottom line. In the end, the people's interests come first. People only have one country; what kind of country is it if you wreck it for your own selfish desires?"

Minister Judson smoked a cigarette,
"I've known your grandfather for more than ten years. I have to admit that he did not do a good job of teaching his grandson."

Rodney's expression changed fiercely, and he stood up. His face flushed, and he couldn't tell if he was angry or embarrassed. You and Nathan are already at odds; do you think you'll come out on top if you fail?"

"Boy, I'm not that frail, and Nathan isn't that ruthless."

Minister Judson has stopped speaking with Rodney.

"Think about it, do you have any other use value for me, if not, you can leave at dawn tomorrow."

"Minister, The hall master of Snowden is here, and he said... he wants to bring Rodney back," a guard said as he stood up.

Rodney's body was startled, but he hadn't expected Jessica's people to find this location so quickly.

Chapter 2414

Initially, Rodney was unconcerned. Even if Jessica came to him, he would still be able to assist Senator Judson, but everything has changed now.

Rodney hastily stated: "Minister Judson, when I came to join you, you promised to protect me. You can't be someone who doesn't take your word for it."

Minister Judson chuckled:
"However, the case of Freya and Ryan has already been made public, as stated. You don't have to tell me because I already know. So far, the only thing that has been of any use to you is a photograph of your head, which you may or may not be able to locate."

"However, the situation is unclear at the moment." Rodney said anxiously, "Yes, there are a lot of people supporting them online but I haven't stood up yet, if I jumped out with that first photo, If you mess up the situation, Ryan will not be so easy."

Minister Judson remained silent for a few seconds before raising his eyebrows, "So, I can ask the Navy to work with you and I want you to muck up the situation this time if you can bite Nathan and his son. I can find someone to take you out of Australia with a big mouthful."

"Can you just take me away?"

Rodney was hesitant.

Minister Judson stated

lightheartedly, "We have not been on the winning side of this battle since Ryan took action in advance.

Your plan to exploit me and reclaim control of the Snow Corporation has failed. Outside, your sister's family is keeping an eye on you. Now, Rodney, I can let you leave safely, which is enough to give you a slap on the wrist."

Minister Judson turned and went upstairs after finishing his speech.

"Is it really useful for Rodney to jump out and cause trouble?" his assistant asked as Minister Judson entered the room.

"Rodney is already insane. He will not be reconciled unless he bites Freya and Ryan. Let's see how the Snow family reacts." Minister Judson smiled lightly as he finished his speech "In any case, who am I? It was not done by me."

The assistant understood clearly, "Then I have to arrange for someone to send Rodney away at any time?"

"You didn't hear what he said before, this kind of person... sending out is a type of Hazard, he grew up in the Snow family and has mastered too many things, who knows if he will do anything destructive." Minister Judson's eyes narrowed coldly "The Snow family has decided that there is no need to let him leave safely. Such heirs should thank me this time."

"I understood." the assistant said with nodding his head.

Many young netizens did not sleep last night.

Everyone is keeping an eye on the prime minister's son's love life.

As Eliza and Catherine spoke out, an increasing number of celebrities and public figures came forward to support the couple.

It's just that when it was almost dawn, Rodney, another party involved in the discussion, jumped out to say: [Haha, it's such a touching relationship, but you shouldn't step on others to achieve your relationship. I didn't want to talk, but some people do, and they describe me as a fluttering image of colourful flags outside and red flags inside. Isn't that the only way to legitimise your relationship?]

That's not the case at all, Ryan; you've long lusted after your sister-in-law, and you've warned me in private, and all I can do is watch you grow closer behind my back.
