

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2679

Chapter 2679

Isn't she a little star, even forced by Chester due to her humble background? Isn't it funny that she's now Jewell's shareholder? Where did she get so much money to invest in stocks?

"Eliza, this is Jewell's shareholders meeting and you're in the wrong place.

Charity cast a glance at Della.

"No mistake...This is Reborn. Reborn is her identity in country M and these are the document for share change, if you don't believe me, read it for yourself.

The secretary next to Chester walked over and took it. He nodded to Chester after inspecting the documents.

"Eliza, you are incredible." Chester's dark eyes did not blink as he stared at such an uninterested figure. She gave him too many surprises, from the initial shock to the current complication.

Chester Always used to think he knew Eliza very well.

Until Eliza sent him to prison, Chester had no idea he had misunderstood her and thought he had seen right through her.

She gave him a new identity 'Reborn'.

The Reborn, who provided Fraga with a steady stream of funds, was the major shareholder behind Fraga.

Reborn in the short season behind the back.

The Reborn, who purchased 10% of the company's share.

Now that Chester think about meeting her the night before that he would sleep with her again and give her one billion dollars.

Oh, she said she invested in a good project and could make tens of billions of dollars per year.

Chester was still laughing at her ignorance and convinced himself that he was deceiving himself.

Eliza unexpectedly slapped him across the face. She had to be laughing at him at the time.

Chester expected to be very angry, but when he saw the woman sitting quietly, he realised he wasn't.

He was still ecstatic, as if someone had finally thrown a large rock into the stagnant water, causing countless splashes of water.

The kind of excitement that made his chest tremble after meeting an equal opponent.

He wanted to conquer Eliza, and wanted to conquer her to death, not just physically, but also emotionally.

Chester didn't feel perverted before, but he did feel cold-blooded, but Eliza seemed to have ignited all the perverted factors in his body.

He's never felt more drawn to a woman than he does now.

Charity looked up at Chester, his eyes a strange blood red, as if a jackal had met its prey.

Charity said softly, "Mr. Jewell, I'd like to apply for admission to the board of directors.

I'm not sure I can."

Chairman Hank Jewell was almost furious. He had no idea that the woman who had put his son in jail and made Jewell's family disorganised was actually Eliza.

“Yes.” Charity abruptly stood up and asked,

“Eliza, anyone has the right to ask this question, only you don't.

“Why didn't I?”

Charity said sharply to Chairman Hank Jewell, “Your son was punished for making a mistake because he violated the law, and it is right. Instead of blaming others, you should look in the mirror. You both son and father, as president and chairman of the Jewell Corporation, did not lead by example. Because your bad behaviour in private has ruined the company's reputation and your management is poor. Bribery or the hospital's interior is the local hospital. The personnel abused their authority by selling equipment, charging illegally, and engaging in other bad behaviour.
