Chapter 2724

“Are you agree?” Chester gripped his glass tightly.

“I must agree. If I dare to disagree, I will definitely take the baby away in the next moment.” Shaun said as he put one hand on his forehead with helplessness and doting on the corner of his mouth.

“That’s how Catherine’s relationship with Eliza is. Ok?” Chester was perplexed.

“It’s fantastic. It’s strange, Catherine and Eliza haven’t known each other for a long time, but our Hill Family Villa has a room, so it doesn’t matter if Eliza lives for a year and a half.” Shaun nodded.

Chester take a sip of your beverage. Did he truly despise Eliza? Even he would rather live in Hill’s Villa and be protected by others than return to the villa.

“Speaking of which, didn’t you feel embarrassed pretending to be a member of someone’s community? I can’t even do that kind of thing, okay?” Shaun grumbled.

“Face?” Chester lightly stroked his handsome face. “Do I have it?”

Shaun: “...”

..

He was really incomparable.

“It’s entirely up to you. Eliza doesn’t live there anymore. You can’t cause her problems every day.” Shaun said, raising his glass and touching him.

“Then open a back door for me and let me move to Hill’s Villa.” Chester said, his arm on his shoulder.

“Are you serious?” Shaun asked, his black eyes widening.

“Just kidding, don’t embarrass yourself or Catherine will kick you out of bed.”

Chester smiled and sipped from the wine glass, his throat and stomach astringent.

“Forget it. I’m not bothering Eliza.”

“Chester, I figured it out, that you were not going to take revenge?” Shaun was taken aback.

“If I take revenge on her today, and she will take revenge on me tomorrow. When will the grievances be repaid?” Chester sighed and shook his head.

He couldn't tell Shaun that Eliza had a mental illness, the kind that was resistant to men.

The issue was that Eliza was still unwilling to attend treatment.

What's the point of rolling around on the bed with a rock every day if Chester's got her?

Did Chester really allow her to take medication every day in order to sleep with him?

And, as Dr. Lord mentioned, Eliza could be tortured even more severely. What if she stabbed herself with a knife in the middle of the night?

Don't say anything about Eliza's ruthlessness; she might do it.

But there's always Charity between him and Eliza.

“You don't appear to be such a nice person. Don't you destroy what you've always admired if you don't get it?” Shaun was surprised.

“I'm just feeling...boring.”

He'd never been so bold before entangled with a woman. But Eliza appeared to despise him.

Chester also desires to be seen.

“That's great. Isn't it a woman, you are destined to be a man who won't stop for a flower.” Shaun exclaimed.

“You never said that before. You've always told me to find someone. What a wonderful opportunity for a woman who wishes to have another child. You also advised me to settle down earlier.” Chester said angrily.

“That's good. The problem is that you're not like me. You don't believe in love.” Shaun stated emphatically. “So it's not necessary. Because everyone has their own way of life. You were fine in the past. Everyone receives what they require. You love me, and I want it, and you can't make others do it. No, I ran into Eliza. Why bother? It will tarnish both your own and the company's reputation.”

“You are right...”

Shaun said softly, "Eliza and I are destined to be different. Come here, cheers, and after you finish this cup, you can tell Catherine that you can let Eliza go, and I won't argue with her again."

"I will do exactly what I say."

"Well, just one word."

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2725

Chapter 2725

Chester drank a lot in the evening.

He was still groggy the next day when he arrived at work. He drank a cup of coffee after asking the secretary to pour one for him, which made him feel a little more at ease.

"Mr. Jewell, you asked me to investigate Reborn last time, and you have a lot of eyes on it." Kaiden said as he knocked on the door.

Chester was taken aback.

It was only then that he remembered asking Kaiden to look into Eliza some time ago. He had always thought Eliza's rebirth was strange.

Chester would have been very interested if it had been before yesterday.

However, he had already decided that, aside from work, he would not have any other private contacts with Eliza, and he was too lazy to investigate her secrets.

"Don't tell me about her again, and don't look into it." Chester remarked lightly.

..

Everyone has a different set of secrets. He will be more interested in Eliza if he is afraid of digging.

"Mr. Jewell, don't you want to know if I find out that this Reborn's identity appears to be related to Charity?" Kaiden was stunned.

"Charity?" Chester raised his head in surprise, then relaxed his brows again. "Reborn is Eliza." Eliza and Charity have been friends since they were children. It's not surprising that they have a crossroads."

"No, Eliza might not be the real Reborn."

Kaiden explained, "When I first investigated Eliza, I was afraid of where it might come from. As a result, he sent his subordinates to personally visit Eliza's hometown, as well as secretly visiting the school where Eliza had studied. Eliza is beautiful, but her brain is average, and she has to study hard to keep up with her work. More importantly, when Reborn first appeared on Wall Street, Eliza was still in Australia, and she never left."

"Sure?" Chester's expression darkened.

If Eliza is not Reborn, she is posing as Jewell's shareholder.

As the president of a company, Chester cannot afford to ignore such incidents.

"I'm sure."

Kaiden took a step forward, pulled out a stack of documents, and pulled out a photograph, saying, "This is when Reborn first appeared on Wall Street six years ago, and Eliza was still in the third year of high school there on that day. She also went to the movies with a few classmates; this is the movie theater's surveillance screen."

Chester stared at Eliza in the photo, wearing a pure cotton dress, looking fresh and clean. It did, however, make him feel very strange. In fact, he had long suspected Eliza was concealing a major secret. But he can't deny that Eliza is a financial genius.

There are many people who are extraordinarily keen on data, and it is not uncommon to have such geniuses abroad.

It's just that the photos in front of Chester can't be faked.

Humans are incapable of having two identities.

"So, what caused Eliza to be Reborn?" Chester's face became solemn. "Eliza also invested in Fraga Pictures, and Reborn was the one who shorted Jewell's stock. Could she be the real Reborn who created a chess piece?"

Chester prides himself on his intelligence, but he was perplexed.

"No, I checked Hugo's side, and it was indeed Eliza who was in frequent contact with Hugo some time ago, and Eliza's former manager Jude also went to work in Fraga Pictures, so when Della came to Huxa entertainment, I also went to find Eliza, and there was a trace of Reborn in R country three months ago. Eliza appeared when I checked the monitoring of that hotel. Reborn is said to have been swept away in R country ten times. One hundred million."

“So, it was Eliza who invested in Fraga Pictures, Eliza who invested in Jewell’s, and Eliza who went to R country three months ago.” Chester said clearly. “Who is Reborn, who appeared six years ago in country M?”

“No, it’s not Eliza, who first appeared six years ago.”

Kaiden nodded quickly, as expected of Young Master Jewell, who is capable of quickly grasping from a pile of intricate information.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2726

Chapter 2726

The more Chester checked, the more wrong he was, so he found someone to accompany him to go to the M country.” When Reborn first appeared six years ago, she is said to have only stayed in the M country for half a year before disappearing without a trace. She reappeared two years ago in the European stock market. Her strategy was similar to the previous one, except she only made over ten billion dollars before withdrawing. She has made several appearances around the world in recent years, but her whereabouts are erratic.”

“Has anyone seen the real Reborn?” Chester asked, his eyes narrowing and his hands folded.

“I guess no one except Della’s team has seen Reborn’s true face.”

“By the way, you just said it again. “Does it have anything to do with Charity?” Chester inquired unexpectedly.

Kaiden said. “Yes. I checked the seaside hotel where Reborn stayed when Reborn first appeared six years ago. After spending a lot of money, I discovered something very strange that had been left by the hotel surveillance at the time. It cost a lot of money to discover that this Reborn once stayed in a seaside hotel in country M, and this is the photo left by hotel security at the time.

Chester abruptly stood up after glancing at it. He recognized the woman in the photo despite her sunglasses, with her long black hair, snow-like lips, and delicate nose.

Charity.

What is the significance of Charity?

.-

How could Charity be there.

“Charity once studied in country M, perhaps she happened to go there to play.” Chester thought after a while.

“Do you know Charity, Mr. Jewell?” Kaiden abruptly inquired.

Chester was stunned for a moment before coming to a halt.

Is Chester getting it?

Chester always thought he knew Charity well, but he later discovered that he didn't know nearly enough. He was too biased against her.

Kaiden sighed, “Mr. Jewell, I specifically checked Charity's experience studying abroad in country M. She has a double degree and the certificates of FRM and CAA in country M, but she is a low-key person, and many people are unaware of it. When she graduated, her mentor personally retained her, and many major Wall Street firms offered her high salaries, but she refused and insisted on returning to Australia.

Charity was so awesome. Chester was taken aback and he had no idea what was going on.

Chester assumed Charity was just reading a book abroad before returning with a diploma to take over Neeson Corporation.

Chester suddenly realized that he had never spent much time with Charity.

He didn't spend much time in front of her when she was dating. Despite her cool demeanor, she was well-behaved and followed him. However, it was overlooked that she was a very bright young lady.

Chester thought he had given Charity his heart.

But, has she paid for it? Why would she not recognize her if she had paid?

Chester's chest tightened and became painful. That kind of agony had never occurred to him before.

“Miss Neeson was really a very low-key person, and her parents didn't like to brag about it, so outsiders didn't know anything about it.” Kaiden sighed.

“If Miss Neeson can get FRM and CAA certificates, that shows she has a very good understanding of finance, and she happened to be in the hotel where Reborn first appeared.” Kaiden continued.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2727

Chapter 2727

Some truths appeared to be emerging.

“No.”

“It’s impossible, if Charity is the real Reborn, what happened to Eliza? Eliza doesn’t understand finance at all and who is helping her behind the scenes. I knew, Charity... is already dead, if she is Reborn, it means that Reborn has also disappeared, Della and these people are Wall Street elites. It is impossible to follow Eliza for no reason.” Chester said as he couldn’t believe it at all.

“It’s also the remarkable question I’m most puzzled about.”

Kaiden continued, “But what surprised me even more was that I found out that Eliza’s mother had several properties abroad, which amounted to several billions. They were all bought two years ago.”

“Isn’t her mother a regular country lady?”

Chester even met Eliza’s father, a gambler who abused his ex-wife. Eliza was blindly squeezed by the woman’s son.

“Yeah, her mother only went to junior high school and has since lived in a small county, living an ordinary life in a 1BHK house. I have never seen such an incredible thing.” Kaiden sighed.

Chester remained silent. He didn’t notice either.

“This house must have been invested abroad in her mother’s name by Eliza, but the problem is that you suspected she was not truly Reborn, so where did she get the money to buy billions of dollars in real estate and become a celebrity?” Stop joking. What is her age?”

“Fraga Pictures’s stock value, plus Jewell’s share, as well as foreign real estate, real estate in the capital, her assets are at least tens of billions.” Chester calculated.

And such a woman, lying on his bed a few days ago, saying that sleeping with him isn’t worth it, implying that he’ll buy her a house and a car.

Looking back now, Chester's face appeared to have been slapped.

They are so wealthy, yet they appear to have no money in front of him. It's no surprise they didn't take Chester seriously.

Tens of billions of dollars are enough to last a lifetime for one person. Even if Eliza has hundreds of billions of dollars in assets, she is most likely not unique.

She wouldn't have slept with him if Chester hadn't threatened her.

"Mr. Jewell, I think this is a little strange. Where did Eliza get so much money two years ago, and she was not popular in filming two years ago." Kaiden asked.

"You think it's strange, don't you think it's strange? Tell me what you think." Chester said, holding his head.

Staring at the photos, Kaiden said, "My opinion is that the Reborn six years ago was definitely not Eliza, possibly Charity, and the recently-appeared Reborn is Eliza. Although I'm not sure why Eliza understands financial matters, it feels odd. A commoner girl who used to read and know basic things appears to have suddenly become a financial boss. It's very strange."

"OK, you've worked so hard this time. Go back to rest, put down the materials, and I'll study it later." Chester snapped his fingers.

"Okay."

Kaiden turned and left. He paused again at the door, unsure whether to speak.

"Is there anything else I should say?" Chester inquired.

"Do you believe there are ghosts in this world, President Jewell?" Kaiden paused before asking.

Chester was stunned for a moment before turning black and saying, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"I believe that there are many things in this world that cannot be explained by common sense. Have you ever watched Eliza's TV shows?" Kaiden asked, embarrassed.

"I'm not interested in watching television." Chester remarked lightly.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2728

Kaiden said, "I'm not interested either but I have a niece who is a big fan of Eliza. She has seen every Eliza TV show and film. She used to say Eliza was beautiful, but she isn't anymore. Her acting abilities were as mediocre as a vase. Her acting abilities later improved by leaps and bounds, as if she had been reborn."

Chester frowned. "Didn't Shedrick frequently ask teachers to train artists in acting skills? Of course, her acting abilities will continue to improve."

"Maybe." Kaiden shook his head and turned to walk away.

Chester sat quietly for a moment before picking up Charity's information from the top and opening it.

[Charity, graduated from Yale University, obtained a double degree in finance and economics, and participated in a drama club and a band club during school...]

Chester's gaze is drawn to the drama club. Then he quickly opened the notebook and walked over the wall into Country M's Yale University Forum.

Chester quickly found the relevant content of Charity's graduation after entering the year. His pupils flashed violent shock as his eyes were fixed on the screen.

...

The next day.

Chester was unable to complete his work. He left work early and returned to the villa's movie theater, where he discovered every movie, TV series, and even commercial in which Eliza made her debut.

He began watching with the first one.

Eliza, who had recently made her debut, was filming a TV drama in ancient costume in which she played a maid and a supporting role.

Eliza's eyes are green and simple, revealing the maid's intelligence and vitality. When it came to her second TV show as the female No. 2, her acting skills were obviously lacking, and there were numerous instances where the eyes were unhappy.

During this time, Eliza appeared in another film as the female No. 4. And then made a low-budget heroine film.

Chester noticed a lot of comments on the barrage: [The plot is really bad, I wouldn't watch it if it wasn't for Eliza.]

[I'm also rooting for Eliza; this appears to be Eliza's first time acting in a TV series, but Eliza's acting abilities were mediocre at the time.]

[I don't like the male protagonist because he is too pretentious.]

[The former Eliza was extremely green.]

Chester looked at the woman on the screen, and whether it was her gestures or her eyes, they were strange and unfamiliar to her.

It was as if Chester had never met her.

Chester insisted on watching all twenty-four episodes of television.

Eliza's acting abilities were criticized in the fourth TV series, and her popularity declined, so she could only play the vicious and tragic second female lead in the Xianx drama.

When Elizay appeared on stage, Chester only noticed that the other party's eyes and acting skills had changed.

Barrage: [Help! Eliza made me cry with her beautiful eyes.]

[When e saw this drama, he fell in love with Eliza. Although she played a villain, it was also very sad. She did an excellent job.]

[Remember how I cried in the finale, and how heartbreakingly.]

[I believe Eliza's acting has improved dramatically since this drama.]

Chester immediately dialed Shedrick's number. He began to make a second call after the first failed to connect.

"Is there anything urgent, Mr. Jewell?" Shedrick's sleepy voice came over the phone.

"Can you tell me if Eliza asked a professor or teacher from the Department of Acting to guide you when the TV series "Xianx drama" was being filmed?" Chester inquired quietly.

Shedrick was taken aback. He rubbed his eyes, convinced that he hadn't awoken. "No, you called me at 4 a.m. just to inquire about Eliza. Have you gotten any sleep yet?"

Chapter 2729

“Well, I’m watching the TV that Eliza previously filmed.” Chester stated quietly.

Shedrick was taken aback. He thought Mr. Jewell was afraid that he was abused by Eliza and he was poisoned.

“Please respond to my question.” Chester became agitated.

Shedrick said lazily as he scratched his chin, “I remembered... no, before that drama, Eliza broke up with Monte, and even committed suicide and stayed in the hospital for a while. I didn’t think of Eliza when the script for came to me. She couldn’t play a love-hate or even crazy character with her acting abilities. The director thought she acted very well after a section of the play and decided on the spot.”

“So her acting skills improved by leaps and bounds after she committed suicide?” Chester inquired sharply.

Chester was not sure if it was Shedrick’s deception.

Chester was very excited for some reason, and even his breathing was heavier.

Could it be...a lack of females?

Shedrick said, “It’s almost the same. I also specifically asked Eliza how she became enlightened in her acting skills. She claimed that committing suicide once is the same as being born again. People fall in love to the point of hatred and insanity, and everyone knows when they are in love. When I hear it, it makes sense to me. Is this a performance? It is preferable to have similar experience in order to act the best.”

“However, she will act later.” The characters and personalities were not the same, and I believed she did an excellent job of interpreting them.”

“This should be a question of improving acting skills.” Chester frowned.

Shedrick wondered. “The acting will be fine with the director’s guidance on set. Mr. Jewell, why do you keep getting entangled in Eliza’s acting? Do you want to break through this matter in order to trouble her and bring her into disrepute?”

“ .. ”

"You think too much. Do you believe Eliza has changed her mind after committing suicide and waking up?" Chester said, his handsome face turning gloomy.

"appeared a great change now, who doesn't change."

Chester was speechless. He didn't want to talk to this idiot any longer.

Chester simply dialed Hailey's phone number.

Hailey was Eliza's manager, so she knew more than Shedrick.

"Mr. Jewell..." Hailey was also sleeping when the phone call came in, but she couldn't get angry.

Chester asked directly, "I have some questions for you about Eliza. As Eliza's personal assistant, did you notice any changes in her after she committed suicide and awoke?"

Hailey was taken aback, she asked, "How come you suddenly inquire about this?"

"Think about it thoroughly. For example, her personality has changed, her hobbies have changed, or the taste of her favorite food has changed." Chester interrupted.

Hailey was taken aback and later said, "Eliza's personality had changed when she awoke. She used to be very simple and cute, with a small heart, like a little sheep. She later became very cold and disliked laughing. People frequently feel cold and cold, and I was scared at the time. I used to dare to train her, but I wouldn't say anything too serious when she looked at me."

Chester asked, "Don't you think it's odd?"

"It's strange, but Eliza said she just walked on the precipice of life and death, only to be let down by a jerk again, and she was greatly stimulated. By the way, She forgot a lot of things."

Hailey suddenly slapped her thigh, then said, "Eliza didn't recognize me when she first awoke, nor did her assistant. Later, I introduced myself as Sister Hailey, and she had no idea she had signed with Felix media. I was still perplexed and wanted to see a doctor to examine her head. Ministry, Eliza told me not to go because she had fainted for too long and was a little less awake."

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2730

Chapter 2730

"What else is out of the ordinary, such as your food preferences?"

Chester could feel his heart trembling violently. He couldn't breathe normally because he was shaking so fast. He'd never been this way in his entire life.

Hailey was also irritated by Chester's words, but she took them seriously "Eliza used to enjoy chocolate cake and double-skin milk desserts. People looked at her and advised her to eat less. When I awoke, I didn't seem to like sweets very much. I bought it for her to eat, but she didn't touch it. Despite the fact that she enjoys spicy foods."

"Spicy?"

"Yes. She didn't like spicy food before, but after she woke up, she frequently asked her assistant to buy her duck neck whenever she was filming. She also used to prefer Cantonese food, but later preferred Japanese or Western food, hot pot, and so on."

Hailey continued, "Eliza was also less confident in the past. She was careful not to offend anyone when she went to film with the crew. Later, on set, she frequently went alone and didn't care what other people thought. There were a lot of dinner parties. You can go there even if you don't want to. If you don't go, don't try to persuade her, and no one can see through her, but what makes me happy is that she eventually has much better taste in clothes."

"More importantly, her acting abilities have improved dramatically."

There was tension in Chester's voice, "I see, thank you."

Hailey was flattered.

What did Mr. Jewell have to say?

Should say thanks?

Are these normal words coming from his mouth?

"Remember, don't tell anyone, let alone Eliza about today's matter," President Jewell said coldly before hanging up.

Hailey was at a loss for words. Why did Mr. Jewell make this decision?

Perhaps Chester suspected Eliza was possessed by a ghost.

She shuddered. Don't think about it at night; instead, go to sleep. She drew the quilt over her face quickly.

...

The other side.

Chester was unable to sleep any longer.

–Suicide can understandably alter a person’s personality.

–Suicide has the potential to alter her hobbies and eating habits.

–Even the clothes have improved?

–Is it true that acting has improved by leaps and bounds?

Chester already had a fantastic guess in mind. However, it felt unbelievable. However, all of the dubious evidence was once again in front of us. Others are unaware, but he is.

Charity liked spicy food and always liked those duck necks, duck feet, and the like when Chester was dating her back then, but he disliked them.

Charity prefers Japanese cuisine, but she also enjoys Western cuisine. When they visited a Western restaurant for the first time....

Chester’s mind raced, and he almost fell off the sofa onto the floor.

Because he remembered asking Eliza for dinner after the last Jewell shareholders meeting.

“Bring Mr. Jewell a truffle lamb chop, smoked king fish, and foie gras pudding.” Charity said at the time. She then looked at him and mocked him for forgetting everything.

Chester couldn’t recall what she said...His head appeared to explode. He wanted to light a cigarette, but his hands were trembling violently. And the cigarette case could not be picked up.

He couldn’t sit down any longer after his breathing became more tense and trembling, so he changed his pajamas and went out the door with the car keys.

...

Six o’clock in the morning at Hill’s Villa.

Shaun carefully got out of bed after tucking in the quilt for his wife.

He has a case today, and he needs to get to the court before 9 a.m.

As soon as the car drove out of the villa's gate, it came across a familiar sports car parked on the side of the road. Chester leaned against the car door, dressed in dark blue light pajamas, gray slippers, and a cyan beard growing on the corners of his mouth.
