

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2731

Chapter 2731

The Morning light fell on Chester's handsome face, and he appeared depressed and anxious, with a circle of black shadows under his eyelids.

Shaun believed he was dazzled. He immediately applied the brakes and rubbed his eyes, only to realize he had recognized the wrong person.

"Why are you... running to our villa's gate after not sleeping all night?"

Shaun walked out, puzzled, and looked at Chester. He'd known Chester for over a decade and had never seen him like this before.

Even if every strand of hair is meticulously cared for, this person has always been delicate and suave.

"... Eliza... I spent last night at your villa. I want to see her," Chester said, his eyes bloodshot behind his lenses.

"No, you drank with me the day before yesterday and said you put it down and don't bother others anymore." Shaun said, "I've already promised Catherine that you, Chester, are not a stubborn entanglement. Eliza has decided to return today."

"I may be forced to break my promise."

"Shaun, do you believe there are ghosts in the world?" Chester asked bitterly, taking off his glasses and revealing a pair of confused eyes.

"You don't have a fever, do you?" Shaun was rendered speechless. "As a medical student, you don't believe in science, but you believe in these?"

"I didn't believe it at first, but I'm starting to believe it." Chester mused, "Actually, I have already done so. It should be strange because Eliza is so out of the ordinary."

"I believe you haven't gotten enough rest. Go back to sleep. I still have a lawsuit to open, so I don't have time to argue with you." Shaun would not allow Chester into Hill's Villa.

He might entangle Eliza again in this state.

When Shaun opened his car door and turned around, he discovered that Chester still had no plans to leave.

“Let’s go, leave me alone. I have some questions for Eliza.” Chester stated quietly.

Shaun’s lips twitched. He sent a message to Catherine as he drove away, informing her that Chester was at the door.

Catherine noticed Shaun’s message as she stood up to wash the child.

Despite her headache, she told Charity over breakfast, “You drive directly to the company later, don’t pay attention to him, and don’t move back for the time being today, just live here.”

“Okay.”

Early in the morning, Charity lost her appetite for breakfast. She and Catherine drove away from the manor one after the other after breakfast. But not long after she drove away, she noticed Chester’s car following her.

The car followed her to the downstairs of the Neeson Corporation after driving through downtown.

The underground parking lot, on the other hand, does not belong to the Neeson family, and any foreign vehicle can enter.

Chester’s car stopped behind Charity after he got out of the car.

Chester, dressed in his pajamas, exited the car.

Charity was taken aback, as were the two bodyguards. “Mr. Jewell, you are also a person of status. please don’t harass Miss Eliza again and again.” Gage said as he approached Chester.

Chester didn’t say anything, just stared at Charity from a distance with scarlet eyes. Once he discover some clues, he will discover a plethora of similar locations.

For instance, the individual in front of him and Charity’s clothing.

–Charity dislikes overly complicated clothing and prefers simplicity and comfort.

–Charity dislikes wearing too much makeup on her face.

...

Too much...

But Chester didn't find out it until today.

Chapter 2732

"It wasn't Miss Eliza who I harassed, it was Miss Neeson..."

Chester approached her slowly, staring at her with deep and mysterious eyes, as if to imprint her appearance in his heart.

It was as if thousands of mountains and rivers stood between them. The distinction between life and death.

Gage and the two were incomprehensible.

Charity was taken aback, a deep stun flashing across her eyes.

"What are you up to, Chester? Did I not tell you what I told you the night before?"

"I'm not sure, you're hiding a lot of things from me."

Chester's eyes were brimming with complexities. He said, "Sometime ago, I asked People to go to M country to check Reborn, and then, I found a lot of incredible things. I think we can find a place to sit down, have a good chat, your true identity."

Charity locked her gaze on Chester for a few seconds, not blinking.

The man's eyes tingled her scalp.

"All right, then come to my office and talk."

"Miss Eliza..." Gage looked worried.

"It makes no difference. Chester wouldn't dare to do anything to me in my territory." Charity said as she took the lead and walked in front of Chester.

Gage's eyes flashed with concern, and he hesitated before sending a message to Miguel: [When are you coming back, the surnamed Jewell is bothering Miss Eliza again.]

Miguel: ["Barbarian" is also accompanying the President abroad and will not be able to return until the day after tomorrow, which is inconvenient.]

Gage: [This time, I have the impression that Chester's eyes are not quite right, as if he has caught Miss Eliza's handle, and he has also stated that he wishes to discuss Miss Eliza's true identity.]

Miguel, who was away at the time, was taken aback when he received this text message. He remembered his mother calling him from his hometown a few days before, saying that someone had come to inquire about Eliza's past.

–Is it possible that Chester has discovered that Eliza is actually Charity?

Miguel'd already covered Eliza as thoroughly as he could. But Eliza had been in contact with so many people in her hometown that it was impossible to keep everything hidden.

–In short, he was hoping Chester doesn't find out.

–What would happen if Chester realized Eliza was actually Charity?

–Chester's desire for her had nothing to do with liking and love in the past, but if it was Charity, would his heart change?

–Chester was also a very selfish person.

Miguel clenched his fists in private.

Forget it; Charity will always protect her, no matter what.

...

Neeson Corporation.

Chester passed by wearing pajamas, which prompted the company's employees to whisper. Fortunately, there weren't many people on the president's office floor.

Charity entered the office, shut the door, dropped her bag, and sat on the leather seat. Her icy eyes scrutinized. "Come on, I'm curious, what did you discover that you didn't even change your clothes or shoes? He rushed out the door." The corners of Chester's mouth filled with bitterness.

Despite this horrifying fact, he did not change his clothes.

"Let us begin with Reborn. Reborn first appeared six years ago, and that Reborn was Charity."

Chester looked her in the eyes, not wanting to miss any expression in her eyes.

However, the woman on the opposite side was calm.

Chester softly stated, "You are very calm, and it appears that my analysis has not surprised you. First and foremost, I apologize. I had no knowledge of Charity and had not expected her to pass the exam abroad at such a young age. CAA and FRM certifications."

"And then what?" Charity didn't dare to refute casually. Because she didn't know how much Chester had mastered.

Chapter 2733

"I found someone in the hotel to look up Reborn's address, and by chance, Charity also appeared in that hotel."

Chester's eyes gradually became more complicated, and there was even a hint of apprehension, "However, Charity has already dead, so what's going on with Reborn now?"

"You don't want to say I'm pretending to be Reborn. It's just your guess and there's no proof." After speaking this, Charity felt relieved. Previously, academic credentials displayed in country M and abroad were not strictly confidential.

"When many coincidences are combined, even guesswork will eventually point to the truth."

Chester was not convinced. Because his heart was racing so fast, he subconsciously desired to light up a cigarette. But when he took the cigarette case out, it was empty.

"Please do not smoke in my office. I dislike the smell of smoke inside." Charity said with a disgusted look in her eyes.

"Okay."

"I didn't sleep last night. I watched the movie you once made all night, and before you committed suicide, The drama you acted after you committed suicide seems to be completely different." Chester said, his hands on the desk.

For a moment, Charity's heart pounded, but her face remained calm, "It's normal. I hadn't gone through much before committing suicide. Do you expect to be as simple and kind as you used to be, stupid and naive?"

She gave him a mocking look.

"Yeah, gate of h-e-l-l has been closed for a while. Her personality has changed. Even her memory has been lost and her living and eating habits have changed."

Chester's low voice was tinged with sarcasm. "I asked Shedrick and Hailey, you used to love sweets, often You need to be watched by managers and assistants, but later, you don't eat it. You like spicy food, Japanese food, Western food, and hot pot, while Eliza grew up in the coastal area and prefers Cantonese food."

"Chester, what do you want to say?" Charity raised her head and asked.

The two of them were only a head's width apart. It's as if they're playing against each other. Whoever is the most fearful loses first.

"The Psychiatrist said to be highly stimulated, so there is selective forgetting, but can living and eating habits be changed as well? Eliza came from a small town. Before she committed suicide, her temperament and acting abilities were mediocre. After waking up, you don't need to train your acting skills to suddenly improve. You are not only good in the role of love, but also vicious and insane and Miss rich family. Even the characters at the bottom are vividly played by you. Even you won the award for the Most Popular Actress."

Chester paused, tugged at his pajamas' collar, and finally said quietly, "It's very simple, because you are not the real Eliza at all, or in other words, Eliza died in that suicide."

"..."

The room was deafeningly silent.

Charity blinked, then burst out laughing, as if hearing a joke "Young master Jewell, you're really insane. I'm not Eliza. who am I, a ghost? You're a doctor, and this is what you do."

"Perhaps it's a ghost. I checked, the days when Charity escaped from prison and disappeared were almost the same as the days when you committed suicide." Chester said word for word.

Charity didn't even blink and asked, "Do you mean I'm now Charity?"

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2734

Chapter 2734

“Yes.” Chester’s heart twitched as he said this word.

As if they were unable to breathe normally. To be honest, it’s ridiculous for Chester to think that way as a doctor. However, as a result of this reasoning, many things that he couldn’t solve seemed to become clear.

“Heh...” Charity burst out laughing, as if she had heard the funniest joke in the world “Young master Jewell, why don’t you write a novel? I’m sure it’d be very exciting, and then you say, there were so many people in the world who had accidents in those days, people who woke up in a vegetative state, who had surgery. No matter what happened, Why did Charity wake up from my body?”

“I’m not sure, maybe it’s the jade pendant on your chest.” Chester’s hand reached beneath her collar.

“Why?” Charity grabbed his wrist, “You’re a hooligan.”

“I’d like to see that jade piece.”

Chester fixed his gaze on the red rope around her neck, “I remember you telling me that before. Eliza and Charity, on the other hand, went to the temple together when they were younger. The monk explained that they all had a destiny, so one of them gave them this piece of jade, which may one day be able to save them from the disaster. You once told me that Charity gave you a dream because of this piece of jade, or maybe not because you are Charity and woke up from Eliza’s body because of this piece of jade.”

Charity couldn’t help but sigh at Chester’s intelligence and sharpness.

What no one has found, what she once said was a half-truth, Chester deduced a correct truth after finding some clues.

Unfortunately, Charity was unable to admit it. Because it’s so suspenseful.

If someone with ulterior motives discovers this, her body will be taken for an autopsy.

Second, the fact that Chester knows she is Charity will only deepen and complicate their relationship.

Charity simply told Catherine and Freya that she believed them.

“Chester, Your guess is very exciting. It’s a shame that I’m Eliza, not Charity. I have to work, and I don’t have time to discuss such bizarre issues with you here. Mr. Jewell, please leave.” Charity applauded.

“I’m not leaving; do you know why I’m suddenly convinced you’re Charity?”

Chester pursed his thin lips, appearing perplexed “Because I discovered in your study abroad file that you participated in the university’s drama club. I checked the forum of your session, and the drama club of your session was excellent. Rogers, the famous opera father of M country, happened to attend the university event one year.”

“He fell in love with you and a classmate at first sight, so he asked you to play an important role in the tour. It is said that he took you away during the summer vacation and trained you for two months, but for some reason, you lost.”

“Someone who has been meticulously trained by Rogers for two months must have a reborn change in their acting abilities. As far as I know, when an Oscar winner gave his acceptance speech last year, he said, “I am very grateful to Rogers. without his guidance, I would not be where I am today.”

“Really, it’s too unexpected. I didn’t expect Charity to be so powerful and have a connection to Rogers. I don’t know if you don’t tell me.” Charity said lightly with a smile.

“Some things are not dug up, especially the classmate who was selected by Rogers along with Charity. She has now become a household name in the world because of her global tour, Luella Walker.” Chester said. “If it weren’t for her being so famous, it would be really hard to dig out this past.”
