

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2813

Chapter 2813

“What does Cindy want to do, and Chester doesn’t like her...” Freya was slightly irritated.

They used to be good friends with Cindy.

Cindy has been crooked for many years.

“It appears that her blood is extremely rare and beneficial to Chester’s mother, who also has this blood type.” Charity elaborated.

“Did she want Chester to marry her based on this, it’s a joke.” Freya sneered.

“Now that Chester is lame, isn’t this an opportunity?” Catherine said, who had been silent for a while.

Charity held the phone in her hand, inadvertently shaking it, “Chester...”

“Shaun stayed here last night. He just checked it out, it seems that Chester is out of danger. But... one of the legs was hit many times during the car accident. The calf’s bones were broken, and only the flesh remained attached.” Catherine explained.

Charity looked up. She blinked her eyes, pursed her lips without speaking for a long time, and didn’t know what she was thinking.

Freya, on the other hand, was surprised and said, “Yeah. It’s so serious.”

“Fortunately, after being admitted to the hospital, the hospital director rescued him right away. There was a lot of blood at the time, and limb preservation, if not life preservation, is a challenge. Fortunately, the dean has performed limb replantation and blood vessel transplantation; otherwise, the leg would have been sawed off.”

“But it will be difficult to walk normally in the future.” Catherine paused.

“Has Chester awoken?” Charity raised her head, her pale eyes darkening dramatically. “If Chester wakes up, let Shaun arrange a time for me to see him.”

Catherine couldn’t help but secretly glanced at Miguel who was busy beside her, bowing his head. Only then did he answer: “It will be two days later, Chester doesn’t seem to be able to speak now.”

“Charity, after you go and see it, you have to be mentally prepared.” Miguel said after a brief pause in the ward.

“What exactly do you mean? Has Chester lost his memory?” Charity inquired.

It wasn't Charity's fault that she forgot a few things after a car accident.

“That's not true. He's very sober. you'll know after you read it.” Catherine changed the subject, saying, “Would you like to deal with that recording on the Internet, which is currently causing a lot of damage to your reputation? Significant negative impact.”

“Don't worry, I'm not in the entertainment industry anyway. I don't care about that anymore.” Charity said lightly.

Upstairs.

Chester awoke at 6 o'clock in the morning.

His head was fixed, and there were numerous tubes stuck in his body, making moving and even opening difficult.

The entire body hurts as if suffocating.

He'd never been the victim of such a heinous crime before.

“Chester, you've finally awoken. Auntie found out that I went to Eliza after you had an accident, but you know what she said, that she didn't beg you to save her, you are meddling with your own business, and you are too cold-blooded.” Cindy sat on the edge of the bed, crying and grabbing his hand. She must have done this to save her, she must not know how to be grateful, and auntie has been sickened by her rage.”

Chester's eyes moved. He couldn't speak and could only look at Kaiden.

“Miss Turner, please return to your rest before disturbing Young master Jewell's rest.” Kaiden was speechless. Cindy had said that she cared about Young master Jewell, but after crying beside him for so long, he couldn't do anything else.

Cindy said that if she wants to be courteous. She should wipe the blood stains on Young master Jewell's body.

She was fine and didn't say anything, but when she saw Young master Jewell's wound, she couldn't hide her fear and disgust.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2814

When Young master Jewell was taken to the hospital for treatment the night before yesterday, Cindy saw the wound. She secretly hid and vomited, not even daring to approach.

She could see everything.

How can such a woman exist?

Even if Young master Jewell was harsh with Cindy, he should never give less. Where would Cindy be today if it weren't for Young master Jewell?

fortunately, Young master Jewell did not marry Cindy at the time.

"I wasn't bothering him. I was accompanying him." Cindy said confidently, " Besides, my uncle and aunt arranged for me to stay. You are just bodyguards, who knows if you will talk while he can't move."

When Cindy was bullying him, Kaiden's eyes were irritated.

Cindy raised her head and warned Kaiden, "You better figure out who the Jewell family is in charge of Chester now that he's in the hospital."

The implication is that if she dares to speak up, , she can make Uncle Jewell drive away Kaiden at any time.

Anyway, Chester is now like this. Even if he is cured, he is still a cripple.

Many people in the company will not be persuaded.

Furthermore, Chester has injuries to his head, internal organs, and legs that will not heal in a year and a half.

After the recovery, Chester's time has long been over. It's over.

Chester will have nothing to do with Cindy in the future unless she can win over Hank Jewell and his wife.

Of course, Chester dislikes Cindy in any case, she simply needs to sit in the position of Young master Jewell.

Her position at the top of the upper class is completely secure.

Instead of now, some people appear to be holding her in high regard, but they actually look down on her behind the scenes.

Kaiden is honest. But he also knows Cindy is telling the truth.

After all, Kaiden is just a bodyguard.

“I don’t care who the Jewell family is in charge.” Suddenly, a man’s indifferent and magnetic voice emerged from the door.

“But this is Chester’s ward, and I won’t allow any messy people to come in to disturb him.” Shaun said heroically.

Cindy’s heart shook.

Unlike Kaiden, Shaun has a strong aura which combined with his tall body and elegant temperament, subconsciously puts people under a lot of pressure.

“Do you want to go out by yourself, or I’ll evict you?” Shaun asked word by word.

Cindy was scared, but when she remembered Hank Jewell and his wife’s support, she bravely said, “You are just Chester’s friend, and you have no right to control me. Furthermore, if you truly consider Chester a friend, you should keep him away from Eliza. One point, how could he be disabled if not for Eliza? Finally, it isn’t because Eliza is your wife’s friend.”

“Cindy, you have nothing to do with Chester.” Shaun said, grabbing her collar and throwing it out the door. “It has nothing to do with you who he wants to save and who he likes. With me, don’t use chicken feathers as an arrow. Chester is not perplexed. If something happens to him, you can take advantage of the situation by sitting in Mr. Jewell’s seat, dreaming, and fleeing.”

Shaun slammed the door shut after he finished.

“Cindy will definitely go to Hank Jewell and his Wife.” Kaiden said helplessly.

“Didn’t Chester help people? Let them guard the door.” Shaun said lightly, “No one will come in except the doctor and the nurse.”

“But...” Kaiden was embarrassed.

Shaun interrupted, “Hank Jewell and his wife came in and blamed Chester for saving Eliza. Despite the fact that Chester had a broken leg, and what else would they do but scold him for a woman regardless of the company? And Cindy, the reporters she invited are arranged at the door, in order to create the illusion that people outside will think Chester is in the hospital, and she will take care of him.”

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2815

Kaiden was taken aback. He had been so busy to take care of Chester that he had not noticed this...This lady... He really don't know how to describe it.

Young master Jewell is like this, and Cindy still wants to do it.

"If Cindy does this, not only will she be able to cleanse herself, but also if the young master wakes up and refuses to marry her, he will not be scolded to death by the outside world." Kaiden quickly realized what was going on.

"This is what Cindy wants."

Shaun said lightly, "Hank Jewell and his wife are also happy to see a mobile blood bank tied to their side, of course they would be happy to see it. As for Cindy, she wants nothing more than high society. With Chester's current appearance, she may still believe that she married him at a disadvantage."

Kaiden was enraged when he heard this.

Thinking carefully about the disgust in Cindy's eyes when Kaiden was facing Chester's wound, it was really possible that he was thinking that way.

"No matter what, Young master Jewell will never marry her."

"Chester is in a lot of trouble right now, so you have to pay attention. Don't let Cindy instigate Hank Jewell and his wife to do stupid things."

Shaun departed. When he arrived at the hospital bed, he looked at Chester, who had awoken, but he couldn't move his head or speak for the time being, he just blinked his eyes.

"Don't be worry, Eliza is fine. She is in your downstairs ward and has offered to come and see you, but your image is a little bad, so let's wait two days." Shaun said, bending over.

Chester's eyes blinked again, and he seemed relieved.

At noon, a bodyguard at the door reported to Kaiden: "Brother Kaiden, there is a woman at the door who said it was Eliza's mother and gave Young master Jewell something to drink."

Kaiden was taken aback, paused for two seconds, and then went out in person.

A middle-aged woman held a heat preservation box in her hand. She was dressed simply, but her face was clean and resembled Eliza's facial features.

“Hello, I’m Eliza’s mother, Monica Robbins. I heard Mr. Jewell saved my daughter from an accident.” Monica said, “I’m so sorry. I heard he was seriously injured...”

Monica stumbled a little, she lives in a small town, and even though her daughter has become a celebrity, she has always lived in her hometown, and Eliza has never let outsiders bother her. She is also the first time she has met such a prominent person.

“Thank you.” Kaiden accepted the insulation box.

Monica was both surprised and flattered. She expected the other party to scold her and despise her. After all, Chester was in trouble because of her daughter. She didn’t expect to be treated so well. My daughter may have died, but we, mother and daughter, are grateful to him, and if there is anything we can do to help, we will.”

Kaiden was taken aback, but he had not expected such a powerful Eliza’s mother to be such an honest woman. “I’m sorry, I’m just Mr. Jewell’s bodyguard. I can’t speak for him, but... When Mr. Jewell awoke, he didn’t seem to regret saving Eliza.”

Monica pursed her lips in thanks. nodded.

Charity gave her a complicated look as she walked downstairs, saying, “No one will embarrass you.”

“No. There were a bunch of bodyguards guarding the door, and then a tall young man came out. He looked like a little ferocious, but really he’s very polite.” Monica said while shaking her head.

“That’s good, if it was his parents, it would definitely be...” Charity was taken aback, Monica should be talking about Kaiden.

Monica sighed. “His parents should chastise me when they see me. If it were me, I would definitely be very angry, even if I were trying to save others. People are selfish and only care about themselves. How can they care about others, children?”
