

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2833

Chapter 2833

Chester's stomach was full of bitterness. In the past, what he despised the most was a good man and a good husband. He didn't expect that one day he would regret it so much.

"You said so much, but you didn't say yourself, are you going to give up?" Charity's eyes swept across his body.

"I don't want to give up, but I'm helpless." Chester clenched his hands tightly, "The doctor said that it would take at least three months for me to be discharged from the hospital, and I would continue to operate on my left leg, my head often hurts, I didn't get enough sleep at night, and I wasn't awake enough during the day. , now Shaun is helping me with many things."

Charity frowned, everything was said by Jorge Chadwick.

"Of course, if you are willing to take charge of the Jewell Corporation, I will spare no effort to support you." Chester said suddenly.

Charity was startled, "I didn't think about it, I just want to run Neeson Corporation right now."

"I guess you are too." Chester smiled, his eyes were clear, "you can support Jorge Chadwick. It is the best choice, and you can get 2 billion in vain, and when you become a deputy director, you can also help a little bit, so as not to let Jewell Corporation go astray."

Charity looked at the pale and haggard man on the hospital bed, and his heart was full. She Got a touch of complexity.

"What are you going to do in the future, I mean... in the future?" Charity asked tentatively, "The legs always need to be treated. I heard that there are still a lot of high-tech abroad."

"There are two ways. Two or three years of being a cripple, and another, amputation, a chip prosthesis and can walk normally, but completely lost a leg. I am a doctor and no one knows this industry better than me."

Chester didn't care much about the corners of his mouth. He shook his head, "How about ...you help me make a decision?"

"Me?" Charity hesitated for two seconds before shaking her head, "Sorry, I can't make a decision."

Chester blinked her eyes, "Can you pinch my leg."

His left leg was injured, and his right leg only had some abrasions.

Charity has revealed a right leg with some scars and bruises.

Chester was wearing nothing inside.

Charity's face flushed with heat, she suddenly regretted it. She knew that she should not have agreed to him.

Charity: "Otherwise, let a professional nurse come here."

"Why, do you think it's too scary?" Chester's eyes flashed with deep injuries.

Charity: "It's actually okay..."

"No need to console." Chester sighed sadly.

Charity wanted to go crazy, she hadn't felt this way for a long time, but considering that someone was injured, she wouldn't have fallen to this point if it wasn't for herself, she still pressed it carefully, "If it hurts, say me."

The answer to her was a man's coquettish hum.

Charity: "..."

Goosebumps felt like falling to the ground.

"Can you shut up?" Charity reminded through gritted teeth.

"I can't control it, my legs are really sore." Chester looked at her leisurely, "I want to enjoy more, maybe I won't have such a blessing in the future."

Charity did something wrong and didn't say anything. She just pressed it silently, and didn't dare to look around.

Suddenly, a man's hot voice echoed in the ward. It was Kaiden.

Charity took a deep breath and wanted to be simple.

Kaiden: "Young master Jewell, are you awake? Let's have some lunch. Miss Eliza, I also got you one."

At this moment, Kaiden suddenly walked in and looked at them from his point of view, he was dumbfounded for two seconds, and then his face suddenly became red, "Yes... I'm sorry, I didn't know you were there... I shouldn't bother, I'll go out right away."

Chapter 2834

"It's not..."

Charity looked confused, "We..."

"Come back." Chester whispered.

Kaiden, who was about to open the door, turned his back to them and said, "I didn't see anything."

"Don't talk nonsense, she's giving me a massage." Chester reprimanded.

Kaiden was taken aback.

Charity quickly pulled the quilt down to cover Chester's legs, "Since you're here, I'll leave first."

"Don't go." Kaiden knew that he had misunderstood, and quickly said, "I have prepared Miss Eliza. Your meal is already now, let's eat it together, our young master Jewell has a bad appetite recently, maybe you can eat better."

"Okay, don't make it difficult for others." Chester sighed in a low voice, "I look so ugly, people will eat me off when they see me, why bother?"

Kaiden has been serving Chester for so long, and this was the first time he had heard such self-pity words from his mouth, so he confused for a while.

What kind of drama is this playing?

Charity said, "It's not that ugly."

"Forget it, I know what I look like." Chester's face was bleak.

Kaiden immediately pleaded, "Miss Eliza, just stay for a meal, it's just time for a meal."

Charity was unable to hold back the two of them say along, so she finally stayed for a meal.

Although it was brought in from outside, the taste of the food was very good. As soon as Charity ate it, she ate a meal customized by the chef of a certain five-star hotel.

Compared to Charity, Chester ate more slowly.

Kaiden fed clumsily, and “accidentally” sprinkled the soup on Chester’s gown, “I’m sorry, I’m sorry...”

Chester frowned his handsome and haggard brows, and did not speak with a depressed expression.

“Do you need my help?” Charity just finished eating and got up.

“Miss Eliza, trouble you.” Kaiden quickly put the bowl in her hand.

Charity couldn’t understand, “Kaiden, Why are you taking care here, didn’t you ask for a nurse?”

Kaiden: “A male nurse was hired, but today the nurse has something at home and went back.”

“Actually, the female nurse will be more careful.” Charity made an opinion.

Kaiden whispered, “Young master Jewell didn’t like unfamiliar women looking at him and touching his body.”

Chester quickly glanced at Charity and held his breath. He could clean himself up now.

“Oh.” Charity blew the soup and said, “This is a bit hypocritical. There are not many women who have seen your body before, and your body has no privacy.”

“ ... ”

The lines on Chester’s face slowly solidified.

Kaiden almost burst out laughing. But because of his professionalism, he still held back.

Charity looked sincere. She said, “Kaiden, maybe the nurse you’re looking for is too old-fashioned. You should find a female student in the medical school, preferably someone who is youthful and beautiful and gentle. Chester may agree.”

“I have long since changed my mind and stopped touching women.” Chester’s chest throbbed, “Now any woman is like a tree in my eyes.”

“Yes! In fact, after more experience, I found that any woman with a good figure took off her clothes.” Charity nodded sincerely.

Chester's eyes widened. His face was white and red for a while.

Kaiden had a little admiration for Eliza's poisonous tongue.

How do people take this.

"Open your mouth." Charity ordered.

Chester drank the soup cooperatively.

Kaiden watched from the side, and really felt that Young master Jewell was just like a dog, and Chester would eat whatever People fed.

Unlike him, Young master Jewell hates whatever he feeds.

Chapter 2835

Chester did not speak.

He looked at Charity with such affectionate, infinitely melancholy and dazed eyes.

Charity suddenly felt uncomfortable. She said, "I'll go first."

Chester said quickly, "You've worked hard for me today, Kaiden, send Miss Eliza off."

"No, I'll go by myself." Charity pulled up her bag and left quickly.

Chester looked at the back of her leaving, and a deep melancholy flashed in his eyes.

Kaiden said, "Mr. Jewell, in fact, you can use more excuses for work and ask Miss Eliza to come over."

"It makes sense." Chester was stunned for two seconds, and praised, "Sure enough, it hurts my brain. You've become stupid."

Kaiden slandered silently in his heart, the way he pretended to be a pig and ate a tiger just now didn't seem like he had become stupid.

"Tomorrow at the board of directors, go to Jewell Corporation to protect her." Chester suddenly reminded, "If she supports Jorge Chadwick, I'm worried that my dad will do something out of control. You tell my dad directly, it's mine. Meaning."

"But this will cause you to tear your face with Chairman Jewell." Kaiden was in a dilemma.

Chester said coldly, "If my dad is smart enough, he should know that I am for his own good, so as not to lose his temper in his later years."

Kaiden had a headache.

The relationship between Young master Jewell and Hank Jewell was already very bad. After this incident, what could Young master Jewell do in the future.

...

The next day.

Charity's car drove into Jewell Corporation.

After parking the car, she walked into the elevator, where Kaiden had been waiting for a long time. He quickly said, "Miss Eliza, good morning! Young Master Jewell asked me to come as he was worried about you. Helping Jorge Chadwick, Chairman Jewell will trouble you." Kaiden said respectfully.

Charity didn't object. After the car accident, Gage's injuries were much heavier than her, and he never recovered. Charity really had no bodyguards by her side.

Today this board of directors....

To say trouble was sure to be trouble.

"What the h-e-l-l is Chester thinking, he really doesn't want to care about the Jewell family?" Charity asked in a low voice, "This is his hard work."

"Did you think what Young master Jewell said is lying to you?" Kaiden With a wry smile, "Actually, Young master Jewell is not willing. It's just that the doctor said that his body is really not suitable for high-intensity work. He must rest for at least three or four years, otherwise it will affect his lifespan."

Charity felt sympathy.

Kaiden said: "Young master Jewell doesn't care about that, he has no shortage of money, and his career is nothing but the icing on the cake. My main concern is that if Mr. Jewell knew that Young master Jewell asked you to support Jorge Chadwick, it is estimated that the father and son would be the icing on the cake. There will be a big conflict."

Charity said, "I won't tell Hank Jewell. If Hank Jewell asks, I will answer that this is my own idea, because Jorge Chadwick gave me 2 billion."

Charity understood Kaiden's thoughts at once, and Kaiden face flushed a little.

Kaiden said, "I'm sorry, Miss Eliza, I'm just worried that Young master Jewell will have no support in the future. The only relatives around him are his father and his mother. If they are torn apart completely, Young master Jewell will really be alone in the future."

Charity sighed, "Kaiden, you are a heartfelt person and your concerns are justified. Yes, there seem to be a lot of people around him now, but once the real power in his hands is lost, some people will naturally stay away from him, I understand."

For some reason, Charity felt that Chester was actually quite pitiful.

Although poor people must have something to hate.
