

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2838

Chapter 2838

In the conference room.

Quiet needles can be heard falling to the ground.

Charity always sat quietly and gracefully with her delicate body.

It was not until the tea in Charity's throat choked that She heard Dalton say: "Mr. Jewell, now the company is choosing the vice-chairman of the board, and we are talking about business affairs. You shouldn't attack personally, and you shouldn't use Chester's life-saving grace to morally kidnap. "

"Mr. Chadwick, this bitch Eliza is helping you. Of course you help her talk and I'll see what tricks you can come up with, but I remind you that when a lot of money goes in. If you can't figure it out When the results come out, wait for your Chadwick family to get out of the board."

After saying this, Hank Jewell slammed the door angrily and left.

Dalton was blatantly provoked, and his face suddenly looked a little ugly.

Immediately someone rounded up the field.

The next step was to start the election of the vice-chairman.

Dalton personally appointed Charity as the vice-chairman.

Many people disagreed at first, but under Dalton's forced decision, Charity became the youngest member of Jewell Corporation's vice-chairman.

After the meeting, Dalton personally invited Charity to sit in the office for a while.

"Miss Eliza, thank you today." Dalton said happily while making tea, "We will work together in the future to make the company bigger and stronger."

"Actually, my experience is not enough to be a vice-chairman position." Charity said with a hint of doubt and vigilance, "Also, even if I didn't choose to side with you, you would still win."

"Not necessarily, among the people I know, two or three are swinging..." Dalton said with a smile, "Although it took a little more money to find you. It can make the winning situation more stable."

“But you have given me too many benefits. You have money and power.” Charity leaned back slowly, and stopped hiding, “You only need to give me one, the mall is just a verbal agreement. It’s normal to go back and regret. Besides, you should see the envious and unwilling eyes of many people after I became a vice chairman.”

“Miss Eliza, you’re really quick to talk.” Dalton laughed, “Why did I give you so many benefits, a smart person like you should be able to guess that Chester is so selfish and arrogant that he is willing to give his life to save her. It shows that you are in her heart. Position is very important, and I win you over to reassure him and make him happy.”

Sure enough...

Charity also vaguely guessed in her heart, “But as Hank Jewell said, he is already a crippled, and Dalton still cares about him?”

“Hank Jewell doesn’t know this son well enough. The skinny camel is bigger than a horse, don’t look at it. Chester looks like this now, but he knows everything about the Jewell family like the back of his hand. I have fought with him countless times, no matter how old I am in my fifties or sixties, but every time I lose miserably, and it is very embarrassing to say it.”

Dalton laughed at himself, and continued, “He’s lying down now, but if he doesn’t want to, I’m not even qualified to live to participate in this meeting.”

“So you chose the same future development plan as Chester.” Charity was completely stunned.

“To be honest, I really hate Chester, but I probably know him better than his father.” Dalton said helplessly.

“Mr. Chadwick, I hope we can have a good cooperation in the future.” Charity raised her tea cup, “It’s getting late, it’s time to leave.”

“I’ll find someone to take you out.” Dalton said, “Hank Jewell should trouble you.”

Charity: “Kaiden is waiting for me outside.”

Dalton was startled, then smiled: “Kaiden is Chester’s most capable assistant. It seems that Chester is really moved this time.”

Charity was noncommittal.

When Charity walked out of the office, she was blocked by two strong bodyguards as soon as she walked to the elevator entrance.

“Our Master Jewell asked us to take you to the office to talk.” A bodyguard named Otto grabbed Charity’s shoulder rudely.

“Otto, you’d better be polite to Miss Eliza.” Kaiden strode burly. He’s nearly two meters tall, making the bodyguard instantly timid.

“Brother Kaiden, this is what Master Jewell meant.” Otto wondered, “If it weren’t for her, Master Jewell would not have lost his position as chairman. Master Jewell is very annoyed now, don’t make me embarrassed and don’t forget, you are also taking Jewell’s money and eating Jewell’s food.”

“Sorry, I took Young master Jewell’s money, and Young master Jewell did not allow anyone to hurt Eliza.” Kaiden sighed helplessly.

Otto disagreed, “The person who knows the current affairs is Eliza, Young master Jewell has already been like a ghost. Brother Kaiden, if you are smart, you should be loyal to Master Jewell with us.”

“I only know that Young master Jewell rescued me back then. Life, I will not have today, you are not my opponents, get out of the way.” Kaiden squeezed his fists as he spoke.

Otto knew Kaiden’s strength very well, even if neither of them were opponents.

But still not satisfied.

“Kaiden, you’d better persuade Young master Jewell to stop being obsessed with a woman. Otherwise, Master Jewell will be angered, and he won’t have good fruit to eat.”

Otto glared at Charity before turning around to join his companions and left.

“Kaiden, thank you.” Charity’s face showed solemnity, “You can go back to Chester later and try not to leave him in the future.”

Kaiden raised his eyebrows, “Don’t worry, Young master Hill has already arranged bodyguards to stay there.”

“Chester can’t keep bothering Shaun, and Shaun also has his own affairs, in case of an emergency.” Charity always thought that asking for help could not ask for herself.

“Okay, I will tell Young master Jewell what you said. I believe he will be very happy to hear it.” Kaiden suddenly looked at her and smiled.

Charity froze, her heart slightly disturbed.

She just didn't want Chester to get worse because of saving herself, so she couldn't be more involved.

In front of floor-to-ceiling windows.

Hank Jewell looked at the car that Charity was leaving, and angrily smashed the cup on the floor.

"B*tch, rebel."

Hank Jewell had never been so rude and angry before.

The position that was at his fingertips was actually taken away by the surnamed Chadwick.

This is the Jewell family, it was created by his Jewell family ancestors.

The more Hank Jewell thought about it, the more angry he was, and he drove all the bodyguards to the hospital directly.

There were five bodyguards guarding the door of the VIP's ward.

Hank Jewell waved his hand, and the people he brought fought with the bodyguards guarding the door.

He took the opportunity to rush into the ward.

Chester was in the process of infusion, and when he saw his father coming in, he opened his eyes.

Hank Jewell: "You asked Kaiden to stay by Eliza's side to protect her, right?"

Hank Jewell angrily overturned the infusion rod, and the needle tube was pulled out of Chester's flesh and blood.

Chester always lay quietly, looking at his father, he was so angry that he wanted to cut himself with a thousand cuts, "What Eliza wants to choose is her own business, you shouldn't be kidnapped morally."

"You are for Eliza. She should help our Jewell family when she takes a leg, which is what she owes the Jewell family." Hank Jewell pointed at him angrily, "Did you know that Eliza helped the Chadwick family in full view of my plan and told me about my plan? It's useless, she came from the countryside, what is she, and it's you who point fingers in front of me, making me lose my old face."

Chapter 2840

“Even without Eliza, you would still lose.” Chester told the truth sharply, “Your plan is very good, but you ignore the real meaning of the existence of the hospital, what you see is only what you see in front of you. Interests, I told you a long time ago, take a long-term view...”

“Shut up.” Hank Jewell’s temple suddenly burst.

Hank Jewell doesn’t know how long ago, all he heard in his ears was: ‘Chester, you are lucky to have such a powerful child.’

But then there was the indifferent look in Chester’s face when he faced Hank Jewell, as if seeing him as a useless waste.

Hank Jewell: “Chester, I’m your father. Besides, look at the way you are now, you can’t even sit up, let alone walk. What do you know and what qualifications do you have to point fingers in front of me.”

After Hank Jewell finished scolding, His mind flashed, and he suddenly pointed at Chester and sneered, “I see, you asked Kaiden to protect that slut, you already know about this, not only did you not stop it, but you also protected outsiders.”

“Actually, Eliza came to see me yesterday, that’s not what she meant, I asked her to stand on Jorge Chadwick’s side because your decision and leadership will bring Jewell’s into the abyss...”

Chester hadn’t said anything yet. When it was over, Hank Jewell had already dragged him up from the bed.

Hank Jewell only felt that Chester’s limbs and internal organs were twitching in pain.

He went mad and threw Chester to the ground, “Son, I shouldn’t have given birth to you in the first place. If I knew you were so vicious, I should have strangled you to death. Why did your mother give birth to twins and survived? It’s you, you b*stard, why didn’t you die.”

“Mr. Jewell, do you want Chester to die?” Shaun strode in, angrily pulled Hank Jewell away and punched him in the face.

Hank Jewell was beaten to the ground, and he stood up with bloodthirsty eyes, “Shaun, you dare to hit me, I am your elder.”

"These years, if it weren't for Chester, what would you be?" Shaun stopped Hank Jewell's collar roughly dragged the man out and threw it on the ground, "Is it really because of yourself that the outside world has given you respect over the years? Wrong, people see you as a capable son for the sake of being born. Look at yourself, are you worthy of being a father?"

Hank Jewell has been beaten today and said, "It depends on whether Chester is worthy of being a son. I am his father and he helps outsiders. I am for Who, it's not for him, he's a waste, if I don't hold onto the Jewell family, the Jewell family will belong to the Chadwick family in the future."

Shaun said, "You only have the Jewell family in your eyes, only money."

Shaun was so angry and really unwilling for Chester, "Mr. Jewell have you ever cared about your son? Every word is lame, every word he is a waste and it seems you sprinkle salt on his wounds. NOW get out of here immediately. let me see you again, I'll find someone Kill you."

Shaun's fist waved again.

Hank Jewell was already scared away.

At noon, when Kaiden arrived at the hospital, Chester had already been sent to the hospital for emergency treatment and it took half an hour to come out.

The dean who rescued himself took off his mask and said, "Mr. Hill, I told you a long time ago that the patient's injuries have not recovered at all. Especially his leg, which has been operated on before, and the muscles and flesh have not recovered at all. It must be taken care of, now that I am tortured and tossed, my previous efforts are all in vain."

"What do you mean?" Shaun asked coldly.

"Send him abroad. I have really tried my best here. Let's see if there is any other treatment there or..." The dean sighed and did not continue.
