

LET ME GO, MR. HILL!

Chapter 2851

Charity's eyes flashed lightly. She looked at the Whatsapp name for a long time, and finally clicked to agree to add this person.

She put the phone aside.

Five minutes later, the phone vibrated.

She hesitated for a few minutes before picking up the phone.

It was Chester who posted a photo of blue sky and white clouds, green mountains and green waters. The photo was beautiful.

Chester sent a message: [How are you doing? This is the place where I recuperate. It is very beautiful. When I open my eyes every day, I can see the quiet scenery outside.]

Charity stroked her forehead sighingly. She couldn't ignore his greetings.

She could only reply: [I'm doing fine. How about you, how is your injury?]

Chester: [Now that I can get up, I try to walk with a cane.]

Charity throat froze, and it took a long time to reply: [It will get better and better.]

Chester: [Hmm...]

The man in Rwanda watched the chatting abruptly with one hand, and on the tablet on the other side was the very popular entertainment news in Australia [Shocking! The new romance between the Queen of Retirement and the Prince of Ice and Snow.]

In the photo, Dominick and Charity stood side by side, Dominick handed the cat in his hand to Charity, and Charity had a gentle expression on her brows.

These two people, one was cold and handsome, the other was pure and beautiful.

Chester put the tablet on the bed.

Kaiden observed his gloomy face and said cautiously: "Neeson Corporation's public clarification, it's just too late to shoot the advertisement, they ate together, and there were many people who ate with them. This photo is just a chance encounter between the two of them after dinner. A stray cat, Miss Eliza was accidentally scratched by a stray cat, she went to the hospital for a rabies vaccine, and temporarily handed over the stray cat to Dominick..."

"Meet by chance after dinner... Feed and take care of stray cats together?" Chester smiled in a low voice, "What a romantic encounter! what a fate that makes people fall in love!"

Kaiden was horrified by his smile, "Impossible! You became like this for Miss Eliza, how could Miss Eliza be in the mood to fall in love, besides... Dominick, that's impossible! He's younger than Miss Eliza."

"Yes, Sibling love is not popular now, little wolf dog." Chester sneered, "I'm in my early thirties."

"Uh..." Kaiden wiped the sweat from his forehead. He's been walking on thin ice these days.

"D*mn it." Chester clung to his sawed-off leg, "Dominick is a skier who spreads his wings, and me, what am I, a lame man, I don't even know what I want. When will I be able to leave this ghost land, and when will I be able to put on a prosthetic limb?"

Kaiden watched him madly for a while, then gradually regained his composure.

He really can't understand Chester now, sometimes it's like a split personality.

After that, Charity received photos from Chester every day, and sometimes there were some videos, for example, he was wearing casual clothes and leaning on crutches struggling to learn to walk on the grass.

The dangling leg above his trousers gave her nightmares at night.

When Charity woke up, she couldn't remember what dream she had, she just felt breathless.

She turned on her phone, and Chester sent another message: [Charity, today I can walk ten steps with a cane, and the doctor said that I have made great progress.]

LET ME GO, MR. HILL!

Chapter 2852

Charity put the phone on her forehead.

The appearance of Chester broke Charity's stagnant life. But, she still couldn't refuse him coldly and let him not disturb her life.

Having said that, if the family was in such a state now, they couldn't figure out what to do.

Moreover, seeing a person as proud as Chester turned into a person who had difficulty walking, it couldn't say that he was retribution. Because he became this way for himself.

Charity didn't know what to say.

After the meal, Chester sent another message with a cautious tone: [Did I disturb you?]

Chester: [I'm just very bored every day. Here, it's me and Kaiden, surrounded by mountains. I go for a walk in the hospital's garden during the day and others are scared when they see me. I don't know what I want, when can I become like a normal person and leave here?]

Charity comforted: [Your legs are not scary. You will definitely get better. Don't think wildly.]

Chester: [When I came back, maybe you were already married.]

Charity: "..."

Chester: [I saw the scandal between you and Dominick, I have been in contact with him before, very good boy, handsome, also a first-level athlete, very suitable for you of.]

Charity: [You worry a lot, it's fake.]

Chester: [You are so good, you can slowly find a suitable man. Don't always be alone, I will feel guilty and distressed.]

Charity really couldn't bear the weirdness in her heart: [Are you Chester? Could it be that someone else is sending me a message?]

Soon, a voice came over, the man's voice was magnetic and deep, and through the phone, it was as sad and beautiful as the sound of a cello: "I'm Chester, what I said is true. I didn't say anything before. I feel that since I came here alone, I realized that life is too long. In the past, I didn't know how to love someone, and I was too stubborn and reluctant to make it happen. Anyway, I'm like this, it's okay to be alone for a lifetime, but you are still young."

Charity was stunned for a long time, and then replied with a voice: "You don't need to take care of my affairs, you can take care of yourself."

Chester: [Okay.]

Chester said it very well-behaved tone.

Charity looked at the phone, extremely speechless.

Chester, who was far away in Rwanda, knew that Avery might not reply, so he put down his phone in a good mood, and took another look at Kaiden who appeared beside him at an unknown time.

It's just that Kaiden's eyes are now very indescribable, "Mr. Jewell, are you still the Boss I know?"

Thinking of Chester's irritable temper and mood after seeing Eliza's scandal in the past two days It's capricious, it's more violent than the summer rainstorm.

Today, Chester suddenly became a lover.

Has he learned yet?

Heck.

"Kaiden, what do you know?" Chester gave him an indifferent look, "I actually thought about it for a long time during this time. I can't give up easily because my legs are lame or disfigured."

Kaiden: "..."

No, Chester's already like this, still haven't given up?

Who gave confidence?

Kaiden weakly gave a thumbs up.

Chester smiled, "For others, my lame leg is terrifying, even a little disgusting. But for Eliza, she will only feel guilty for me. Sometimes you have to know Show weakness, I used to be too strong, but now, the more I compromise, the more Eliza might soften her heart."

Kaiden: "A scheming b*tch."

LET ME GO, MR. HILL!

Chapter 2853

Kaiden added, "But you won't feel that your legs are lame, and you won't be able to take good care of Miss Eliza in the future."

Kaiden thought, if he was disabled, he might instead give up the person he loves. Because he will feel that he is not worthy of it.

But here in Chester, he couldn't see it but he only saw the pretence.

"If one leg can give me a 10% chance of doing it again with Eliza, why not try it." Chester said lightly as if he was talking about today's weather, "What do you think my father is? What kind of person, am I not sure?"

Kaiden's pupils shuddered, and some things were connected in a trance, he looked at Chester in front of him, and shivered inexplicably.

It turned out that Chester had long known that his father would be angry to trouble him that day.

How could a person be ruthless and even used himself to the extreme.

"You could actually stop your father that day, right?" Kaiden asked in disbelief.

"As long as I beg soft and coax my father, I will definitely fool you and Young master Hill when they come back, but I can't." Chester sighed softly, "Kaiden, I'm betting on her. One soft heart, one chance, even if only once, if my leg is cured in the future, she will let me down completely."

"So you use a disabled leg to exchange guilt for Miss Eliza, so that she will always remember you?" Kaiden suddenly realized.

"I made the three words that I never get rid of in her heart, I made her remember me." Chester suddenly laughed, a bit like a lunatic, "As long as I am here, she will always be in my heart. It doesn't matter if she doesn't accept me, then the two of us will always be single. Even if we can't be together, no one else will want to walk in between us."

Kaiden gasped. Before, he thought that Eliza was also very cruel. Now that he thinks about it that Eliza is also pitiful and is provoking a lunatic like Chester.

Neeson Corporation.

Charity has become more secluded since the scandal between her and Dominick broke out.

In addition to being in the company, She rarely went to other places except for entertainment.

"The people in your company said that you were trying your best and they were right." Dominick's sarcastic voice suddenly came from above her head.

Charity raised her head. Her office door was not closed, and Dominick came in so swaggeringly. He wore sportswear and the zipper was pulled to the chin, but it did not affect the handsome face at all.

"What kind of wind blows the big champion Dominick here?" Charity stood up immediately and poured tea for the company spokesperson in person.

"Okay, I won't drink tea, give me a bottle of mineral water." Dominick raised his chin arrogantly, "Your marketing department asked me to come over and sign a contract."

Charity: "What contract?"

"The two events held by Mrs. in HG and SG stores." Dominick squinted his eyes, "I really didn't want to agree, but seeing that last time you sued all the black fans who spread rumors about me, so I reluctantly helped Neeson's."

Charity was startled, turned around and took out a bottle of mineral water from the refrigerator and handed it to him, "This matter was originally caused by me, if it weren't for me, you wouldn't be involved in the scandal. I'll sue the black fans."

"Okay." Dominick took bottle of mineral water and said lazily, "The photos taken at the training base were done by my competitor. After a few months of competition, he wanted to get me down."

Charity was surprised, but immediately understood that competition is everywhere.

LET ME GO, MR. HILL!

Chapter 2854

Dominick unscrewed the mineral water and glanced at the woman standing from the corner of his eye as he drank it.

Cooler these days.

Charity changed into a white sweater and black jeans today, making her legs look particularly slender.

In addition, people who had been stars were born with their own brilliance, and their gestures were the same as pictorial.

"It's almost noon." Dominick looked at the time, "If you want to have lunch together, I will thank you for helping me this time. I heard that it will cost you a lot of money to hire a lawyer."

Charity was a little surprised, she turned her eyes and looked at the athlete in front of her seriously.

The other party glared at her a little unnaturally, and then quickly looked away, "Ms. Eliza, you won't lose face."

Dominick: "...It's not that you don't give face, it's just that there are rumors about the two of us outside, if I'm photographed again..."

Charity: "Is it annoying, I'll be blindly guessed when I have a meal with the opposite s-e-x. In the future, I can only eat with a man."

Dominick stood impatiently. He got up and said, "What other people want to say? Besides, what are we afraid of, men and women who are unmarried."

"...Okay." Charity saw that Dominick had said so, so it was not easy to refuse.

However, when she was eating, she deliberately found a restaurant with better confidentiality.

This time, they ate alone.

The two days they talked about were not about sports, but about the entertainment industry.

Dominick has an excellent appearance. After winning the championship, many entertainment companies approached him to sign contracts, and many variety shows were also approaching him.

Charity, a veteran in the entertainment industry, could give a lot of opinions.

As for Dominick, regardless of his young age, he also knows a lot about sports, "What's the point of running every day, skiing, surfing, swimming, that's really fun, if you want me to say, you make so much money and keep it in the bank It's too boring, you should learn things and enrich yourself, and life will be interesting."

When Dominick spoke, his eyes were full of sunshine and vigor.

Charity was startled, she was a lifeless person, Dominick's words made her seem to open another door, "You can surf?"

“Yes, I’m also a professional surf, not only that, basketball, badminton, table tennis.” Dominick said, “I go skiing in Rwanda every winter, and go surfing in Maldives in summer. I always feel that people live to break through their own challenges and limits again and again.”

Charity listened for a long time.

Until Dominick suddenly raised his eyebrows and said, “Hey, I will go skiing in Rwanda with my friends this winter. Do you want to go with us? I will teach you personally.”

After speaking, Dominick blushed and took a bite of vegetables.

After an incredible thought flashed through Charity’s mind, she said, “I’m afraid I don’t have time. I might go abroad to see Chester in winter.”

Dominick’s face suddenly became a little unnatural, “Don’t you like him?”

“The grievances between me and him are very complicated. I used to hate him very much, and I don’t hate him anymore, but it’s impossible to let it go. I’ll go see him.” Charity raised her eyebrows with a smile, “Didn’t you say that I was ruthless and unjust last time? I think you should hope that we can get back together.”

Dominick’s choked handsome face froze. He was like this before, but...

Now he can only shove the dish into his mouth depressed.

After the meal, Charity drove out of the restaurant. In the corner of the light, she also saw Dominick standing there. She smiled bitterly, but she didn’t expect Dominick to like her. She also didn’t know where she liked him. But she took Chester out to block the gun, he should understand.

LET ME GO, MR. HILL!

Chapter 2855

As for visiting Chester in Rwanda. She did have this idea. But she just hasn't decided yet.

Soon, the weather gradually turned cold. Neeson Corporation's new products were also in full swing.

With the golden signboard of Dominick and Charity's backing of Fraga Pictures, the golden signboard of the entertainment industry, Neeson Corporation's products soon broke into everyone's attention again.

When the sales statistics at the end of the year came out, Neeson Corporation's achieved amazing results. In order to encourage employees, Charity proposed to organize outstanding employees to travel abroad this Christmas, but she gave the employees the decision of the place to travel abroad.

In December, the assistant gave Charity the location chosen for the tour: "Everyone prefers to travel to Europe. During the Christmas period, there are many special offers on foreign products. After a year of hard work, everyone wants to go out and buy."

"Let's go to Europe then." Charity was startled and nodded in agreement, "You go to a better travel agency."

"Ms. Eliza, are you going?" <https://novelebook.com/home1> The assistant looked at her, "This is a way to get closer to the staff. It's a good opportunity for distance, and you can take your mother, Mrs. Robbins out to play, the last time I chatted with your mother, she didn't seem to have been to Europe."

Charity: "I'll go back and ask."

Charity told Monica Robbins about traveling abroad.

<https://novelebook.com/home1>

“Let’s go to Europe.” Monica became nervous when she heard this, “but I don’t understand other languages except English.”

“There are tour guides along with me, and I know some languages which are spoken in Europe, so it’s okay.”

Charity thought that she had taken up Eliza’s body, but She rarely accompanies Monica, and felt a little guilty for a while, “I’ll accompany you, we haven’t traveled abroad for a long time.”

Monica saw her daughter suddenly being so considerate, and her heart warmed, “That’s okay, I’ve lived most of my life. I haven’t watched it abroad very much, I watched TV before, what kind of iron tower is there in France, so romantic.”

“That’s the Eiffel Tower.”

Charity pouted, Monica loves to watch these romantic dramas at her age, but France has filmed the most romantic dramas.

“Hey, by the way, I heard that Europe is very big, there are dozens of countries, will we go to Rwanda?” Monica suddenly asked hesitantly.

Charity was slightly stunned and asked, “I should go, why are you asking this?”

Monica gave her a complicated look, “Last time when Catherine came to our house, I heard that Chester went to Rwanda for treatment. I’m going to Rwanda this time, why don’t you drop by to visit him? He’s lost his legs, so it’s not good to leave him alone.”

Charity saw the guilt flashing in Monica's eyes, her red lips parted slightly, "Rwanda also has quite a few cities, and the tour guides usually go to cities with tourist attractions, so I don't know if the road goes well..."

"What goes well, I heard that those small countries in Europe are not as good as us. City University, just drive a car in a few hours, it depends on whether you have the heart."

Monica said accusingly, "If we go to Rwanda, I think we still have to take a look. It's polite."

"Okay. Right." Charity said nothing.

It's just complicated.

Chester sends her videos every day, but she hasn't figured out how to face Chester who has lost a leg.

However, Monica has been preparing for the country since then.

She also bought a lot of specialties that she would bring to Chester, such as authentic wild honey and Cordyceps.

The day before going abroad, Charity sent a message to the sister group: [The company organizes a trip to Europe tomorrow, what should I bring?]

Catherine called immediately, "Are you going to Europe? Coincidentally, we also plan to go to Rwanda for Christmas."
