

Love After Marriage, He Got A Free Wife

Chapter 191: Silver Field

Liu Siyu said, "Eighteen generations of them!" After saying that, she became energetic and sat up to tell her two good friends about what happened yesterday.

"My brother is definitely a Virgo!" Liu Siyu said.

Ji Wen realized that he was a Virgo, and he was a little unhappy to hear this. "What did the Virgo do to offend you?"

Liu Siyu clenched her fists. "Do you still remember the senior who invited me on a movie date yesterday?"

The two friends nodded at the same time. "The one who ran away in less than three minutes."

Liu Siyu was so angry that she gritted her teeth. "My brother spent two hours investigating his background last night. When did he get a place to stay? Who was he with? What did he say to pick up girls at bars? He even found out that that boy once had four partners at once!"

The two people beside her were speechless, but there was a glint of curiosity in their eyes!

Liu Siyu kept on ridiculing her brother. "He has such a nice voice, but he says he doesn't even care about people and dogs. He was clearly a Prince Charming in the police academy!"

"My parents all support me dating, but my brother, the weirdo, doesn't agree. Last night, he went even further and actually asked me to stop hanging out with the two of you."

Hearing this, the other two rolled up their sleeves. "Siyu, your brother is going a little overboard. What time does he get off work? I want to fight with him!"

He dared to question their sisterhood. Even though he was their best friend's brother, they could not allow this. He deserved a beating.

Liu Siyu said, "It's not that my brother doesn't think Xiaonuan is good. He said that you already have a family. He was afraid that I would be envious and blindly want to start a family. Xiaowen is a boy. He's worried that it's not safe for me to be with him."

Ji Wen said helplessly, "But you don't even see me as a boy!"

Liu Siyu said, "How would my brother know? So last night, before I went to bed, I greeted all eighteen generations of our Liu family. I was so angry that I cursed them!"

"Who asked them to give birth to an unfilial descendant like my brother? He pokes around in the private matters of others so casually. He's so controlling of me, his own sister."

Hearing these words, Fang Xiaonuan thought of something. "Xiaowen, actually, I also danced on the Ji family's ancestral grave this morning."

Ji Wen was speechless. What did their ancestors do to provoke her?

Liu Siyu also wanted to hear what her friend had experienced. "Oh right, Xiaonuan, did you reconcile with your husband after you went home last night?"

Fang Xiaonuan shook her head. "We were about to make up, but now that's over!" It was her husband's fault for not being able to control his mouth. He had secretly kissed her while she was sleeping and even left a hickey! It was on her neck today. Would those marks appear all over her body someday?

Liu Siyu and Ji Wen looked at her curiously. Fang Xiaonuan could only say tactfully, "Do you see the turtleneck I'm wearing?"

The two of them were silent.

Although the two of them had been single forever, they immediately understood what Fang Xiaonuan meant.

"Then you two have already...?" Liu Siyu was at a loss for words. She had just warned her friend not to give in to him so easily the day before, and only a day had passed.

Fang Xiaonuan shook her head. "No... anyway, you have to remember that men are all smelly hooligans. No good man exists, except for Ji Wen."

Ji Wen was just about to be moved by these words when Liu Siyu added, "Well, Ji Wen is like a sister. He's not a man!"

Fang Xiaonuan nodded in agreement.

The two girls were not happy that morning. It was not until the afternoon that they became excited because they heard a piece of good news. Ji Wen was also very happy. The three of them would usually disagree over some small matters. However, there was one thing that they had surprisingly unanimous opinions on, and that was the matter regarding Silver Field. The so-called Silver Field was actually an underground casino in Jing City. It was also an underground boxing club. All the gambling games here were related to boxing. Few people in the city knew about it, and no one knew much about the organizer of the Silver Field. Many rich people would come here to watch the matches. If they saw someone they liked on the field, they might directly hire them as bodyguards after the match. Of course, it also depended on the other party's wishes. The participants here would wear masks or paint. Basically, even their own mothers would not be able to recognize them. They did this so that they could keep their identities a secret and avoid unnecessary trouble. There was more than one Silver Field match. From level one to level nine, there were a total of nine rounds. Level one was the entry-level round. Everyone could register. Level two was the white level. Only those who had a white card could participate. The number of participants was 508. Level three was the yellow level. One needed to have a yellow card. The number of participants was 254. And so on. Level four was the red card. There were 127 participants.

Chapter 192: A Card for 200,000 Yuan

The first four levels were not difficult because many people could pass the test by luck. The opponent would be matched immediately. It was possible for one person to face ten opponents. Sometimes, there might be no opponents at all. The last time Fang Xiaonuan participated, the heavens seemed to want to test her level. Every round, she was matched with an opponent.

In the entry level, she defeated three opponents before she could get a white card. In the white level, she matched up with six more people. When she rose to the yellow level, it was even more outrageous. She had matched up with nine opponents directly. She went all out to defeat all nine of them before she advanced. After that match, the name "Nan Nan" became popular. Fang Xiaonuan had originally named herself "Nuannuan", but the people watching the match accidentally called her "Nan Nan". She was too lazy to correct them. After all, it was just a name.

After that advancement, she had almost broken her hand and was lying prone. She could not move at all. Liu Siyu was so scared that she was crying, while Ji Wen carried Fang Xiaonuan to the hospital. Since the establishment of Silver Field, the highest record was one person defeating ten people. That record belonged to a man. Fang Xiaonuan's victory over nine opponents was the greatest achievement in history for female fighters.

After the competition ended, many people were secretly investigating “Nan Nan”, but they found nothing. For a whole year, it was as if she had disappeared. In the end, those people could only give up on the investigation.

Ji Wen and Liu Siyu naturally knew the reason. “Nan Nan” had been preparing for the college entrance exam. She was only free after the exam.

Compared to Fang Xiaonuan, Ji Wen had much better luck. When he participated in the entry level, he only matched up with one opponent. He gave the opponent 20,000 yuan and got a white card. When he reached the white level, Fang Xiaonuan fought against six people on stage. Ji Wen watched the battle below the stage and cheered. He did not match up with his opponent at all. After watching a match below the stage, he successfully advanced to the yellow level. When he reached the yellow level, it was even worse. He only matched up with one opponent. Although the opponent looked tall and strong, before he could fight, he suddenly had a kidney stone attack. He rolled on the ground in pain and was finally sent to the hospital. Because of this, Ji Wen also received a red card.

That was not all. Liu Siyu also received a red card. She did not have heaven-defying luck, but she had enough money. “White card, I’ll give you some money! Yellow card, I’ll give you some money! Blue card, I’ll give you a lot of money!” During that period of time, when Liu Siyan saw tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands disappear from his bank account. He thought that his sister was into drugs. He was so scared that he brought his sister to the hospital for a blood test. After the results came out, although his sister did not take drugs, he was even more afraid. He asked, “Why are you spending money?” It was not that he was distressed about the money. It was just that his sister had never been so extravagant. Moreover, she was not expending the money on bags or jewelry. He was worried that his sister would be swindled or something. In the beginning, Liu Siyu refused to tell the truth. Liu Siyan had checked all of her social media accounts and did not find anything odd. He could only continue to question his sister.

In the end, Liu Siyu could only tell her brother obediently, “Brother, I bought the card.”

Liu Siyan asked, “What card costs 300,000 yuan?”

Under her brother’s interrogation, Liu Siyu could only tell the truth about the casino and gambling.

“Brother, you can’t go and arrest them. That’s legal. They have business qualifications,” Liu Siyu quibbled.

Liu Siyan said, “Are you spouting nonsense again?”

Liu Siyu did not dare to say another word.

In the end, Liu Siyan could only give up. The money was gone, so there was nothing he could do about it. But fortunately, his sister was not stupid. She knew how to spend money and did not really fight. This money was just for her friend to spend for fun.

Therefore, the three of them all had blue cards and entered the level five arena. Only 62 participants were left in this match. This was the last match before entering the advanced stage. At this stage, luck and money were not enough. The opponents here were matched by the computer based on the combat strength of the previous four matches.

Therefore, Ji Wen, who had lost twice, and Liu Siyu, who had won by spending money, were successfully matched. Seeing the match results, Fang Xiaonuan said with relief, "It's okay, it's okay. This way, I don't have to worry about you guys getting hurt." They could just fight casually, and then one of them would just have to admit defeat.

In the end, the two of them used "Rock Paper Scissors" to determine the winner and loser on the stage, which drew a lot of attention. With two out of three wins, Liu Siyu won and finally got the advancement card.

Someone in the audience was unconvinced and reported that the two of them cheated. "The winner must be determined by a fistfight, not a child's game!"

However, Liu Siyu retorted righteously, "Isn't Rock Paper Scissors a game that uses fists? We were using 'fists' to compete. How can you say that we cheated?"

However, to them, Liu Siyu was being unreasonable. Someone actually jumped onto the stage and wanted to challenge her in front of everyone. At this moment, Fang Xiaonuan also went on stage. "There's no problem with the challenge. I'll go on in her place."

Love After Marriage, He Got A Free Wife - Chapter 193 - Participating Once Again -

Chapter 193: Participating Once Again

Seeing the famous "Nan Nan" enter the arena, these people could only resentfully leave the arena. They did not want to ask for trouble. They had no chance of winning at all!

Only those who had blue cards or above were qualified to watch the battle between the fifth-level arena and the advanced-level arena. Everyone had to use all their skills to fight in the middle-and high-level arenas. The low-level players were qualified to challenge the high-level players. If the challenge was successful, they would occupy that player's position, and the loser would change their position with the opponent.

For example, Ji Wen was now a blue card player. He could watch the middle and high stages, but he was not qualified to participate in the competition. Liu Siyu was now a red card player. She had won the match against Ji Wen, so she was now a player in the fifth stage. Her position was extremely high. If Ji Wen challenged Liu Siyu, Liu Siyu would agree to the match. If Ji Wen won, he would be able to snatch the red card from Liu Siyu's hand. Liu Siyu could only take the blue card and level up again.

If he failed, Ji Wen would fall back into the entry stage and need to level up again step by step. This was also a punishment for those who took the initiative to challenge another player and failed.

Fang Xiaonuan was already a contestant in the advanced stage. The third place was the silver stage, and it was a battle between silver card holders. Fang Xiaonuan was a silver card holder. She had gone through five years of fighting among thousands of contestants to carve out her own path. She had gone on the journey and taken it step by step. Now she had a silver card. There were only 15 silver card holders.

There were very few silver card holders in the silver stage. Anyone who saw a silver card holder would have to be carefully served. Everyone would automatically make way for a silver card holder. This was because it was not easy to get a silver card. Anyone who had this silver card would be treated as a special talent no matter where they went. Even if they were to become bodyguards, bosses who were worth tens of billions would not be able to afford such people.

However, Fang Xiaonuan was able to reach this level. She was able to get to where she was today not because of luck, but because of her own abilities. Although she was born into a wealthy family, she had suffered a lot in order to pursue this path. In fact, she had suffered a lot. She had been beaten until her bones hurt. That was how she got to where she was today. Everyone said that she was powerful and lucky, but no one knew that she had suffered a lot. She had never told anyone else about it either. She kept it all bottled up. She did not want to speak of these hardships to her loved ones because these people would feel sorry for her. She also did not want to share these hardships with others other than her loved ones because she did not feel like that was necessary.

Every time she came to the casino, her mood was heavy. In the past, she was mischievous and playful, but when she came here, it was as if she was wearing a mask. She rarely spoke, and her gaze was fierce, like a lion waiting for its prey.

At home, Ji Lingchen always said that Fang Xiaonuan's body was soft, as if she had no bones, but he had no idea what his delicate wife had been through in her younger days.

Today, Fang Xiaonuan was here to advance. She wanted to upgrade from a silver card to a gold card.

The second-ranked card was a gold card. Only four people could hold it. The first-ranked card was the diamond card! Only one person was qualified to hold it, and that person was the winner. They would be the true king or queen of this place!

Just like the ancient emperors, the diamond card was equivalent to a jade seal. Only one person could hold it, and the rest had to obey their orders and submit to them.

What Fang Xiaonuan wanted to fight for was not this feeling of being high and mighty, but to have a diamond card. She had aspired to earn this for the past five years. The golden card was like an important minister by the emperor's side. The power was equivalent to being below the emperor, below one person, and above ten thousand people.

The silver card that Fang Xiaonuan had was equivalent to becoming an important minister. Like the confidential minister by the emperor's side, it could not be underestimated.

When the three of them saw the invitation from Silver Field, Ji Wen and Liu Siyu simultaneously turned to look at Fang Xiaonuan, who had a silver card.

Fang Xiaonuan said straightforwardly, "I'll participate." It just so happened that she had been so angry with her husband that morning, and her anger had yet to subside. Wasn't this a good opportunity to subdue her anger?

And so, the three of them filled in the entry form.

Ji Lingchen, who was in the CEO's office of Ji Corporation, was not in the mood to work.

"Where is she right now? What is she doing?" Ji Lingchen could not help but think of his little wife.

On the table in front of him, there were two movie tickets. They were for a movie that had just recently been released. The name of the movie was 'You Are My World'. On the way to the company in the morning, when he was waiting at the traffic lights, he saw a couple waiting by the side of the road. The girl was holding a glass of milk, drinking as she walked. The boy was accompanying the girl. The two of them were talking and laughing. This sight made Ji Lingchen unconsciously think of himself and his little wife.

Chapter 194: You Want to Be a Scumbag?

Ji Lingchen remembered that his wife had said that she really wanted to go to the movies, date, drink milk tea, and travel with him. They could go to the movies, date, and drink milk tea together. However, because he was too busy to get leave from work, he could only put on hold the idea of traveling with his wife.

After arriving at the company, Ji Lingchen began to check out the recent movies. For a moment, he did not know what to watch, so he could only pick up the phone on the table and call Secretary Song.

“Come over now.”

Secretary Song thought it was something urgent, so she immediately ran to the CEO’s office and said respectfully, “CEO Ji, what are your orders?”

Ji Lingchen was holding his phone. He asked without blinking, “What kind of movies do girls usually like?”

Secretary Song was speechless.

He had called her in so urgently so that she could help him woo his wife?

“You Are My World. This movie has just been released. Girls usually like to watch new movies.”

Ji Lingchen immediately bought two tickets using his phone.

“CEO, do you want to book the entire theater?”

Ji Lingchen thought for a moment and rejected the notion. “No, Xiaonuan doesn’t like that.”

Actually, Ji Lingchen had his own selfish motives. If he booked the entire theatre, Fang Xiaonuan’s sullen response would probably make her sit far away from him. If there were many people, Fang Xiaonuan could not go anywhere else. She could only sit obediently by his side.

After booking the movie tickets, Ji Lingchen began to look forward to the evening. He checked the class schedule of his wife and nephew. There were very few classes today. They would probably go home earlier in the evening. Ji Lingchen was even planning how to give his wife a surprise. Little did he know that his wife’s surprise was already on the way.

After school, there was a sneaky man at the door of the classroom, intentionally or unintentionally looking into the classroom. After making sure that the man from yesterday was no longer in the classroom, Chen Chen walked into the classroom with ease. He was dressed in decent clothes, which made it obvious that he had taken his time to get dressed up. He was even wearing cologne, and as he walked, the fragrance spread in all directions. Chen Chen stopped in front of the three of them. The three of them raised their hands almost at the same time, covering their noses and mouths.

“Senior, what’s that smell?” Liu Siyu could not help but ask.

“Versace cologne. How is it? You don’t like it?” Chen Chen asked in confusion.

Liu Siyu would not go easy on him. She asked directly, “Did you buy a fake?”

Her brother had also been using Versace cologne. Although the smell of the cologne was very light, it made Liu Siyu somewhat fascinated. However, this guy’s cologne was overpowering. Maybe he had bought a fake and that was why it smelled so bad.

Chen Chen’s expression was very awkward. He sniffed his arm and said very tactfully, “Ah, this... I’m really sorry. I was rushing to see you. I might have used the wrong amount.”

When Ji Wen heard this, he was sure that this man was an experienced scumbag. He reminded her, “Siyu, this sounds like a scumbag’s typical flirtatious sayings. Don’t fall for it.”

Chen Chen was even more embarrassed. He smiled and was about to invite Liu Siyu to watch a movie, but before he could say anything, he was interrupted.

Fang Xiaonuan said, “Don’t tell me that you still want to take Siyu on a movie date. How many people did you invite this time? Ask your other girlfriends to come along. Let’s all go together. It’ll be fun.”

Hearing this, Chen Chen was shocked. He pretended to be dumb and said, “Are you saying...”

“Didn’t your teacher tell you that there’s a new principal at school?” Fang Xiaonuan had a bad temper to begin with, so she simply interrupted him again. She was now using her newly assumed identity as the principal to oppress her classmates and vent her anger at the scumbags at the same time!

Chen Chen swallowed and stammered, “Principal, you... Just now, how many girlfriends did you say I have? I... I don’t know. I only like Liu Siyu.”

Liu Siyu immediately stretched out her hand to signal for Chen Chen to shut up. She explained in front of everyone, “Hey, senior, I just spoke to you in the club group. Please don’t take it the wrong way. I’m afraid that your girlfriend who studies law will sue me. After all, she might become a lawyer in the future.”

“Also, I’m even more afraid of that junior in our club. She’ll go around saying that I’m trying to steal her boyfriend. Also, what if that girl you had over for a booty call can’t reach you? What if she comes to the school and tries to blame me for it?”

Liu Siyu was not being vicious. With just a few sentences, she revealed everything Chen Chen was hiding. This got the attention of the other students in the class. They listened attentively to the new gossip material.

Chapter 195: Having the Heart of a Scumbag, but Not the Life of a Scumbag

As he listened to this, Chen Chen got a little agitated and secretly clenched his fists. The reason why he wanted to pursue Liu Siyu was that the two of them were in the same club and were close to each other. It was easy to make a move on her. Most importantly, Liu Siyu had a very good relationship with Fang Xiaonuan and Ji Wen. Although he did not know what Liu Siyu’s family background was, based on the relationship between Liu Siyu and the two of them, it would definitely be very convenient to pursue Liu Siyu.

Chen Chen was now in his fourth year of university. It was almost time for his internship. If he could make Liu Siyu his woman, then during his internship, he could take advantage of this relationship. If he could get Fang Xiaonuan to say some nice things about him to her husband, he might be able to get an internship at Ji Corporation. In the future, he could even use this relationship to become a long-term employee at Ji Corporation.

In addition, Liu Siyu was currently the school belle. If he managed to snag her, Chen Chen’s reputation in the school would definitely not be any worse than that of the Prince Charming, Ji Wen. If he were to date the school belle, he would be able to show off. If the school belle was his woman, he would be so proud. This is why Chen Chen expended so much effort to connect with Liu Siyu.

When Fang Xiaonuan was the school belle, although Chen Chen knew that she was very beautiful, the chances of him dating her were quite low. This was because they did not know each other. To him, she was of little value. Fortunately, he did not chase after her. If Ji Lingchen learned that someone was after his wife, his expulsion would be a small matter, and he might even be killed. His rational analysis saved his life.

Last night, when he went home, he investigated Liu Siyu’s brother. He learned that he was a police officer or some captain. However, in Chen Chen’s eyes, a small police officer was not much of a threat.

When he arrived at the classroom door, his shoulder suddenly hurt. He immediately remembered that although Liu Siyu's brother was not a powerful person, he was very good at fighting. Therefore, he sneaked in and carefully observed before entering the classroom. However, he did not expect that before he could ask Liu Siyu out, the three of them would ridicule him like this. The scariest thing was that these three actually knew about his private life.

"Do you think that my brother wouldn't be able to find you just because you changed your phone number, re-registered on WeChat, and secretly became a scumbag? Let me tell you, as long as you don't change your face and identity card, even if you bury yourself, my brother will know where you are," said Liu Siyu.

Although she had danced on the grave of her family's ancestors yesterday, Liu Siyu was still a member of the Liu family after all. She had to speak highly of her brother in public.

Some people in the crowd had already become active on the school forum.

Liu Siyu seemed to want to tear off the ugly face of this scumbag today. She continued, "You're always so stingy, and you still want a woman to support you. You can't even bear to fork out the money to book a hotel room. Even when you pay for only half an hour for an hourly hotel, you spend only ten minutes washing up and having sex. You clearly are impotent and have kidney failure. You aren't destined to be a scumbag, but you have all of the illnesses they suffer."

Chen Chen was already on the verge of losing it. He wanted to tear Liu Siyu's face apart immediately.

A certain post on the school forum instantly became a hot search.

A certain senior in his fourth year was a scumbag, and he had cheated on several girlfriends at the same time. His girlfriends were suspected to be a third-year law student, a freshman, and a bar girl.

Although the scumbag was impotent, he would still book a private room for their date, as if it was true love.

The three people who had allowed the situation to develop to such a state simply took their school bags and left.

Sitting in the car, Fang Xiaonuan and Ji Wen clapped for Liu Siyu in tacit understanding.

Fang Xiaonuan asked, "Liu Siyu, wow! Your poisonous tongue! Have you been studying us behind our backs?"

Liu Siyu raised her head proudly, and said disdainfully, "Tsk, my brother told me about him after he investigated him yesterday. I wanted to expose him. A scumbag hiding his crimes is aiding the wicked. I didn't think that this guy would dare to come to me today and seek his own death. Does he think I can't distinguish between a scumbag and a man?"

Ji Wen also asked curiously, "Siyu, let's not talk about anything else. How did you know that he booked a room for half an hour and left in less than ten minutes?"

"My brother got the info. I just blurted it all out." Liu Siyu looked at the two of them innocently.

Last night, Liu Siyu sat cross-legged on the bed and listened as her brother educated her.

Liu Siyan was cursing and swearing. When he was riled up, he blurted that piece of information out. This got Liu Siyu's attention immediately. She asked, "Brother, according to what you said, is this person's kidney not working?"

Liu Siyan poked Liu Siyu's forehead and said, "What are you thinking about? You're not listening to any of my good advice."

Chapter 196: How Long is Normal?

Liu Siyu refused to let this question go unanswered. She went into Liu Siyan's bedroom and would not let him fall asleep without giving her an answer. "Brother, do you think this scumbag has such a bad kidney? What right does he have to be a scumbag? What right does he have?"

Liu Siyan had an impulse to send his sister flying.

How could he give her an answer to that question when he was her brother and not her husband?

Liu Siyan was extremely annoyed. He used a blanket to wrap Liu Siyu up and forced her back into her room.

"Brother!" Liu Siyu struggled out of the blanket and shouted angrily.

Liu Siyan closed the door and left without giving his sister a chance to complain.

Right now, though, as the three of them were making their way to Silver Field, Fang Xiaonuan and Ji Wen finally understood what had happened to Liu Siyu last night.

After listening to her story, Fang Xiaonuan felt proud of her friend.

Liu Siyu continued to speak to Ji Wen like a god, "Xiaowen, tell me, how long is sex supposed to last? What is considered normal? In novels, people write that men could have sex for the entire day without leaving the bed. Is that true?"

Ji Wen was immediately annoyed and said angrily, "I've been single since I was born. How the f*ck would I know!"

The two of them looked at Fang Xiaonuan, who was already married.

"Why are you looking at me?" She was happily listening to the gossip a moment ago, and now she was stuttering. She explained, "Being married doesn't mean I know everything."

"When you head home tonight, why don't you ask your hubby?" Liu Siyu said with a lecherous expression.

Ji Wen also asked with a strange expression, "Do you still remember what I said when we met for the first time?"

Fang Xiaonuan nodded. Of course, she remembered. At that time, she was very glad.

At that time, she had experienced a misfire of sorts. By accident, she had bumped into her hubby's place. Fang Xiaonuan felt that Ji Wen's words were somewhat suspicious.

"What are you guys talking about? Quickly tell me!" Liu Siyu's interest was piqued.

Ji Wen was about to say something when Fang Xiaonuan immediately said, "I don't have to tell you guys things about my husband. You guys can't discuss it!"

"What's wrong with talking about your husband? Didn't you dance on his ancestors' graves this morning? Now, you're defending him?"

No matter how much Liu Siyu pestered her, Fang Xiaonuan did not say anything.

Ji Wen felt that Fang Xiaonuan had let her emotions get the better of her. After all, this matter concerned his uncle, so Ji Wen could not say anything.

Liu Siyu said helplessly, "I've been pestering you guys for so long, but you refuse to tell me. How boring!"

The car quickly arrived at their destination. The three of them got out of the car and took out the paint.

The three of them looked at the red, blue, and yellow paint and were stunned.

“Xiaonuan, did you buy this?” Liu Siyu asked in disbelief.

Fang Xiaonuan said guiltily, “I took one box and left. I didn’t see what colors they were.”

Ji Wen looked at the three pigments and said calmly. “We’re done for. We’ll look so colorful standing next to each other wearing primary colors!”

Of course, what Ji Wen said was not entirely accurate. When they entered the venue, they were regarded as three “Native Americans”. The three of them doodled randomly using the paint. In the end, they ended up looking like Native Americans.

After entering the hotel, the three of them went into the elevator together after completing the so-called check-in procedures. The elevator descended rapidly and went directly to the fourth underground floor. The three of them walked out of the elevator. The underground space was very dark, and it was all thanks to the surrounding lights. It was already late autumn, and the weather had cooled down. It was even colder in here.

Ji Wen saw that Fang Xiaonuan and Liu Siyu were rubbing their arms to warm themselves. Ji Wen also felt very cold, but he still took off his coat and draped it over Fang Xiaonuan’s body. He said, “Put it on properly.”

Fang Xiaonuan looked at the coat and said somewhat emotionally, “You’re such a good child. I usually don’t dote on you at home.”

“Forget it. From the day you married into the family, I lost my status in the family. Don’t you think so?” Ji Wen said.

Fang Xiaonuan thought about it. That did seem to be the case. Ever since she married into the Ji family, Ji Wen’s status had definitely changed. It was not as high as before. She quickly comforted him, “Be good. When you go back, I’ll definitely dote on you.”

Ji Wen pouted. “No need. You just have to dote on your husband. I want to live a little longer.”

Fang Xiaonuan pouted. However, when he mentioned her husband, her heart swelled with adoration.

Seeing that Liu Siyu was also dressed in thin clothes, Fang Xiaonuan said, “Siyu, wear this. I’ll warm up once I go on stage.”

Chapter 197: Not Just Any Dog

Liu Siyu shook her head. Of course, she knew why Ji Wen had draped his coat over Fang Xiaonuan. She said, "Xiaonuan, you'll be competing in a while. No one knows who your opponent is. Keep the coat on to stay warm. If you're too cold, it will affect your performance."

Ji Wen echoed, "Just keep the coat on. I'll just hug Siyu."

As he said that, Ji Wen stretched out his arm, he pulled Liu Siyu into his arms and said, "Siyu, don't read too much into this. I'm hugging you because you're cold. Don't go home and tell your brother about this. I don't want to get beaten up."

Liu Siyu patted Ji Wen's arm and said calmly, "I don't need you to hold me to keep me warm. I can handle myself."

Fang Xiaonuan saw that Liu Siyu was only wearing a small vest and a thin coat.

"Siyu, let's switch clothes."

Fang Xiaonuan immediately explained, "I'm wearing a turtleneck. It'll affect my performance on stage later. Your clothes are more fitting. Let's switch. I'll find it easier to move around in your clothes, and my clothes are thicker than yours. You'll be warmer this way."

Liu Siyu looked at their clothes and nodded. Then, the two of them went to the bathroom to switch clothes.

When they came out, Ji Wen looked at the two of them and said, "I almost couldn't tell who was who between the two of you."

After all, all their faces looked almost identical now. It made sense that Ji Wen found it hard to tell them apart.

Liu Siyu gave Ji Wen a look and let Ji Wen look at Fang Xiaonuan's neck with an evil smile. Fang Xiaonuan had been using her turtleneck to cover up the ambiguous marks all day, so no one had seen them. Now that she had changed into a small vest, the ambiguous marks on her neck could be clearly seen.

After Ji Wen saw it, he said, "So my uncle is a dog."

Fang Xiaonuan also said, "That's right, and not just any dog."

The person who was called "dog" by his wife and nephew had already left work. Ji Lingchen picked up the movie tickets that he had prepared beforehand and impatiently went home to pick up his little wife. On the way home, he even queued up to buy milk tea for his little wife. It was also his first time buying milk tea. He had no idea what flavor his little wife liked, so he could only ask for a recommendation.

"This is our signature. It's the best choice."

Ji Lingchen listened to the staff member's suggestion and ordered a cup of the shop's signature milk tea.

"Sir, do you want it at room temperature or with ice?" the staff member asked.

Ji Lingchen said, "Room temperature."

The girls lining up for milk tea could not help but take a few more glances at such a cold and handsome man.

Some of them secretly ogled him, while others looked at him openly.

"He's too handsome," someone could not help but say.

"Look at this man. He looks like Ji Lingchen."

Hearing this, everyone fell silent.

The way everyone looked at him changed. At first, it was only because he was too handsome, and he was buying milk tea in a suit. This made everyone feel like he was a little out of place. However, when someone pulled up a picture of Ji Lingchen on their phone, then compared it with the man before them, the look in their eyes changed. They were completely dumbfounded. They did not even have the time to react.

Ji Lingchen did not hide his identity and he did not speak to anyone. At this moment, his gaze suddenly fell on the fruit tea that the person in front of him had just made. The color of the fruit tea was very appealing. It was pink, and it looked like something his wife would like.

Ji Lingchen stopped the girl who was about to leave with it and asked, "Excuse me, what is the name of your drink?"

The girl was immediately overwhelmed. She stood rooted to the ground and stammered, "White, white peach..."

"White peach fruit tea," the staff immediately said.

After Ji Lingchen heard it, he said to the staff, "Give me a cup of white peach fruit tea. My wife will definitely like it."

"CEO Ji, are you here to buy milk tea for your wife?" the staff asked.

Ji Lingchen thought of his petite wife at home. She was extremely soft and affectionate. He said dotingly, "She's a glutton and likes to drink milk tea. I got off work early today and I want to bring two cups home."

After the staff heard this, he immediately turned around and began to make the drinks.

Not long after, the signature milk tea and white peach fruit tea that Ji Lingchen ordered were ready. Holding the milk tea and fruit tea, he called his father.

At the time, Old Master Ji was playing a little game, and he was having a great time.

"I didn't expect this little game to be so fun. I played this game called Sheep and Sheep for the whole afternoon, and I'm still not bored of it." Old Master Ji sat on the sofa with the butler and played non-stop.

"Xiaonuan is really great. She shares these fun games with me every day, and she even plans to teach me how to play that skydiving game."

"Master, the young madam said that it's not called Skydiving, it's called Eating Chicken," the butler corrected him.

Chapter 198: Buy Your Father a Cup

Old Master Ji waved his hand and said straightforwardly, "Who cares what it's called? My daughter-in-law is really good."

Old Master Ji, who was playing happily, received a call from his son. He pressed the speaker button impatiently and said, "Why didn't you just send a message to the group chat? Must you disturb my gaming by calling?"

Ji Lingchen did not expect his father to scold him. He asked, "Has Xiaonuan returned home?"

"Not yet. She should be on her way," Old Master Ji said. He was still playing the game. "Where are you? Why is it so noisy?"

Ji Lingchen said, "I'm buying milk tea for Xiaonuan."

When Old Master Ji heard that he was buying milk tea, he instantly logged out of the game. He picked up his phone and put it to his ear. "Son, buy me a cup too."

Ji Lingchen was speechless.

Old Master Ji continued, "I'll drink whatever Xiaonuan drinks. She once bought me one with pearls as well. It tasted pretty good. Get me one of those as well."

Ji Lingchen was speechless. He should not have made this call. After hanging up, Ji Lingchen could only ask the staff to make two cups of the exact same drinks for his father. After getting all of them, he returned to the car with four drinks. After getting into the car, he called Ji Wen again, but no one picked up. He called Fang Xiaonuan again, but still, no one picked up. Ji Lingchen looked at the time. It was already past four o'clock. School was already over, so he drove home.

When he got home, Old Master Ji's eyes lit up when he saw what his son was holding. It was indeed the kind of drink Xiaonuan had bought for him before!

No one had realized that this old man, who was in his sixties and almost seventy years old, actually loved this type of food.

Ever since Ji Lingchen married Fang Xiaonuan, Old Master Ji had been eating more and more each day. However, caviar, deer antler, ginseng, and the like, were nothing compared to a plate of crayfish to Old Master Ji.

What about king crab? Well, he much preferred the food on Snack Street his daughter-in-law introduced him to. King crab could not compare to that.

"Hey, why did you buy four drinks?" Old Master Ji looked at the number of drinks and wanted to take three cups shamelessly.

Ji Lingchen put down a cup of milk tea and a cup of fruit tea. He looked at the time and said, "Dad, Xiaonuan and Ji Wen aren't back yet?"

"They haven't come back." After Old Master Ji said that, he picked up the milk tea and looked at it. He was pretty sure this was what Xiaonuan had bought for him last time. He stuck the straw into it and started drinking immediately. He seemed to really enjoy the milk tea.

Ji Lingchen waited until 5:30 in the evening, but Fang Xiaonuan and Ji Wen still had not come home.

Moreover, the two of them had not answered their phones. Could it be that something had happened to the two of them? The more Ji Lingchen thought about it, the more annoyed he became. He simply put the drinks in the bedroom, picked up the car keys, and left the house. He drove directly to his wife's school and found the classroom where their last class was based on the signage. There was no one in the classroom, and there were no traces of them on the way there. How did the two of them disappear at the same time?

At this time, in Silver Field, three matches had already been held on the stage. Fang Xiaonuan was next.

Ji Wen and Liu Siyu looked at Fang Xiaonuan nervously. Liu Siyu said, "Xiaonuan, are you confident?"

At such a critical moment, Liu Siyu would always think of that year when Fang Xiaonuan was knocked to the ground so hard that she could not get up. Her wrist had been red and her arm had been swollen.

Fang Xiaonuan looked at her opponent who was also sizing her up. She said confidently, "It's not a big problem. I've seen the match he fought in to advance to this stage. He had many weaknesses. There's no way he resolved all of them in such a short time."

Ji Wen stood beside her and said, "This person is good at judo. He won that match because his opponent underestimated him. You can't let your guard down. This guy looks like a very cunning person. He'll probably conceal his strength to confuse you."

Fang Xiaonuan nodded after hearing that. She said to the two, "Don't worry. Even if he wants to confuse me, do you think I'll be fooled?" Who didn't have secrets?

Seeing that there was not much time left, Fang Xiaonuan got up and took off her jacket. She wore Siyu's black vest and walked to the waiting area. The man she was fighting with was codenamed "Yan." There was a Spongebob tattoo on the man's face. Fang Xiaonuan could not guess the age and strength of her opponent. She could only make some estimates based on his height and weight.

"I didn't expect 'Nan Nan' to come to the competition with a hickey. It seems that your competition in bed is also very intense. Do you want to indulge and release your stress?" Yan said.

Fang Xiaonuan felt her opponent's gaze fall on her neck.

Yan's words were clearly an attempt at humiliating her. He was mocking Fang Xiaonuan, and trying to make her scared. He implied that she was too stressed and needed another man to help her deal with the pressure.

Chapter 199: Insult

Fang Xiaonuan laughed coldly. The paint covered her innocent face, making her seem even more mysterious. It also made the people around her want to know what she looked like under the paint.

“I’m sorry to make you jealous. It can’t be helped. It’s too bad that I already have a husband. If you’re jealous that I have a husband who loves me, when you lose, go find yourself a husband. This way, you can get your own hickey and soothe your injured heart.”

Women had men. It was the law of nature. No one felt that something was wrong.

But Fang Xiaonuan deliberately suggested that her opponent find a husband. This was an insult to the man across from her.

Fang Xiaonuan took revenge on the spot. She did not wait. Since the other party had mocked her first, she could not be blamed for speaking too harshly. Every time, she would stab the other party in the heart. The words she said never showed mercy.

Surprisingly, Yan did not get angry. Instead, he laughed out loud.

Fang Xiaonuan glanced at him coldly. Then, she turned her head away in disdain and looked elsewhere. When this man smiled, he looked like a madman. He revealed a large number of teeth, which made her very disgusted.

The man’s teeth were yellow. From the sound of his laughter, she guessed that he was a young man in his twenties.

Fang Xiaonuan warmed up while looking at the man’s hand. You could tell a lot about a person by their hand. Those who had done manual labor had thick and short fingers, thick calluses on their hands, and rough skin. If the person just worked out, their skin would be fairer. Fairer skin showed that they stayed in the house all year round without experiencing the wind and sun. People who sat in the office all year round would have slightly different fingers from ordinary people. Their fingertips would be a little flat, and their skin would be better, but they would be slightly different from those who worked out.

Fang Xiaonuan had roughly figured out the type of work this person did by observing his hands. He was undoubtedly doing manual labor. Moreover, when he was laughing just now, he revealed his charred yellow teeth. He probably had teeth like that because he smoked all year round. From these characteristics, she could determine that her opponent was around twenty-five or twenty-six years old. He was doing manual labor, and his addiction to smoking was particularly potent. He would often need to catch his breath at work.

With this information, Fang Xiaonuan roughly knew some of his weaknesses. As they finished stretching, the last round of the match had ended.

Yan looked at Fang Xiaonuan and spat in her direction on purpose.

Fang Xiaonuan, on the other hand, did not care at all and changed her path. She did not take it to heart.

The two of them went onto the stage. Ji Wen and Liu Siyu anxiously stood by the side of the stage to watch. They had a lot to say to Fang Xiaonuan, but they were afraid that it would affect her state of mind during the competition, so they did not dare to speak. They could only linger at the side of the stage. They both stared at the petite woman on stage.

Fang Xiaonuan looked at the craftiness in the other party's eyes and instantly became serious. She was not in the mood to continue with the verbal battle.

The atmosphere below the stage was heated. "Nan Nan" had made her move. The people below the stage immediately became excited because every match with her would be very exciting. Her boxing posture was elegant. It always looked like she was dancing. Ever since she became famous, her fans would swarm to her every match and cheer for her. This situation also aroused the desire for victory in the hearts of the contestants. They wanted to become her opponent, defeat her, and take her fame for themselves. Of course, Yan felt the same.

When he went on stage, even though he knew that his opponent was a little girl, he still took off his clothes and revealed his muscular upper body. He raised his eyebrows and said teasingly, "Don't you have a husband? If your husband finds out that you let a bare-chested man lie above you, what will he think?"

"He'll die." Ji Wen looked at the man who was trying to psych Fang Xiaonuan out and answered on her behalf.

If this man really dared to plot against his aunt and crush her with his weight, his uncle, who could practically eat people for lunch, would definitely bury this man alive.

It was unsettling to see a woman participate in a competition meant for a man, but Fang Xiaonuan did not take it to heart. She was already in the zone.

As the sound of the bell rang out, the crowd quieted down and watched the two people on the stage.

The two people tested each other, and Fang Xiaonuan maintained some distance from him.

The man kept insulting Fang Xiaonuan. Ji Wen wanted to go up and fight with the man, but Fang Xiaonuan was unusually calm and her eyes were filled with rationality.

Suddenly, she rushed toward her opponent. When the man thought she was going to attack, Fang Xiaonuan leaned back and dodged. It was just an empty stance, but it made the man choose to protect himself in a panic.

When Fang Xiaonuan stood up, the crowd burst into laughter and said, "Yan can't do it. He's no match for Nan Nan. He only knows how to attack with words. He doesn't have any real skills."

"Nan Nan has skills and she's an expert. Yan looks like a big idiot. He will probably lose."

Chapter 200: Battle

The crowd's discussion undoubtedly got "Yan" riled up. He began to get serious and launched a fierce attack on Fang Xiaonuan.

Fang Xiaonuan saw that he was coming aggressively and dodged, rolling on the ground.

When everyone saw this, they all thought that Fang Xiaonuan would use a conservative tactic this time. However, she suddenly kicked the man's bare feet hard.

"Ah!" Yan was hit by the sudden attack and screamed.

Then, Fang Xiaonuan quickly stood up.

"Good!" Everyone applauded Fang Xiaonuan's sudden attack.

When he heard the people applaud Fang Xiaonuan, Yan felt a little embarrassed and rushed toward her. He knew that if he wanted to win this time, he needed to capture Fang Xiaonuan and hold her down. However, it was very difficult to capture the opponent in a judo versus sanda battle.

In the first ten minutes of the match, Yan had already been knocked down many times. When he stood up, he looked at Fang Xiaonuan, who was standing not far away. He clenched his fists and charged at Fang Xiaonuan again, as if he wanted to kill her. Fang Xiaonuan did not dodge and chose to meet him head-on. Of course, she could not compete in terms of strength, but she deliberately aimed her strength at his weakness. She directly turned sideways to avoid his impact and used her elbow to hit his spine.

For a moment, the man was knocked forward and staggered.

The people watching the match burst into laughter again. They mocked, "You can't even stand steadily, yet you still think you can beat Nan Nan. It's simply wishful thinking."

Yan looked back at Fang Xiaonuan's position, turned around to stretch his muscles, and continued to fight. This time, he had found Fang Xiaonuan's weak point.

He grabbed Fang Xiaonuan and threw her onto the ground hard. Fang Xiaonuan was thrown to the ground, but she quickly bounced back up.

Ji Wen and Liu Siyu's hearts clenched when they saw this scene.

The crowd was silent. They looked at the arena in disbelief. Nan Nan was actually thrown down so cruelly by her opponent.

Yan was slightly pleased with himself. Just as he was about to crush Fang Xiaonuan, she flipped over and got up in an instant. Yan, on the other hand, crashed to the ground.

No one had expected that Fang Xiaonuan would be able to get up so quickly.

Fang Xiaonuan turned around and glared at Yan who was lying on the ground.

Just as Yan was about to get up, Fang Xiaonuan flew over and raised her arm. She put all of her weight behind her elbow and used it to smash Yan's left arm. The sound of bones breaking could be heard. Fang Xiaonuan broke the man's left arm. There was no need to wait for the system assessment to announce the outcome. Everyone in the audience could see that the match was over in eight minutes.

Fang Xiaonuan was already sweating from the exertion. She stood up and retreated to a safe area. She watched as the man slowly stood up and tried to attack Fang Xiaonuan with all his might. However, if he did not treat his arm as soon as possible, he might be crippled.

The match was not over yet, and the outcome was already decided. There was a round of enthusiastic applause from the crowd.

Yan, who had been shouting crazily earlier, was hanging his head. He picked up his clothes and walked off the stage. Fang Xiaonuan kicked him directly from behind. He did not have time to react and immediately fell to the ground. He landed on the exact spot he had spat on earlier.

Everyone burst into laughter. This was what he deserved.

Fang Xiaonuan did not say much. She just smiled and turned around to jump over the railing. Her movements were very smooth.

“Wow, Xiaonuan, you’re really amazing. You won again. You didn’t even use any moves. You just dodged a few times and won. You’re my idol,” Liu Siyu said excitedly as she hugged Fang Xiaonuan, who was covered in sweat.

Ji Wen saw that Fang Xiaonuan was not injured, so he asked, “Did you deliberately get caught and thrown down?”

Fang Xiaonuan raised her eyebrows proudly and nodded. “Yeah, you saw through it.”

From the moment she went on stage, she had been paying attention to her opponent’s every move. He humiliated her, so she had to “lie down”. Only by lying down would she have a chance to quickly win the battle. Every step she took was planned.

Fang Xiaonuan walked back to the resting area, picked up the water on the ground, and drank some water.

Liu Siyu took Ji Wen’s coat and quickly draped it over Fang Xiaonuan’s body. She was sweating, so she might catch a cold.

...

At the same time, a man was anxiously looking for his wife. He had searched the entire city, but there was no sign of his wife.

He called his in-laws to inquire about his wife’s whereabouts.

When Fang Xiaonuan’s parents heard that their daughter was missing, they immediately became anxious. They immediately called Liu Siyu, but no one picked up.
