

Love So Sweet 110

110 You Will Meet Someone Better

Fang Su Jin turned her head a few times until she could no longer see her friend with that young doctor. A faint sigh escaped her lips, as she wondered what was going on between those two.

One look at the way Doctor Bai was looking at her friend would tell her that their relationship was not that simple.

Fang Su Jin was curious. However, she decided to give them both time and space to talk. Later, she can always interrogate her friend.

The wind blew and suddenly, some sand entered her eyes.

Fang Su Jin let out a soft cry before she rubbed her eyes with her hand. Although she knew that she was not supposed to do so, Fang Su Jin could not help but touch her eyes with her fingers as it was too itchy.

Once the itchiness was relieved, Fang Su Jin's eyes had turned red.

She took the elevator and headed up. She arrived at her floor and walked over to her room. However, just as she came closer, Fang Su Jin's steps gradually slow down.

A man stood in front of their room with his back leaning on the wall.

As if noticing that she was looking at him, Zhang Yi Hai turned around and looked at the girl in front of him. His brow furrowed when he noticed that she was alone.

.....

His sister was not with her.

"Why are you here?"

"Where's my sister?"

The two of them spoke almost at the same time.

Fang Su Jin walked closer and answered, "Li Xue said she ate a bit too much and wanted to walk around to help digest the food."

Zhang Yi Hai was about to ask her why she did not go with his sister when he saw her red, moist eyes. Instantly, he guessed that the reason Fang Su Jin had returned earlier was because of her break-up.

Even though she was still laughing happily with his sister, Fang Su Jin was hiding a secret.

Whenever there was no one around, she would think of her ex-boyfriend and cry over him.

She wanted to cry alone. This was the reason why she had returned to the room earlier without his sister. She hoped to cry her eyes out alone, but he had suddenly appeared.

Zhang Yi Hai began to wonder about Fang Su Jin's ex-boyfriend.

Just what kind of man had she been dating? Was he worth all those tears?

Seeing her reddened eyes, Zhang Yi Hai decided that he should not make things difficult for her.

“Sister ate a lot today.” Zhang Yi Hai put his hand into his pocket and handed Fang Su Jin a packet of medicine. “I was worried that she would get a stomach ache. Just give her this medicine when she returns.”

Fang Su Jin stared at the box of medicine. She took the box and nodded. “Alright.”

Her eyes were a little itchy and she began to rub her eyes a little bit.

“Then, I should go now.” Zhang Yi Hai spoke and turned around. However, after a few steps, he turned around again and saw Fang Su Jin pushing the door to enter her room. “Sister Fang.”

His voice made her stop. Fang Su Jin turned to Zhang Yi Hai, wondering if he had more messages for his sister.

Meeting her gaze, Zhang Yi Hai began to hesitate again. “Don’t worry. You will meet someone better.”

Before Fang Su Jin could figure out what was going on, Zhang Yi Hai had already turned around and entered his room.

Fang Su Jin stared at the empty corridor, wondering what just happened and what Zhang Yi Hai’s words mean. She decided not to bother much about it and entered her room. Then, she took out her phone to send a text to Li Xue and warned her about her brother.

...

Meanwhile, Zhang Li Xue was walking around the hotel garden with Bai Qi.

The man had said that he had something to talk to her about. However, after Fang Su Jin had left, he did not say anything to her.

This situation was making her frustrated.

“Doctor Bai, if you don’t have anything to say to me, then, I should go and return to my room,” Zhang Li Xue said. “It’s dark and the wind is cold.”

“Are you not curious about Xi Xi?” Bai Qi panicked and could only use his little sister as bait. “Xi Xi always talked about you. She.. missed you.”

It was then that Zhang Li Xue began to worry. Since Bai Qi was attending this conference, then, who would look after the small girl?

“Who’s looking after Xi Xi now?”

The corner of his lips tilted up slightly. She knew that this kind girl would worry about his little sister. “Doctor Qi’s family is looking after Xi Xi these few days.”

Zhang Li Xue was relieved to hear that there was someone with Xi Xi. She was worried that the girl had to stay home alone.

Bai Qi took off his jacket and placed it around his little fairy’s shoulder.

“I don’t need this.” Zhang Li Xue quickly pushed his hand away, but Bai Qi pressed the jacket tighter to her body. “Just wear this. Didn’t you say that the wind is cold?” A faint sigh escaped him when he realized that the girl was not going to listen to his words.

Taking a deep breath, Bai Qi then spoke again, “Miss Zhang, I’m sorry.”

Zhang Li Xue stopped pushing him away. Her eyes dropped as she heard his apologies.

Bai Qi stared at the girl in front of him for a long time, as if he wanted to let the image of her stay imprint in his mind.

In fact, Bai Qi instantly regretted it the moment he let Zhang Li Xue leave in anger that day. His sister would ask about her, but he could only tell her that Zhang Li Xue was too busy with work.

He had thought that seeing her in this short time would be enough. But he realized that it wasn’t.

Each time that he did not see her, he would miss her. He wanted to see her again but was embarrassed after what had happened between them.

Now that he had encountered her at this hotel, Bai Qi decided that this god-given chance for him to make it right. He can’t leave now until he explains everything and for Zhang Li Xue to forgive him. It was hard enough for them to meet again.

He realized that he can’t do without having her around.
