

Love So Sweet 131

131 Do You Need Any Help?

Zhang Yi Hai helped Fang Su Jin with the door before he slid into the driver's seat. He tossed Fang Su Jin's shopping bag at the back before stretching his arms to take the clean towel he had stored in the car's compartment.

"Are you alright?" Zhang Yi Hai asked as he dried his hair.

"I'm fine."

Zhang Yi Hai turned to Fang Su Jin and saw that the girl was examining the wet jacket in her hand. He was about to say something when he realized that there was something strange with the scene in front of him.

Quickly, he looked away and let out a cough. "Sister Fang, maybe you should put on the jacket on you first."

"Ah?" Fang Su Jin turned with a puzzled look on her face. She stared at Zhang Yi Hai for a long time as if waiting for him to explain.

However, Zhang Yi Hai turned his head to another side.

If one looked closely, one would notice that his ears had turned red.

Fang Su Jin grumbled, wondering why was this boy acting strange again. She lowered her gaze and finally realized why Zhang Yi Hai's voice sounded a little strange.

Her eyes widened in surprise. Fang Su Jin grabbed the jacket in her hand and covered her chest with it.

The rain had soaked her shirt and now it was plastered to her skin. Because she was wearing a light-colored shirt, her bright-colored bra had become apparent.

Her face turned red.

Fang Su Jin tightened her grip on the jacket. She did not dare to look at Zhang Yi Hai again.

The silence between them made her heartbeat accelerate. Fang Su Jin did not know how to escape from this awkward situation.

Fortunately, Zhang Yi Hai did not speak about it again.

Once Zhang Yi Hai had entered the main road, Fang Su Jin finally let out a breath of relief.

Their journey back to the Fang's residence was silent.

Fortunately, the road was smooth and they arrived in less than ten minutes.

The moment the vehicle stopped, Fang Su Jin quickly pushed the door and took a deep breath. She couldn't help but find that the air in the car was a bit stifling after what happened. Her hand was still pressing at Zhang Yi Hai's jacket close to her chest.

“Zhang Yi Hai, thank you.”

The boy nodded without looking up. Zhang Yi Hai was still worrying that he might see something he should not see. “Sister Fang, don’t forget your shopping bags.”

“Oh.” Fang Su Jin turned around and picked up the paper bags. Then, she looked at Zhang Yi Hai again and flashed an awkward smile “I’ll see you around.”

Without waiting for his reply, Fang Su Jin closed the door and ran over to enter the house.

Zhang Yi Hai watched her silhouette finally disappear into the house and sighed.

The bright color against Fang Su Jin’s light-colored shirt reappeared in his mind. He shook his head and reminded himself not to have a strange thought.

...

Zhang Yi Hai was not the only one who was having problems in the rain.

After sending the Bai siblings back to their apartment, Zhang Li Xue decided to head back home. Just as she had entered an intersection, the rain started to fall down heavily.

Zhang Li Xue turned on the wiper and focused on her driving.

She was stopping at the red light when the car behind her drove straight without stopping and rammed into her car.

Her head knocked on the steering, but fortunately, other than the pain, she was not injured. Her seatbelt managed to stop her from getting hurt further.

It took her a while to register what had happened.

Zhang Li Xue unbuckled her seatbelt. She grabbed the umbrella and walked in the rain. She looked at the damage and frowned. Zhang Li Xue was suspecting that the driver might have mistaken the accelerator for the brake pedal.

The woman who rammed into her car alighted as well. Seeing the damage to the AUDI, the woman started to apologize quickly.

Her reason was, that it was raining and she had not noticed the red light.

Traffic police pulled over his motorbike to check on the situation. With the police around, the woman was not able to escape.

Rain continuously fell down hard.

Zhang Li Xue looked at the damage and suddenly had a headache. Now, she needed to deal with this accident. Because of the damage, she will need to call the tow truck.

She actually hated dealing with something like this.

Zhang Li Xue was still wondering what she should do next when she heard a familiar voice.

“Xiao Li Xue?”

Zhang Li Xue raised her head and was surprised to find that Mu Zhen Yu was standing beside her. The man was dressed casually in a grey shirt and black pants. His hand was holding a black umbrella.

“Are you alright?” Mu Zhen Yu gave her a look over and finally breathed in relief upon seeing that the girl was without injury. “What happened?”

“Brother Zhen Yu.” Her eyes lit up when she saw him. “Why are you here?”

Mu Zhen Yu glanced at her car. “I was passing by the road when I noticed the accident. I thought that the AUDI looked familiar and decided to look. Then, I saw you.” A faint smile curled on his lips. “I’m glad that I asked my assistant to pull over. Do you need any help?”

“Nothing much. I think I need to call the tow truck and deal with a few matters. That’s all,” Zhang Li Xue took out her phone, wanting to call her brother and ask what she should do next. After what happened, she was a bit lost about what she should do.

“Let my assistant deal with this,” Mu Zhen Yu said.

“Ah?”

“My assistant is quite capable of dealing with matters such as this,” Mu Zhen Yu said. “He’ll help you to talk to the police and deal with the insurance company as well.”

“Really?” Hearing that she did not have to deal with this matter made her feel more at ease.

“Un.” Mu Zhen Yu nodded. “Xiao Li Xue, it’s raining heavily. Let me send you home first.”
