

Love So Sweet 137

137 You Will Regret This

After driving for about fifteen minutes, the car finally pulled over in front of the hospital building.

Fang Su Jin tapped her fingers on the steering wheel as she watched as the doctor alighted from her car. The man grabbed his bag before turning to thank her. Without waiting for her reply, Bai Qi then shut the door.

She sat silently watching his figure walking towards the entrance. After a while, Fang Su Jin alighted and called his name, "Doctor Bai, wait up."

His steps halted. Bai Qi turned around slowly and saw that Fang Su Jin was walking in his direction.

There was a puzzled look on his face.

In the car, they both had stayed quiet throughout the journey. Fang Su Jin was someone that he was not used to and he did not know how he could start a conversation with her.

Hearing her call her name made him wonder if there was something wrong.

Bai Qi waited for her to speak. However, Fang Su Jin continued to stare at him without saying a word.

"Miss Fang? Is there something?"

Fang Su Jin hesitated for a few seconds before she finally spoke, "Doctor Bai, are you going after Li Xue?"

The sudden question made him stunned. Bai Qi would never expect that Fang Su Jin would stop him to ask such question.

But the question... was not something that he could answer.

Although Bai Qi had realized that he had feelings for Zhang Li Xue, pursuing her was something that he knew that he was not eligible to do with his current situation.

His little fairy deserved the best. It was something that he knew that he could not give.

Fang Su Jin let out a long sigh when the doctor did not reply. "Look, I don't mean anything. Things such as feelings are your private matters, so I won't interfere. However, I just wanted to remind you of something."

Bai Qi remained silence as he waited for her answer.

"Whatever it is, don't let Zhang Yi Hai to see you and Li Xue closer. Otherwise, you would be in trouble."

Zhang Yi Hai?

Little Fairy's brother?

Bai Qi had a lot of questions. However, he could not bring himself to ask Fang Su Jin about this matter.

Knowing that Bai Qi would not respond to her, Fang Su Jin turned around and leave in her car, leaving the man alone.

Bai Qi pondered over Fang Su Jin's warning. It took him a while before he snapped out of his thought and turned around. Just as he walked through the entrance, Bai Qi ran into someone familiar.

He gave Doctor Xiao Wan Zi a quick nod before heading to the elevator.

For some reason, Doctor Xiao looked unhappy. However, it was not his concern to ask.

Xiao Wan Zi watched as Bai Qi walked passed her with a disbelief look in her eyes. She chased after him and stood beside him as he waited for the elevator to arrive.

"Doctor Bai, who was that woman?"

Bai Qi glanced at the doctor in displeasure. "What does it have to do with you?"

Xiao Wan Zi pursed her lips into a thin line. She did not like Bai Qi's answer. But she knew that she could not get angry with him.

"Doctor Bai, have you thought of my offer?" Xiao Wan Zi asked.

At this time, the elevator arrived.

Bai Qi waited for the others to come out first before he walked in. Xiao Wan Zi followed him closely.

"Doctor Bai, if you agree, then, you no longer have to stay here as Doctor Qi's student." Xiao Wan Zi smiled. "You know that my father is the director. He have agreed to listen to me and make you a permanent. You just have to agree to be my boyfriend."

Xiao Wan Zi had talked to her father for a long time regarding Bai Qi.

Bai Qi might be an orphan and had no one to back him. However, he could marry into the family and continue to be a surgeon. He had talent and the Xiao family would surely support him. Her father had also told her that it was not impossible.

Bai Qi shot a dangerous look at the woman. "Thank you, but I am quite happy to stay here under Doctor Qi. Doctor Xiao, I am here to learn and accumulate experience. Before I am good enough, I am going to stay as Doctor Qi's student."

He was not happy with Xiao Wan Zi's words.

A doctor's profession is very noble. They save lives. He aimed to become a good surgeon. Therefore, he could not accept Xiao Wan Zi's offer. He wanted to be a good surgeon using his own ability.

Moreover... he did not like Xiao Wan Zi.

There was already someone he liked.

Although he may not be suitable for her right now, Bai Qi planned to work hard so that he could match her.

Xiao Wan Zi's eyes widened. She almost could not believe that Bai Qi would reject her offer.

From the first time she laid her eyes on this handsome and aloof doctor, Xiao Wan Zi knew that she was smitten. After working by his side for a while, the feeling continued to grow.

She was not willing to let such an excellent man slip through her finger.

The elevator reached its destination. Bai Qi quickly walked out and headed to his mentor's office.

However, he soon found Xiao Wan Zi blocking his path. "Doctor Bai, have you thought of this thing thoroughly?"

"I'm sorry. But I am not interested in your offer."

"You will regret this."

"I won't." Bai Qi walked around her and hastened his footsteps to head over to his mentor's office.

Once he arrived, Bai Qi knocked on the door and waited for the doctor to call him.

Hearing his permission, Bai Qi pushed the door and entered.

Qi Zheng was still studying a few files on the table. He raised his head and nodded. "You're back. How was it?"

"I already gave them both a check-up. Their temperature was not that high. They both should be alright after drinking some medicine and resting." Bai Qi gradually relaxed as he continued to update his mentor about the siblings' condition.

He quickly forgot all about Xiao Wan Zi's threat.
