

Love So Sweet 200

200 What Reward?

When Bai Xi Xi came out of her room all dressed up, she couldn't help but notice that there was something strange with the atmosphere.

Bai Xi Xi approached closer and noticed that her Pretty Sister's face was a little red. Meanwhile, her brother seemed to be in a very good mood.

The little girl was about to say something when she noticed that her brother was wearing lipsticks. "Brother Bai Qi, why are you wearing lipstick?"

Bai Xi Xi's question shocked Zhang Li Xue too much. She turned to look at Bai Qi and finally noticed that the color had rubbed on his lips.

Swiftly, Zhang Li Xue pursed her lips tightly before the little girl would notice that the color of her lipsticks had faded.

"Xi Xi, you have seen it wrongly. I'm a man. How can I be wearing lipsticks?" Bai Qi spoke. He coughed before turning to his room. "I should go and change my clothes as well."

Zhang Li Xue saw that the man had escaped and swiftly pointed to the restroom. "I'm going to use the bathroom first."

Bai Xi Xi tilted her head as she watched the two adults turn around to leave in hurry. She could not help but wonder just why would they both act strangely.

The three of them left the apartment together. This time, Zhang Li Xue let Bai Qi drive her car while she sat in the passenger's seat and chatted with Bai Xi Xi.

Bai Qi glanced through the mirror and smiled as he watched them together. He was glad to see that they both could get along with each other very well.

The basketball court was not very far from Bai Qi's apartment.

When they arrived, Bai Xi Xi sat at the side to watch her brother and her pretty sister played a match against each other.

This time, Bai Xi Xi noticed that the two of them were not serious at all.

Rather than practicing together, Bai Xi Xi thought that these two adults were playing around too much.

Bai Xi Xi had watched her brother practicing basketball from a young age and she understood her brother's skill very well. This time, it seemed that his skill was not as good as it was in the past.

Could it be that her brother hasn't been playing for too long and his skills have gone rustic?

At the center of the basketball court, both Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi continued to play against each other. Zhang Li Xue was dribbling the ball, trying to get past Bai Qi's defense.

Each time that she tried to move, Bai Qi would turn to block her. However, Zhang Li Xue was quick to notice that Bai Qi was not being serious with this game. The playful smile on his face had confirmed her suspicion.

Seeing the way Bai Qi acted reminded her of her parents.

At this time, Zhang Li Xue began to understand why her father liked playing basketball against her mother even though her mother was not very good at it.

Her father was taking the chance to flirt with her mother, wasn't he?

Bai Qi moved to her side as she tried to escape him. Their gazes met and she started to send him a warning look. "Bai Qi, you need to be serious."

"I am serious."

Zhang Li Xue narrowed her eyes. Clearly, she did not believe his nonsense. "Don't forget that your little sister is still watching."

Bai Qi glanced at his little sister who was still cheering at the side.

A sigh escaped him. Bai Qi was planning to play around with his girlfriend a little bit, but Zhang Li Xue was too shy with his little sister around. She was constantly worried that the little girl would find out about their relationship.

He did not mind letting his little sister know that they were in a relationship. However, since Zhang Li Xue thought that it was not a suitable time, he could only respect her opinion.

Seeing that the man was slightly distracted, Zhang Li Xue took this advantage to slip through his defense and shot the ball into the hoop.

The ball entered the hoop before it dropped to the floor.

At the side, Bai Xi Xi was cheering for her Pretty Sister happily.

Zhang Li Xue went over to pick the ball before turning to Bai Qi. "Bai Qi, you better play seriously this time. You see. Even Xi Xi would know that something was going on when she see us both."

Bai Qi heaved helplessly. His girlfriend had not changed at all. She was always serious when it comes to basketball.

"Come on. You said that you had almost gone professional. Show me what you got."

"Alright. I know. I'll start playing seriously."

Zhang Li Xue passed the ball to Bai Qi.

The ball was tossed up high again. Swiftly, Zhang Li Xue grasped the ball and dribbled it forward. Finding her chance, Zhang Li Xue posed to shoot the ball.

However, this time, Bai Qi was not going to allow her to shoot another ball and score. He ran over quickly and snatched the basketball from her before she could shoot the ball.

Without waiting for her to react, Bai Qi ran to the other side of the court before shooting the ball into the hoop. The basketball bumped into the board before entering the hoop.

At the side, Bai Xi Xi was cheering for her brother.

Their match continued and this time, Bai Qi was playing seriously just to let her see his skills.

The match ended with Bai Qi leading by five points.

When he turned to Zhang Li Xue, the girl was staring at him with a hint of admiration in her eyes.

“You’re good.”

The last time they played together, something happened and they were unable to determine the winner. This time, Bai Qi had indeed won beautifully.

His skills were very good. If he did not hold back a little bit, perhaps he would score more than that.

Bai Qi laughed. “Thank you.” He stretched his hand and wiped some sweat off her face with his thumb. “Now that I won, what kind of reward would you give me?”

Zhang Li Xue stared back at him in surprise. “What reward?”

“Shouldn’t the winner get a reward?”

“What kind of reward do you want then?”

His lips tilted up. Then, he pointed at his cheek.

Zhang Li Xue was quick to understand his meaning. Her face turned into a darker shade of red. Before she could scold this hooligan, Bai Xi Xi had already reached the side.

“Brother Bai Qi, it’s my turn to practice basketball with my Pretty Sister.”

Bai Qi looked at the light bulb beside him and sighed helplessly.
