

Love So Sweet 221

221 Is This Enough?

Zhang Li Xue watched as Mu Zhen Yu entered the building with Miss Ye by his side. When she turned around again, she found that Bai Qi had already arrived at the entrance.

Her eyes lit up. Zhang Li Xue quickly walked downstairs and slid into the passenger's side.

She fastened her seatbelt and frowned when Bai Qi did not quickly drive away. She looked up and noticed that her boyfriend was looking at the building with a serious look on his face.

Zhang Li Xue followed his gaze and saw that there was nothing there. "What's wrong?"

Bai Qi finally retracted his gaze and looked at his girlfriend. "Earlier, was that Mu Zhen Yu?"

This was not the first time that he had seen Mu Zhen Yu. Naturally, Bai Qi was able to recognize him from a distance.

Zhang Li Xue paused before answering. "Un." She did not think that Bai Qi would see her talking briefly with Mu Zhen Yu.

Then, Zhang Li Xue recalled how a certain someone would be unhappy each time Mu Zhen Yu's name was mentioned.

"I didn't expect to run into him as well," Zhang Li Xue explained. "It seemed that he's here to have a discuss his company's matter."

Bai Qi heaved a sigh.

Perhaps, it was because he had seen how Zhang Li Xue was close to Mu Zhen Yu when they were little. Each time that he saw them together, he would feel very uncomfortable.

Mu Zhen Yu might only be a brother who often looked after Zhang Li Xue, but Bai Qi had a feeling that Mu Zhen Yu's feelings might not be that simple.

He still did not like to see them that close.

Still... even though he was unhappy, he decided to trust his girlfriend.

Zhang Li Xue was right. Mu Zhen Yu has been around her for years. If something was to happen between them, it should have happened a long time ago.

Currently, the person she liked was him.

Bai Qi quickly tried to dispel that thought away before his little fairy would start to worry. He flashed her a smile and spoke, "Alright. Let's go back."

Although he did not have to work the night shift, his girlfriend would still need to head home before her parents would get worried.

On their drive back to Bai Qi's apartment, the two of them no longer mentioned Mu Zhen Yu.

Bai Qi pulled over the car in a parking spot and the two of them decided to take a short walk around the apartment.

They were still unwilling to part too soon./

Holding hands, the couple walked around the area while chatting about various things.

After making a full circle around the place, they finally returned to the parking spot again.

Zhang Li Xue had her arms around Bai Qi's waist as looked at her boyfriend with a hint of unwillingness. Then, she recalled her conversation with her mother earlier that morning.

"Doctor Bai, I want to introduce you to someone," Zhang Li Xue spoke. "When will you be free?"

"Someone?" Bai Qi raised a brow.

"Un." Zhang Li Xue laughed when he saw the inquiring look on his face. She decided to tease him a bit and didn't tell him that her mother had requested to meet him. "Doctor Bai, are you willing to meet this person?"

Bai Qi thought of the people close to his girlfriend. He guessed that his girlfriend was going to properly introduce him as her boyfriend to her best friend, Fang Su Jin. After all, Zhang Li Xue was still shy about introducing him to her family members.

"Of course, I'm willing." Bai Qi leaned over to kiss her forehead. "My next day off is on Wednesday."

However, the two of them already planned to look at some apartments. He had already made an appointment with the agent to look at the house.

"Otherwise, I can apply for a leave?" Zhang Li Xue suggested.

It would be too troublesome for Bai Qi to apply for a day off.

"Won't it be troublesome?"

"Of course, not." Zhang Li Xue laughed. "I'm a hard worker and rarely took a day off from work. It will be fine."

A helpless smile curled on his lips.

Bai Qi started to wonder if the person that Zhang Li Xue wanted him to meet was really Fang Su Jin. It seemed that her attitude was a little different.

"Are you not going to tell me about this person?" Bai Qi asked. "Shouldn't you let me make any preparation?"

Zhang Li Xue smiled. A playful glint appeared in her eyes. "Then, why don't you kiss me first? And then, I'll tell you."

Bai Qi chuckled. He stretched his hands to cup her face.

Just as Zhang Li Xue thought that he was going to kiss her, Bai Qi pinched her cheek and smiled.

Seeing the tease in his eyes made her frustrated. Zhang Li Xue opened her mouth to protest. However, Bai Qi took this chance to lean over and pressed his lips against hers.

His hand moved to cup her cheek, keeping her in place.

The sudden movement startled her. But soon, a smile bloomed on her lips. Closing her eyes, Zhang Li Xue began to enjoy his kiss.

Zhang Li Xue always liked kissing her Doctor Bai Qi. His kisses were always so gentle and warm. She began to suspect that perhaps she was already addicted to his kisses.

As time passed by, Zhang Li Xue realized that this kiss was a little different.

Bai Qi was sucking and nibbling at her lips, teasing her until she became breathless.

It was a dark night and her car was parked in a quiet corner.

The sound of their breaths mingled. Suddenly, her body seemed to be burning up.

Her legs gradually turned to jelly. Zhang Li Xue had no other choice but to grasp the front of his shirt tightly while leaning her body on Bai Qi's to stabilize herself.

What she had thought would be a short, playful kiss had suddenly turned into a heart-stirring one.

Sensing that a certain someone could no longer take it, Bai Qi finally pulled away. He stared into the pair of misty eyes before pulling the little fairy in his embrace.

"Is this enough?"

Zhang Li Xue was aware that Bai Qi was still teasing her. She parted her lips, wanting to reply. However, her lips no longer felt like they belonged to hers.

A chuckle escaped him, knowing that she was unable to answer. Bai Qi held her tightly and let her stay in his embrace until she began to calm down.

"Are you going to tell me now?"

Hearing his question made Zhang Li Xue realize that she shouldn't be provoking her boyfriend. Zhang Li Xue pursed her lips before giving him an answer. "It's my mother. I want to introduce you to my mother."
