

Love So Sweet 245

245 His Position was Jeopardized

On the next day, Bai Qi took a day off to settle his little sister's kindergarten.

Because there were a few months left before the semester would end, Bai Qi had already prepared that it would be difficult for a school to accept his sister. However, Zhang Li Xue told him that her mother had found a place.

Bai Qi took the taxi with his sister to the kindergarten and saw that both Zhang Li Xue and her mother had arrived.

He held Bai Xi Xi's hand and walked over.

The moment Zhang Li Xue noticed them, her eyes lit up. Li Qin Yao saw the change in her daughter's expression and quickly turned around to see the siblings together.

Just like her daughter had said, Bai Xi Xi resembled her brother. The two of them are both good-looking.

Bai Qi flashed a smile at his girlfriend before greeting her mother. "Hello, Auntie." Then, he turned to his little sister and urged her to do the same.

"Hello, Auntie." Bai Xi Xi could not help but stare at her Pretty Sister's mother for a while longer. Her Pretty Sister's mother was shorter, but she was as pretty as her Pretty Sister.

Li Qin Yao smiled and bent down a bit to the little girl's level. "You're Bai Xi Xi?"

The little girl nodded. "Yes."

"After this, I will introduce you to a few people," Li Qin Yao said. "You might have to answer a few tests. Is that alright with you?"

Bai Xi Xi held her brother's hand a little tighter. "Auntie, I'm already prepared."

Li Qin Yao stretched her hand to the little girl. "Come on. Let me take you inside."

The little girl glanced at her brother. Seeing him nod, Bai Xi Xi released his hand and went over to Li Qin Yao's side. The two of them walked into the building while holding hands.

Seeing how adorable the little girl was made her miss Zhang Li Xue while she was around Bai Xi Xi's age. It seemed that it has been a while since the house could hear the sound of children's laughter.

Li Qin Yao sighed as the thought came to her mind. It seemed that she had become like the friends her age. Otherwise, why would she suddenly think of having grandchildren?

The four of them walked over to the kindergarten and were greeted by the headmaster. Seeing Bai Xi Xi, the headmaster interviewed her for a bit before letting her answer a few test questions.

Bai Qi's phone in the pocket chimed as they were waiting for Bai Xi Xi with her test.

He looked at the unfamiliar number and quickly picked up the phone, knowing that someone from the hospital could be looking for him. "Hello?"

"Hello. Is this Mister Bai?"

The familiar and hesitant voice made him frown. "Who is this?"

"This is Headmaster Chu," the man spoke. "Your little sister, Bai Xi Xi went to our kindergarten?"

The look on his face turned darker. Bai Qi had heard from his girlfriend what this headmaster had done to Bai Xi Xi. Naturally, his impression of this man was not that good.

"How can I help you?"

The headmaster hesitated. "This matter is a little complicated, but Mr. Bai, can you come over to the kindergarten to discuss some matter regarding your sister?"

"Headmaster, I'm busy. If there's anything you have to say, you can say it on the phone."

Zhang Li Xue was with Bai Qi. When she heard his words, her expression had turned uglier. A while ago, her mother had told her that the headmaster would not stay in his job for a long time.

Now that the man had called, Zhang Li Xue could guess what was going on.

"Mr. Bai, I would like to apologize to you and your sister," the headmaster spoke. "There was a misunderstanding the other day and I did not handle the situation very well."

Bai Qi sneered.

Although he had shown a calm look on his face as Zhang Li Xue told him what was going on, it did not mean that he was not angry. Hearing the headmaster referring to the injustice as 'not handling the situation very well', made him angrier.

The one who had suffered the most in this incident was Bai Xi Xi, but it seemed that the headmaster wanted to take this matter lightly.

"Then, what do you want to do?"

"Mr. Bai, I wonder if we could meet and talk," the headmaster said. "The other day, I don't quite understand the situation, but it was not my intention to let Student Bai Xi Xi quit. Your sister is such a bright student. It would be a shame to let her quit now."

"Thank you, but I already found another school for my little sister."

The headmaster was shocked to hear this news and was unable to process it well. "Mr. Bai, don't be like this. Our kindergarten is among the best in Y City."

"Since my sister had withdrawn from your kindergarten, you don't have to worry about her anymore," Bai Qi spat angrily. He was about to end the call when he heard the headmaster's voice again.

"Mr. Bai, could you at least withdraw your report to the higher-ups? I have been working in education for years. You can't let them end my career like this."

He narrowed his eyes and pressed the end call button.

In the end, the headmaster only thought of apologizing after his position as the headmaster was jeopardized. This person did not care about his student at all unless his student would bring a benefit to him.

Bai Qi took a deep breath to calm down. When he looked up again, his girlfriend was holding his hand tightly.

“Is everything alright?” Zhang Li Xue asked. There was a hint of concern on her face.

Bai Qi flashed her an assuring smile before telling her about his conversation with the headmaster.

Hearing what happened made Zhang Li Xue heave a long breath. “This is good. Someone like him isn’t suitable to be in education. He would only be a bad example for his students.” With her mother’s connection, the headmaster would no longer be able to be in education all his life. It was time for him to think of early retiring.

“You are right.” Bai Qi agreed. Seeing that there was no one around, Bai Qi leaned over to kiss his girlfriend on the cheek. “Li Xue, fortunately, there is you.”
