

Love So Sweet 332

332 Let You be in Charge

Zhang Li Xue woke up early morning and had breakfast with her father in the hotel's coffee house. Then, someone picked them up at the hotel and drove them around the city.

The father and daughter went on sightseeing around the city before they finally headed to the new hotel building.

A group of people greeted them at the entrance before they were taken on a tour around the hotel.

It was said that the construction had been stopped a year ago. But now that Zhang Group Worldwide had purchased the land, it was estimated that the construction to continue after they were done with some legal procedures.

Zhang Li Xue followed the guide and looked around the chalet-style hotel. It was within walking distance of the beach.

With some renovation, this place would definitely attract a lot of customers.

She could not help but to look around the place and snapped a lot of pictures as well. Since her mother was not around, Zhang Li Xue would snap a few photos of her father and send them over.

Zhang Li Xue wanted to let her mother know that her father was really working hard in H City.

The guide by their side continued to speak, telling them more about the hotel building.

A while later, someone came over and handed over the blueprint.

Zhang Li Xue stood at the side as she watched them discussing the hotel building for a long time. Once in a while, her father would turn to her and explain a few things.

The tour finally ended just after the lunch hour. The guide invited them over to have lunch together. However, Zhang Yu Han chose to reject the invitation.

Zhang Yu Han spoke briefly with his assistant. Then, he waved his hand to his daughter and the two of them alighted the car together.

"Daddy, your assistant isn't coming with us?" Zhang Li Xue asked when she saw that the assistant left with the others.

"Mmm... It's been a while since we had lunch with just us," Zhang Yu Han said. He glanced at his daughter and spoke, "What do you want to eat?"

Zhang Li Xue pondered over this question. "Well, since you are treating me to this meal, I wouldn't mind anything as long as it is expensive."

Zhang Yu Han laughed at his daughter's answer. "Then, how about a vegetarian restaurant?"

Hearing her father's words, made her pout. "Daddy..."

Zhang Yu Han laughed again. He stretched his arms and patted her daughter's head briefly. "Alright. I know. We'll go somewhere else."

Fortunately, he had asked around for a good restaurant recommendation in H City.

A weak smile curled on his lips. Zhang Yu Han realized that his daughter's eating habit was quite similar to his late grandfather's.

Both of them did not like to eat vegetables that much.

Back then, his grandfather, Zhang Jing doted on Zhang Li Xue a lot. The two of them spent quite a lot of time together. Later, his daughter picked up his grandfather's eating habits.

The car continued to cruise along the road with the beach scenery.

After driving for almost twenty minutes, the two of them reached a restaurant on the hill. They entered the restaurant together and were greeted by the waiter. They were ushered to the second floor where they could view the beach scenery.

The water was blue and the sea wind blew.

Standing in this place and watching this scenery made her feel relaxed. Zhang Li Xue could not help but snap a few photos and posted them on her social media.

Just a few seconds later, her friends came to the comment section, asking her to tell them about this place.

However, the person she was waiting for had not replied.

Zhang Li Xue heaved a sigh. She could already guess that Bai Qi should be busy in the hospital.

She wanted to let him see this beautiful scenery as well.

"What's the matter? Why are you sighing?"

Zhang Li Xue snapped out of her trance as she heard her father's voice. "Nothing." Zhang Li Xue lowered her gaze shyly. She could not tell her father that she was still thinking about her boyfriend.

However, how can her father not know what was going on in his daughter's mind? After all, he too has been young once.

Zhang Yu Han was curious to know about his daughter's relationship with Bai Qi. However, he thought that asking about it would be too awkward. He let out a cough and looked at the beach scenery.

"What do you think about the new hotel?"

Zhang Li Xue thought of her father's question properly. Then, the two of them began to discuss a few matters about the hotel. Their expression became serious.

When her brow furrowed, Zhang Li Xue's face would resemble her father the most.

The waiter sent the food to their table, but their discussion did not stop even as they ate.

Zhang Yu Han listened to his daughter's opinion seriously while giving his input as well. After a while, he raised his glass and took a sip.

His gaze lowered as if he was thinking of something. When he looked at his daughter again, there was a faint smile on his face.

Seeing the look on her father's face puzzled her. Before Zhang Li Xue could ask about it, her father had already spoken again.

"Then, I'm planning to let you be in charge of this new hotel. Li Xue, what do you think?"

Zhang Li Xue looked at her father with a dazed look on her face. "Ah?" Daddy, what do you mean?"

The father and daughter were looking at each other for a long time. Seeing that her father did not seem to be joking, Zhang Li Xue then sat up straight. "Daddy, it's not appropriate, right? I haven't learned enough about the hotel business. Moreover, I don't know anything much about this."

She knew well that if she wanted to continue working in this family business, this was something that she had to do. This could be considered a test for her as well.

"Of course, I won't let you do everything by yourself. There will be a few people to help you. If you have anything that you don't understand, you can always come to me and ask," Zhang Yu Han said. "You don't have to worry. Taking this project won't mean that you will have to stay in H City. Your mother and I still wanted you to accompany us for a long time."

Zhang Li Xue decided to take some time to think of her father's words.
