

Love So Sweet 337

337 You Have to Save Li Xue

Qi Ming Wei and Li Qin Yao were among the first to arrive in H City.

Knowing that Li Qin Yao was worried about both her husband and daughter, Qi Ming Wei offered to come with him on a private jet to H City.

The moment they arrived, Qi Ming Wei quickly instructed his people to bring them over to the site.

The sky darkened when they arrived. The beach view was beautiful, but no one was in the mood to look at the scenery.

At this time, the rescue team was still working hard to remove the rubble and rescue the people underneath the collapsed building. Six victims were still trapped.

Li Qin Yao quickly looked for her husband. The moment she saw him from a distance, Li Qin Yao sprinted over. The couple met halfway and hugged each other tightly.

“Qin Yao,” Zhang Yu Han tightened his grip around his wife’s shoulder. He buried his head in her neck for a long time, seeking consolation.

The image of the building collapsing in front of him would play in his head again and again. He was unable to erase it away from his head.

Li Qin Yao stroked his back while whispering some consolation words.

After a long time, the couple finally pulled away. Li Qin Yao stood on tiptoe as she wiped the tears around her husband’s face. “It’s going to be alright. Ming Wei and the others are here. They will help to find her.”

Zhang Yu Han nodded. Before they found his daughter, he was not going to give up.

As the sky turned darker, Qi Ming Wei let a few people light up the light to continue to look for the victims. A few tents were set up to ease the rescue mission.

The temperature around H City began to drop.

Li Qin Yao took out the thick coat she brought with her and wrapped them around her husband’s shoulder.

Li Qin Yao stopped him before he could take off the coat around his body. “Just put them on you. Yu Han, you have to look after yourself. Otherwise, how are you going to look for Li Xue?”

Hearing his wife’s words, Zhang Yu Han obediently put on the coat around his body.

However, he could not help but worry about his daughter.

It was cold. He wondered if his little girl would be cold. He could still remember the clothes on his daughter's body. It was not very thick to help her warm up in this cold temperature.

At this time, Qi Ming Wei walked over with two bowls of hot porridge. He glanced at Li Qin Yao and gave her a nod. "Yu Han, you have to eat something as well. You are going to need the energy to keep searching for Li Xue."

Zhang Yu Han was going to tell him that he was not hungry. However, he knew well that if he did not eat, his wife would not eat as well.

He still remembered that he was the man of the house. He cannot fall now.

Zhang Yu Han took a sip of his porridge. Then, he looked at Qi Ming Wei and asked, "How is it? How long do you think it will take for us to find her?"

"Just finish your meal first. Then, I will tell you."

Zhang Yu Han shot him a dagger look. He disliked Qi Ming Wei's threat, but he had no other choice but to listen to Qi Ming Wei's words. He finished his porridge with a few sips. Then, he looked at Qi Ming Wei again.

The look on his face was as if he was holding a grudge against Qi Ming Wei.

However, Qi Ming Wei know best that his friend was not really angry at him.

Qi Ming Wei pursed his lips as he thought of what his men had told him earlier. He wondered if he should hide some matters from his friend. However, in the end, Qi Ming Wei decided to tell him the truth. "At this time, the rescue team is not very sure how long they will be able to find Li Xue."

Zhang Yu Han's expression remained cold. However, his heart was hurting badly.

"They are not very sure where did Li Xue and the others had gone to. Moreover, with the building's structure, it would be a little hard to find them. They have to be careful. With one small mistake, the building would collapse and injure the others."

Zhang Yu Han understood that this rescue mission would not be that easy. "Whatever it is, you have to save Li Xue."

Qi Ming Wei patted his friend on the shoulder. "I know. I will do my best. I watched her grow up. Li Xue is someone that I considered my daughter. I will definitely find her and bring her up."

Taking a deep breath, Qi Ming Wei then hugged his friend tightly. "The others will be here before midnight. Yu Han, everyone will come over to help you look for Li Xue. We will find her."

Qi Ming Wei was someone that he trust the most. Hearing his words, made him feel more at ease.

...

Everything around her was dark.

Zhang Li Xue opened her eyes slowly and looked at her surroundings. She tried to move her body, but the pain made her whimper.

It was too painful!

Her legs were especially too painful!

“Daddy.” Zhang Li Xue’s voice was a bit hoarse. She wanted to shout out, but could not find her voice.

Her eyes narrowed as she tried to adjust her sight in the dark. However, she could not see anything around her.

Zhang Li Xue tried to recall what had happened to her.

After talking to her father for a while, Zhang Li Xue went back into the hotel building to look for the architecture and the managers. Her father’s assistant was staying close to her. They were discussing a few matters regarding the hotel development.

The others went to another room and Zhang Li Xue told them that she wanted to look at the lounge for a while longer.

Just then, the ground started to shake.

Realizing that it was an earthquake, she quickly found a place to hide. However, the building around her started to collapse and there were not many places for her to hide.

Zhang Li Xue moved to another pillar when the ceiling collapsed. Because she was avoiding the ceiling, she tripped and fell.

Something heavy hit on her back. And then, everything around her went black.
