

Love So Sweet 345

345 You're Leaving?

Once the doctor in charge gave her clearance, Li Qin Yao helped her daughter to pack up while Zhang Yu Han went to deal with her discharge procedure.

Meanwhile, Bai Qi stayed in the room to help Zhang Li Xue change her dressings. There were a few cuts on her body that would need some attention.

Just then, Zhang Yu Ying and Wei Jun Hao walked into the room.

Zhang Li Xue's eyes lit up when she saw the couple. "Aunt, Uncle."

Zhang Yu Ying greeted Li Qin Yao before she walked over to her niece. "Li Xue, it seemed that you are really fine." She gave Zhang Li Xue a lookover and saw that Bai Qi was dressing an injury around her legs. Seeing that the girl could still smile made her breathe in relief. "Your dad said, you're going to be discharged today?"

"Mmm... I can recuperate at home. I think I would be more comfortable staying at home."

Zhang Yu Ying stretched her hand and patted her niece's hair softly. "It's good that you're fine. Your grandparents are worried about you as well."

"Grandfather and grandmother know?"

"Mhm..." Zhang Yu Ying nodded. "They wanted to come over to H City, but I told them that you are going to return soon. They said that they were going to wait for you in Y City."

Zhang Li Xue wanted to call her grandparents and tell them that she was alright. However, they should be on their flight right now...

Bai Qi bandaged the wound around Zhang Li Xue's carefully. Once he was done, Bai Qi turned to Zhang Yu Ying and Wei Jun Hao to greet them. "Aunt, Uncle."

Zhang Yu Ying heaved a sigh as she watched the young man. "It's good to have a doctor as your boyfriend. You see you now have a personal doctor to attend to you. Hey, I'm envious!"

Wei Jun Hao pursed his lips and looked at his wife with a serious look on his face. "Yu Ying, do you think that it's too late for me to change my career?"

Hearing her husband's words made Zhang Yu Ying roll her eyes.

In the evening, the group took the flight back to Y City. When they arrived, Zhang Li Xue was surprised to see that her grandparents as well as her brother were waiting for them as well.

Her maternal grandmother gave her a lookover before hugging her tightly.

Her paternal grandparents took the earliest flight from C Country when they heard the news.

Zhang Yi Hai and the triplets took a few days off from their study just to look at her.

Seeing how everyone was gathered around her made her eyes a little sore. Zhang Li Xue could not help but cry. When she was stuck under that collapsed building, Zhang Li Xue thought that she may never see everyone again.

Zhang Yi Hai's expression turned gloomy when saw his sister in the wheelchair. "Sister, sorry. I found out about your accident a little too late. If I know about it, I will definitely head over and find you as well."

His mother knew that he was still studying and did not want him to worry.

When they heard about the earthquake in H City, no one gave it an extra thought.

It was only when Zhang Li Xue has been rescued did they heard the news that their sister was one of the victims and has been stuck underneath the building for more than twelve hours.

Knowing that their sister was going to return, the boys decided to wait for her in Y City.

Once again, Zhang Li Xue was surrounded by her family.

Bai Qi was a little jealous to watch this scene. He thought that it was good to have a large family and friends. Noticing that someone was walking over, Bai Qi quickly snapped out of his thought.

"Bai Qi, we're going home to let Li Xue rest," Zhang Yu Han spoke. "Do you want to come home with us?"

His gaze shifted to his little fairy. Then, Bai Qi shook his head. "Uncle, it's alright. I should go and get my little sister. She has been staying with Doctor Qi's family since yesterday."

Although he wanted to accompany Zhang Li Xue for a while longer, Bai Qi knew that he should not trouble Doctor Qi's wife with his sister.

Before he headed to H City, Bai Qi had told his sister what happened and the little girl was worried about her pretty sister as well.

"Then, you can come over later with your sister."

"Un. Of course." Bai Qi smiled. He naturally noticed that Zhang Yu Han's acceptance and treatment had gotten better and better.

Bai Qi understood that as long as he treated Zhang Li Xue well and sincerely, her family will eventually accept him.

Zhang Li Xue was the treasured princess of the family and everyone around her hoped that she would meet someone who will love her the same.

Bai Qi exchanged a few words with Zhang Yu Han. Seeing that Qi Zheng had come out, Bai Qi thought that this was the time for him to excuse himself.

However, before he left, he still has to look for his girlfriend.

Zhang Li Xue was still surrounded by her family.

Bai Qi cleared his throat before walking over to her side. He crouched down to get to her level and held her hand. "Li Xue, I'm going back with Doctor Qi first."

Her eyes widened in surprise. "You're leaving?"

"Mmm... Xi Xi is still waiting for me. I should go and pick her up."

Zhang Li Xue had thought that Bai Qi would accompany her for a while longer. But thinking about Bai Xi Xi who had to stay alone made her worry as well. "Then, you should go and look for Xi Xi."

"Tomorrow, I'll take Xi Xi to your house and visit you, alright? Xi Xi should be worried about her pretty sister as well."

"Then, you have to promise that you'll come with Xi Xi to see me."

Bai Qi smiled. "Un. Be good. I'll come over to visit you in the morning."

Then, while Zhang Li Xue was still looking at him, Bai Qi leaned over to kiss his girlfriend on the lips.

It was a brief kiss. But when they parted, Zhang Li Xue realized that everyone had seen this kiss. Her cheek turned a little red as she was feeling a little shy.
