

Love So Sweet 361

361 You are Still a Patient

Before leaving the park, Zhang Yi Hai and Fang Su Jin accompanied Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi to the parking spot.

Now that Zhang Li Xue had answered with a 'yes', the couple was planning to go on a date before Bai Qi would send Zhang Li Xue back.

As Bai Qi was dealing with the wheelchair, Fang Su Jin walked over to her friend and spoke, "Li Xue, I've helped you to record the proposal video. Although we could not hear what you guys were saying, every part of your expression is clear."

Zhang Li Xue's expression lit up when she heard about this. "Su Jin, you are the best."

"I will help you to edit the video before sending it to you, alright?" Fang Su Jin smiled.

"Thank you." Zhang Li Xue looked at her friend before moving her gaze to her brother. "Yi Hai, I'm leaving with Bai Qi. Help me to send Su Jin back, alright?"

Zhang Yi Hai glanced at the person beside him. "Mmm... Sister, don't worry about it." There was a hint of joy in his heart, knowing that he would be spending time with Fang Su Jin. But, Zhang Yi Hai had quickly put that thought away.

He began to think that there was something wrong with him.

His thought was too improper.

Bai Qi exchanged a few words with Zhang Yi Hai before leaving with Zhang Li Xue.

As the vehicle began to leave the park, Zhang Li Xue lowered her gaze and looked at the ring again. It was too pretty. The more she looked at it, the more she liked it. Her Doctor Bai really had good taste. Zhang Li Xue took out her phone and snapped a few photos of her ring.

As they were stopping by a red light, Bai Qi glanced at his little fairy again and saw that she was staring at the ring with a smile on her face.

Seeing that she seemed to like the ring he chose made him happy.

Zhang Li Xue raised her head again and looked out the window. After a while, she began to feel that the scene outside seemed quite familiar. She turned to Bai Qi and spoke, "Doctor Bai, where are we going now?"

"Do you have a place you wanted to go?"

Zhang Li Xue shook her head. "Well, I'll just follow your plan." At this time, she did not care wherever Bai Qi was going to take her. All she wanted to do was to be together with him. In her thought, Bai Qi should already make his plan.

Bai Qi laughed. "Then, we'll go back to my apartment, alright? Later, we'll pick up Xi Xi from her school and go back to your house."

Zhang Li Xue stared at the man speechlessly. She had agreed to his proposal and now, she was asked to stay home and rest? What is this?

Seeing the look on her face made him laugh. "Remember that you are still a patient. You still need to rest and recuperate."

Zhang Li Xue pouted. She was hoping that the two of them were going on a date.

Bai Qi stretched his hand and pinched her nose. "Be good. Although you are not using your legs, sitting too long in that wheelchair isn't good for you too. I want you to get well very soon."

Zhang Li Xue wanted to complain, but she knew that she was not going to win in this argument. In the end, she decided not to speak about it.

"Did Xi Xi know what you're planning to do today?" Zhang Li Xue asked.

Even her mother seemed to know about Bai Qi's plan. At this time, Zhang Li Xue wondered just who else would know about his plan.

"No. When we pick her up from her school, let's tell her this surprise."

Zhang Li Xue was fine with this arrangement. She wondered just how would Bai Xi Xi react upon listening to this news.

"Do you think Xi Xi is going to mind?" Zhang Li Xue started to worry. "After all, you are her only family. Will she start to think I'm going to steal you?"

"Don't think too much. I'm sure that Xi Xi is going to be happy." Bai Qi glanced at her. "Don't you know how much my sister adores you? I am the one who should be worried that Xi Xi is going to steal you from me?"

"What?" Zhang Li Xue laughed.

"Don't you know? Whenever Xi Xi was around, your attention would be on her."

Zhang Li Xue stared at him in disbelief.

Why does it sound like Bai Qi was jealous of his own sister?

After a few minutes, Bai Qi finally entered the apartment building. He found a parking spot and took out the wheelchair. Bai Qi brought it over to the side before walking over to help Zhang Li Xue out.

As soon as he held her in his arms, Zhang Li Xue quickly wrapped her arms around Bai Qi's neck.

"Since Xi Xi is not here, then, I will only look at you, alright?"

Bai Qi laughed.

The way his little fairy was staring at him made him sigh helplessly. Before he could warn her not to cause trouble, Zhang Li Xue leaned in and pressed her lips on his cheek.

His eyes narrowed. Bai Qi could tell that a certain someone wanted to tease him. The mischievous smile on her face was too obvious.

Meanwhile, Zhang Li Xue began to think that it was not a bad thing to return to his apartment. This way, the two of them could spend their time alone.

It has been a while since she gets to be alone with Bai Qi.

These days, Zhang Li Xue has been staying at home to recuperate while Bai Qi was busy with his job at the hospital. Now that they are together, she should take this opportunity to stay close to him.

Bai Qi helped her into her wheelchair and pinched her cheek. "Don't make trouble." Zhang Li Xue wanted to speak, but soon, Bai Qi blocked her lips with his kiss.

This move finally made her stay quiet obediently.
