

Love So Sweet 376

376 Chose a Lingerie

Zhang Yi Hai watched Fang Su Jin's retracting back with a faint smile on his face.

Unexpectedly, he had once again tricked her into spending her time with him at the mall.

They were going on their separate ways before they would meet again once their task was done. Although they were not able to walk side by side, he will still see her again afterward.

As the thought came to his mind, Zhang Yi Hai began to smile again.

He then took out his phone to check on some messages.

Earlier, when he had texted his mother, Zhang Yi Hai did not expect that her mother would really reply to him. His mother heard that he was going to visit the mall and had given him a long list.

Just taking a look at this list would give him a headache.

What was his mother going to do with the amount of chocolates and candies?

Heaving a sigh, Zhang Yi Hai could only resign to his fate.

Who asked him to use his mother's name as a shield to stay with Fang Su Jin? The next time, he should muster his courage and ask her out properly!

Meanwhile, Fang Su Jin successfully entered the lingerie store on the second floor. She decided that she should not be spending too long in the store. It would be too awkward if Zhang Yi Hai found her in this store.

With the shop assistant's help, Fang Su Jin finally chose a lingerie she liked.

While helping Zhang Li Xue to tidy up the clothes on her bed, Fang Su Jin cleverly peeked into her underwear wardrobe to find out Zhang Li Xue's size.

Once she had checked on the lingerie and was satisfied with it, Fang Su Jin quickly asked the shop assistant to help her pack up the lingerie.

Fortunately, the piece was quite thin and did not take up too much space.

Fang Su Jin asked the shop assistant to pack it up into a small gift bag before she stuffed the package into her bag.

Anyway, she needed to hide the things she bought as she would be meeting Zhang Yi Hai again. It would be awkward if Zhang Yi Hai knew that she was visiting the lingerie store.

Her phone rang just as she walked out of the store.

Seeing her mentor's name on the caller ID, Fang Su Jin quickly picked up the phone. "Teacher Jiang, hello."

The student and mentor exchanged a few pleasantries. From his tone, Fang Su Jin could sense that her mentor was in a good mood.

“Teacher Jiang, you seem to be in a good mood. Did something happen?” Fang Su Jin asked.

Anyway, her mentor would not be calling her if he did not have anything important to say.

“Mhm... You can say it that way.” Teacher Jiang began to laugh happily. “Su Jin, the good news is for you. I just spoke to someone from Capital City Art Association. They said they wanted you to join them for an exhibition.”

Fang Su Jin’s eyes lit up upon hearing her mentor’s words.

“This time, the exhibition would feature young artists under thirty years old. The director seemed to like your style and wanted you to join in this exhibition as well. Su Jin, what do you think?”

Fang Su Jin could already sense her mentor’s anxiousness as he spoke to her. She could tell that her mentor wanted her to join this exhibition as well. “Teacher Jiang when will this exhibition be held?”

“Oh. Silly me. I forgot to tell you.” Teacher Jiang laughed. “This exhibition will be held next month in Capital City. Su Jin, if you agree, I will help you with the procedure.”

Fang Su Jin thought over this matter. Coincidentally, she would be free next month.

Last time, when she got an invitation to showcase her painting in F Country, Fang Su Jin rejected that offer due to some personal issue. She did not like to deal with Mika and decided to decline that offer.

An exhibition in F Country would be good exposure for her. However, Teacher Jiang still respected her decision and did not force her to do something she was not comfortable with.

However, Fang Su Jin could tell that her mentor was a little disappointed with that decision.

Thinking about it, Fang Su Jin decided to agree with her mentor’s suggestion. After all, an exhibition under the Art Association would be different than her last exhibition.

“Then, I will email you the details later,” Teacher Jiang spoke in excitement. “Su Jin, don’t forget to check your email later and send me the documents they asked for.”

Fang Su Jin laughed upon hearing her mentor’s enthusiasm. Sometimes, she would feel that her mentor was more like an agent than her mentor. He would always help her to find an opportunity to shine.

After chatting with her mentor regarding the art exhibition for a while, Fang Su Jin finally ended the call.

She still remembered that she had promised to meet Zhang Yi Hai again in front of that fountain.

Worried that the man would be waiting for her for a long time, Fang Su Jin picked up her speed.

As she stood on the escalator heading downstairs, Fang Su Jin could already spot Zhang Yi Hai standing beside the fountain.

He had one bag in his hand while another was holding his phone.

Fang Su Jin did not know what he was looking at, but his expression seemed serious.

Not too far away from him, two women in cute their cute dresses were glancing at Zhang Yi Hai a few times.

Looking at the way those women were whispering and giggling, Fang Su Jin was almost sure that they were talking about Zhang Yi Hai.

However, the young man only had his attention on his phone. He did not seem to realize that there were people busy ogling at him.

She had to admit that Zhang Yi Hai was quite attractive. His parents' genes gave him a handsome face and his pair of long legs always caught some attention. She met a few of his friends in Capital City. She recalled seeing a few of the girls trying to get his attention...

Fang Su Jin bit her lips, feeling slightly upset at this scene.

But a few seconds later, Fang Su Jin quickly dispelled that unhappy thought away.

With slow steps, Fang Su Jin began to approach him. "Zhang Yi Hai."

The young man raised his head. Then, a faint smile curled on his lips. "Sister Fang, you're here."
