

Love So Sweet 381

381 Advice

Zhang Li Xue came out of her bedroom with Fang Su Jin helping to push her wheelchair. Her parents were already waiting for them in the living room. But the moment she entered, Zhang Li Xue's eyes fell on the tall man at the center of the room.

Sensing her appearance, Bai Qi turned around. When he saw the little fairy sitting in the wheelchair, his expression lit up.

He inhaled a deep breath, hoping that it could calm his chaotic heart. However, it does not seem to be working.

Zhang Li Xue looked very pretty.

Bai Qi was mesmerized. He found that he was unable to look away from this little fairy. At this time, everything around him seemed to fade away. The only person that he could see was her.

His gaze was too straightforward that it made Zhang Li Xue shy. She was aware that her family members were all around and they were watching this scene.

At the side, Fang Su Jin was watching the scene and a proud look appeared on her face. She had already known that Bai Qi was going to be mesmerized by Zhang Li Xue's good look. Fang Su Jin began to praise her makeup skills.

"Pretty Sister!"

The little girl's lively voice broke their gazes.

.....

Zhang Li Xue broke their gazes and turned to Bai Xi Xi who came to her side. A gentle smile curled on her lips. "Xi Xi, you're here."

Bai Xi Xi had a sheepish smile on her face. "Pretty Sister, you look especially pretty today."

"Thank you." Zhang Li Xue leaned over and kissed the little girl's cheek. "Xi Xi, you look very pretty as well."

Her words made Bai Xi Xi's smile turn wider. Noticing that there were a few people around, Bai Xi Xi quickly hide her face shyly. She was not used to the amount of attention.

"Xi Xi, are you going to accompany your brother to get the certificate?" Li Qin Yao asked as she looked at the little girl's pretty dress.

"Un." Bai Xi Xi nodded. "My brother said, I can come over and watch."

Bai Xi Xi was excited upon hearing that her brother was going to get a marriage certificate with her Pretty Sister. She could not stop worrying until she was sure that the two were married.

The little girl was worried that her brother might make her pretty sister run away before he could get her to marry him.

To ease her worry, her brother let her take a day off from school and accompany him.

Li Qin Yao looked at the little girl and heaved a helpless sigh. She could see that Bai Xi Xi was longing to have a family. Seeing the girl's excited face made her heart ache.

After a while, Li Qin Yao looked up again. She saw the look on her husband's face and quickly turned to Bai Xi Xi again. "Xi Xi, come with Auntie for a while. I baked some cookies earlier. Help me to pack some. Then, you can bring them while waiting for your brother."

Bai Xi Xi looked at her brother. Seeing him nod, she then agreed to follow Li Qin Yao to the kitchen.

Meanwhile, Zhang Yi Hai walked over to Fang Su Jin's side and whispered, "Sister Fang, come with me."

Zhang Yi Hai's sudden appearance beside her startled her. Fang Su Jin stared at the young man beside her with her eyes wide, wondering just what was he up to.

"Sister Fang, it seemed that my father had something to talk to my sister about," Zhang Yi Hai said. "Let's head over to the dining room first."

Hearing his explanation, Fang Su Jin swept her gaze around her surroundings before she understood what was going on. Seeing that Zhang Yi Hai had left, Fang Su Jin quickly followed.

The atmosphere in the living room turned quieter.

Bai Qi walked over to Zhang Li Xue's side and helped to push her wheelchair until they both arrived in front of her father.

Zhang Yu Han glanced at the young couple in front of him. Then, his gaze finally stopped on Bai Qi. "Come on. Sit down."

Bai Qi pushed Zhang Li Xue beside him and took a seat. The couple glanced at each other before turning to her father.

Zhang Yu Han looked at the couple for a long time. After a brief silence, he then spoke, "I don't have many things to say to you two. But since both of you chose to get married, you must promise me that you will treat each other with respect."

"Yes," Bai Qi spoke. He stretched his hand to hold Zhang Li Xue's hand into his.

The couple looked at each other again. Noticing Zhang Li Xue's misty eyes, Bai Qi began to pat her hands, hoping that she would calm down.

"In the future, the two of you might face some problems and probably have a fight. Whatever it is, the two of you must promise that you will discuss things and work on them," Zhang Yu Han spoke. "Getting together is not easy, but staying together is much more difficult. Therefore, the two of you have to work hard to stay together."

These words were the advice that his elders had given him when he married his wife. Now that his daughter is going to get her marriage certificate, Zhang Yu Han hoped that the couple would also listen to him and stay happy together until they both get old.

Zhang Yu Han gave the couple some advice. By the time he finished, his daughter was looking at him with her eyes and nose reddened.

A helpless sigh escaped him. Finally, Zhang Yu Han took out the family's registration in his pocket. He stood up and handed it over to her daughter. "Li Xue, Daddy hoped that you can be happy. Don't forget. Whatever it is, you will still have me and your family."

Zhang Li Xue could not help but laugh.

Was her father still giving them advice, or was he threatening Bai Qi with his words?

Once he was done saying what he wanted to say, Zhang Yu Han hugged his daughter tightly and spoke a few more words to her. Only then did he let her go.