

Love So Sweet 389

389 Husband?

When she finally composed herself, Zhang Li Xue realized that her face was buried in Bai Qi's chest. His scent filled her nose and Zhang Li Xue wrapped her arms around his body, hugging the man tightly.

Zhang Li Xue found that she liked the scent on Bai Qi.

There was a little bit of his cologne as well as the disinfectant from the hospital.

Thinking of the way Bai Qi had kissed her earlier made her feel giddy. Zhang Li Xue raised her head and stared at the man with her bright eyes.

Their gazes met and Bai Qi let out a chuckle. Then, he raised a hand and covered her eye with it. His wife's eyes were too adorable. If she continued to stare at him like that, perhaps he would not be able to restrain himself.

"What are you doing?" Zhang Li Xue laughed. "Why are you covering my eyes?"

"Don't look at me like that."

"Like what?" She tried to remove his hand away, but it seemed a little difficult. Bai Qi would not let her continue looking at him. "Bai Qi?" Zhang Li Xue called, hoping that he would give up. However, his hand was still covering her eyes. A thought came to her mind and a mischievous smile curled on her lips.

"Husband?"

Bai Qi felt as if his body has been electrocuted the moment he heard that word. He quickly released his hand from her eyes and saw that the woman was staring back at him with a mischievous glint in her eyes.

Zhang Li Xue seemed to be in deep thought. Then, she opened her mouth again and called, "Husband?" She tilted her head and smiled. "Do you like me to call you this way?"

Bai Qi laughed. How can he not like it when his wife called him 'husband'?

However, the combination of her bright eyes and that word create a tsunami in his heart. His breathing labored. Bai Qi had the urge to squeeze Zhang Li Xue tightly until she could not leave his side even for a second.

"Un." Bai Qi tried to swallow. "I like it." Then, his lips once again fell on Zhang Li Xue's into a kiss.

This time, the kiss was more domineering.

Zhang Li Xue felt as if the man was trying to swallow her whole. Although she does enjoy being kissed by him, Zhang Li Xue found that it was getting harder for her to catch up with him.

For a few seconds, Zhang Li Xue began to regret teasing him a little bit.

Just saying that word would get him to react this way.

Zhang Li Xue started to wonder what will happen if she put on the outfit that Fang Su Jin had given her earlier... As the thought came to her mind, Zhang Li Xue's face turned brighter red.

Suddenly, a loud knocking was heard on the door, causing them to stop whatever they were doing.

"Brother Bai Qi!" Bai Xi Xi's voice was heard on the other side. "Sister-in-law? Are you there?" She lowered her head and mumbled. "This is weird. Where did the two of them go?"

The couple looked at each other helplessly.

"Brother Bai Qi, I already packed up my belongings," Bai Xi Xi continued. She stared at the door and wondered if the two of them were asleep. "Will you help me check?"

Zhang Li Xue saw the look on Bai Qi's face and laughed. "You should go. It seemed that she was looking for you."

Bai Qi let out a long sigh. It was really hard for him to be alone with his wife.

"Or would you like me to go?"

"No. I'll go. It's inconvenient for you to move around." Bai Qi lowered his gaze and saw an exciting view. His body heated up again and he quickly looked away. "You stay here for a while. Don't go out."

Before she could ask him why he told her not to go out, Bai Qi had already helped her to sit on the bed and went out.

The smile on her face did not fade away even after Bai Qi had closed the door behind him. After a while, Zhang Li Xue lowered her gaze and saw that her dress was a little messed up. Moreover, there was a mark left on the top of her chest...

A loud gasp escaped her. Zhang Li Xue adjusted her dress until the mark was fully covered. Then, she grabbed her phone and looked at her reflection through the camera.

Her face was red and her lips were swollen. If she come out now, Bai Xi Xi would definitely ask her some questions that she did not want to answer.

Zhang Li Xue quickly tidied up her clothing.

Once she was done, Bai Qi finally returned to the room with a helpless look on his face.

He saw that Zhang Li Xue was now properly dressed and smiled.

"Xi Xi is already packed up," Bai Qi said. "She seemed very excited about moving."

Bai Qi could understand his little sister's mind. There would be a lot more people in Zhang's residence. Then, his sister would not feel alone with so many people around.

"Should I go and check on Xi Xi?" Zhang Li Xue spoke.

"No. I told her to go and watch the television for a while," Bai Qi said. He walked over to his wife and touched the tip of her nose. "My wife, how about staying around and helping me to pack up my stuff?"

Zhang Li Xue glanced at the time and nodded. "Alright."

They should pack up quickly and return to the residence to unpack. Then, in the evening, her family planned to get together again to celebrate her getting a marriage certificate with Bai Qi.

There were a lot of things to be done.

Zhang Li Xue hoped that she could spend her time with Bai Qi a little longer. But, tomorrow, Bai Qi will still need to go to the hospital and work.

Uncle Qi Zheng had helped them enough. She could not ask Bai Qi to get another day off to spend time with her. She could only wait until he was on his day off.
