

Love So Sweet 391

391 Everyone Made Their Escape

Half an hour later, Bai Qi was finally awakened from his sleep. The moment he opened his eyes, a little fairy was smiling at him.

For a few seconds, Bai Qi thought that he was dreaming.

Then, he watched as she leaned over and kissed the tip of his nose, and now, he finally believed that the little fairy in front of him was real.

Subconsciously, the corner of his lips tilted up to a smile.

“You only slept for half an hour,” Zhang Li Xue spoke. “Will that be enough?”

Bai Qi stretched his hand to touch her cheek. Then, he sat up before turning around to hug his wife in his arms. He really liked the feeling of being able to see and hug his little fairy the moment he opened his eyes.

It felt as if he will never get enough of her.

After a while, Bai Qi finally pulled away. He looked at the time and asked, “The others should be arriving soon, right?”

“Mhm...” Zhang Li Xue nodded. He lowered her gaze to look at his dress and spoke, “I want to get change.”

“Do you want me to help?”

Zhang Li Xue’s face turned a shade redder. She then shook her head. “It’s alright. I can move around myself. It’s not that difficult. Besides, I can’t always rely on you.”

Bai Qi pulled the wheelchair closer and watched as Zhang Li Xue moved to sit down on her own.

Although he wanted to help her to move around, Bai Qi realized that letting Zhang Li Xue move on her own would be beneficial for her. This way, she can move around freely without depending on others.

However, Bai Qi was still worried. His gaze was always on his wife. He was ready to dash over to her side the moment she called his name.

Seeing that Zhang Li Xue could move around without his help made him feel more at ease.

Zhang Li Xue wheeled the chair to the wardrobe and took out some clothes. Then, she turned to look at Bai Qi again. “Most of my clothes are on the right side. You can put yours on the left side.”

Her gaze then fell on the luggage that Bai Qi had bought with him. Then, she recalled helping him with packing up his stuff earlier. It seemed that Bai Qi did not own a lot of clothing.

Zhang Li Xue planned to ask Fang Su Jin out and go shopping for some clothes for Bai Qi.

As she was still in a daze, Bai Qi walked over and kissed the top of her head. "Go on quickly. Just call my name if you needed any help."

Zhang Li Xue nodded. Then, she turned to enter the bathroom.

...

In the evening, the Zhang family gathered around again. This time, it was to celebrate Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi's marriage.

Zhang Yu Ying arrived with her family and quickly went over to the kitchen to help the others prepare some dishes.

Meanwhile, the triplets dragged Bai Qi and Zhang Yi Hai to play basketball with them. The triplets had heard that Bai Qi was good at basketball and had defeated their uncle. This time, they wanted to experience playing with him as well.

Zhang Li Xue sat at the side of Bai Xi Xi while encouraging Bai Qi. Just as expected, the triplets lost the match against Bai Qi and Zhang Yi Hai.

They were disappointed that they had lost. But at the same time, they were admiring Bai Qi's basketball skills.

After a while, Zhang Yu Ying appeared and announced that dinner was ready.

Everyone sat together at the table to eat. The atmosphere was especially lively.

Bai Xi Xi watched this lively atmosphere with a happy look on her face. The little girl had been smiling too much that her eyes resembled a crescent moon. At the side, the elders continued to put more food into her bowl.

As they ate, the elders continued to give the newlyweds some marriage advice and blessings.

Zhang Li Xue glanced at her brother who was sitting across from her and thought that he was very quiet. Once in a while, he would look up when someone talked to him. Then, he lowered his gaze again.

Seeing this, Zhang Li Xue could not help but recalled the night she saw him practicing basketball by himself.

Last time, he already told her that he was alright. But now, Zhang Li Xue thought that her brother was hiding something. She thought about it and decided to speak to her brother again before he returned to Capital City.

After dinner, Zhang Yu Ying and her husband walked over to the newlyweds and gave them a red packet before they left with their sons.

It was the first day that the couple had gotten their marriage certificate. They understood that the newlyweds would want to spend their alone time together.

Seeing that Zhang Yu Ying and the others had left, the elders used their old age as an excuse to return to their room.

Bai Xi Xi waved everyone the good night before she followed Li Qin Yao to her room. She had skipped school for a day to accompany her brother to get his marriage certificate. Tomorrow, she still has to head over to the school.

Zhang Yu Han returned to his study as he was still busy with his company's matter. Meanwhile, Zhang Yi Hai returned to his room, using his assignment as his chance to escape.

In the end, Zhang Li Xue found that there was only her and Bai Qi in the living room. Everyone else had made their escape.

The couple exchanged a glance. Suddenly, Zhang Li Xue found that this situation was a little awkward. Heat rose to her face, turning her cheek a shade redder.

Zhang Li Xue could guess that her family members were allowing her to be alone with Bai Qi. It was their first day as a married couple. Suddenly, the garment that Fang Su Jin had given her earlier appeared in her mind.

"Let's go back to our room first."

Bai Qi's voice snapped her out of her trance. Zhang Li Xue tightened her grip around her armrest. Then, she nodded. Then, Bai Qi moved to push her wheelchair into their room.
