

Love So Sweet 418

418 What was She Thinking?

Zhang Yi Hai laughed happily. He felt that being praised by his girlfriend gave him a different feeling. His confidence was boosted and it felt as if he could do anything. He hasn't felt this way in such a long time.

Meanwhile, Fang Su Jin was still looking at the stuffed animals in her hand. She was still in a daze, thinking of how he had suddenly obtained two stuffed animals in her hand.

When Zhang Yi Hai bragged about catching the stuffed animal of her choice, Fang Su Jin thought that Zhang Yi Hai was only bragging. She did not think that he would really be able to catch the one she pointed at in just a couple of tries.

Fang Su Jin gave the stuffed animals a gentle squeeze. It was soft and fluffy just the way she had imagined it. Subconsciously, the corner of her lips tilted up to a smile.

Zhang Yi Hai was still secretly observing his girlfriend's face when he saw the smile on her face.

It was not the first time he had seen her smile, but Zhang Yi Hai thought that the smile on Fang Su Jin's face at this time was especially pretty.

His heart skipped a beat. Suddenly, Zhang Yi Hai was in a trance. He was unable to look away from her.

At this time, Zhang Yi Hai had the urge to lean over and kiss her lips... Her red lips looked very soft and inviting.

Fang Su Jin raised her head and saw the way Zhang Yi Hai was looking at her. Swiftly, she looked away, avoiding his gaze. "We already got the stuffed animals. I think it's time for me to return to the hotel first."

.....

Zhang Yi Hai lowered his gaze, feeling a little regretful that he was unable to look at her for a while longer. "Alright. Let me hold this for you." Without waiting for her reply, Zhang Yi Hai grabbed the alpaca in her hand.

While Fang Su Jin was still in a daze, Zhang Yi Hai held her hand tightly again. Their hands intertwined as he led her to the hotel.

As they walked across the street, Fang Su Jin held the fox tighter and stared at Zhang Yi Hai's broad shoulder. Although he had tried to walk slowly, his long legs still could make him walk fast.

In a short time, they arrived in front of the hotel. Zhang Yi Hai accompanied Fang Su Jin in and finally stopped in front of the elevator.

At this time, there were not a lot of people around.

Fang Su Jin held the fox tightly and spoke, "Zhang Yi Hai, thank you for today." She raised the fox in her hand and waved it around. "And for this too."

They did not do anything other than walk around and have their dinner while chatting about a lot of things.

However, Fang Su Jin still thought that this was enough to make her happy. Or perhaps, it was because she was spending her time with the person she liked.

Time seemed to pass by quickly when she was with him.

"I should go up now," Fang Su Jin said when she realized that Zhang Yi Hai has been holding her hand as if he never wanted to let go.

His brow tightened. "Un. Then, I'll come again and see you tomorrow?"

Fang Su Jin was surprised that Zhang Yi Hai was still planning to find her tomorrow. But then, she realized that the two of them would not be able to see each other that much once she returned to Y City.

"Alright." Fang Su Jin quickly agreed. "But, aren't you busy?"

"I can leave and accompany you for dinner."

Fang Su Jin felt a little better. "Then, I'll see you tomorrow." She pressed the fox to her chest. "You... remember to study well."

Zhang Yi Hai let out a helpless sigh.

Why does it feel as if he was listening to his mother's reminder?

Zhang Yi Hai stuffed the alpaca into Fang Su Jin's arms, wanting her to take it with her as well. However, a few seconds later, Zhang Yi Hai found the alpaca back in his hand.

"You don't want it?"

"I already have one." Fang Su Jin raised the fox in her hand. "Zhang Yi Hai, you have to help me look after the other one."

Zhang Yi Hai stared at the alpaca for a long time. The fur was soft, but holding it with him while walking on the street to return to his apartment did not seem like a good idea. The alpaca soft plush did not suit his image.

However, Fang Su Jin seemed as if she wanted him to have it very much. .after a brief hesitation, Zhang Yi Hai finally agreed. "Alright. This is good too. I can look at it when I miss you."

Fang Su Jin stared at him in disbelief.

It seemed that Zhang Yi Hai was good at saying words like this when she least expected them.

Her gaze shifted to the alpaca in his hand. The stuffed animal was caught by him. Why would he watch it when he misses her?

Subconsciously, Fang Su Jin's eyes shifted to the fox in her hand.

Then, should she look at this fox when she missed him as well?

Fang Su Jin inhaled sharply as the thought came to her mind.

What was she thinking?

"I better get going." Fang Su Jin wanted to turn around and escape before her mind started to wander around to the place it was not supposed to go. Just before she could press the elevator button, someone grabbed her arm, forcing her to turn around.

Suddenly, a pair of warm and moist lips were pressed against hers into a kiss. This kiss lasted for a brief second before Zhang Yi Hai pulled away again.

Her eyes widened as she stared at him in surprise. Fang Su Jin was unable to think straight.

Her lips felt as if they no longer belonged to her.

Why would Zhang Yi Hai suddenly kiss her?