

Love So Sweet 423

423 A Warning

Han Yue Xiu and her son showed up at the restaurant just before the waiter was serving the dishes.

When the mother and son appeared, Li Qin Yao introduced them to Fang Su Jin as Zhang Li Xue's best friend since kindergarten.

Han Yue Xiu gave Fang Su Jin a lookover and smiled. "Un. I know. The last time, Yi Hai sent an invitation to attend her solo exhibition."

Li Qin Yao looked at her son in surprise. "You did?"

Zhang Yi Hai put on a calm smile on his face. "Un. Sister asked me to come and support Sister Fang's exhibition. I thought about it and decided to send some invitation cards to my uncles and aunts."

Han Yue Xiu's little family lived in Capital City. Therefore, it was not strange for her to receive an invitation card from Zhang Yi Hai.

As she thought about it, Li Qin Yao decided not to think too much about this matter.

The group sat down and chatted happily as they ate.

Song Xiao Jun, Han Yue Xiu's son took a seat beside Zhang Yi Hai and greeted him quietly. "Brother Yi Hai, hello."

Earlier this morning, his mother was supposed to go out with her Aunt Li. However, something came up and their meeting was delayed. Song Xiao Jun heard that Zhang Yi Hai would be at the restaurant and decided to join the meal.

Zhang Yi Hai nodded. He introduced Fang Su Jin to the boy and motioned him to sit down next to her. Then, the two of them began to exchange a few words.

As they were both still studying in college, their topic of conversation revolved around that.

Song Xiao Jun picked up his chopsticks and began to eat his meal while listening to his mother's conversation when something about their conversation caught his interest.

A faint smile curled on his lips. Song Xiao Jun turned to Zhang Yi Hai, wanting to talk about it when he witnessed something he probably should not have.

At the side, Song Xiao Jin saw that Zhang Yi Hai was holding hands with that elder sister under the table. Because of the seating arrangement, Song Xiao Jun could see everything clearly.

The food he was trying to swallow was stuck in his mouth.

Song Xiao Jin raised his gaze and met Fang Su Jin's panicked eyes.

Then, Zhang Yi Hai turned and flashed him a smile.

Suddenly, Song Xiao Jun felt his body grow colder. His hair stood up. The smile on Zhang Yi Hai's face was too scary! Song Xiao Jun saw that the smile actually contained a warning for him not to speak a word.

This was the first time that he had seen such a smile on Zhang Yi Hai's face.

Song Xiao Jun thought about the situation and understood what was going on. Something was going on between Zhang Yi Hai and Fang Su Jin. However, their mothers did not know about them.

He inhaled a deep breath and continued to eat his meal, pretending that he did not see anything at all. Song Xiao Jun thought that this might be the longest meal he had attended to.

Seeing that his mother was about to leave, Song Xiao Jun could not help but let out a breath of relief. However, Song Xiao Jun did not expect that his mother would have another plan.

It was not easy for both Li Qin Yao and Han Yue Xiu to meet up after they were both married with children. Now that they were meeting, it seemed that there was a lot for them to talk about.

Initially, Han Yue Xiu planned to leave after the meal, but now, she could not bear to leave so fast. Therefore, when Li Qin Yao suggested they go shopping, Han Yue Xiu quickly agreed.

"Yi Hai, I'm heading to the mall with your Aunt Han. Are you coming with us?" Li Qin Yao asked as she turned to her son.

Zhang Yi Hai put on a smile. "Mom, it's alright. You can go with Aunt Han. It wouldn't be fun for me to follow you around." He glanced at Fang Su Jin and spoke, "You don't have to worry about Sister Fang. I will send her back to her hotel."

Seeing that her son was quite sensible made Li Qin Yao feel more at ease. Because her mind was preoccupied, Li Qin Yao had not noticed that her son was up to something else.

"Then, Su Jin, you should go with Yi Hai," Li Qin Yao said and smiled. "Su Jin, thank you for accompanying me today."

"Aunt Li, it's not a problem. After all, I get to enjoy a free meal," Fang Su Jin spoke politely. After spending her time having a meal with everyone, Fang Su Jin only had one thing on her mind. She wanted to leave quickly before Li Qin Yao would be able to figure out something...

Li Qin Yao heaved a sigh she took out her keys and handed them over to her son. "Yi Hai, take my car. Later, I will send someone to take the car back. Make sure to send Su Jin to her door. It's not safe for a girl like her to be on the street alone."

"Mom, thank you. Don't worry. I'll make sure to send Sister Fang to her door." Zhang Yi Hai held the car keys and lowered his head. A faint smile curled on his lips.

He finally would be able to spend time with his girlfriend and Zhang Yi Hai simply could not wait for it.

Han Yue Xiu turned to her son and spoke, "Xiao Jun, I'm going to follow your Auntie Li to shop around. Why don't you go with your brother Yi Hai? I'm not sure how long it will take for us to shop around."

Han Yue Xiu turned to Zhang Yi Hai. "Yi Hai, if you don't mind, could you drop Xiao Jun to his campus?"

Zhang Yi Hai shifted his gaze to Song Xiao Jun and smiled. "Sure. After all, his campus will be on my way back."

Song Xiao Jun was someone who did not like accompanying his mother shopping. However, at this time, he could not help but thought that it would be safer if he stayed around his mother than go with Zhang Yi Hai.

He wanted to reject this offer. However, he kept recalling the scary smile on Zhang Yi Hai's face and did not dare to say a word.

Seeing that his mother was looking at him, Song Xiao Jun had no other choice but to agree. "Alright."
