

Love So Sweet 440

440 Katedon

The waiter left after he had taken their orders.

Fang Su Jin raised her head to look at her parents who were sitting across from her. Then, she stole a glance at the young man beside her and heaved a sigh. The atmosphere was peaceful, but her mind and heart were not.

Fortunately, Zhang Yi Hai did not do anything crazy such as trying to hold her hand under the table just like how he had done the last time they had a meal with her mentor and cousin.

However, a few seconds later, there was this disappointed feeling that Zhang Yi Hai did not try to hold her hand. Was he not going to take this chance to coax her?

Fang Su Jin grew frustrated. She also could not understand just what is it that she wanted.

Although she had told herself that she should not be upset, her heart just would not listen. That stifling feeling was still there.

She was still... sulking.

Seeing that her father was beginning to talk to Zhang Yi Hai made Fang Su Jin feel more at ease. She sat around, pretending to be listening to their conversation for a while before she finally stood up.

"Su Jin?" Mother Fang was surprised when her daughter suddenly stood up. "Where are you going?"

.....

Fang Su Jin flashed a smile. "Mom, I'm going to the restroom for a bit."

Mother Fang heaved a helpless sigh. "Then, do you need me to accompany you?"

"There's no need," Fang Su Jin spoke quickly. "Mom, you accompany Dad and chat with Yi Hai. I will be back in a bit." She flashed her mother an assuring smile. "I'm already an adult. Don't worry too much."

"Alright. Then, you go quickly. Don't take too long."

"Un. I know." Fang Su Jin grabbed her bag and headed out. She just wanted a few minutes to calm down. Fang Su Jin thought that once she returned from her trip to the restroom, perhaps, she would no longer be that frustrated.

Zhang Yi Hai lowered his gaze, seeing that his girlfriend had left the room without sparing a glance at him. At this time, Zhang Yi Hai was sure that his girlfriend was angry about something that he had done.

Fang Su Jin always told him that she wanted to keep their relationship a secret until he graduated.

Zhang Yi Hai thought that Fang Su Jin was angry because he had shown up unannounced. Perhaps, Fang Su Jin was worried that her parents were going to find out about them.

But... he only wanted to see her and spend time with her.

Was he too greedy?

Zhang Yi Han inhaled a deep breath as he tried to figure out a way to coax his girlfriend. Fang Su Jin was going to leave for Y City tomorrow. He really did not want to part with her in a bad term...

...

Fang Su Jin splashed some water on her face and shivered as the cold water touched her skin.

However, the cold water did help her to calm down a little bit. At least, she was no longer as angry as she was at the beginning.

Now that she was calmer, Fang Su Jin began to see things clearly.

Thinking of her feelings from earlier made her feel embarrassed. Who would have thought that she would be that jealous?

Taking a deep breath, Fang Su Jin went to dry her face and hand. After touching up her face a little bit, she then gathered her belongings and headed out again.

Fang Su Jin had her head lowered as she walked. Just then, her eyes caught the sight of a pair of shoes in front of her. Her brow furrowed upon noticing that someone was blocking her path. She looked up, ready to scold this person until she saw the man's face.

Her eyes widened in surprise.

Fang Su Jin did not expect that Zhang Yi Hai would be blocking her path.

"You..." Fang Su Jin took a step back. "Zhang Yi Hai, why are you here?"

"I'm waiting for you."

Zhang Yi Hai stared at Fang Su Jin's face for a while and finally heaved in relief upon seeing that there was nothing wrong with her expression.

"Are you alright? Su Jin, are you still angry?"

Fang Su Jin's face turned a little red when Zhang Yi Hai pointed out that she was angry. She was finally able to calm down a few minutes ago, but now that he had brought this up again, Fang Su Jin wanted to get angry again.

"Who said that I am angry?"

Zhang Yi Hai looked at his girlfriend with her slightly puffed cheek. She won't admit it, but Zhang Yi Hai could see that she was still angry.

"Then, why do you ignore me earlier?"

Fang Su Jin pursed her lips as she heard his question. She did not want to tell him that she was jealous. That would be too embarrassing, right?

Taking a deep breath, Fang Su Jin then lowered her head and turned around. "Let's not talk about this right now. We should go back before my parents come to look for us."

Seeing that Fang Su Jin was about to run away made Zhang Yi Hai frown. He chased after her and caught up with her immediately.

Fang Su Jin was about to leave that area when something moved passed her. Suddenly, there was a loud slap on the wall. When she looked up again, Fang Su Jin saw Zhang Yi Hai's arms, stretching up in front of her, blocking her path.

Then, she raised her head up and saw that Zhang Yi Hai was looking at her intently. Because of their height difference, Zhang Yi Hai had to lower his head a little bit just so he could look at her face.

Fang Su Jin's mind went blank for a few seconds.

She blinked her eyes a few times as she tried to understand what happened.

Her heartbeat accelerated.

This... wasn't this that famous kabedon move? And Zhang Yi Hai actually pulled this move on her?
