

Love So Sweet 448

448 Video Call Request

The flight to Y City arrived in the evening. The moment the plane touched down and parked at the spot, Fang Su Jin had already texted Zhang Yi Hai of her arrival.

Zhang Yi Hai sent back a text, asking his girlfriend to tell him when she arrived at her house. He wanted to talk to her but he knew that Fang Su Jin was still with her family.

When the Fang family reached the arrival hall, the driver was already waiting to pick them up.

Fang Su Jin looked out the window and sighed.

This was the city that she was familiar with. But somehow, her heart was missing a certain someone. It has been only a few hours since they were separated, but she was already thinking about him.

Having a boyfriend indeed felt different.

Once they arrived home, Fang Su Jin went back to her room and slumped her body against the mattress.

Being in her own room felt very relaxing. Once she had relaxed a little bit, Fang Su Jin rolled off her bed and grabbed her phone. With a smile on her face, Fang Su Jin was about to send a text to Zhang Yi Hai that she had arrived home when she recalled the gift that he told her to open when she was at home.

Fang Su Jin jumped off her bed and went to find the package.

.....

She found the gift bag placed just beside her wardrobe.

Inside, there was a large box meant for Zhang Li Xue. Then, there was a smaller one for her.

Fang Su Jin grabbed the gift for her before she sat down on the mattress again.

The smile on her face widened as she look at the box. It was light and she could not guess what Zhang Yi Hai gave her. She tried to shake the box but could not hear anything coming from it.

Taking a deep breath, Fang Su Jin unwrapped the box carefully. Her heartbeat accelerated as she slowly lifted the lid.

A few seconds later, there was a puzzled look in her eyes.

She took out the piece of plastic and stared at the cute picture of a sleeping fox.

After looking at the gift for a long time, Fang Su Jin finally burst into laughter.

The thing that Zhang Yi Hai gave her was a phone case with her phone model. It was simple and cute. Fang Su Jin snapped a picture of the gift. Then, she took off the phone case that she has been using for a few years and replaced it with the one that Zhang Yi Hai had given her.

The smile on her face widened, noticing that the case fit her phone perfectly.

But... why was Zhang Yi Hai being so secretive about it? He even asked her to open the gift when she was finally at home.

As the young man's face appeared in her head, Fang Su Jin quickly sent Zhang Yi Hai a photo of the phone case that she had shot earlier.

A few seconds later, her phone began to ring.

Fang Su Jin was about to answer the phone call when she realized that it was not a phone call like she had expected.

Instead, Zhang Yi Hai was sending her a video call request.

Her mind went blank for a few seconds.

Fang Su Jin swept her gaze across her room. Her eyes widened in shock upon realizing the state of her room.

It was too late for her to tidy up everything now, right?

Fang Su Jin decided to move to the less messy side of her room. She sat on the couch and suddenly recalled something else.

What about her appearance? Just now, she has been rolling on the bed, right?

Fang Su Jin eyed her phone anxiously. However, this was not the time for her to answer the call. She could not let Zhang Yi Hai see her like this.

The call ended.

Her brow furrowed.

Fang Su Jin felt guilty that she did not answer Zhang Yi Hai's call quickly.

A few seconds later, a message came in.

"Are you busy?"

Fang Su Jin stared at Zhang Yi Hai's message and gritted her teeth. Then, she sent him a reply. "Give me five minutes."

Then, Fang Su Jin tossed her phone on the bed. She ran over to the dressing table and sucked in a deep breath. Fortunately, she did not hurriedly answer Zhang Yi Hai's phone call. Otherwise, her boyfriend was going to see her with her messy, bird's nest hair.

Now that they are together, of course, Fang Su Jin wanted to appear the best in front of her boyfriend.

Fang Su Jin combed her hair and pulled it into a ponytail. Then, she dabbed some powder on her face and applied some lip gloss.

Finally, she was satisfied with the way she looked.

At least, she looked presentable to appear in front of her boyfriend.

Another thought came to her mind. Fang Su Jin ran over to the door and locked it. It would be troublesome if her parents or anyone walk in while she was still on a video call with Zhang Yi Hai. Then, she would not know how to explain something.

Then, she sat on the couch again and held her phone tightly as she waited for Zhang Yi Hai to call her back. Just in time, her phone rang again.

Fang Su Jin took a deep breath as she answered the call.

Just like that, Zhang Yi Hai's face appeared on her screen. Because they were making a video call, Zhang Yi Hai's face appeared a little large on her screen.

Her heart was beating fast. At the same time, there was this indescribable feeling of loss when she saw his face.

Fang Su Jin realized that she was missing this young man a lot. "Zhang Yi Hai." Her voice was sweet and soft. Then, her lips turned up in a smile.

Zhang Yi Hai stared at his girlfriend and realized that she looked especially pretty. He realized that she must have touched up her face before he called her.

A chuckle escaped him as this thought came to his mind.