

Love So Sweet 468

468 Your Exclusive Hooligan

When Fang Su Jin came out of the bathroom, she could not help but notice the strange look on her boyfriend's face as he looked at the phone in his hand.

"What's going on?" Fang Su Jin asked as she wiped her hand dry with a towel. "Is everything alright?"

Zhang Yi Hai retracted his gaze from his phone and flashed a smile at his girlfriend. "Nothing. I was just texting my mom to tell her that I have safely arrived."

Fang Su Jin was anxious. "Your mother did not suspect anything, right?"

"Of course, not." Zhang Yi Hai flashed her an assuring smile.

His mother might not suspect anything, but he could not say the same thing about his sister. However, Zhang Yi Hai did not plan to tell his girlfriend anything. He did not want her to panic.

Moreover, his sister was thousands of miles away. Zhang Yi Hai did not think that they should be worried too much.

He stood up and walked over to his girlfriend. "Are you worried?"

Fang Su Jin shot a glance at her boyfriend. "Of course, I'm worried."

.....

She would still get scared when she remembered how his parents had shown up at the hotel and thought that the two of them were together.

Previously, it was a false alarm. This time, it was for real. Of course, she would get scared.

Moreover... recently, Fang Su Jin was worried that soon, Zhang Li Xue would find out about this news. Fang Su Jin could guess that her friend would be angry once she found out. It was not because she was dating her little brother, but because she was keeping this a secret.

Each time that Fang Su Jin thought about it, her heart would begin to waver.

She wondered if she should tell her best friend about this news. But at the same time, she was also shy. Especially because Zhang Li Xue had once teased her to call her 'sister-in-law'.

If her relationship with Zhang Yi Hai lasted for a long time, perhaps there would be a day when she really has to address Zhang Li Xue as her sister-in-law.

The thought made her shy again and Fang Su Jin's cheeks turned redder.

Zhang Yi Hai has been observing his girlfriend for a while. Noticing her expression, Zhang Yi Hai stretched his hand to pinch the girl's cheek.

"Su Jin, what are you thinking about?" His girlfriend's cheek was very soft and comfortable to pinch. Zhang Yi Hai was addicted to pinching this soft cheek.

"Nothing." Fang Su Jin quickly removed the man's hand from her cheek.

Just in time, the room service staff came over to deliver their meal.

Fang Su Jin ran over to the door and let the staff into her room. A breath of relief escaped her as she managed to escape Zhang Yi Hai's questions this time.

...

On the next day, Fang Su Jin and Zhang Yi Hai left the hotel after having breakfast together.

Then, Fang Su Jin planned to head to the exhibition center to take a look at the place while Zhang Yi Hai stayed at the hotel, waiting for her return.

Initially, Zhang Yi Hai wanted to accompany his girlfriend to the exhibition center. However, Fang Su Jin thought that she would need some time before she could reveal their relationship to her mentor.

Teacher Jiang and her parents were quite close.

Fang Su Jin was worried that once Teacher Jiang knew about their relationship, the man would accidentally mention Zhang Yi Hai to her parents.

Then, it would only bring her trouble, right?

It was better to keep this matter a secret for a while longer.

Moreover, they have agreed to wait and only speak about their relationship to others after Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi's wedding. It wasn't that long for them to wait.

Seeing that his girlfriend was reluctant to be seen with him, Zhang Yi Hai did not make things difficult for Fang Su Jin.

Zhang Yi Hai wrapped his arms around his girlfriend's waist and pulled her closer. Although he had agreed to wait for her at the hotel, Zhang Yi Hai was still worried that his girlfriend would run into trouble on the street.

Fang Su Jin laughed when she heard his concern. "Teacher Jiang would be here with me. What are you worried about?"

"My girlfriend is too pretty. What if you run into some hooligan?"

Her cheek turned redder. Although Fang Su Jin already knew that her boyfriend was good at speaking honeyed words, she could not deny that she liked hearing them.

Any girl would be happy when the person she liked was praising her.

Fang Su Jin gave her boyfriend a sideways glance. "Are you talking about yourself?"

Zhang Yi Hai chuckled. "Are you calling me a hooligan?" He could not resist pinching her cheek.

Fang Su Jin blinked and looked back at him with a pair of pitiful eyes. "I didn't say anything."

A soft sigh escaped him. Zhang Yi Hai was most afraid of seeing his girlfriend cry. Therefore, he did not have the heart to bully her further.

“Forget it. You can call me a hooligan. But Su Jin, I will only act like a hooligan when I am with you.” A fox-like smile appeared on his face. “I will be your exclusive hooligan.”

Fang Su Jin stared back at the young man in disbelief. After a few seconds, she finally burst into laughter.

What nonsense was this man saying?

What exclusive hooligan?

However, before Fang Su Jin could tease him with her choice of words, Zhang Yi Hai had already leaned over and caught her lips in a kiss.

Thinking that the two of them would only see each other after a few hours, Zhang Yi Hai could not help but kiss her a few minutes longer.

He only pulled away once Fang Su Jin was gasping for air.

His thumb rubbed against her lips. “Su Jin, tell me when you’re done with your inspection. Then, I’ll come to the exhibition center and pick you up, alright?” The corner of his lips tilted up. “Don’t refuse, alright?”