

Love So Sweet 474

474 You Did Not Cause Any Trouble

Teacher Jiang looked at the young man in front of him and nodded upon seeing that he came back without harm. He gave Zhang Yi Hai a pat on the shoulder and asked, "Are you alright?"

Zhang Yi Hai nodded. "Teacher Jiang, thank you for your help." He could guess that Teacher Jiang had done all he can to help him come out of the police station. But, with Teacher Jiang's identity, it was not easy for him to help.

After all, they were all foreigners in F Country.

Zhang Yi Hai was a little lucky that his uncle's wife was someone from F Country.

"It's good that you are alright." Teacher Jiang heaved a sigh. He turned around to take a bottle of drinking water. Then, he passed it over to the young man. "Have a drink first. Then, we can talk."

Hearing her mentor's words, Fang Su Jin then looked at Zhang Yi Hai inquiringly.

Earlier, Mika had made a fuss and swore that he would make things difficult for her and Zhang Yi Hai. Mika was furious that Zhang Yi Hai had punched him until he lost a tooth.

Zhang Yi Hai unscrewed the bottle and drank a few mouthfuls of water. Then, he looked up and started to explain how he was able to come out sooner.

Both Fang Su Jin and Teacher Jiang were surprised to hear that he had someone he knew in F Country.

Initially, Fang Su Jin and Teacher Jiang had expected that they might not be able to join the exhibition this time after offending Mika.

To their surprise, Zhang Yi Hai told them that the exhibition will go on as planned.

Moreover, it seemed that it was Mika who would be getting into trouble instead.

With the surveillance recording from the exhibition center, Mika would have to face the punishment for the crime he did. It was clear that Zhang Yi Hai only punched him when the man tried to act aggressively.

Teacher Jiang looked at Zhang Yi Hai and thought that his connection should be someone great. Otherwise, it would be hard to fight against someone like Mika.

He had tried to call the people he knew but everyone backed down when they heard Teacher Jiang mention Mika's name.

Fang Su Jin was mostly quiet as Zhang Yi Hai and Teacher Jiang were talking. Her eyes continued to stare at Zhang Yi Hai as if she was worried that the man would disappear the moment she looked away.

Her boyfriend had spent around eight hours at the police station, but Fang Su Jin felt as if it has been a long time.

What happened at the exhibition center just now was something that she will never forget.

She had never been so scared, but fortunately, Zhang Yi Hai was there just in time to help her.

Now that she thought about it, it seemed that Zhang Yi Hai would always be around whenever she got into this sort of trouble.

After they spoke for a while, Teacher Jiang realized that it was late and decided that it was time for him to go. He looked at the young couple in front of him and thought that they might need some time alone.

As he walked over to the door, Teacher Jiang turned to his student again and spoke. "Su Jin, remember to come to the exhibition center tomorrow."

The girl nodded obediently. "Teacher Jiang, I know."

Teacher Jiang glanced at Zhang Yi Hai and spoke, "You don't have to worry. I won't tell your parents about your relationship. I'm sure that they would prefer to hear about this through you." This was the kids' personal matters. He was not going to meddle in it.

Fang Su Jin flashed a smile. "Teacher Jiang, thank you."

After exchanging a few more words, Teacher Jiang then left for his hotel room on another floor.

The door closed and Fang Su Jin turned to look at her boyfriend again.

Suddenly, Zhang Yi Hai walked to her side and wrapped his arms around her body. Fang Su Jin leaned her head on the man's chest as she allowed herself to feel his warmth.

"Are you alright?" Zhang Yi Hai asked. "That person, he did not harm you after I left, right?"

"No." Fang Su Jin shook her head.

When Zhang Yi Hai was taken away, there were a few police officers around them. Mika was playing a victim. How would he dare to do anything while the police officers were still around?

"Zhang Yi Hai, I caused you a lot of trouble, didn't I?" She lowered her head, feeling sorry for what had happened.

"Don't say that, you did not cause me any trouble at all." Zhang Yi Hai leaned over to kiss the corner of her lips. "Su Jin, you are my girlfriend, of course, I should protect you. But... I didn't protect you properly."

Zhang Yi Hai thought that he should have handled the situation well and should never let Mika get them into trouble.

However, when he recalled the way that man had tried to touch his girlfriend again, Zhang Yi Hai could no longer hold his anger.

He sort of wished that he could throw him a few more punches so that he would never think of doing anything to other women.

Zhang Yi Hai thought that Mika was just too lucky.

"No. You have done more than enough." Fang Su Jin raised her head to look him in the eyes. "Zhang Yi Hai, I should be thanking you for what you have done for me."

A helpless smile curled on his lips. He could sense that Fang Su Jin was still rattled by the whole incident. He held her body tighter and hoped that it would give her some comfort.

The two of them were hugging each other in the room for a while.

Zhang Yi Hai glanced at the time and realized that it was already late. A thought came to his mind and he then pulled away to look at his girlfriend again. "Su Jin, let's just order some food first. I'm hungry."

In fact, Zhang Yi Hai did not have much appetite after what happened. However, he could guess that Fang Su Jin should have not eaten her dinner because she was worried about him.

He could not let her starve.
