

Love So Sweet 517

517 This is Not What You Have Promised

Zhang Yi Hai gritted his teeth as he pressed the send button.

He had imagined all sorts of things that his sister would ask him to give in order to get a few more photos of his girlfriend. He was even prepared to pay a certain amount of money to buy those photos. In the end, his sister only wanted him to send a voice message, saying that he was the best sister in the whole world.

Zhang Yi Hai did not expect that the request would be too childish.

He was not willing to do it.

However, thinking of seeing Fang Su Jin dressing up prettily in a wedding dress made him reluctant.

Even if he was not willing... Even if it was too embarrassing, Zhang Yi Hai could only send this voice recording.

A few minutes passed after Zhang Yi Hai sent the voice recording. However, he had not received the photo that his sister had promised to send.

Zhang Yi Hai was beginning to worry that perhaps, his sister had changed her mind.

Just as he was about to call his sister, the photo that his sister had promised finally arrived. Zhang Yi Hai clicked on the message and realized that his sister had tricked him. What his sister sent him was not the photo of his girlfriend, but a few wedding dresses on a mannequin.

The corner of his lips began to twitch.

He did not care about his sister's wedding dress. What he wanted to see was his girlfriend!

After a while, Zhang Yi Hai decided to call his sister. "Sister, why did you send me these photos? This is not what you have promised." Zhang Yi Hai spoke the moment the call was connected.

"Zhang Yi Hai, you better read the message carefully. I told you that I have several photos with me. Of course, I was referring to photos of my wedding dress."

Zhang Yi Hai tapped his finger on his screen and read the messages again.

His sister only said that she had a few photos with her. She never specify that it was Fang Su Jin's photos. It seemed that his sister was really playing tricks on him.

Zhang Yi Hai had the urge to beat someone, but he knew that he could not be angry at his sister. It was he who was too eager and misunderstood.

On the other line, Zhang Li Xue was laughing happily. "Zhang Yi Hai, why don't you help me to choose which dress would look good on me?"

Zhang Yi Hai was too lazy to speak to his sister.

“Alright, don’t be angry,” Zhang Li Xue spoke. “I’m sending that photo to give you encouragement. Study hard so that you can make Su Jin wear a wedding dress in the future.”

The look on Zhang Yi Hai’s face changed as he imagined seeing Fang Su Jin in a wedding dress. It made his heartbeat accelerate. This was also what he was planning to do.

From the beginning when he dated Fang Su Jin, Zhang Yi Hai has always been serious. This was also the reason why he has been working very hard. After being together with her, this desire of wanting to marry her quickly had only gone stronger.

“Sister, I know what I am doing,” Zhang Yi Hai spoke. “You don’t have to worry about me.”

Zhang Li Xue smiled. “Then, work hard.”

Fang Su Jin came out of the changing room again just as Zhang Li Xue had hung up the phone with her brother. Her steps halted upon noticing the strange smile on Zhang Li Xue’s friends. Her instinct was telling her that she should avoid this situation very soon.

That smile... Fang Su Jin knew well that her best friend was up to no good. It was also the kind of smile that Zhang Yi Hai would make whenever he was about to pull a trick. The siblings were too similar.

However, Zhang Li Xue noticed her presence before she could make an escape.

“Su Jin!” Zhang Li Xue waved her hands at her.

Fang Su Jin had no other choice but to walk over to her friend. “Li Xue, why do you look so happy?”

Zhang Li Xue giggled happily. “Come. Listen to this.” She pulled out her phone and played the video recording that Zhang Yi Hai sent to her earlier.

“Zhang Li Xue, you’re the best sister in the world.”

Fang Su Jin was startled when she heard her boyfriend’s words. Although the Zhang siblings were very close, it was also strange for Zhang Yi Hai to be saying something like this.

“My brother complimented me like this. How can I not be happy?”

“How did you threaten him?”

Zhang Li Xue laughed. “It’s a secret.”

The consultant walked over and showed Zhang Li Xue the dresses that she had looked at earlier. “Miss Zhang, can I put your name into the schedule in the next two days?”

“Alright.” Zhang Li Xue nodded. “I’ll think about the dress that I looked at earlier and make my decision soon.” Zhang Li Xue pointed at the two dresses that she had chosen. “I think I like these two the best. Help me to keep these two first.”

The consultant asked Zhang Li Xue a few more questions. Then, Zhang Li Xue pulled another catalog and showed it to the consultant. “Miss He, as for the maid of honor’s dresses, can you find a dress with this cutting?”

Just now, when Fang Su Jin was trying on a few dresses, Zhang Li Xue thought that the cutting looked the best on her friend.

“Su Jin, what do you think? Do you like this cutting?”

Fang Su Jin also thought that the cutting looked nice to her. Anyway, this would be Zhang Li Xue’s special day. Fang Su Jin did not mind much about the dress she would be wearing. But it was also not a surprise for Zhang Li Xue to understand her preferences well as they have been friends for a very long time.

The two friends spent a few hours looking at the dresses. Then, they went for a meal before Fang Su Jin sent Zhang Li Xue back to her parents’ house.

When she arrived home, Fang Su Jin went into her room and slumped her body on the mattress. She took out her phone and dialed a number. After a few rings, Zhang Yi Hai’s face appeared on the phone.

Noticing the way Zhang Yi Hai was looking at her made her blush. The person did not say anything but continued to stare at her. “You... why are you looking at me like that?”
