

Love So Sweet 523

523 Reluctant to Part

Meanwhile, Zhang Yi Hai and Fang Su Jin were visiting the printing company that his sister asked her to visit. After checking the invitation card, the two of them finally left together.

Zhang Yi Hai put the packaging in the back seat before turning to his girlfriend.

The smile on his face made Fang Su Jin think that her boyfriend was a little silly. "Why are you looking at me like that?"

"Where should we go next?" Zhang Yi Hai asked. "Now that we have picked up the invitation card, we don't have anything else to do, right?"

"Un. Your sister and I planned to visit the bridal store and the printing shop. Other than that, we did not have another plan."

Zhang Yi Hai put the keys into the ignition. "Are you hungry? Let's grab something for lunch. What do you want to eat?"

Fang Su Jin was reminded of the restaurant she liked to visit. "I heard that Garden Palace is quite good. But your sister is right. We shouldn't go to a place where someone might recognize us."

"What are you afraid of?" Zhang Yi Hai chuckled. "We could always say that we're going to eat after running an errand for my sister."

Fang Su Jin thought about his words and hesitated. It seemed that Zhang Yi Hai's words made sense. Anyway, it wasn't as if the two of them were never seen in public together before.

Because of her friendship with Zhang Li Xue, there were a few times when she would go out with the Zhang siblings. Before she got together with Zhang Yi Hai, the two of them had shared a meal quite a few times.

"No. Let's go to another place," Fang Su Jin said. "I suddenly wanted to go and eat seafood. The restaurant in B City is quite good as well."

Zhang Yi Hai raised a brow. "You don't want to be seen with me?"

"It's not that." Fang Su Jin stretched her hand to hold Zhang Yi Hai. "But it's not easy for us to see each other. I still want to walk around holding your hands."

There was an unexplainable warmth in his heart. Zhang Yi Hai was happy to hear his girlfriend's words. Going on a date and holding hands sounded very pleasing to him. "Alright. I'll listen to you." He leaned over to peck his girlfriend's cheek. Then, he turned around and drive away.

Zhang Yi Hai thought that kissing her cheek was not enough. However, it was really not suitable for him to do more other than this.

Suddenly, he was missing those few days they spent in his apartment.

He could hold Fang Su Jin closely and see her whenever he wanted.

The restaurant that Fang Su Jin mentioned was located nearby a river. The couple had their meals together and walked along the riverside for a while.

Fang Su Jin was concerned about her boyfriend's final exam and kept on asking about his preparation. Seeing her concern made him chuckle. His girlfriend was even more concerned about his study than his mother.

"You're going back to Capital City tomorrow?" Fang Su Jin asked. "When is your flight? Should I send you to the airport?"

"I have to go for a fitting in the afternoon." Zhang Yi Hai did not forget that he still have to make a suit for his sister's wedding. If it was not for this excuse, it would be hard for him to return to Y City. "My flight is in the evening. Even if you did not mention it, I will still be waiting for you to come to the airport to send me off. Su Jin, you have to come."

Previously, he had sent his girlfriend to the airport and watched her leave. This time, Zhang Yi Hai hoped that his girlfriend would do the same.

Before he would sit in the examination room for his final exams, Zhang Yi Hai hoped that he would be able to see his girlfriend again one more time. Otherwise, he would not be at ease.

"Then, what if your parents were there?" Fang Su Jin did not want to run into Zhang Yi Hai's parents yet. Although she knew that her relationship with Zhang Yi Hai would come out soon, she was not prepared for it to be exposed sooner.

"They won't be sending me off." Zhang Yi Hai smiled. "I already asked my sister and brother-in-law to send me to the airport."

The couple knew about their relationship and this way they could be together without worry. Even if someone would see them together, Zhang Yi Hai knew that his sister would help him.

After walking around for a bit, Zhang Yi Hai accompanied Fang Su Jin to the art store to buy some paints.

When they were together, they both lost track of time. It was Zhang Li Xue who had to remind them that Fang Su Jin will still need to head home before her parents would worry.

Zhang Yi Hai drove Fang Su Jin over to her house and heaved a sigh. He thought being together for a short period was not enough. Now that he have her by his side, he was even more reluctant to part with his girlfriend.

As the car pulled over in front of the house, Fang Su Jin started to feel anxious again.

Her father's vehicle was parked at his usual spot.

The last time Zhang Yi Hai sent her home, her father came out to meet Zhang Yi Hai and asked him to spend time with him a long chat.

When they were visiting F Country, Fang Su Jin could see that her father's fondness towards Zhang Yi Hai heightened up.

Fang Su Jin was worried that the moment her father saw Zhang Yi Hai again, he would definitely ask him to go inside and have a chat with him.

“Su Jin.”

The moment she turned around, Fang Su Jin’s lips were caught in a deep kiss. Initially, Fang Su Jin did not want to make trouble in front of her house. However, the moment his kiss fell, Fang Su Jin did not bear to pull away.

She did miss him a lot during the time they haven’t seen each other. Thinking that the kiss would encourage him to do well in his exam, Fang Su Jin moved to deepen their kisses.

In the end, the two of them parted with heavy breaths.

“I should go now.” Fang Su Jin continued to look out the window, hoping that her father would not make his appearance.

However, the more that she hoped her father would not appear, the more that her father would appear.

The front door was opened and her father stared at the vehicle for a long time.

Her heart was beating fast.

Fang Su Jin wondered if her father knew what she was doing with Zhang Yi Hai in the car.
