

Love So Sweet 546

546 Bad Intentions

Zhang Yi Hai pursed his lips, wondering just how was he supposed to explain to his father about this matter.

It would be alright if he was the one who told his father the news himself. But now that his father had to find out this news, Zhang Yi Hai was worried about how his father was going to react.

Now that his father knew about him and Fang Su Jin, Zhang Yi Hai figured that he could no longer hide his relationship.

Then, he started to wonder how would his girlfriend react if she found out that his father already knew about their relationship. Su Jin would be shy that their relationship was found out when his father saw a photo of them kissing.

“Zhang Yi Hai...” His father’s voice sounded stern. “Are you dating Fang Su Jin?”

Zhang Yi Hai looked up to meet his father’s gaze. “Yes.”

“She’s your sister’s friend.”

“I know.”

“She’s also a few years older than you.”

.....

“I’m aware of that. Dad...” Zhang Yi Hai sat up straight and looked at his father seriously. “I am not playing around. I’m very serious about Su Jin.”

Zhang Yu Han felt the corner of his lips twitched. He was used to hearing his son addressing Fang Su Jin as Sister Fang. Hearing him address her as Su Jin was a little strange.

“You’re very serious?”

“Dad, I won’t play around with someone’s feelings. The moment I approached Su Jin, I have always been serious about her. If it’s possible, I hope to be together with her for a very long, long time. Of course, Su Jin also knew about my intention.”

Zhang Yu Han looked at his son and thought that the little boy who liked to sneak into his office when he was young had now grown up.

“Are you against me dating my sister’s friend because of our age differences?” Zhang Yi Hai asked.

Zhang Yu Han frowned. “Of course, not.” He was not someone who minded minor matters such as this. He was sure that his wife too would have the same thought as him.

“Then, are you against us dating?” Zhang Yi Hai subconsciously tightened his hand into a fist as he waited for his father’s answer.

However, Zhang Yu Han did not answer, instead, he continued to stare at his son for a long time.

This was making Zhang Yi Hai anxious. For a second, he began to worry that his father would beat him up because of this.

“Did your sister know about this?” Zhang Yu Han asked.

“My sister knows about this. She found out about us not too long ago.”

“Who else knew about this?”

“It’s only my sister and Brother Bai Qi.” Zhang Yi Hai was not planning to tell his father about his Uncle Qi Ming Wei.

His father would not mind it if his sister knew about him dating Fang Su Jin.

However, if his father found out that his uncle was helping him to hide this matter, the person who would have to suffer would be his uncle.

Zhang Yi Hai did not want his uncle to get into any trouble.

Zhang Yu Han heaved a long sigh. He did not expect that his daughter already knew about this and the siblings were keeping this secret from him and his wife.

“What about Fang Su Jin’s parents?” Zhang Yu Han asked.

“We haven’t told them.”

“The last time we found you and Fang Su Jin at the hotel, you told us that the two of you are not in a relationship.” Zhang Yu Han’s expression turned dangerous as he recalled that incident.

It was a huge incident for him. Most of the staff knew his son and the news of him bringing a drunk woman to the hotel spread among the staff.

Zhang Yu Han would not tolerate it if his son was lying to him about that incident.

“We were not together that time,” Zhang Yi Hai said. “Dad, Su Jin and I only got together not too long ago. It was after my sister got her marriage certificate that we started to date.”

Zhang Yu Han decided to believe in his son’s words.

“I have a reason to keep this matter a secret from you and mom,” Zhang Yi Hai decided to explain. “Su Jin did not want to tell others that we were dating. She is worried that going out with me might affect my study. Therefore, she wanted to keep this low. Moreover, the two of us were still at the beginning of a relationship. We wanted to see if we would be able to get along well before we would tell others about it. She is worried that you and Mom would be unhappy that I started to date before completing my study.”

Zhang Yu Han stayed quiet as he listened to his son’s explanation.

“Dad, we are planning to tell everyone once my final result comes out and I agreed with her,” Zhang Yi Hai continued. He hesitated briefly before speaking again, “I hope that you can pretend that you did not know about this until we tell you ourselves.”

Zhang Yi Hai looked straight into his father’s eyes, hoping that he would help him in this matter.

Of course, Zhang Yu Han understood that his son was asking him to keep this secret from his wife. He did not like keeping such a secret from his wife, but...

Zhang Yu Han heaved another long sigh. "I won't tell your mother. This matter is something you have to tell her yourself."

His eyes lit up upon hearing his father's words. He was relieved to know that his father was not upset or against his relationship with Fang Su Jin.

Zhang Yu Han lowered his gaze to look at the packaging in his son's hand. "This packaging... this photo... what is this about?" He already knew that the sender of this package had bad intentions toward his son when he first saw the photos.

The young man's expression turned darker as he looked at the photo again. "Dad, you don't have to worry about this. Someone was unhappy with me and decided to send this to you. It won't happen again."

"I'm guessing that you should know who the person is?"

"I know."

"Whatever the reason is, you have to settle this matter yourself. Since you are dating Su Jin, then, you have to be responsible for your relationship. You should not let her get hurt because of you."
