

Love So Sweet 559

559 I Saw Them Together

Once Zhang Yu Han came out to join everyone else in the living room, Zhang Yi Hai had to explain to his mother how he got into a relationship with his sister's best friend.

Meanwhile, Zhang Yu Han sat beside his wife without making a comment. He already knew about the kids' relationship but had to pretend that he did not know anything about it.

Fang Su Jin raised her head to observe the elder's expression. Her heart was beating fast and loud as she waited to see how would Li Qin Yao reacted.

She could see that Li Qin Yao was shocked to hear that she was dating Zhang Yi Hai. This made her wonder if the elder woman would accept this news.

But after observing the situation for a while, Fang Su Jin realized that Li Qin Yao did not have many opinions about her and Zhang Yi Hai together.

Li Qin Yao was genuinely shocked to hear that her son was dating his sister's friend.

It seemed that no one had imagined that the two of them would get together.

"Mom, Dad, I am really serious about dating Su Jin. I am not playing around," Zhang Yi Hai said at the end of his speech.

Li Qin Yao glanced at Fang Su Jin again and saw the anxious look on her face. After a while, she finally flashed a smile. "Alright. As long as the two of you had considered this matter and were not playing around, I won't say anything."

.....

In this matter regarding feelings and affection, both Li Qin Yao and Zhang Yu Han agreed not to interfere with their children's choices.

As long as they both could meet a good person, they would be satisfied.

Of course, the qualification for their daughter's partner was even stricter. As the princess of the Zhang family, they hoped that their daughter would meet someone who would love and cherish her.

Fortunately, Zhang Li Xue met Bai Qi.

After living together for a few months, Li Qin Yao and Zhang Yu Han were very satisfied with their son-in-law. They could see how much the man pampered their daughter.

Even though Bai Qi was often busy with his work, the moment he was free, he would spend his time with his wife and little sister.

As for Fang Su Jin... Li Qin Yao and Zhang Yi Hai both watched her as she grew up with their daughter. Unlike their gangster-like daughter, Fang Su Jin was a bit soft.

Even so, Fang Su Jin was also someone who would not let others bully her.

Li Qin Yao thought about their childhood and recalled how it was Zhang Li Xue who would often teach Fang Su Jin to be a little braver to fight those who wanted to tease her.

Zhang Yi Hai glanced at his girlfriend and smiled. He hoped that his mother's words would make Fang Su Jin feel more at ease.

"Su Jin, you don't have to be so tense," Li Qin Yao continued. "This is not the first time that you have visited our home. Just act as usual. It's not as if we don't know each other."

"Un... I know." Fang Su Jin wanted to relax but found that her body was still stiff. She was still in disbelief that the Zhang couple was not against their relationship. Somehow, she had expected that one of them would act like her father.

"Alright." Li Qin Yao turned to her husband but did not find it strange how the man had not spoken too much. "Let's go to the dining room and have a meal. Knowing that Yi Hai was going to bring his girlfriend, I already asked Auntie to cook some special food."

Seeing that everyone had gone to the dining room, Zhang Li Xue went to look for Bai Xi Xi to invite her to eat together.

Bai Xi Xi arrived at the dining table and greeted Fang Su Jin.

When Li Qin Yao mentioned that Zhang Yi Hai was dating Fang Su Jin, she found out that the little girl did not seem surprised. Li Qin Yao observed the little girl for a while and spoke, "Xi Xi, did you already know that they were together?"

"Un." Bai Xi Xi nodded. "I saw them together the last time."

Li Qin Yao's eyes lit up. "Really? When did you see them together?"

"When my brother and sister-in-law took me to F Country. Sister Su Jin and Brother Yi Hai were also there," Bai Xi Xi spoke. Then, she seemed to realize that the atmosphere around her was a little strange.

However, she did not think that she had done anything wrong. Since everyone knew that the two of them were dating, it should be no problem to mention this matter, right?

Bai Xi Xi looked at Zhang Yi Hai and saw the man lowering his head with a strange look on his face.

Meanwhile, Li Qin Yao seemed to have realized something...

The last time Zhang Yi Hai went to F Country, he told her that he had a meeting with an investor. But it seemed that it was not the case.

Li Qin Yao looked at her son again and narrowed her eyes.

Zhang Yi Hai already predicted that he would be in trouble after Fang Su Jin leave later.

The family sat around the table and started to eat. As they were already familiar with each other, it did not take too long for the conversation to warm up.

Fang Su Jin felt more at ease upon noticing that the family's treatment was the same as usual. However, when Li Qin Yao started to ask questions about Zhang Yi Hai, Fang Su Jin's face turned red again.

Zhang Li Xue looked at the couple before shifting her gaze to her parents.

On this day, her Doctor Bai had to work and was unable to join the meal. Seeing the two couples displaying their affection before she made her jealous.

Zhang Li Xue also hoped that her husband would be around. However, at this time, she only has Bai Xi Xi to accompany her.

A faint sigh escaped her. Just then, a piece of chicken wing appeared in her bowl.

Zhang Li Xue turned around and saw Bai Xi Xi watching her with a bright smile on her face.

“Sister-in-law, your favorite chicken wings.”

Her heart warmed. At this time, Zhang Li Xue thought that having this little girl accompany her was not so bad either. Bai Qi might not be around, but his little sister was able to steal her heart away.