

Love So Sweet 565

565 Chaos Began

The girls arrived at the KTV around the same time as another group of boys.

Seeing that there were a group of pretty ladies, the boys tried to talk them into joining their room and singing together.

However, this proposal was quickly rejected by Zhang Li Xue.

A group of people singing together would mean that there would be a lot of drinking. As someone who did not drink alcohol, Zhang Li Xue did not want to be a part of this.

Therefore, the girls went into a separate room.

As they entered their private room, Zhuang Li started to sing a few love songs, saying that it would be her performance for her soon-to-be-married friend.

The atmosphere in the room was especially lively and soon, they took turns singing a few songs.

However, some troublemakers decided that it would be alright to force their way into the girls' private room, saying that they wanted to accompany them to sing.

This was the moment when Bai Qi called.

.....

On this day, Bai Qi was hanging out with He Rong and Zhang Yi Hai. Unlike the girls' fun days, the men were hanging out at the cafe to talk about some business.

He Rong found out that Zhang Yi Hai had established his company and the two of them started to discuss this.

Bai Qi suddenly missed his wife and decided to give her a call. But hearing the voices of other men in the background made him frown.

"Li Xue? Where are you?"

Zhang Li Xue frowned as she looked at the few men who were lounging around their private room. Fortunately, other than trying to talk to the girls, the boys did not do anything excessive. For now. But Zhang Li Xue was considering calling security.

"I'm at the KTV. The one nearby the hotel area. Zhuang Li and Xin Yi wanted to sing a few songs before we head back to the hotel," Zhang Li Xue said.

"Why is it very lively in there?"

Zhang Li Xue chuckled, knowing that a certain someone was unhappy. "Some people decided to crash into the room and join us. I'm thinking about calling security."

At this time, one of the boys walked over to Zhang Li Xue with a flirtatious smile on his face. "Miss, how about singing a duet with me instead? I heard your voice earlier. I think it should compliment my voice really well."

Zhang Li Xue sent a death stare to this boy, warning him to get away from her. However, this boy suddenly got courageous and tried to touch her. With a swift move, Zhang Li Xue managed to slap the man's hand away. "Bai Qi, Something happened. I'll call you again after this, alright?"

Bai Qi did not manage to say a word as his wife hung up the phone.

He stared at his phone and narrowed his eyes as he recalled what the random man was saying to his wife. Then, he walked over to the table again and looked at both He Rong and Zhang Yi Hai.

"We should go now," Bai Qi said. "Some people are disturbing the girls."

He Rong and Zhang Yi Hai's expressions changed very quickly. Then, the three of them left the cafe and headed to the KTV nearby the hotel where the girls were staying.

Fortunately, Bai Qi and the others were nearby. It did not take them too long to arrive at the KTV that Zhang Li Xue had mentioned earlier.

The three men walked into the premises and finally saw the girls and a group of young men around the lounge area.

Zhang Li Xue was shouting a few words at the boys while the staff was trying to calm them down.

An annoyed look appeared on the boy's face. He raised his hand and was about to take action when Zhang Li Xue threw a punch in his face.

She should have hit him quite hard as the boy staggered a few steps backward.

There was a brief silence before the chaos began.

Seeing the situation, the three men walked over to protect the girls.

Zhang Li Xue saw that her husband had arrived and the fierce look on her face a few seconds earlier had quickly disappeared. He pointed at the boys and spoke, "Hubby, they're trying to bully us."

Zhang Yi Hai who was a few steps behind Bai Qi watched this scene speechlessly.

What happened to that fierce woman who dared to punch someone in the face?

His sister was really good at acting!

As soon as her husband appeared, the gangster disappeared and his sister had turned into this weak person he did not recognize!

"What happened?" Bai Qi asked as he reached his wife's side. "Are you hurt?" He grabbed her hand to check whether she would be injured after punching someone.

Zhang Li Xue told her husband what happened that led them to this fight. Apparently, one of the boys started to harass Fang Su Jin, finding that she was the timidest and most obedient among the girls. To make it worst, this person tried to touch Fang Su Jin inappropriately.

As someone who has been protecting Fang Su Jin for a long time, Zhang Li Xue could not sit still and started to argue.

Fortunately, the staff came over quickly before the situation would accelerate. But this made the boys very unhappy.

Now that their happy atmosphere was disturbed, the girls planned to leave the KTV earlier and headed back to their hotel.

Who would have thought that the boys would be waiting for them at the lounge? This time, they brought a few more friends, wanting to argue with them.

Zhang Yi Hai heard that someone tried to bully his girlfriend and immediately became unhappy.

He walked over to Fang Su Jin's side and finally heaved a breath of relief, seeing that his girlfriend was without injury. "Are you alright?"

Fang Su Jin nodded. "I'm fine. Your sister stopped them before they could do anything."

Zhang Yi Hai turned to the boys before taking out his phone. "I'm calling the police."
