

Love So Sweet 601

601 Pampering Their Wives

Zhang Li Xue could not help but notice that Bai Xi Xi has been in quite a good mood.

The little girl was holding the container full of seashells with a bright smile on her face. It could be seen that the little girl liked the new friend she made.

Seeing this, Zhang Li Xue caught Bai Xi Xi in her arms and hugged her tightly, causing the little girl to giggle happily. Her white teeth were showing.

'Xi Xi, are you happy?'

Bai Xi Xi nodded enthusiastically. "Un. I'm very happy."

"Did you make a new friend earlier?" Zhang Li Xue asked. "I saw the girl helping you to collect some seashells. What is her name?"

"Sister Lu Jiao is a year older than me," Bai Xi Xi said. "She said that her family came to this hotel for a vacation too. However, her family was planning to head home tomorrow morning." Bai Xi Xi raised the container in her hand. "Sister-in-law, we collected a lot of seashells. Don't you think that it's pretty?"

Zhang Li Xue stayed with Bai Xi Xi and chatted with her about her new friend.

Although they only met briefly, they chatted a lot about a lot of things. Lu Jiao knew that she was the eldest and decided to give Bai Xi Xi a few tips to excel at school. The two of them became friends just like that. However, they both knew that they won't be able to meet each other again.

.....

From where she was seated, Zhang Li Xue could see Lu Jiao and her parents walking together happily. Coincidentally, Mother Lu looked up and met Zhang Li Xue's gaze. The two of them exchanged a polite nod before the Lu family walked away to return to the hotel.

Zhang Li Xue and the others hung around the beach for a long time. Seeing that the sky would turn darker soon, the group finally decided to return to their hotel room.

In the morning, they agreed to have dinner with Mo Qing Huan and He Rong.

Mo Qing Huan planned to take them to her family's villa where her grandparents were staying.

Earlier, they had caught some fish and Mo Qing Huan thought that it would be best to let the cook at her grandparent's villa prepare the fish.

Since there was a group of them, it was decided for them to have a barbecue around the family's compound.

The Mo family villa was beside the beach. Having a barbecue party at night by the beach should be quite interesting.

Zhang Li Xue and the others waited in the hotel's lobby for a while before He Rong came to pick them up in a luxury MPV belonging to Mo Qing Huan's grandfather. Then, He Rong drove them back to the villa where Mo Qing Huan was waiting for them.

When they arrived at the villa, Mo Qing Huan was already waiting for them.

The Mo family and the Zhang family were friends.

There were many times that they helped each other whenever one of them encountered a troublesome situation.

Because of that Zhang Li Xue and the others decided to greet Mo Qing Huan's grandparents with the small gift that her parents had prepared earlier.

Li Qin Yao heard that Zhang Li Xue and the others were going to visit Z Town to play with Mo Qing Huan and decided to pack a little something to give to the elderly.

After exchanging a few words, Mo Qing Huan took them to the back where the helpers had already set up the barbecue party.

The grill was turned on and the fairy lights were brightening the area. The sound of the waves and the gentle wind was very relaxing.

The boys quickly took the role to grill some seafood on the griller.

Bai Xi Xi heard that the fish they grilled were the ones that they caught early in the morning. She looked at the griller and saw that the big fish she caught earlier was already laying on the griller without moving.

She thought that the fish was quite pitiful. However, its flesh was very delicious and fresh. In the end, Bai Xi Xi could not help but to eat a few more bites.

The group continued to chat happily as they gathered around the place.

He Rong knew that his wife liked crab very much. As he sat there to chat with Bai Qi and Zhang Yi Hai about his business, He Rong did not forget to help his wife to peel the crab for her.

In the end, he went back to his wife's side with a plate of crab flesh.

Mo Qing Huan would only need a slice of bread to eat the crab with the sauce that the cook had prepared earlier.

Meanwhile, Bai Qi was busy grilling some chicken wings for his wife and little sister.

Zhang Yi Hai saw that the two men were busy pampering their wives and thought that he should not stay idle as well. In the end, he went to Fang Su Jin's side with a plate of peeled prawns.

Fang Su Jin received a plate of prawns and vegetables with a puzzled look on her face. "Zhang Yi Hai, what are you doing?"

“Didn’t you like prawns?” Zhang Yi Hai asked. He leaned over and whispered. “I peeled them myself. Su Jin, you have to eat them well.” He knew that Fang Su Jin liked vegetables. However, he thought that putting a bit of vegetables on her plate did not seem like hard work.

Fang Su Jin had a shy smile on her face. She took a bite of the prawn before feeding Zhang Yi Hai a piece. After a while, Fang Su Jin finally realized that both Zhang Li Xue and He Rong were eating the food that their husbands had prepared.

Seeing this made Fang Su Jin laugh. How can she not understand what her boyfriend was thinking? The man was someone who liked to show off his affection. Therefore, he was not willing to lose out to the others.

Still, the plate of peeled prawns made her happy and Fang Su Jin could not help but to eat a little more.
